THE CITY'S NEWS.

Los Angeles and Oakland on the Diamond.

THE LAST GAME OF THE SERIES. Tokens of Esteem for Mr. Hellman. Railroad News - The Court-Martial.

The last game of the series between the Oakland and Los Angeles ball teams, and also the last of the season for the home nine, was played at the Athletic park yesterday afternoon in the presence of about 2,700 spectators, resulting in a victory for the Oakland by a score of 5 to 4. It was a very interesting game from start to finish, and was marked by a number of exciting incidents; but it was generally conceded that the local boys owed their defeat purely to their lack of judgment at the most critical point of the game, in trying to steal impossible bases.

The Oaklanders were very much quieter and more gentlemanly in their behavior on the field yesterday afternoon than was the case on Saturday, and even "Tip" O'Neill seemed to be imbued with Sabatarian awe. Knell, as usual, however, tried to run a bluff on the umpire, but Conn was immutable and withstood all assaults upon his decisions with good humor.

Game was called promptly at 3 o'clock with the home team at the bat. Kn
