Maximum temperature, 59; minimum temperature, 43. Rainfall past twenty-four hours, inappreciable.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Leon Weil will return to San Francisco to-day. Mr. H. B. Wilson, of Utsalady, W. T., is at the Hollenbeck. Mr. Wm. Donaldson, of Minneapolis, is at the Hollenbeck. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh MacMillan, of Chicago, are at the Nadeau. J. E. Quinn and B. F. Hamusly, of Chicago, are at the Hollenbeck. Mr. J. D. Easton, of New York, is stopping at the Hollenbeck. Mr. R. E. Bredon and family, of San Francisco, are at the Nadeau. Mr. P. C. Dornalech, the well-known horseman, arrived from San Francisco yesterday. Messrs. S. M. Scott, J. Goldberg and John Arnett, of San Francisco, are at the Nadeau. Mr. F. A. Pasmore, a member of the firm of Williams, Brown & Co., shippers and commission merchants of San Francisco arrived in town last night and is quartered at the Hollenbeck. Colonel W. R. Smedberg, Colonel A. E. Haines, E. A. Camp, C. Mason Kinney, W. R. Shafter, Charles Gladding, W. A. Dryden, F. E. Stone, F. H. Brown, E. B. Cook and S. Flint, members of the Military Order of the Sons of the American Revolution, are at the Nadeau.

NEWS NOTES.

Ah Charlie Ling, charged with burglary, was examined before Justice Savage yesterday and held to answer at a bond of $500. The Board of Public Works will meet this morning, at which time the property owners on First, between Hill and Pearl streets, are requested to appear. Transfers of real estate yesterday amounted to $138,379, and were 59 in number. Of these 28 were for more than $1,000 each, and 9 were for nominal considerations. The Illinois Association meet this evening at Masonic Hall, No. 29 South Spring street, for one of its popular socials and entertainments. An interesting programme has been prepared for the occasion. The third social of the Boyle Heights Presbyterian Church was held at the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Hollenbeck, 823 Boyle avenue, Thursday evening. There was a full attendance, and all enjoyed themselves. The Iowa Association entertainment will take place to-night at the G. A. R. Hall, No. 25 North Main street. An excellent programme has been arranged and some of the best talent in the city will be present. Everybody is cordially invited. Bob Eckles, a boy of 11 years, was taken before Justice Lockwood yesterday and tried on the charge of petit larceny. The case against him was plain enough but on account of his youth and previous good character he was allowed to go free.

The Herald was made to say yesterday morning, in the report of Sam Jones' sermon: "Nineteen out of every twenty of the girls that are married meet their downfall in the ball-room." It should have read: "Nineteen out of every twenty of the girls that are ruined meet their downfall in the ball-room."

Louis Mesmer, of the New United States Hotel, has his name on Justice Lockwood's book with the charge of battery placed against it. His trial will take place January 22d, at 4 P. M. He had some disagreement with a man about the payment of a small amount of money, and it is alleged struck him in the face.

A home lunch will be served to-day by the ladies of the Kindergarten Association, from 11:30 A. M. to 2:30 P. M., at 114 West First street, for the benefit of the Charity Kindergarten Association. Home-made pies, cakes, bread, etc., will be a feature of the lunch. The public is invited to bestow their patronage on this worthy object.

C. M. Snell and George Daly are charged with obtaining property under false pretenses by W. H. Esdor. The property in question was a horse. Snell is now one of the managers of the Grand Central Hotel and was formerly concerned in the circulation of a morning newspaper. They were arraigned before Justice Savage yesterday and their bail fixed at $250 each.

East's Absence. Ed East, who used to be a Deputy Sheriff under Kays, took a hand a week or so ago in the arrest of a number of players. When the case against Ben Jones and others came up in Justice Lockwood's court yesterday, East, who was one of the principal witnesses, was not to be found. He had gone to Arizona to live. The prosecution hinted that he had some very good reason for going, and Chief Conroy, who is a good friend of East, explained what that reason was. He had been appointed on the police force, but finding that there was no place for him among the detectives, had thrown up his commission to take a very advantageous clerkship which had been offered him in Arizona. The case against the gamblers was dismissed, but the explanation offered by the Chief made it sufficiently evident that East's absence was for good cause.

A Small Fire. Yesterday afternoon fire broke out in the residence of Mr. Charles A. Bell, editor of the Porcupine, and before it could be subdued the building was partially consumed. There are no hydrants in the vicinity where the fire occurred, so that although the department responded a bucket brigade had to do all the work. The furniture was saved and Mr. Bell says that his losses are fully covered by insurance. There is no clue as to how the conflagration started, but it is believed to have been the outcome of a coal oil stove explosion.

Los Angeles Insurance Union. The Los Angeles Insurance Union met yesterday at the Board of Trade rooms, Mr. W. J. Brodrick in the chair, and Mr.

G. A. Robinson Secretary. Several matters relating to the welfare of the Los Angeles insurance agents were discussed, among which were rebates on rates and the action of some proper owners in insuring in San Francisco instead of with the home agencies. The meeting adjourned until next Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at the same place.

CHIEF ARTHUR.

A Chat With the Head of the B. of L. E. "P. M. Arthur and wife, Cleveland, Ohio," was the first inscription made on the register at the Nadeau yesterday, and a HERALD man who dropped into that hostelry during the course of the evening, immediately recognized the name of celebrated Chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A request for an interview was at once granted, and the scribe soon found himself shaking hands with a white-haired, smiling gentleman of about 55 years of age. Mr. Arthur has a sturdy look about him from the ground up, and a good deal of it has settled in his countenance, which betokens a good thinker and a man of resolution.

