

PACIFIC COAST.

Favorable Report Respecting the Governor.

PROSPECTS FOR A RALLY.

Collector Hager to Pay $3000 Damages for Illegally Seizing Bonded Opium

Associated Press Dispatches to the Herald.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 26.—Governor Bartlett passed a rather restless night. The abscess on the kidney alarms his physicians, as it is now likely to burst at any time.

IN THE MORNING. The Governor awoke this morning with a headache, and took a late breakfast of egg and milk.

AFTERNOON BULLETIN. Governor Bartlett's condition is not so favorable. Late this afternoon he became very restless and excitable.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

MORNING.—NO MATERIAL CHANGE. August 27, 1:35 A. M.—News from the Governor's bedside is extremely meagre.

At the office of the Alaska Commercial Company, Louis Sloss stated that the company had received no authenticated report.

At 2:50 A. M.—GOOD NEWS. No official bulletin was issued at 2 A. M. as was expected.

COLLECTOR HAGER.

His Policy Condemned by Judge Sabin.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 26.—Judge Sabin this afternoon gave judgment for $3000 against Collector Hager and in favor of E. W. McLean.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND.

An Effort to Induce Him to Visit the Pacific Coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 26.—A committee of citizens appointed by Mayor Pond met this afternoon and decided to send an invitation to President Cleveland to visit the Pacific Coast.

THE TONTO TRAGEDY.

Another Victim—The Tewksburys to be Arrested.

PRESCOTT, A. T., August 26.—Runners of another fight in the Tonto basin have been confirmed by a letter received to-day.

A DEPLORABLE DEATH.

Sad End of the Pioneer Resident of Bisbee, A. T.

TOMBSTONE, August 26.—Deputy Sheriff Simons reports finding the dead body of a man named Nicholson McCormick, near Bisbee this morning.

THE NEVADA BANK.

Important Changes in its Management Pending.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 26.—A published statement was made here that rumors were current on the streets yesterday that there would be a change in the Nevada Bank.

A Farmer's Loss.

STOCKTON, August 26.—A fire on the ranch of Pat Heath near Peters, in this county, this morning destroyed two stacks of grain.

REAL ESTATE.

The Boom Palpably Affecting Our Northern Neighbors.

SALINAS, August 26.—Seven thousand six hundred and sixty-five acres of the Gabalan ranch, belonging to Mr. Lynn, was bonded to-day to a syndicate of California and foreign capitalists for $240,000.

SACRAMENTO'S SALES. SACRAMENTO, August 26.—To-day's transactions aggregate about $400,000. Sutterville was sold yesterday for $14,000.

OROVILLE'S STORY. OROVILLE, August 26.—The sales for the day are in the neighborhood of $100,000.

NAPA NOTES. NAPA, August 26.—In the past three days the sales of real estate amounts to over $400,000.

LIVERMORE'S TRANSACTIONS. LIVERMORE, August 26.—Wednesday's sales were over $100,000, yesterday's fully $75,000 and to-day as much more.

HOLLISTER'S TRANSFERS. HOLLISTER, August 26.—The sales aggregate $100,000.

AT IT AGAIN. SAN JOSE, August 26.—The real estate sales to-day will reach $1,450,000.

SEIZED SEALERS.

Two More Boats Said to Have Been Captured.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 26.—The report has reached San Francisco, but is not confirmed, that since August 9th the cutter Rush has seized the American schooners Helen Blum and City of San Diego in the Behring Sea.

THE "HELEN BLUM." The "Helen Blum" is one of the finest private sealers fitted out in this port.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

AT 8 P. M. his condition is still unfavorable; he has symptoms of terrible irritation, usually observed after an apoplectic attack.

EASTERN NEWS.

Opening of the Campaign Against Colorow.

BLOODY BATTLE NEAR MEEKER

Grand Army Veterans Openly Display Their Animus Against Cleveland.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Herald.

DENVER, August 26.—A telegram received here this afternoon from Meeker denies the report of yesterday that Colorow is surrounded by militia and desires peace.

HE WANTS A "BIG FIGHT." Colorow yesterday said that he did not want "little fight," but he did want "big fight," and would have it if the troops were not called back.

CHASED THIRTY MILES. Up Piceance creek by Indians, until darkness permitted his escape. The Indians fired at him repeatedly while chasing, and Captain Lawson returned the fire twice while running.

MOMENTOUS MOMENTS. If a fight be avoided until the arrival of Governor Adams it may be amicably settled, but if the militia and Indians clash before his arrival it is the opinion of settlers that the war will last for months.

SOME IMPORTANT MISSTIVES. WASHINGTON, August 26.—The following correspondence relative to the Indian trouble in Colorado has taken place:

DENVER, August 25.—To H. L. Muldrow Acting Secretary of the Interior. Colorow has signified his desire to have a conference and I go to Garfield County for that purpose to-night.

