

DAILY HERALD. PUBLISHED SEVEN DAYS A WEEK. JOSEPH D. LYNN, JAMES J. AYERS, AYERS & LYNN, PUBLISHERS.

DELIVERED BY CARRIERS At 50c. per Week, or 50c. per Month. TERMS BY MAIL, INCLUDING POSTAGE: DAILY HERALD, ONE YEAR, $8.00

SATURDAY, MARCH 22, 1890.

That old-time Democratic warhorse, ex-Senator William A. Conn, is paying Los Angeles a visit.

That people from abroad appreciate the attractive openings which exist in such large measure for profitable investment in Southern California lands is shown by the fact that between two issues of the Ontario Record upwards of $100,000 worth of property was sold in that neighborhood.

There is a good deal of latent public spirit in Los Angeles as shown by the rapidly-increasing membership and vigor of the Chamber of Commerce.

There are indications on every hand that the partial stagnation which has prevailed on all hands in Los Angeles county is about to be succeeded by an era of decided activity.

The Finance Committee of the Council yesterday concluded to keep its action as to whether or no the city should purchase a safe secret.

The course of President Manvel all over this Southern country has been marked by unstinted praises of the late Citrus Fair held in this city.

The cheapest real estate on the Pacific Coast just now, relatively speaking, is in Los Angeles county.

Real Work at Last. The Chamber of Commerce, at its meeting yesterday, took strong and sensible ground, and if the plan outlined there is followed up Southern California will at last be fitly represented at the East, and an intelligent direction will be given to the tide of immigration that can be readily influenced to settle in Southern California.

A Journal Gone Wrong. It is a sad thing for Los Angeles that it fails to secure the approval of the New York Dramatic News.

The French Murderer Victimizing Gotham Hotel Men. New York, March 21.—It is now for the first time positively ascertained by the police that Eyraud, the French murderer, has been in this city and stopped at different hotels under various aliases.

Without desiring to be censorious, the miscarriage of the Montafio prosecution yesterday shows that there is something radically wrong about the District Attorney's office.

The Herald is sorry to say that it looks very much as if an era of shaving county warrants is about to set in.

HARD TIMES. Agricultural Depression Visible Everywhere.

THE OPPRESSED RURAL CLASSES. Statistician Dodge Lays the Blame to Overproduction and Speculation.

Associated Press Dispatches to THE HERALD. WASHINGTON, March 21.—The prevailing depression in American agriculture is treated by Statistician Dodge in the March report of the Department of Agriculture.

Johnstown Again Threatened. JOHNSTOWN, Pa., March 21.—Quite a serious flood threatens the lower portions of the city, the river having been rising one foot an hour since 3 o'clock this afternoon.

A Place for Mahone. NEW YORK, March 21.—A special from Washington says Mahone is not going to be left wholly out in the cold after all.

Eastern Echoes. Robert Mosely (colored) was lynched near Huntville, Ala., for an attempted outrage on a white girl.

By Thursday's fire at Jacksonville, Fla., seventeen blocks and houses were destroyed. The losses aggregate $142,000.

General F. H. Smith, Superintendent of the Virginia Military Institute, died Thursday night of paralysis.

The Supreme Court of Illinois has refused a hearing in the case of the Chicago gas trust. The effect of the decision is to declare the trust an illegal organization.

At Montreal, C. Goodon, the 5 mile champion skater in 1889, won the 10-mile amateur skating championship of Canada, in 39 minutes, 42 seconds.

Charles L. Colby has resigned the presidency of the Wisconsin Central Railroad Company. E. H. Abbott has been elected to succeed him.

Hans Matas Cardozo, a passenger on an east-bound Lake Shore train, died suddenly between Dunkirk and Buffalo, N. Y., of bronchial consumption.

OTTAWA, March 21.—The Government leader in the Senate last night introduced a bill which practically grants provincial autonomy to the Northwest Territories.

PORTLAND, Ore., March 21.—It is stated that about seven thousand pounds of mail is now lying at the break in the Southern Pacific at Cow Creek cañon, with no means of transportation.

OCEANSIDE, Cal. March 21.—The examination of John E. Holland, charged with shooting at Marcel Costan, at Loma Alta, was concluded this afternoon.

AMUSEMENTS. "A Hole in the Ground" Matinee Today.

