Hall McAllister Called to the Higher Court.

HIS BRILLIANT LEGAL CAREER.

A Letter From General Harrison to a Little Pomona Girl. Notes.

[Associated Press Despatches to the HERALD.]

SAN FRANCISCO, December 1.—Hall McAllister, one of the leading lawyers of this city, who had been ill for a number of months, died at San Rafael at 7 o'clock this morning.

There was no confirmed change in his condition until this morning, when it was noticed that he was rapidly sinking. Early this morning he summoned his family to his bedside and at 7 o'clock breathed his last. He regained consciousness until the last, and was able to communicate his wishes to his family. The body will be removed to San Francisco and buried from Trinity Church Monday.

SKETCH OF HIS CAREER.

Hall McAllister was born in the State of Georgia in 1820. His remote ancestry was Scotch, but the family was in America before the Revolutionary war. His father and grandfather were eminent lawyers, each having held the office of United States District Attorney for Georgia, the father under President John Quincy Adams and the grandfather under Washington. The father, Matthew Hall McAllister, died in this city, having a few years before resigned from the bench of the United States Circuit Court, to which President Pierce had appointed him in 1855. Hall McAllister arrived in San Francisco in June, 1849, a year in advance of his father. He almost immediately secured a valuable clientage. This, in a steadily increasing volume, he maintained up to his fatal sickness which began only a few months ago, and he has by the consensus of the bench and bar of this State, led the profession through the longest unbroken period of service, and won more notable triumphs than any other of our advocates. His first case in the Supreme Court is reported in the very first volume of its records, that of Payne against the Pacific Mail Steamship Company. Perhaps his most profitable case, and in the opinion of many, the greatest that ever engaged a California tribunal, was among the latest of his long series of forensic victories. This was the great water rights case of Miller & Lux against Haggin & Carr. The wife of the deceased, who survives him, is the daughter of the late Samuel Herriman. Ward McAllister, of New York, is a brother of the deceased.

PRISONER KILLED.

Another of Constable Magee's Captives Meets Misfortune.

[Special to the HERALD.]

SOUTH SIDE, Cal., December 1.—Constable Magee took four traps from here yesterday who were accused with stealing turkeys here. Magee took them to Saugus and put them under the charge of B. Sweetzer at Saugus to hold them until the owners of the turkeys went to swear out a warrant. They boarded a freight train last night at Saugus to return here with Sweetzer, and one of the traps fell between the box cars, was run over and badly mangled, and died soon after.

A Suit Against Tarpey.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 1.—Members of the firm of Donnelly, Dunn & Co., of this city, have filed a complaint against Michael F. Tarpey, wherein it is set forth that in 1879 Tarpey, who was connected with F. Seile & Co., which in the smelting and refining business, became possessed of $22,000 belonging to himself and associates, and believing the latter intended to sue for a division of the money, he induced Andrew Donnelly, at that time one of plaintiff's firm, to execute two promissory notes, one to Tarpey's mother, the other to his sister for $11,000 each, signing the firm's name thereto, making it appear that Tarpey had given the money to his mother and sister, who loaned it to the firm. Tarpey agreed to give up the notes when the action against him was settled, instead of which he transferred them to his brother, Dominic Tarpey, in 1883 Donnelly, Dunn & Co. had a settlement with Michael Tarpey, giving their note for all the moneys due him. Subsequently Dominic Tarpey sued them to recover the $22,000 and $8,108 interest thereon. Plaintiffs allege that the money was really never loaned their firm, and that Dominic and Michael have conspired to defraud them. They ask that the two notes be cancelled and destroyed.

Going to Demand a Recount.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 1.—It has been ascertained that a number of Republicans who were candidates for municipal offices at the recent election and were defeated, held a conference yesterday and determined to instruct a law firm to commence the necessary proceedings for a general recount of the vote cast in this city. Among those who it is said have signified their co-operation in the demand for a recount are Charles R. Storey, nominee for Mayor; Irving Graham, candidate for Superintendent of Streets; C. K. Bonestell, candidate for Superior Judge, and half-a-dozen candidates for Supervisors. It is understood that the mode of procedure will be that one application will be filed and the other nominees join in a prayer to be permitted to share in the count. It is said the papers will be filed early next week.

Does She Know Murchison?

POMONA, December 1.—Bessie Lancaster, the nine-year-old daughter of George Lancaster, living near Pomona, has received a short letter from General Harrison, acknowledging the receipt of a calico bed quilt worked and embroidered by her. The General says he has taken time from an immense amount of pressing correspondence to answer her little letter, and expressed the appreciation of her good wishes. He closes the letter with a facetious allusion to the fact that she probably knows Mr. Murchison, of Pomona, who created such a stir in the late campaign by his letter to Sackville-West.

Senatorial Candidates.

