LATE TELEGRAMS.

THE STRIKE AT EAST. SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—This morning at 9:15 the first intimation that the telegraphers' strike had taken place all over the United States was received at the Western Union office by the arrival of a dispatch from New York. More of the Strike.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—Communications are maintained with the East via Ogden. The force at that point was further increased during the day. There is a full force in the San Francisco office. The Superintendent is in receipt of advice that the company is perfectly competent to deal with the present difficulties.

And Still the Strike.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The announcement that the telegraph operators had left their desks in a body had no effect on share operations, the market being already well advanced. Western Union has sold up from 77 1/2 to 78 1/2.

Strike, Strike, Strike.

CINCINNATI, July 19.—Telegraphers strike in the main office of the Western Union Company occurred at 11:30 A. M. At that hour the local chief of the Brotherhood gave with a great three rings on a stick. The signal was obeyed by all the members of the Brotherhood rising and going immediately out. There was no confusion and no excitement. Only about half a dozen of the working force remain at their desks.

Dan and the Duke.

(Main County Town.) Last Wednesday Dan Taylor dropped into Pete Chaney's shaving parlors to have his face operated on. Strangely enough the artist was not on hand. Mr. Taylor, therefore, left his coat, hat, and sawdust and began to read a paper.

Presently a duke entered and, judging from Mr. Taylor's semi-dressable and indifferent air that he was the best of his kind, he stepped up to the counter and inquired for the barber. Mr. Taylor, who was about to explain matters, but suddenly the duke struck him that he might kill him probably by carrying out the job. The Milkman Jumped at the Concession.

(New York Daily.) "I can't understand why my milk was such a customer," remarked a milkman in a grocery store to the crowd who stood around barrels and boxes.

FOR CANNING, E. GERMAIN'S

240 N. MAIN STREET, Los Angeles, Cal. The air in London is never so pure as after 10 o'clock at night. An immense amount of fresh air is required for healthy respiration. The average respiration of a man is estimated at 24 cubic inches, and the average number of respirations during a minute is 20. Therefore, 480 cubic feet of air pass through the lungs of an ordinary man in 24 hours. And yet, knowing this fact, we shut up our house and go to sleep without a thought for the supply of the life-giving oxygen, as necessary for the well-being of the delicate tissues of the lungs as food is for the renewal of the tissues of the body. It is had to buy pure air as we do precious stones, we should soon appreciate its worth. Because it is as "free as air" we are unwilling to take the pains and care to regulate our windows for its judicious supply, and carelessly breathe a tainted atmosphere, which brings disease and a thousand ills that flesh is heir to as a penalty for the transgression of physical laws.