McAuliffe and Carroll Put Up a Good Fight.

CARROLL FAIRLY KNOCKED OUT. McAuliffe Suffers Most Punishment, but Gets In on Carroll's Mouth at the Right Moment.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 21.—The purse offered by the California Athletic Club for the contest between Jack McAuliffe and Jimmy Carroll, which took place at the California Athletic Club tonight, amounted to $3,000.

First Round—McAuliffe opened with a rush, but Carroll escaped by dodging. McAuliffe reached Carroll's neck several times with his right before the round closed.

Second Round—Carroll opened by a rush and jabbed McAuliffe in the jaw several times. McAuliffe returned a hot right-hand blow in Carroll's ribs, and followed it up with a swing on the neck.

Third Round—Mac led out with his left, catching Carroll under the chin. He repeated this before Carroll had recovered from the first shock, and a clinch followed. Carroll then tried a hard swing, but McAuliffe dodged.

Fourth Round—McAuliffe reached Carroll's ear with his right, and then gave him a vicious upper-cut with his left. McAuliffe made a half-dozen terrific lunges, all of which Carroll escaped until just before the round closed, when he received a sharp rap in the ribs.

In the fifth round McAuliffe aimed for Carroll's jaw, but received a hard jab on the mouth, which sent him down on his knees. He rose at once, and several rallies followed.

In the sixth round McAuliffe again caught Carroll in the jaw with a hard right-hand. McAuliffe continued to play for his opponent's wind and reached several times with marvelous rapidity.

Seventh Round—McAuliffe continued the same tactics and landed two more left-hand blows on Carroll's body. In the eighth round there was little done till near the close, when there was a sharp rally, in which Carroll received considerable punishment.

Ninth Round—In this round there was another hot rally, in which Carroll brought a little blood from McAuliffe's forehead. McAuliffe again rushed the fighting.

In the tenth round McAuliffe landed on Carroll's ribs several times, though the blows were not hard. McAuliffe had a narrow escape from a swinging right-hand, which just grazed his ear.

Eleventh Round—McAuliffe opened the round with a hard left-hand on Carroll's stomach, but received in return a terrific jab in the mouth. Twelfth Round—This was the hottest round of the fight so far.

Thirteenth Round—Both men fought hard for a knock-out, though very tired. McAuliffe did most of the rushing, but just before the round closed Carroll gave him a blow on the jaw which almost sent him to the floor.

Fourteenth Round—McAuliffe found Carroll's wind hard just before the round closed. Carroll forced matters, caught Mac heavy in the wind and again on the jaw. The latter saved himself from further punishment by a clinch.

Little was done in the sixteenth. The seventeenth round opened with honors about even. Both men were evidently very tired. The men clinched in the eighteenth, and as they broke away Carroll uppercut McAuliffe viciously and then gave him several right and left-handers which staggered him perceptibly.

McAuliffe and Carroll Put Up a Good Fight.

CARROLL FAIRLY KNOCKED OUT. McAuliffe Suffers Most Punishment, but Gets In on Carroll's Mouth at the Right Moment.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 21.—The purse offered by the California Athletic Club for the contest between Jack McAuliffe and Jimmy Carroll, which took place at the California Athletic Club tonight, amounted to $3,000.

First Round—McAuliffe opened with a rush, but Carroll escaped by dodging. McAuliffe reached Carroll's neck several times with his right before the round closed.

Second Round—Carroll opened by a rush and jabbed McAuliffe in the jaw several times. McAuliffe returned a hot right-hand blow in Carroll's ribs, and followed it up with a swing on the neck.

Third Round—Mac led out with his left, catching Carroll under the chin. He repeated this before Carroll had recovered from the first shock, and a clinch followed. Carroll then tried a hard swing, but McAuliffe dodged.

Fourth Round—McAuliffe reached Carroll's ear with his right, and then gave him a vicious upper-cut with his left. McAuliffe made a half-dozen terrific lunges, all of which Carroll escaped until just before the round closed, when he received a sharp rap in the ribs.

In the fifth round McAuliffe aimed for Carroll's jaw, but received a hard jab on the mouth, which sent him down on his knees. He rose at once, and several rallies followed.