MARYSVILLE, December 1.—The Republican Joint Senatorial Convention of Yuba and Siskiyou to-day nominated Fred. H. Greeney for joint Senator to succeed A. L. Chandler, deceased. The Democratic Convention nominated C. P. Berry. A special election will be held December 11th.

Bay City Briefs.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 1.—The blood horse races and ball game were postponed to-day on account of rain.

A local paper states that at a meeting of coal dealers last night the price of coal was advanced $2 per ton, owing to the pressure brought to bear upon them by Dunsmuir & Sons, owners of the Wellington mines.

Eastern Echoes.

Carl Schurz, who recently returned from a trip abroad, was tendered a hearty reception by the Leiderkrantz Club.

Fire originating in the new Armour packing house at South Omaha, did $100,000 worth of damage before it was checked.

The Kentucky State Election Board issued a certificate of election to Congressman Coruth, of the Louisville district, despite the dispute of Wilson, the Republican candidate for a recount.

Notices purporting to be from White Cap organizations have been left with several persons near Glendale, O. They are to the effect that the persons notified must leave the county within twenty days. They are accused of failure to provide for their families.

John W. Allen, son of Benjamin Franklin Allen, a prominent banker, of Des Moines, who is wanted in San Francisco for the alleged robbery of Wells, Fargo & Co., and for whose apprehension a large reward has been offered, has been captured by Chief of Police Gerald, of Montgomery, Ala. Allen will be taken to San Francisco.

The burning shaft of the Calumet mine is left open, and the mine management is confident the fire will be of short duration. The temperature at the mouth of the shaft is very much lower. No clue has yet been obtained as to the origin of the fire.

The Negroes of Wilkes county, Ga., are in arms over the tragedy of last Tuesday night. A mob of 300 whites bound Tim Smith and Joe Coleman, and threw them into the river alive and weighted with stones. Iudiah Smith and Jim Smith were severely lashed. The affair grew out of an insult to a white woman.

A special from Oklahoma says the settlers who have lately gone there held a convention yesterday, and after a thorough discussion of their interests as affected by the pending Congressional legislation, unanimously resolved to throw up their claims and abandon the territory and improvements until they have a full warranty to occupy and enjoy the same.

The sailors of the Haytian Republic, now under seizure at Port-au-Prince, complain that they were ill-treated by the Haytian soldiers, who purposely made a noise over the head of a comrade dying of yellow fever; that after his death they carried his body away and dumped it in a swamp without burial. They seemed particularly put out because Captain Ramsey, of the United States cruiser Boston, did nothing for them.

"Parson" Davis, Jake Kilrain's manager, was interviewed by the Chicago Times, to the effect that Kilrain will fight John L. Sullivan with bare knuckles, to a finish, under the prize ring rules, for $5,000 a side, within ten or twelve weeks. Richard K. Fox, Kilrain's backer, said Davies will stand ready at any time to make the necessary deposit, and Kilrain is equally anxious to hear that Sullivan will agree.

A LANDSLIDE.

The Santa Barbara Train Caught. A Quick Run.

A big landslide occurred at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon half a mile this side of Rincon on the Santa Barbara division of the Southern Pacific. Rincon is situated on the other side of Carpinteria and as passenger train No. 28 from this city, in charge of Conductor McMorrie, was steaming away toward Santa Barbara the engineer saw that the track ahead was blocked and downed brakes in time. The slide proved to be a very serious one. At the place where it occurred the track is cut into the side of chalky cliffs, which are 100 feet high in some places and one of these had given way and the track was blocked with earth six feet high for a distance of eighty feet. A large number of men was obtained from Carpinteria and the surrounding country and the work of building a subsidiary track around the slide was commenced. It was 7 o'clock before the train could get through and when it arrived at Santa Barbara it was turned around and set on its homeward journey without delay. The train left the Santa Barbara Depot just as the clocks were striking 9, with Engineer Dillie, determined to make the run to Los Angeles in as quick time as possible. He beat the record of any regular passenger train yet run over the division. Thirteen stops were made and one or two delays checked the progress, but in spite of these the knight of the throttle brought the train into San Fernando street at 1 o'clock this morning, having beaten the schedule time on a 10 mile run by an hour. This proves that the proposed shortening up of the running time between this city and Santa Barbara can be easily done, and Engineer Dillie's run will be a good basis for the train-dispatchers who are getting up the new cards to work on.

THE RAINFALL.

What Four Gauges Caught in the Last Two Weeks.

Mr. Franklin, the officer here in charge of the Signal Service Station, since the beginning of the late great storm has kept a careful record of the downpour as caught by four gauges. Here are the aggregate results:

Table with 4 columns: Date, Signal Service, German Fruit Co., G. W. Ashton, S. P. R. Co. Rows for November 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, and Totals.

The First Ward Councilmen.

The Democracy has put up two excellent men for the Council in the First Ward. They are Peter Keenan and C. A. Patterson. They are broad-gauge liberal men, who have had much experience in the affairs of the city. Mr. Keenan has done a great deal of contract work for the city and there has never been any question of the work being done honest and well. Voters of the First ward will serve their own interests by voting for them.

