

DAILY HERALD.

United States Signal Service. Report of observations taken at Los Angeles, August 24, 1889, by the War Department.

Table with columns: Time, Bar., Ther., Dew, W. d. Vel., and other weather-related data.

PERSONAL.

Joe Kennedy and wife, of Wilmington, were in the city yesterday. J. M. Bonner and Miss Bonner, of New Orleans, La., are at the Hollenbeck. Mr. I. W. Lord, of Lordsburg, was in town yesterday, looking gay and happy.

"THE PALACE."

The Finest Affair on the Pacific Coast.

Schurtz's gang of carpenters and wood carvers did a big week's work, ending last Saturday night. The scene of their operations is in the basement of the Wilson block, on the corner of Spring and First streets, opposite the Nadeau.

A JOLLY TIME.

Last night, after the hard week's work was over, so pleased was old Schurtz that, having paid all the men off, he and all the crew of skilled mechanics went off on a little spree to that old and well-known place, the Eintracht.

A TRIBUTE TO HIS MEN.

This was a very handsome and proper tribute for Mr. Schurtz to pay to the skill and artistic talent of his men. They have worked with a will to carry into perfect execution his elaborate and unique plans to make in Los Angeles one of the very finest places of resort in the Union.

THEY ALL MAKE SPEECHES.

Each of the men last night delivered a short address to Mr. Schurtz, and eulogized him for the beautiful plan of his place, and for the liberal manner in which he is carrying out his own ideas.

CONTRACTOR GUENTHER MAKES A SPEECH.

After the men had each made a speech, the contractor under whose direction the work is done, Mr. Fritz Guenther, proceeded in an elaborate speech to set forth the admirable manner in which Mr. Schurtz is fitting up the Palace.

THEY ALL PART FRIENDS.

After the last glass was drawn from the keg of cold and refreshing Anheuser-Busch beer, so well handled by the Eintracht people, the party rose from the table and all shook hands and bade Mr. Schurtz a hearty good-night.

THE BEAUTIFUL PALACE.

Which Mr. Schurtz is so busily engaged in preparing for the benefit of the people of Los Angeles. It is modeled after the best designs in Europe, and will be furnished in the most beautiful style.

Oranges Pay.

The Pomona Times a few days ago had this: "There is one solid fact on which the fruit farmers and land owners of this country can rely, and that is that bearing orange groves will always be in demand at high prices."

"The buyer would not come to that figure and Mr. White allowed him to depart. His trees yield him an annual income of from $8,000 to $10,000 a year, and he is not anxious to sell at any price."

R. Hart has the "Heartsease" orchard at Riverside. It comprises twelve acres, ten of which are set to Navel oranges, in their third year of bearing.

The Sheriff's officers thought they had located Mrs. Sample, who is charged with forging the will of O. L. Susand, and expected to arrest her yesterday, but up to a late hour last night they had not succeeded.

W. E. Wilson who was convicted some time ago for an assault with a deadly weapon and sentenced to the County Jail, completed his term yesterday, but was immediately re-arrested on a warrant for a similar offense.

Officers Auble and Bosqui, yesterday, arrested James Clark, Chas. Callen and Ed. Wise, on New High street, and booked them at the station as vagrants.

John O'Keefe and George Moore became involved in a dispute in Mahogany Hall, Alameda street, last evening about a woman. They afterwards met in front of the Grand Central Hotel and proceeded to fight it out, but were caught and brought to the Police Station and booked for fighting.

John Thompson, a veteran of the war and an inmate of the Soldiers' Home, near Santa Monica, was arraigned before Justice P. E. King yesterday on the charge of vagrancy and given twenty-four hours in which to leave town.

A Light Fine. Juan Canedo, who is employed by the Bixby Bros., was a little hard up for some hay the other day. Accordingly he thought it a good scheme to make a "quiet sneak" on the hay stacks of the Dominguez ranch, adjoining. In this he was detected and charged with stealing four tons of hay. He pleaded not guilty, but after a long and tedious trial Judge Lenord, of Compton, found him guilty as charged. When the time for sentence came, John Carson, of Compton, appeared as his attorney, and made such a powerful and eloquent plea in mitigation that the Judge let the man off with a ten-dollar fine.

The Clearing House. The following is a statement of the business transacted by the Clearing House for the week:

Death of the Cottony Cushion Scenic. Colonies of the vedolia cardinalis will be distributed free to all applicants during the ensuing week at the ranch of Wm. Niles, Washington street, between Main and San Pedro. Bring a paper box—shoe, collar or spool. By order of the County Board of Horticultural Commissioners. A. F. KERCHEVAL, Commissioner.

A Musical. Yesterday afternoon a very pleasant musicale was given at the rooms of Prof. L. Loeb, in the Bryson-Bonebrake block. It was informal, but was much enjoyed by those who were present. A sonata of Beethoven and one of Mozart, and the Tannhauser overture arranged for four hands, were rendered by the pupils of Prof. Loeb.

A National Sunday Law. There will be a great mass meeting held in Hazard's Pavilion next Tuesday night, to discuss the question of the national Sunday law. Able speakers, it is said, will be on hand to give the topic a very thorough handling.

WORKINGMEN'S Anti-Sewer Bond Mass Meeting To-Night (Sunday). There will be a meeting of the unemployed at 7:30 p. m. tonight, to discuss the sewer question, at the Courthouse. CARL BROWN, Chairman.

A. M. McInnis, Merchant Tailor. Formerly of Simpson & McInnis, begs leave to announce that he has re-opened the tailoring establishment formerly occupied by Simpson & McInnis, and wishes to inform the public that he has recently received large and well selected invoices of foreign and domestic suitings, which will be made to order at a reduction of twenty-five per cent. less than former prices. He invites a personal inspection of his goods.
