The Casket Almost Buried in Floral Tributes.

Friends Take a Last Look Upon the Face of the Dead.

The funeral today, though private, will have national characteristics. A distinguished list of pall-bearers.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The body of the late ex-Secretary Blaine was removed this evening to the parlor on the north side of the second floor of the residence. During the afternoon and evening a number of friends called and took a last look upon the face of the departed statesman. The expression of the face is peaceful and the lineaments of the well-known countenance showed few traces of the ravages of the disease that carried him off. The casket is almost buried under a mass of floral tributes, many of them received from a distance. It lies in the room where the first prayers of the funeral services will be said by Rev. Dr. Hamlin of the church of the Covenant at 11 o'clock tomorrow.

Notwithstanding the fact that the funeral will be private, in one respect the services will be as truly national in their representative character as if a president was being buried. The state of Maine will send a delegation of 14, headed by General Cleves; Massachusetts will have a delegation of five members; the Union League club of New York will send 25 members to represent that organization, and the Union League club of Philadelphia, 20. From various other points of Pennsylvania will come several delegations. Altogether 100 or more of these representatives will be present. Personal friends to the number of 65 have notified the family of their intention to be present from various parts of the country.

The services at the church, as well as at the house, will be strictly private and no one will be admitted who has not received an invitation. The family regret that the limited seating capacity of the church and the large number of delegations and officials to be provided for, leaves no room.

The pall-bearers will be Senators Frye and Hale of Maine and Morgan of Alabama; Representatives Reed and Boutelle of Maine, Hitt of Illinois and Bingham of Pennsylvania; General Thomas Ewing of Ohio; John Hay, Washington; Joseph H. Manley, Maine; Almer F. Jenks, Brooklyn; P. V. P. Ely of Boston.

ABLE TO PAY REBATES.

The President of the Whisky Trust Publishes a Statement.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—The following was given out tonight by J. G. Greenhut, president of the Distillers and Cattle Feeding company:

To stockholders of the Distilling and Cattle Feeding company and holders of its rebate vouchers: As rumors published in the morning papers might have a tendency to cause you to doubt the ability of this company to pay its rebate vouchers, the directors take this occasion to say rebates will be paid as promptly in the future as they have been in the past, and the company holds in cash assets an amount far in excess of what is necessary to pay every obligation. So far as the present question of dividends is concerned, the directors would say it was not discussed at the meeting Saturday, and would add that there is no reason to doubt that the business of the company will be conducted as satisfactorily in the future as in the past.

A NOVEL PRIZE FIGHT.

Spider Kelly Knocked Out by a Wyoming Heavyweight.

CARBON, Wyo., Jan. 29.—A novel prize fight for a purse of $300 occurred here last night. It was between Dan Mitchell, 185 pounds, and "Spider" Kelly of Nevada, 95 pounds. Mitchell was to stop the little fellow in 10 rounds. In training for the event, the heavyweight practiced running and jumping and became agile, but was unable to overtake Kelly until the eighth round. The "Spider" was knocked cold when Mitchell finally landed.

ANDREW CARNEGIE TALKS.

The Iron Baron Proceeds to Explain Things.

He Is Not Responsible for the Homestead Affair.

The Management of His Properties Is Out of His Hands.

Manager Frick Highly Complimented. Militia Called Out to Subdue Striking Boiler-Makers at Dunkirk, N. Y.

By the Associated Press.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 29.—For the first time since his return from Europe Andrew Carnegie consented to talk in regard to the Homestead affair and spoke freely this afternoon to an Associated Press correspondent. He said he desired to make one point clear at the beginning. Four years ago he retired from active business and no consideration in the world would induce him to return to it. A great error of Americans is that they endure the harassing cares incident to business until they break down when they should be in their prime. He believed in retiring and giving younger men a chance. He had sold portions of his interests and was gradually selling more to such young men in their service as his partners find possessed of ability. He was not an officer in the company, but only a shareholder, and to the numerous appeals he received urging him to give instructions in regard to the recent trouble, he says he had no power to instruct anybody connected with the company. The officers were elected for a year, and no one could interfere with them. Even at the next election, if he desired to make a change, he would be powerless to do so, and he is sure he could not find one shareholder that would not vote and stand by the present officials.