In the sixth round McAuliffe again caught Carroll in the jaw with a hard right-hand. McAuliffe continued to play for his opponent's wind and reached several times with marvelous rapidity.

Seventh Round—McAuliffe continued the same tactics and landed two more left-hand blows on Carroll's body. In the eighth round there was little done till near the close, when there was a sharp rally, in which Carroll received considerable punishment.

Ninth Round—In this round there was another hot rally, in which Carroll brought a little blood from McAuliffe's forehead. McAuliffe again rushed the fighting.

In the tenth round McAuliffe landed on Carroll's ribs several times, though the blows were not hard. McAuliffe had a narrow escape from a swinging right-hand, which just grazed his ear.

Eleventh Round—McAuliffe opened the round with a hard left-hand on Carroll's stomach, but received in return a terrific jab in the mouth. Twelfth Round—This was the hottest round of the fight so far.

Thirteenth Round—Both men fought hard for a knock-out, though very tired. McAuliffe did most of the rushing, but just before the round closed Carroll gave him a blow on the jaw which almost sent him to the floor.

Fourteenth Round—McAuliffe found Carroll's wind hard just before the round closed. Carroll forced matters, caught Mac heavy in the wind and again on the jaw. The latter saved himself from further punishment by a clinch.

Little was done in the sixteenth. The seventeenth round opened with honors about even. Both men were evidently very tired. The men clinched in the eighteenth, and as they broke away Carroll uppercut McAuliffe viciously and then gave him several right and left-handers which staggered him perceptibly.

McAuliffe and Carroll Put Up a Good Fight.

CARROLL FAIRLY KNOCKED OUT. McAuliffe Suffers Most Punishment, but Gets In on Carroll's Mouth at the Right Moment.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 21.—The purse offered by the California Athletic Club for the contest between Jack McAuliffe and Jimmy Carroll, which took place at the California Athletic Club tonight, amounted to $3,000.

First Round—McAuliffe opened with a rush, but Carroll escaped by dodging. McAuliffe reached Carroll's neck several times with his right before the round closed.

Second Round—Carroll opened by a rush and jabbed McAuliffe in the jaw several times. McAuliffe returned a hot right-hand blow in Carroll's ribs, and followed it up with a swing on the neck.

Third Round—Mac led out with his left, catching Carroll under the chin. He repeated this before Carroll had recovered from the first shock, and a clinch followed. Carroll then tried a hard swing, but McAuliffe dodged.

Fourth Round—McAuliffe reached Carroll's ear with his right, and then gave him a vicious upper-cut with his left. McAuliffe made a half-dozen terrific lunges, all of which Carroll escaped until just before the round closed, when he received a sharp rap in the ribs.

In the fifth round McAuliffe aimed for Carroll's jaw, but received a hard jab on the mouth, which sent him down on his knees. He rose at once, and several rallies followed.

In the sixth round McAuliffe again caught Carroll in the jaw with a hard right-hand. McAuliffe continued to play for his opponent's wind and reached several times with marvelous rapidity.

Seventh Round—McAuliffe continued the same tactics and landed two more left-hand blows on Carroll's body. In the eighth round there was little done till near the close, when there was a sharp rally, in which Carroll received considerable punishment.

Ninth Round—In this round there was another hot rally, in which Carroll brought a little blood from McAuliffe's forehead. McAuliffe again rushed the fighting.

In the tenth round McAuliffe landed on Carroll's ribs several times, though the blows were not hard. McAuliffe had a narrow escape from a swinging right-hand, which just grazed his ear.

Eleventh Round—McAuliffe opened the round with a hard left-hand on Carroll's stomach, but received in return a terrific jab in the mouth. Twelfth Round—This was the hottest round of the fight so far.

Thirteenth Round—Both men fought hard for a knock-out, though very tired. McAuliffe did most of the rushing, but just before the round closed Carroll gave him a blow on the jaw which almost sent him to the floor.

Fourteenth Round—McAuliffe found Carroll's wind hard just before the round closed. Carroll forced matters, caught Mac heavy in the wind and again on the jaw. The latter saved himself from further punishment by a clinch.

Little was done in the sixteenth. The seventeenth round opened with honors about even. Both men were evidently very tired. The men clinched in the eighteenth, and as they broke away Carroll uppercut McAuliffe viciously and then gave him several right and left-handers which staggered him perceptibly.