Notification Committee at Rhinebeck.

ONLOOKING MORTON'S MILLIONS.

Estee and the Gang Royally Entertained—Miscellaneous News Items.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Herald.

NEW YORK, July 7.—The members of the committee to officially notify Levi P. Morton of his nomination for the Vice-Presidency were astir early this morning. Judge M. M. Estee, of California, Chairman of the Committee, was receiving visitors in the parlor of the Murray Hill Hotel at 9 o'clock. Secretary Dougherty worked most of the night and looked wearied this morning. He went to the Grand Central depot at 9 o'clock, and when he returned to the committee's parlor he found half a dozen of the delegates awaiting him. As they strolled in Captain Dougherty had each affix his signature to the address which was to be presented to Mr. Morton. The document is very brief and general in its terms, filling less than a single page of parchment paper.

THE START FOR RHINEBECK. Delegates Hendricks, Root and Carson, the colored contingent, did not meet the party at the hotel, and were not at the depot when the committee entered their special drawing-room car at half past 10 o'clock. Ex-Governor Chas. Foster, of Ohio, did not accompany the committee. The other gentlemen composing the committee all left, as well as substitutes from other States. Soon after starting, Secretary Dougherty convened the Committee for a meeting on Ways and Means, and each member of the Committee then deposited with the secretary his pro-rata share of the expense of transportation. The time of the trip was consumed in discussing the political situation.

THE ARRIVAL. The Notification Committee was met at the depot in Rhinebeck by the local committee, and amid cheering and the booming of cannon escorted to Huntington Place, where Mr. Morton is living. Mr. Morton arrived in black clothes and looking in splendid health, stood in the center of his drawing-room and received the committee. Mrs. Morton, handsome and elegantly attired, stood beside her husband during the notification ceremony. Mrs. Morton's mother, Mrs. Street, and her brother, W. L. Street, and a number of friends of the family were grouped in the rear. The speeches were short and to the point. Chairman Estee clad in a black frock coat, and wearing a Harrison and Morton badge, was ushered into the drawing-room, and advanced to within a few feet of Mr. Morton. Immediately behind came the members of the Committee. Estee then delivered

THE ADDRESS. Which was worded as follows: "The National Convention of the Republican party, recently assembled in Chicago, nominated as its candidate for President, General Harrison, and with equal equanimity selected you as its nominee for Vice President. By order of that Convention we were appointed a committee to notify its nominees of their selection. This pleasant duty has been in part performed in giving General Harrison, your associate upon the ticket, that notification. It only remains for us to discharge the further duty conferred upon us by this official notice to you. The country has already passed judgment upon your selection and it has met such universal approval that it is only left to this committee to add its own expression of their high appreciation of your own personal qualities as well as their confidence in your eminent fitness for the position to which the deliberate judgment of the Convention assigned you. In conclusion we believe that this notification to you will not be a meaningless formality, but that your nomination will result in a triumphant election."

MORTON'S REPLY. MR. CHAIRMAN AND GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION: I am profoundly sensible of the high honor which has been conferred upon me by the National Republican Convention recently in session at Chicago, and thank you, gentlemen, for the courteous and complimentary terms in which you have officially announced my nomination as the candidate of the Republican party for the Vice Presidency. I am also deeply sensible of the honor conferred upon the State of New York in the selection of a citizen in this State as one of the standard bearers in the approaching peaceful conflict of the two great political parties of the country, for supremacy in governmental control. New York represents to a large degree the business interests of all those ever-growing and wider-spreading communities of varied interests and industries, which it is the mission of the Republican party to foster and protect. The platform so wisely adopted at Chicago has this mission boldly in view, and by its enunciation of these principles makes the issue clear and distinct. I accept the position tendered by the Convention, of which you are the honored representatives, and will in due time address to you, Mr. Chairman, an official communication to that effect.

THE MILLIONAIRE'S HOME. After Morton had finished speaking he invited his visitors to luncheon, which was ready to be served on the balcony, which is a beautiful one; rich wooded land extends as far as the eye can see, and at the bottom of a valley a brook bubbles along; in the distance the Catskill Mountains stand in prominence. Estee gave a toast, "The next Vice President," to which Morton gracefully responded. The party then entered carriages and were driven to Ellerslie, where they had a delightful time inspecting Morton's new park.

NORTHWESTERN STORM. Large Section of Country Devastated by the Elements. ST. PAUL, July 7.—A great storm passed over western and central Minnesota and eastern Dakota yesterday. The wind reached the velocity of a hurricane. At Shakopee, Minn., the great building of the Wampack Furniture Company was badly wrecked; the Cooper building was demolished, and Kohl & Beren's store unroofed. Several frame residences and barns were blown away, and trees and fences torn up and thrown across the highways in such a way as to prevent travel. At Redwood Falls, Minn., several buildings were toppled over, and some burned by lightning. Much damage to fences and crops is reported from the country. At St. Peter lightning burned three buildings, and one of them, a barn containing several valuable horses. Many hundreds of acres of corn were destroyed by hail. Many buildings were blown down in the vicinity of Roswell, Dakota, where the storm swept a strip of country twenty miles wide. At Vilas hail did considerable damage to crops.

PACIFIC CABLE.

Proposed Submarine Telegraph from Vancouver to Australia. MONTREAL, June 7.—A cable from London says: "The complete breakdown of the Eastern Telegraph Company's system between Java and Port Darwin is creating a strong feeling in the commercial public in favor of a Pacific cable from Vancouver to Australia. The feeling was voiced at the annual meeting of the New Oriental Bank. The Chairman said he went East recently via the Canadian Pacific, and was convinced that a cable via Canada and Australia would greatly benefit the commerce of the empire, giving a clear line of communication through British territory. The break-down existing in Eastern cables emphasized the necessity of an alternative line, and increased the desire of the commercial public for double security against a complete and protracted isolation. The opinion was expressed that the Imperial and Colonial companies should hasten the proposed survey of the route."

An Engine Bombarded.

CHICAGO, July 7.—As passenger train No. 17, on the Burlington road, was leaving Chicago last evening a stone was thrown through the cab window of the engine, narrowly missing the engineer and fireman. At Riverside, and again at Naperville, the engine was bombarded. At the former place a perfect storm of stones were thrown, battering the side of the engine and breaking more glass. At Naperville the fireman was struck on the head with a flying missile, inflicting a scalp wound, but he is not seriously injured.

The Freight Rates Upheaval.

NEW YORK, July 7.—The upheaval in freight rates to the West continues, and is developing many queer phases. The Rock Island Route has been handling the bulk of the green fruit which leaves this city via the Kansas City. The rate is $1.03 per hundred pounds, all rail. Yesterday the agent of a certain line offered a shipper $20 per carload commission on his shipment, but he refused, and insisted on $25. The agent held firm at $20, and the fruit, it is now learned, was shipped by another route, presumably on the commission demanded.

Fruit Auction.

CHICAGO, July 7.—The prices realized to-day at the auction of California fruit were as follows: Bartlett pears, $2.25@ $2.30; Tuscan cling peaches, $3.35; plums, $2.25@ $2.70; apricots, $2.35; German prunes, boxes $2.30, crates $1.25; grapes, $2.35; nectarines, $2.90. Nineteen hundred packages were sold.