"I elect to retain my capital in the manufacturing business I have helped to build up," said Mr. Carnegie, "because I have great pride in it, and for the further reason that my capital is still made a direct employer of labor; it furnishes many men with steady work at good wages. I do not know any form of philanthropy so beneficial as this. I have not taken money out of the business for investment in outside things. I never intend to do so, and since I retired four years ago, when money has come to me beyond that required for living expenses it has been devoted to public uses. I have hoarded none and every dollar of my capital is still in the works in Pittsburgh are prosperous. Unless they are, I have nothing, and that is how I elect to stand. I take chances with my partners and have the satisfaction of knowing that the first charge upon every dollar of my capital is still the payment of the highest earnings paid to labor in any part of the world for similar service."

Mr. Carnegie eulogized Mr. Frick in the highest manner, saying his four years' management stamps him as one of the foremost managers in the world, and he (Carnegie) would not exchange him for any other manager he knew. A good workman or an able man, said he, who wished to do what is fair and right will learn to appreciate Mr. Frick. Inefficient officials or bad, unreasonable, violent workmen, he does not like, and these will not thrive with him.

A BREAK IN WHEAT.

All Because John Cudahy Had a Severe Cold.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—There were lively times at the opening of the board of trade Saturday. Wheat broke 2 cents, attributed to a queer cause. John Cudahy contracted a severe cold, which he feared would develop into pneumonia, so he decided to protect his interest in wheat by buying puts against it to the amount of several million bushels. This was done on the curb yesterday afternoon, and caused a break at the opening today. This morning Cudahy was reported much better, and was a buyer of wheat. The day closed yesterday at 78 1/2c, opened at 77 3/4c, declined to 76 3/4c under general and panicky selling, but the sentiment then changed, and the price rallied to 77 1/2c. Thereafter the market ruled irregular and easier, closing weak and 1 1/2c lower than yesterday.

KANSAS SENATORSHIP.

The Republicans Now Claim That Ady Is Elected.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 29.—The Republicans have just learned that they elected a United States senator in joint session of the two houses last Wednesday. They claim that none of the members of the Populist house were legally sworn in and consequently had no right to vote for senator; that the state senators, including the Populist members of that body, together with the members of the Republican house, constituted a quorum, or the majority of a quorum, and that Ady is therefore elected senator. Ady will be furnished with credentials signed by Speaker Douglass of the Republican house and by each of the Republican senators.

CHIEF TOPIC OF THE DAY.

The Hawaiian Revolt Absorbs All Interest.

Opinions Freely Expressed on the Subject.

Annexation Sentiment Is Rampant at Washington.

San Francisco Merchants Heartily in Favor of It—John Bull Objects. American Ships Dispatched to Honolulu.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The Hawaiian revolution has been the absorbing topic of discussion all day. In the face of the general protest stated to have been sent by the deposed Queen declaring she yielded only to the superior force of the United States and appealing to the United States to reverse its decision and reinstate her in authority, it was expected that the specially chartered steamer which brought the news of the revolution would also bring a dispatch from Minister Stevens or Consul-General Severance. It was also expected that the commander of the Boston would transmit to the navy department some detailed report of his vigorous action, but nothing has been received. The inference is that detailed reports from these officers are on the way by mail.

SENTIMENTS FREELY EXPRESSED.

In the meantime some of the members of the committee on foreign relations, before whom the matter will eventually come, are expressing their sentiments with remarkable freedom. Senator Morgan makes no secret of his desire to acquiesce in the request of the committee and annex the islands. More significant, even, than this, however, is the statement that Senator Sherman, chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations, in the course of the executive session yesterday, spoke to the same purpose.

Senator Butler of South Carolina, who is also a member of the same committee, said to a reporter: "Of course there can be no question of the great desirability of the islands as a naval station. Unless they are purchased as were Alaska and Louisiana, it will be necessary for congress to pass a regular act of annexation as was the case with the republic of Texas. I hope to see the islands made a territory, but not, I imagine, with a regular territorial government."

