

THE DEPOT BALL. An Evening of Uninterrupted Festivity. VERY HANDSOME DECORATIONS. Addresses by Mayor Bryson and General Hewitt—The Railroad Reviewed.

The dedication ball with which the Wolfskill Depot was opened on New Year's eve and briefly referred to in yesterday's HERALD, will always be remembered in railroad circles as one of the most successful gatherings of the kind ever held. The proceedings were in the hands of Paradise Lodge No. 74, Brotherhood of Railroad Brakemen, and nothing that could in any way insure the success of the affair was left undone.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN—I feel my duty tonight in opening this great monument of enterprise, one of unusual importance. The first question asked by a stranger, accustomed to the magnificent scale of the Eastern cities, on his arrival in the city on this coast is usually "Have you a fine road depot?" San Francisco cannot answer this in the affirmative, and it becomes a matter of congratulation to Los Angeles that she can say so.
