W. C. T. U. The New Building Thrown Open to the Public.

THE OCCIDENTAL MEETING. An Interesting Session at the First Presbyterian Church—Other Local News.

The handsome building which has been erected by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union on the corner of Fort and Temple streets, was thrown open to the public last night by a rainbow bazaar, although the formal dedication and opening will not take place until the end of next week.

The structure is a very handsome one and has cost $45,500 for construction, the lot being a gift to the Union from the Order of Good Templars. It contains thirty-five rooms, two of which are retained for the offices of the Union, a hall and lodge-room also being kept by the members.

The other rooms are to be rented out as offices or apartments, and are now ready for occupation.

There was a very fair attendance last night, and, as an excellent programme had been arranged for the evening's entertainment, it is safe to say that no one went away dissatisfied. The proceedings opened with music by the Y. M. C. A. orchestra, after which a number of children, dancing around a Maypole, illustrated the weaving of the rainbow.

An order for a picture, "Miss Rose Harbin, in a recitation entitled, "An order for a picture," was next on the list and displayed marked powers of elocution. Possessed of a pretty face and a remarkably sweet voice, she obtained the careful attention of her auditors who expressed their satisfaction at the close of her performance by long and enthusiastic applause. A vocal solo "Barbara Fitchie," by Mrs. Dunham, was rendered excellently, and then the talented Connor family gave one of their charming orchestral selections. Miss Julia Crawford in a powerful recitation from Miles Standish was next, and then Mr. Connor played "My Marguerite" on the saxophone in a manner that secured for him a double round of enclosures. A table brought the stage entertainment to an end, and then the visitors were left free to inspect the handsome booths and their pretty inmates.

The stands were arranged according to the colors of a rainbow, and were decorated appropriately to their names, their keepers being also clothed in matching colors. The Violet booth was presided over by Miss Sieg and Miss Whitehorn; the Indigo by the Misses Potts; the Blue by Mrs. Garbut; the Green by the Misses Yarnell, Mrs. Leslie, Miss Fitch, Miss Crew and Miss Anthony, aided by Messrs. Chas. Leslie, Geo. DuBois, W. Shafer, W. F. Montgomery, T. Sigler, Scheidter, H. E. Carter, D. Matlock, H. O. Witmer, W. Gillette, F. W. Brees, Anthony, Yarnell, O. D. Chapman, F. Ackerman and Chas. Lamb; the yellow by Miss Dodderth; the orange by Miss Dexter, Miss Callum and Miss Little; the red by Miss McDonnell, Miss Goodwin and Miss Simmons; the ice cream department by Miss Wise, Miss Edwards and Miss Pinkham; and the registry by Mrs. Carter. In each of the different stands saleable articles, such as ice cream, lemonade and bouquets can be obtained at reasonable prices. The orange booth has an especial attraction for the visitor as it displays an European bric-a-brac collection, kindly lent for the occasion by Mrs. Camelia Keyes. Mrs. Laura Carter is in charge of the arrangements, and the selection is a wise one for everything runs as smoothly as possible. A 25 cent lunch will be served daily during the week that the bazaar will last, between the hours of 11:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

The following is the programme for to-night's entertainment: 1. Half-hour's address by Mrs. Livermore, 7:30 to 8.

2. Vocal solo—Prof. Schaus. 3. Recitation—Tom Barnes. 4. Vocal solo—Mrs. J. B. Brown. 5. Vocal solo—Mrs. Taggart. 6. Guitar solo—Mrs. Wallace. 7. Vocal trio—Mr. Ney, Mrs. Brown, Mr. Wallace. 8. Tableau.

TO-DAY'S PROGRAMME. Devotional exercises—Conducted by Mrs. J. Q. Adams, San Francisco. Annual report Secretary for State Presbyterian work—Miss M. Berry, San Francisco. Chinese work for women and children in Southern California—Mrs. L. M. Goad, Los Angeles. The financial department of foreign missions—Mrs. E. Garrett, Alameda. Report of Occidental School—Miss M. Baikin, San Francisco. Bible women of China—Mrs. L. D. Chapin, Los Angeles. The King's Business Requirement—Mrs. A. L. Lindsley, Oakland. Report of Chinese work in San Jose—Mrs. M. S. Carey, San Jose. Medical missions—M. J. Wheeler, Sacramento. Report of House to House Visitor—Miss Emma Cable, San Francisco. AFTERNOON. Devotional exercises—Mrs. B. Douglas, Oakland. Are Foreign Missions a Failure?—Mrs. J. M. Crawford, Pasadena. Report of school at Chinese Home—Miss Hensworth, San Francisco. Woman's Century, and Woman's Work—Miss A. Hamby, Oakland. Talk on Africa by a returned missionary—Mrs. Clift, San Francisco. How to Attract and Retain an Interest in Foreign Missions—Mrs. W. H. Hamilton, East Oakland. Election of officers. Paper by one who has been on the field—Mrs. Carrington, San Francisco. Song—"God be With You Till We Meet Again."