JUDGE CHIPMAN'S REMARKS.

Judge Chipman of Michigan, a prominent member of the house committee on foreign affairs, openly favors annexation. "I favored it in the Fifty-first congress," he said, "in a report and speech upon the Hawaiian table. I consider it not only possible, but highly desirable. The Sandwich islands are extremely fertile. The intelligent among its people earnestly favor union with the United States. As a naval station and in point of commercial advantages in the Pacific, they are vital to us. We would need them in war and we need them in peace. Their possession would go far toward enabling us to control the sugar situation. Of course a contest with England could not be avoided, but that should not effect the matter one way or the other. This country will never amount to anything more than a second-class power so long as it whisks around the corner when it sees a foeman approaching. England takes whatever she wants, whatever it may be. I do not believe in a bullying policy, but America must know its rights and maintain them at all hazards. I hope to see the limits of this country extend northward to the Arctic regions. I hope to see it with a strong defensive and offensive station in the West Indies, be it Cuba or another of those islands, and one of similar strength and usefulness in the Pacific. The time has come when the government of the United States must assert itself."

DIPLOMATS AFRAID TO TALK.

The possible seriousness of the matter, as involving relations with England, made the subject one upon which no member of the diplomatic corps in this city felt at liberty to speak today.

BLAINE FAVORED ANNEXATION.

An interesting incident as possibly showing Blaine's attitude toward the subject of annexation of the Hawaiian islands is recalled at this time. When the Pan-American congress met in October, 1889, or about that time, Blaine discovered that Hawaii had not been included in the countries invited to participate, and he spoke to the executive officer of the congress about the omission. "But Hawaii is not an American republic," he was told. He replied: "But it will be before long." By his request, therefore, a resolution was introduced in congress by Representative Hitt and passed, authorizing the president to send an invitation to Hawaii. The invitation was accepted by the Hawaiian government and Minister Carter was designated to act as delegate, which he did throughout the meeting of the congress.

When the bureau of American republics was established as the result of the instructions of the congress, Blaine deliberated that Hawaii should be included and treated as one of the several American republics and its statistics included in the hand-books published by the bureau.

CLEVELAND'S CABINET.

ONLY TWO MEMBERS SELECTED SO FAR AS KNOWN.

Carlisle and Lamont Are the Only Fixed Members—Bayard Has Not Accepted—Grover Seeks Retirement.

LAKEWOOD, N. J., Jan. 29.—It was learned today that Cleveland has filled only two positions of his cabinet with certainty, Carlisle for the treasury and Lamont for the navy. It was understood here last week that Bayard had accepted the state portfolio, but it now seems that the report was premature.

From one in close touch with Cleveland, it was learned that the president-elect would probably select his former partner, Wilson S. Biesel of Buffalo, for the attorney generalship. Among others who it is said are being considered for cabinet positions by Mr. Cleveland are Governor Gray of Indiana, Senator Morgan of Alabama, Governor Russell of Massachusetts, Hoke Smith of Georgia, Patrick Collins of Massachusetts and Don M. Dickinson.

In an interview with Cleveland he said: "The date is now at hand when I must have more time to myself. Since the election most of my time has been devoted to interviews, which is not pleasant and not unprofitable, but other things are now pending which require my most imperative consideration. Say for me through the press I shall be at my office in New York every day, with perhaps one exception, during the week commencing January 30, and after February 4 I shall remain at Lakewood, where I hope to be undisturbed in work which will imperatively demand my attention. I also especially desire that from now until the 4th of March letters be addressed me at the Mills building, New York."

BURCHARD'S THREE R'S.

A Baptist Minister Says They Were Not Premeditated.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—At Calvary Baptist church this evening Rev. Dr. McArthur, in the course of an address on Blaine, referred to the Burchard Rum, Romanism and Rebellion incident, saying many thought Burchard deliberately uttered the words with the intent to injure Mr. Blaine's cause. McArthur said nothing was farther from the truth. Burchard did not know, up to five minutes before, that he was to speak. It had been arranged that Dr. Armitage should speak, but at the last minute the committee was notified he had been detained in Philadelphia, and Burchard was called upon.