THE REQUESTS COMPLIED WITH. WASHINGTON, August 26.—To Hon. Alva Adams, Governor. Directions will be immediately given to agent Byrnes and General Crook to meet and confer with you in reference to Colorow's peaceable return to the reservation, upon the belief that your dispatch indicates the adoption of such line of action.

H. L. MULDRROW, Acting Secretary.

LATEST—THE FEARS REALIZED. DENVER, August 26.—A Republican's Glenwood Springs special says: Bernstein, who lives about four miles below Meeker is just in. A battle has taken place between Kendall's men and a band of Indians.

VETERANS' VINDICTIVENESS. An Insult Offered to President Cleveland.

WHEELING, W. Va., August 26.—The members of the Grand Army who participated in the demonstrations to-day refused to pass under the portrait of President Cleveland suspended from the Register office.

PROHIBITION. State Convention at Syracuse—The Platform.

SYRACUSE, August 26.—About two thousand delegates of the State Prohibition Convention are in attendance.

NOMINATIONS. The following officers were nominated: For Secretary of State, D. W. C. Huntington; Comptroller, C. B. Hitchcock; Attorney-General, S. W. Mason; Treasurer, W. W. Smith.

THE PLATFORM. A platform was adopted declaring against license and in favor of woman's suffrage.

INDIGENT INDIANS. An Effort to Make Them Support Themselves.

ST. PAUL, Minn., August 26.—Senators Dawes and Morgan of the Senate special committee on the allotment of land in severity to Indians, arrived to-day on their way to the White Earth reservation.

Restored to Settlement. WASHINGTON, August 26.—The Acting Land Commissioner took to-day the necessary steps to carry out Secretary Lamar's recent order directing the restoration to settlement and entry of the unimproved indemnity sections of the California and Oregon Railroad Company.

Strongly Suspected. DENVER, August 26.—Mrs. John A. Witter, who has been on trial in the Justice Court during the past five weeks charged with poisoning her husband, was to-night held in $10,000 bail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

Ship Missing. BOSTON, August 26.—The owners of the fishing schooner Lydia T. Crowell have given her up for lost. She was in charge of Captain Moses and had a crew of fifteen men.

FAVORITE FLYERS.

Some Good Contents on the Turf Yesterday.

SANTA ROSA, August 26.—Three starters of a mile race, free to all—Starters: Grover Cleveland, Fusilade, Johnnie Gray. Cleveland won easily despite the fact that Gray collided with him when half way around, causing him to lose a plate from his fore foot.

He also won the second heat by four lengths, and the race. Trotting, 2:25 class, for $450—Starters: Woodnut, Joe Atherton, Longfellow. There was an even start.

In the home stretch a struggle for the lead took place between Woodnut and Atherton. The former gradually gained, coming under the wire half a length ahead, Longfellow six lengths in the rear. Time, 2:23 1/4.

Second heat—Woodnut won a length ahead of Atherton, Longfellow distanced. Time, 2:24.

Third heat—Woodnut broke badly a hundred feet from the wire, giving the heat to Longfellow by a neck; Atherton third. Time, 2:24 1/4.

Fourth heat—Woodnut won the heat and race. Time, 2:21 1/4. Longfellow second.

Pacing race, free for all, for $350—Starters J. C. Lee, Pocantah and Chapman. Lee won. Pocantah second, Chapman distanced. Time, 2:31. Chapman withdrawn.

Second heat—Lee won by a length. Time, 2:23 1/4.

Lee also took the third heat and the race.

To-morrow being Saturday and the last day it is expected that the attendance will be greatly increased.

THE DAY AT DIXON. DIXON, August 26.—The race of the day here was a trotting event, mile heats, best three in five. Starters—Snappragon, Eaf, Black Jack and Fannie. They got off straggling and Black Jack at once took the lead and held it to the last turn from home.

The contest was very exciting, when Black Jack broke when he and Snappragon were even near the wire and the latter won in 2:50, Fannie third.

Second heat—Snappragon led from the start, Black Jack second, Eaf third, Fannie fourth. Time, 2:52 1/2.

The third heat was a repetition of the second. Time, 2:51.

The next race was a dash of three-eighths of a mile. Starters: Roan Mary, Winters' Boy and Buckskin. Winters' Boy won in :40 1/2.

SARATOGA SUMMER RACES. SARATOGA, August 26.—Weather clear and cool; track fair.

First race—Three-quarters of a mile for two-year-olds. Mattie Looman won, King Crab second, Daniel A. third. Time, 1:19. Eleven starters.

Ons and one-eighth mile—Alaric won; Hypasia second, Trump third. Time, 2:02 1/4. Three starters.

Three-quarters of a mile—Little Minnie won; Swift second, Mamie Hunt third. Time, 1:17 1/4. Nine starters.

Three-quarters of a mile—Queen Bess second, Carissima third. Time, 1:17 1/4. Eight starters.

One mile and seventy yards selling—Orlando won; George L. second, Moonshine third. Time, 1:55. Four starters.

