INSPIRED WORD OF GOD.

The Presbyterians and the Holy Scriptures.

They Stick to the Inerrancy of the Good Book.

Arguments Concluded in the Briggs Heresy Trial.

The Enemies of the Professor Admit That He Has Made a Strong Defense. An Attempt to Take a Vote.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 30.—At the opening of the Presbyterian general assembly this morning the committee on bills and overtures submitted a substitute for the answer it made yesterday to the overtures regarding the deliverance of the general assembly at Portland, Ore., in 1892, on the inspiration of the Bible. The substitute reaffirms the deliverance of 1892 that the original scriptures of the Old and New Testament, being immediately inspired of God, are without error. This deliverance enunciates no new doctrine, and imposes no new test of orthodoxy. The report will be considered later.

The assembly then resolved itself into an ecclesiastical court, and Dr. Briggs returned argument in his own defense, occupying all the balance of the morning. For a considerable portion of this time Briggs followed the same lines of argument he used before the New York presbytery, with such omissions and additions as were necessary to make it timely and pertinent to the case. The argument was carefully prepared and entered deeply into the technical intricacies of the case.

Continuing, Dr. Briggs said: "Let me refer to a word spoken by Dr. Lampe, yesterday. He said, if I understood him rightly, 'We know nothing of Christ save what we get in the Bible story.' I cannot subscribe to that doctrine; it is a rank heresy, if ever a heresy was promulgated in the history of the church. Now let me call attention to another error made by Dr. Lampe. He said the Bible was written by Christ and the apostles. Just think of that, brethren. Did they give us nothing but what they found in the books of the Old Testament? Dr. Lampe's statement is dreadfully wrong. Another statement by Dr. Lampe in his argument yesterday is that the scriptures of the Christian church is based solely upon the scriptures. Are you ready to accept that? I am not. My faith is based upon the Lord Jesus Christ and Him alone."

After recess Dr. Briggs continued his defense. "I now wish," said he, "to bring forth my position. I shall adhere to the policy which I have thus far followed with regard to errors in the holy scriptures. I refused to accept the doctrine that the original autographs interpret. I maintained that there were errors in the texts which we have and that it is improbable that the original texts, if we could discover them, would be much different from those we have in regard. I refuse to affirm that there are errors in the original autographs because it is unscholarly, and it is against the truth-loving spirit of Christianity to make affirmations of dogma where we have no certain evidence. I have always retained, as far as possible, from pointing to errors in the present text of the scriptures, but every biblical scholar admits them."

When Dr. Briggs, in closing, solemnly challenged the court to judge him justly the scene was most impressive, and even the most unrelenting anti-Briggs men in the assembly admitted that the alleged heretic made a wonderfully strong presentation of his case. It was 3:45 p. m. when Briggs closed, having spoken in all 6 hours and 45 minutes.

Colonel McCook then proceeded to close the case for the appellants. The speaker traversed anew the grounds of the teachings of the defendant, and asserted that despite the latter's avowals and explanations they were in opposition to the holy scriptures and confession of faith, and therefore cross errors in the eye of the church. He also asserted that the doctrines at issue were essential, notwithstanding Prof. Briggs' declaration of opinion to the contrary. Before adjourning till evening Prof. Brown offered a prayer for the president of the United States and the great government he represents.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—At the evening session a number of commissioners spoke pro and con on the Briggs case, and an attempt was made to reach a vote before adjournment, but without success.

A ROMANTIC WEDDING.

The Divorced Wife of Young Jim Blaine Becomes Mrs. Bull.

New York, May 30.—Mrs. Mary Nevins Blaine, the divorced wife of the son of the late James G. Blaine, and Dr. W. T. Bull, were married this morning in the South Reformed church. The father of the bride gave her away. The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast at Mrs. Blaine's apartments. Only intimate friends and relatives were invited to the ceremony. Not more than 50 people were present. The wedding and the happy consummation of a romance begun when Mrs. Blaine was seriously ill three years ago. That she would be a cripple for life was the verdict of the physicians who had attended her. Dr. Bull, however, gave more hopeful assurance, and it is to his efficient skill that she owes her comparative good health today. After a wedding trip in this country, Dr. and Mrs. Bull will sail for Europe.

A DREADFUL DISASTER.