"As the ill-chosen words fell tremulously from his lips," said McArthur, "I watched Mr. Blaine, but he seemed absorbed in deep thought and he did not notice them, though he must have been the first to appreciate their importance."

A BLAINE MONUMENT.

The Chicago Blaine Club Takes the Initiative in the Matter.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—At a meeting of the Chicago Blaine club, last night, appropriate resolutions with reference to Mr. Blaine were adopted, and a committee appointed to co-operate with the committees of various political and social clubs of the city in calling a memorial meeting. It was also decided to take steps toward the collection of funds for the erection of a Blaine monument in Chicago. During the meeting one of the members who was intimately acquainted with the dead statesman read an interesting letter received from him several weeks before the last election. In it, referring to the question asked, Mr. Blaine said that since the death of his son Emmens he had felt quite satisfied with the action of the Minneapolis convention.

STRIKERS IN CONTEMPT.

A Decision in a Mining Case That Will Interest Laborers.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 29.—The United States court has taken positive action in the case of a miners' strike the result of which will be interesting. Some time ago L. C. Black was appointed by the federal court receiver of the Great Western Coal and Mining company, operating mines on the Big Sandy river. When he discharged a check-weigher the miners struck and refused to permit any one to take their places. Judge Taft has found them in contempt and issued an order that they must cease interference with the new men and vacate the company's houses by February 1st.

FIFTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

The Senate About to Dispose of the Anti-Option Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The most notable event of the week in congress will probably be the disposition of the anti-option bill in the senate. By agreement the final vote upon the bill will be taken at 2 o'clock Tuesday. It will then in all probability be sent back to the house with its many amendments. The first two regular appropriation bills are now on the calendar of the senate, and it is the expectation of the managers also to call up the Cullom bill making amendments to the interstate commerce law. The house leaders intend to keep at work on appropriation bills, to the exclusion of all other business.

A SERIOUS STRIKE.

Militia Ordered Out to Aid the Sheriff at Dunkirk, N. Y.

DUNKIRK, N. Y., Jan. 29.—At 1 o'clock this morning Sheriff Jenner of Chautauque county came to the conclusion that the strike at the Brooks locomotive works was so serious as to warrant calling for troops. The Thirteenth separate company of Jamestown proceeded to Dunkirk this morning. There is intense excitement here tonight and trouble of a serious character is anticipated. The Brooks people evidently intend to bring in a force of men sufficient to run the works.

PANAMA CANAL CONCESSION HELD IN ABEYANCE.

The Colombian Government Will Not Extend the Time of the French Syndicate Till America Is Heard From.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—The Herald's Panama correspondent says: "An eminent Colombian assures me that no action will be taken on the application for a new concession by the Panama Canal company until United States Minister Abbott reaches Bogota. In its decision Colombia will be largely influenced by the friendly counsel of the United States government. When the concession lapses next month it is probable the government of Colombia will take immediate possession of the canal and the visible assets of the company. If this is done, the Colombian government expects the aid of the United States if necessary. This expectation is based on its treaty with the United States by which that government is bound to protect the interests of Colombia. A new concession may be granted to an American and British syndicate if not, the Colombian government may undertake to complete the work as a national enterprise. In that case they would let the contract for its completion to the lowest responsible bidder. If the government should undertake the work, payment will be arranged by issuing special canal bonds. Should the United States desire special privileges on the isthmus, not already asserted by the treaty of 1846, that government might secure them by joining Colombia and guaranteeing the interest on the bonds."

Damage by Snow to World Fair Buildings Is Not Serious.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—Yesterday's accident to the manufacturers building of the world's fair proves to have been no more serious than stated last night, and $5000 is a liberal estimate of the amount of damage done. The engineers are pleased with the showing of strength made by the annex roof, as the avalanche of wet snow and ice which fell on it from the main roof was sufficient to have caused the demolition of any ordinary structure; as it is, nothing but the glass work and light corrugated iron gave way.