Discussion of the Naval Budget. Socialist Activity—Austrian Jealousy.

[Copyrighted 1888, by the New York Associated Press.]

BERLIN, December 1.—The Emperor's prolonged absence from public life has given rise to rumors that he is suffering from an aural tumor which is assuming an aggravated form. Semi-official reports state that his illness is simply a severe cold contracted through exposure during his recent hunt at Hettlingen. His ear complaint was slightly increased during the height of an attack of catarrhal fever, but improved with the return of his normal health. Although the weather was mild the Emperor is advised to remain indoors for some time to come. He has been in excellent spirits and has been fit for work throughout the week, receiving visitors and transacting business just as usual.

The Emperor has ordered the prosecution of several papers for publishing that part of the late Frederick's diary, which relates to the Austro-Russian war. Besides the Kieler Zeitung, a Freisinnige organ is now being prosecuted under the Emperor's orders. He has every leading paper dissected for him daily. He was especially irritated by the statement of the Freisinnige papers to the effect that Empress Victoria exclusively owned the diaries and all the journals of Emperor Frederick, including a number of unopened documents which were secured by a private seal, and which the Empress had deposited in the Royal archives.

THE NAVAL BUDGET.

The Reichstag Commission will begin to consider the budget on Monday, and will sit daily in order to report before Christmas. The Commission will hear privately more about armaments than was disclosed in open debate in the Reichstag. Chief of Admiralty Monts candidly told the Reichstag that his memorandum on the navy was drawn up purposely so that foreign nations might not learn more than was necessary. The memorandum he said was an inadequate representation of the projected increase of the navy, but he promised to give full information to the Commission. The feeling of distrust in the Reichstag, regarding the appropriation for armaments, is on the increase. The debate brought out the reminder that last year General Von Camperl, the predecessor of Vice-Admiral Donat De Manteuffel as Chief of Admiralty, presented memoranda to the effect that the navy, although small, was in the best of condition and able to meet any demand that might be made upon it in case of war. The members of the Reichstag now ask for what reason the Reichstag declares not a ship is equal to the modern requirements. The budget is destined to closer scrutiny and more opposition than seemed possible.

SOCIALIST ACTIVITY.

The Socialist electoral manifesto predicted a struggle in the coming election of unusual violence. It reminds the electors that the Reichstag will be elected not for three years as heretofore, but for five, and says by virtue of the resolutions of the St. Gall Congress, Socialist candidates should be nominated in every district where there are any adherents of the party, even if the chance of election be remote, in order to show the number of Socialists in the Empire. The Socialist manifesto further says they are hopeful that the electorate is coming to its senses and will not again be scared by the war phantoms evoked in 1887. The manifesto heralds greater activity in Socialist agitation. The Reichstag proceedings discourage police interferences, and this was seen in the marvelous toleration accorded to the Socialist workmen's demonstration last evening, when a large number of working men, after a meeting, formed a procession and marched the streets singing the "Marseillaise."

A GOOD EMPEROR.

Francis Joseph Completes the 40th Year of His Reign.

VIENNA, December 1.—In the Lower House of the Reichstag to-day Herr Smolka, President, referred to the fact that Emperor Francis Joseph's access to the throne took place just forty years ago. He said he thought it was the desire of the Emperor that the day be marked solely by works of charity; it was nevertheless fitting that the free and chosen representatives of the people should express their views upon the importance of the event. He described the Emperor's reign as one of the richest blessings and emphasized the cordial affection which existed between the Emperor and his subjects. The Emperor as the head of the Empire was more respected than ever before, he was sought as an ally and esteemed as a strong, faithful confederate. At the end of Smolka's speech cheers were given for the Emperor.

Cable Flashes.

John Bright continues to gain strength. Sexton has been re-elected Lord Mayor of Dublin.

The Italian Government has introduced in the Chamber of Deputies a bill asking a supplementary credit of 109,000,000 lire, on account of the army, and 37,000,000 lire on account of the navy.

President Diaz, of Mexico, took the oath of office Saturday for his third term, amid a great display of troops and the firing of cannon. There was no popular demonstration.

Dunlop's December 1.—Bishop O'Dwyer, of Limerick, intimated that unless the boycotting of a man named Ryan for taking an evicted farm shall cease, he will close the church of the parish in which the farm is located, and suspend all masses, sacraments and burials.

France's Military Budget.

PARIS, December 1.—At a meeting of the Cabinet to-day M. de Freycinet, Minister of War, explained that he had arrived at an agreement with the Budget for an extra loan on account of defensive works. He said the estimates of the total expenditures of the War Department were 500,000,000 francs, of which the estimates for 400,000,000 francs would immediately be submitted to the Chamber of Deputies. The credits for the War Office for '89 were estimated at 180,000,000 francs.
