

TRIBUTES TO WOMEN.

From the Poets, Preachers and Sages of Many Lands. Confucius—Woman is the masterpiece. Herder—Woman is the crown of creation. Richter—No man can live piously without a wife. Voltaire—Women teach us repose, civility and dignity. Lessing—Nature meant to make woman its masterpiece. Ruskin—Shakespeare has no heroes—his are only heroines. Whittier—If woman lost us Eden, such as she alone restores it. John Quincy Adams—All that I am, my mother made me. Gladstone—Woman is the most perfect being in the most womanly. Cabanis—In wishing to extend her empire, woman destroys it. E. S. Barrett—Woman is last at the cross and earliest at the grave. Bouché—I wish Adam had died with all his ribs in his body. Saadi—A handsome woman is a jewel; a good woman is a treasure. Lamartine—There is a woman at the beginning of all great things. Bulwer—To a gentleman, every woman is a lady in right of her sex. Victor Hugo—Women detect the serpent through a professional jealousy. Cowley—What is a woman? Only one of nature's agreeable blunders. Rochefoucauld—A fashionable woman is always in love with herself. Shakespeare—There was never a fair woman but she months in a glass. Francis I.—A passionate woman's love is always overshadowed by her fear. Heine—Handsome women without religion are like flowers without perfume. Cervantes—Between a woman's Yes and No I would not venture to stick a pin. Voltaire—All the reasonings of men are not worth one sentiment of a woman. Beecher—Women are a new race, created since the world received Christianity. Leopold Schefer—But one thing on earth is better than the wife—that is the mother. Luther—Earth has nothing more tender than a woman's heart when it is the abode of pity. Shakespeare—For where is any author in the world teaches such beauty as a woman's eyes. Metastaseo—Woman is the Sunday of man; not his repose only, but his joy, the salt of his life. Margaret Fuller Ossoli—Woman is born for love, and it is impossible to turn her from seeking it. Louis Desmoulin—Woman may be ugly, ill-shaped, wicked, ignorant, silly and stupid, but hardly ever ridiculous. Lord Lonsdale—If the whole world were put into one scale and my mother into the other, the world would kick the beam. Malherbe—There are only two beautiful things in the world—women and roses; and only two sweet things—women and melons. Bulwer-Lytton—O woman! in ordinary cares so mere a mortal, how in the great and rare events of life dost thou swell into the angels. Aristotle—Women have more strength in their looks than we have in our laws, and more power by their tears than we have by our arguments. Emerson—A beautiful woman is a practical poet; taming her savage mate, planting tenderness, hope and eloquence in all whom she approaches. Anna Cora Mowatt—Misfortune sprinkles ashes on the heart of the man, but falls like dew on the head of the woman and brings forth germs of strength of which she herself has no conscious possession. Thackeray—Almost all women will give a sympathetic hearing to men who are in love. Be they ever so old, they grow young again in that conversation, and renew their own early time. Men are not quite so generous.

Heart Disease. Read the hospital reports, read the mortality reports, read the medical publications, read the daily newspapers, and learn how widespread is heart disease, how difficult of detection it is to most people, how many and how woman are the victims. Then read Dr. Flint's Treatise on Heart Disease, and learn what it is, what causes it, what diseases it gives rise to, what its symptoms are, and how it may be attacked. If you find that you have heart disease, ask your druggist for a bottle of Dr. Flint's Heart Remedy. The treatise may be had on application to J. J. MAOK & CO., Nos. 9 and 11 Front street, S. F.

Smallpox. "A member of my family was taken down with smallpox. I immediately commenced the use of Dr. Flint's Heart Remedy. The patient was greatly relieved, and never for a moment delirious; was not pitted, and was about the house again in three weeks, and no others had it." James W. Parkinson, Ed. "The Caterer," Philadelphia.

THE BEST

Hair restorative in the world is HALL'S HAIR RESTORE. It cures all diseases of the scalp, and stimulates the hair to beautiful action. It stops the falling of the hair; prevents its turning gray; cures baldness, and restores youthful color and freshness of appearance to heads already white with age. The following are a few illustrations of what is done by HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RESTORE: Mrs. HUNTER, 344 Franklin Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., after a severe attack of erysipelas in the head, found her hair—already falling out—coming again, and growing quite bald. One bottle of HALL'S HAIR RESTORE brought it back as soft, brown and thick as when she was a girl. Mr. KESLING, an old farmer, near Worcester, Ind., had severely dry hair, and with little there was of it had become nearly white. One bottle of HALL'S HAIR RESTORE stopped its falling out, and gave him a thick, luxuriant growth of hair, and his hair has been restored to its natural, youthful color. Mrs. A. T. WALL, Greenfield, Ohio, writes: "I have found the greatest benefit from the use of HALL'S HAIR RESTORE, having restored my hair, which was rapidly falling out, and returned its original color." Dr. EMIL SEIP, Detroit, Mich., certifies that HALL'S HAIR RESTORE is excellent for hair growing, and gives back the natural color to faded and gray hair. Mrs. S. E. ELLIOTT, Cleveland, W. Va., writes: "One bottle of HALL'S HAIR RESTORE restored my hair to its natural, youthful color." No injurious substances enter into the composition of HALL'S HAIR RESTORE, and it is not a dye. Its vegetable ingredients render it in the highest degree beneficial to the scalp as a preventive of disease. Its effects are natural and lasting, and it does not make the hair dry and brittle, like the so-called restoratives compounded with alcohol.

Buckingham's Dye FOR THE WHISKERS

Is, in four respects, superior to all others. 1st—It will produce a rich, natural color, brown or black, as desired. 2nd—The color so produced is permanent, cannot be washed off, and will not soil anything with which it comes in contact. 3rd—It is a single preparation, and more convenient of application than any other hair or whisker dye. 4th—It contains no deleterious ingredients, as do many preparations offered for like use. PREPARED BY R. P. HALL & CO., Nashua, N. H. Sold by all Dealers in Medicines.
