Mr. George A. Farnham, of the American Hotel at Saratoga, N. Y., and also proprietor of one of the leading tourists' hotels in Florida, left for San Francisco yesterday after a few days' sojourn at the Westminster. He was much pleased with his visit to our city, although the weather was disagreeable during the greater part of his stay. As it is understood he is looking up a location for a hotel in California, good results from his visit may be expected.

Mary Kanevine, who was brought to the County Jail from Pasadena last Monday, and kept for insanity, has refused to eat or drink anything since she came.

Eddie Bogart and Willie Stubbs are the names of two very naughty Los Angeles boys, aged respectively 13 and 10 years.