Six Rounds. There was a scratch prize fight in the river bed, below First street, at an early hour yesterday morning, six rounds being fought between Amos Abbott and Jimmy Mack. The set-to was the result of a wrangle the previous night in the New Orleans Hotel, when the contestants were separated so as to avoid arrest. Accompanied by a select party of friends, they entered back and went to the river to fight the thing out. Six rounds were battled when a draw was declared, as there was danger of interruption by the police. Both the pugilists were considerably bruised and scarred as a result of the affair.

Police Commission. Yesterday was the regular day of meeting for the Board of Police Commissioners, and a little after 2 (none of the members are ever punctual), Major Furry and Mr. Bilderrain appeared. Under the present arrangement it is necessary that all three of the working members of the Board should be on hand to transact any business. There is a quorum out of five. The Mayor happened to be busy in court serving as a witness. The consequence was that there could be no meeting. After hanging around for a while the two Commissioners voted to adjourn and take a fresh start next week.

Street-Car Changes. Mr. E. M. Loricke, formerly Superintendent of the Main-street and Agricultural Park street-car line, has been retired. The vacancy goes to Mr. William Hawks, a well known street-rail man, the Assistant-Superintendency remaining in the hands of the present incumbent, Mr. McHenry. All the changes were announced in effect immediately at the company's headquarters yesterday.

Undelivered Telegrams. The following are the telegrams remaining at the Western Union Telegraph office, 6 Court street, April 3rd: Sarah Bressell, Miss Ella Lanned, Mrs. B. A. Levan, Mrs. L. J. Brown, Frederick A. Rindie, A. T. Blummer, J. B. Alexander, P. K. Best.

ing report, in which she said that the Poud had two representatives in Persia; Miss Preston is the sole representative in China, and she is to be married; Miss Hart is the representative at Siam, and a young Chilean is working faithfully in South America, despite the efforts of his relatives to draw him away from Protestantism. One teacher is supported in Africa, and nothing is being done in Mexico. She closed her report by urging her hearers to take no backward steps, but to push forward in the good work.

An excellent paper on "The Keflex Blessings of Praise Meetings," by Mrs. J. Elliot Condit, of San Francisco, was read after which Miss Bell, of Boyle Heights, sang a pleasing solo.

The President, Mrs. P. D. Browne, then announced that the Board had become independent and would hereafter work without reference to instructions from other boards.

"How We Raised Our Missionary Library" was discussed by Mrs. J. M. Newell, of Santa Clara. Her paper was in the shape of a diary, in which she told of the efforts which afterwards met with success.

Mrs. J. G. Chown, of San Francisco, the General Secretary, read her annual report, in which she stated that over $9,000 had been collected for mission work during the year and had been disbursed for work among schools and for the salaries of the missionaries, and for the expenses attendant upon the work in half a dozen countries. The most important announcement she made was that the Occidental Board had assumed an independent existence. Heretofore it has been a branch of the Philadelphia Board, but it is now an independent organization.

Mrs. B. Douglass, President of the Board of the Northwest, delivered an interesting address, which was followed by Mrs. W. S. Babcock, of San Diego, who spoke at length on the "Perils of the Harvest Field."

The afternoon session closed with Miss M. Culbertson's report of missionary work in the Chinese home at San Francisco and the good accomplished, and the "Need of the Holy Spirit in Foreign Mission Work," by Miss Pratt, of Santa Rosa.

THE MISSION BAND. The church was well filled at the evening session, when an entertainment was given by the Mission band, under the direction of State Superintendent Y. P. Work. The following programme was most interesting.

Orchestra, "Archie Hodge"..... Band Prayer..... First Church, Los Angeles. Rev. R. Mayne Irvine Quartette, Church Palling Song..... Third Church, Los Angeles. Ship Excursion..... Bethany Band National Air, "Sirenia de la Mañana"..... Spanish Church. Armenian hymn, "Links and Strands"..... Armenian Church. Fuk Yam Kwong Hoon, "Morrison's" Band Chinese Church.

Graduating exercises of the following Bands: First Church, "Good Table of the King's Grand View Church, "Gullies," Immanuel Church, "Young People's Society," Third Church, "Golden Rule," "Wherefore Serve the King," Miss Esther Junkin.

"When to Give Service," Mr. Edward Chapman. "How Best to Serve," Miss Lucy J. Hanna. "Where is the Need?" Miss Jessie Gray.

TO-DAY'S PROGRAMME. Devotional exercises—Conducted by Mrs. J. Q. Adams, San Francisco. Annual report Secretary for State Presbyterian work—Miss M. Berry, San Francisco.