The scribe set the ball-a-rolling by asking if it was true that the Brotherhood was quite satisfied with the recent conference at San Francisco regarding the Ryan trouble, whereupon Mr. Arthur said: "Yes, we have the assurance of the officials of the road that the grievances will be remedied in the future, and I have not the slightest fear of any more trouble arising on that score. As to whether Master Mechanic Ryan will continue in the service, all I can say is that he probably will if he behaves himself, but if he does not, he will be called upon to make his position vacant for someone else. As to that score, no one need bother any more, in fact, I may say that everything is quiet all over the country. There are no disturbances, and no signs of any so far as I know."

"I would like to know," said the HERALD man, "what effect the outcome of the Burlington strike has had on the Brotherhood. Do you think they are liable to tackle any other big system?" "Let us get at the foundation of all such troubles," said Mr. Arthur, "as long as there is capital and labor, so long will there be troubles between the employers and the employed, and the only good way to settle them is by arbitration. A strike is the worst way by far, and the Brotherhood is as much opposed to such measures as anyone. But then what are they to do in a case like that of the 'Q.' strike. They simply asked that they be paid the wages of the country, and the company refused. Then the Brotherhood offered to arbitrate, but the Q. people said 'There is nothing to arbitrate,' so, as they forced us to it, we declared the strike which was only settled the other day. That it was a disastrous affair for both sides the whole world knows. It cost the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy somewhere between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000, and it cost the Brotherhood about $500,000. What good has the company gained by it? Have they got better men or men who have guaranteed them that there will be no strike in the near future? I think not. My idea is whenever any difficulty occurs that cannot be settled by a conference between the railroad and the employees to refer it to a board of arbitration composed of the managers of three roads who are in no way interested in the difficulty in question, and by this plan I hope that we will avoid any more such disastrous combats between capital and labor as the one we have just experienced."

At the moment a reminder came from Mrs. Arthur that she was ready for dinner, so bidding his interviewer good day, the labor magnate at once took his departure. The following yesterday signed the petition to the Legislature to appropriate $250,000 for the exhibit in London: E. Germain, President Los Angeles Board of Trade; E. W. Jones, President Chamber of Commerce; Richardson, Kimball & Co.; L. N. Breed, President Southern California National Bank; Whittier, Fuller & Co., E. Dr. Schreiber's Farewell. Last night at the Synagogue, Dr. E. Schreiber delivered a farewell address of great power of thought to his spiritual charge. The learned Rabbi is about to take his departure from Los Angeles for Little Rock, Arkansas. He has been in this city for about three years past, during which period he has won the respect and confidence, not only of the people of his own race and religion, but of all shades of opinion. He is a most scholarly person of profound thought, and very earnest in his views.

Lights for the New Courthouse. The Committee appointed by the Board of Supervisors to examine the applications for lighting the new Courthouse, yesterday recommended the contract furnished by Messrs. Rhodes & Keese. They are to supply 300 incandescent lights to be distributed throughout the main halls and side rooms, and the plant is to be in and in working order by the 1st of June.

Delivered Telegrams. The following are the telegrams remaining at the Western Union telegraph office, No. 6 Court street: W. A. Syme to Daniel Waide, Master Workman, Lodge No. 5, A. O. U. W.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Closing of the M. B. Leavitt Season. To-day is the last of Mr. M. B. Leavitt's season with his great European novelties at the Grand Opera House. There will be a matinee at 2 and the final performance in the evening. From this point he goes directly to the East.

The Los Angeles. Ben Cotton and Miss Idalene last night at the Los Angeles Theater, for the first time in Los Angeles, produced the Western drama, Jessica. There is a great deal of movement in the play, with many sensational developments. It is by all odds the most spirited thing in the repertoire of the Cottons.

At the matinee this afternoon the attraction will be Wild Flower and to-night Jessica again.

The Grubbers. On Monday night Mr. Joseph Grismer and Miss Phoebe Davies will open a season of one week at the Grand. The initial performance will be Clay Greene's play Forgiven. The St. Louis Post-Dispatch says of it: The story of Forgiven is told so naturally and with such power of pathos, combined with strength of dramatic situation, that it appeals directly to the heart. As a writer of romantic plays Mr. Greene is a success. His methods are direct, simple and natural. Forgiven will be a long-continued success.

LEIVAS GUILTY.

A Verdict of Murder in the Second Degree. The Leivas case was concluded yesterday. The last testimony was placed before the jury about the middle of the day and the argument occupied all the afternoon. The case was given to the jury late in the afternoon and it was not until 10 o'clock last night that a verdict was returned. The jury found Leivas guilty of murder in the second degree. The day of sentence was fixed as the 23d. Leivas has a claim against the Walters estate. He asserts that he is the illegitimate son of Walters, who left a large property on Buena Vista street.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., November 14, 1888. This is to certify that I had been afflicted with asthma and emphysema of the lungs for about 24 years. My disease was contracted in the army. I had tried almost every known remedy, both here and in the East, but nothing ever gave me permanent relief until I had tried Dr. Williams' Compound Oxygen and other remedies. It took pleasure in recommending Dr. Williams as a Christian gentleman and a conscientious and skillful physician, whose course seemed almost marvelous in cases of consumption, asthma, bronchitis and catarrh. MRS. L. A. THURSTON, 53 South Olive street, Los Angeles, Cal.

I have seen so many cases of lung diseases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhaler, which I do in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success. The very best references from those already cured. CONSULTATION FREE. Those who desire to consult with me in regard to their cases had better call at my office for consultation and examination, but if impossible to do so, write for a copy of my Medical Treatise, containing a list of questions Address M.