AT MONMOUTH PARK. MONMOUTH, August 26.—Rain, and track heavy.

Five-eighths of a mile—Belle Mitchell won; Lucky Howard second, Miss Harkaway third. Time, 1:06. Seven starters.

One mile—White Rose won; Lucky Johnson second, Ira E. Bride third. Time, 1:48. Three starters.

SPORT AT ALBANY. ALBANY, N. Y., August 26.—The attendance at the circuit races to-day was quite large.

Five-eighths class—Atlantic first, White Sox second, Ben Stark third. Time, 2:21 1/4.

Free for all, pacing—Gossip, Jr., first; Jennie Lind second, Little Mac and Joel L. ruled out. Time, 2:17.

Two-twenty class—Bell Ogle first, Gright second, Jennie Ballard third, others distanced. Time, 2:25.

Miss Myrtle Peck, in Roman the standing race against time, broke the record in 1:51 1/4. She also beat Miss Ada Lamont in the three-mile race in 6:28 1/2.

LUBRICATION LACKING. An Unfortunate Explosion in a Texas Powder House.

EL PASO, Tex., August 26.—This morning a powder explosion occurred at the Union powder works, seven miles from this city. A new machine for mixing ingredients was being turned by a boy. He failed to oil the machinery, and after three-quarters of an hour the turning friction caused heat sufficient to ignite sixty-one pounds of material in the machine. Doc. Smart was caught in the flame and frightfully burned. The boy escaped with slight burns.

ENGLISH ENTERPRISE. Iron and Steel Works to be Erected Up North.

NEW YORK, August 26.—The Commercial Bulletin says: The Moss Bay Iron and Steel Company works of England, manufacturers of Moss Bay pig iron, will duplicate their works in Washington Territory. The point selected for the location of the works is about 16 miles from the Northern Pacific railroad and about 45 miles from Seattle. The works will be reached from the Northern Pacific main line by a branch road.

In Despair. SIERRA CITY, August 26.—Geo. W. Cox & Co., well-known hydraulic miners who own rich and extensive placer diggings at Howland Flat, are closing up their business affairs, having lost all hope of ever again operating their mines by the hydraulic process.

Charged with Embezzlement. KANSAS CITY, August 26.—T. A. Werner, president, and C. H. Shepp, cashier, of the First National bank of Burlington, Kan., were arrested to-day on a charge of embezzling funds. The bank recently failed.

A Big Deficit. NEW YORK, August 26.—Experts who have examined the books of the W. O. Tyler Paper Company report the liabilities $420,000; assets, $160,000, leaving a deficit of $260,000.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Important Debate On the League Proclamation.

GLADSTONE'S MOTION DENIED.

The Czar of All The Russias Pays a Visit to Denmark—Yachting Horror.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Herald.

LONDON, August 26.—In an interview with a representative of the press, to-day, Gladstone, in reply to a question as to whether he expected to defeat the government to-night, said: "No, we don't expect to do that, but the fact that a year ago the government majority was 110, while now the most sanguine Conservatives only anticipate a majority of 60 on proclaiming the league, shows what."

A TREMENDOUS CHANGE Has come over the face of the country. The change is coming more rapidly than many people imagine, and, in fact, quite fast enough.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS TO-NIGHT. In the House of Commons to-night Sir George Trevelyan resumed the debate on Gladstone's motion for an address to the Queen praying for the nullification of the proclamation of the Irish League.

He contended that the House should have tabulated the statistics of crimes before taking action against the whole Irish people, and denies that the operations of the league increase crime or led to the non-payment of rents.

LET THE HOUSE UNDERSTAND. "Let the house understand," he continued, "that if the proclamation of the league is sanctioned every Irishman belonging to the league who will not leave it at the command of the government will be liable to punishment as a common criminal."

WHAT ARE THE CHARGES? In conclusion he said that Balfour had presented a series of alleged facts in justification of the government's action. These allegations they should have a chance to corroborate or refute before coming to a decision.

WEBSTER'S DISSERTATION. Sir R. E. Webster, Attorney-General, said that abundant evidence had been given as to the evil working of the league. "The government will not try the experiment of seeing whether the league meetings do or do not affect crimes."

ONE OR THE OTHER MUST GO. "Either the League or the Government will go down. The Government is supported by the consciousness that it is doing its duty."

HARTINGTON'S ADDRESS. Hartington said that he desired to say that the League would go on in its former way in spite of the proclamation.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

HE AGREED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Lord Hartington said that so far as the action of the Association was wholly political it could not be condemned, but if its action destroyed the liberty of the people and good government, it did not matter what its motives were, it were enough that its actions were hostile to law and order.

RUSSIA'S RULER.

He Arrives at Copenhagen—A Brilliant Reception.

COPENHAGEN, August 26.—The Czar and Carina and family arrived here to-day in the Russian imperial yacht. The trip from St. Petersburg was prolonged by fog. King Christian, King George of Greece and several members of the Danish royal family, went out to meet the visitors in a Danish royal yacht.