

FRAY'S TRIAL.

The Defense to be Commenced This Morning.

The trial of Frank Fray for arson continued during yesterday at Judge Cheney's court.

William H. Moore, a near neighbor of Crane, whose house was burned, testified to having measured the tracks and found them to correspond with Fray's boots except for the new half soles which had been put on.

The first witness in the afternoon was E. Jones, a locomotive fireman, who testified to having seen Fray at the camp at the same time that Olson saw him.