A CIRCUS TRAIN SMASHED TO SMITHEREENS.

Eight People Killed and Others Seriously Injured—Some of the Animals Escaped to the Woods.

TYRONE, Pa., May 30.—A train carrying the circus of Walter L. Main, on the Tyrone and Fairfield line, was wrecked this morning. The cars in which were the camels and elephants broke down while on a down grade, and the next morning the train was running wild. Turning a sharp curve, it jumped the track and landed in a dreadful and complete wreck. Three sleepers used by the performers remained on the rails. Tonight a corrected list of the dead, who were taken from the debris, is as follows: Frank P. ... J. Strayer, of Hontzdale, Pa.; William Mutterly, of East Liberty, Pa.; William Haverly, of Tyrone, and two bodies not yet identified. Of seven seriously injured, two, William Evans and Louis Champaign, are believed to be fatally hurt. A number of others were slightly wounded but were able to proceed on their journey. The animals were all recaptured, with the exception of a leopard and a hyena, which are still at large. Main's loss is $150,000.

WAS SLAVIN DRUGGED?

It Looks That Way to a Man Up a Tree.

LONDON, May 31.—The Sportsman says of the Hall-Slavin fight on Monday night: Slavin was in such splendid condition before the fight that his backer bet £1300 to £800 on him. Many believe Slavin was drugged or induced to drink heavily before the fight. In an interview yesterday Slavin said: "I do not remember clearly anything that happened after I entered the club. It is all like a dream. I knew I was fighting, but had no strength in my arms and legs."

WORLD'S FAIR VISITORS.

A Very Large Attendance on Memorial Day.

Montana's Famous Solid Silver Statue Unveiled.

The Swiftest Locomotive in the World on Exhibition.

The Awards Difficultly Not Yet Settled. Some Interesting Papers Read in the World's Medical Congress.

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, May 30.—Decoration day opened bright and beautiful over the world's fair grounds, and people began coming through the gates earlier than usual, promising to swell into great numbers as the day progressed.

As the day wore on school children began to pour into the grounds, and this evening's illumination attracted the throngs who remained down town in the afternoon to watch the great parade, so that tonight it is believed last Sunday and the opening day were the only times that the crowds surpassed today's.

Among the arrivals of transportation exhibits this morning was the New York Central locomotive No. 939, which a record of the phenomenal speed of 112 1/2 miles per hour.

The formal opening of the model battleship Illinois will take place Saturday evening.

MONTANA'S SOLID SILVER STATUE. Montana's famous silver statue of Justice was unveiled in the mines and mining building today. It is the statue for which the actress Ada Rehan stood as a model, and by so doing created much consternation among her sisters of the profession. The unveiling of the statue was the event of the day at the white city, and the great building was thronged with people eager to see the magnificent work of art. While the ceremony was in progress the Cincinnati band played national airs.

The opening address was by Major Martin Maginnis of Montana, who spoke in glowing terms of the brilliant future before that state, and how it would be the center of her citizens, and her wonderful natural resources.

When he finished, Mrs. Richards of Montana stepped forward, and taking up a small silken cord gave it a gentle pull, and the stars and stripes which encased the silver image of Justice fell away and exposed the statue for the first time to the public gaze. The crowd gave vent to wild cheers while the band played America.

When the applause had died away, Hon. J. M. Quinn, editor of the Butte Miner, made the closing address. He spoke of the statue as a work of art, of how it came to be made, and how it represented the wealth, enterprise and artistic taste of the citizens of that state. At the close of the exercises the Montana commissioners entertained their friends and a large number of executive officials and representatives of foreign countries at luncheon.

THE AWARDS DIFFICULTY. Superintendent of Census Porter is in the city in compliance with a telegram from John Boyd Thatcher, chairman of the bureau of awards. Porter said this evening: In my opinion Mr. Thatcher's views have been misunderstood and misrepresented, and if the contending parties will only get together, face to face, within the next day or two, a plan entirely satisfactory to all classes of exhibitors will be agreed upon and harmony restored.

Thatcher today had a conference with some of the foreign commissioners who told him they would not consider any proposition involving the examination of exhibits by single judges. Their declaration on that point was unconditional to the French commissioner, practically receding from the single judge in such groups as the commissioners might think important enough for a jury examination.

WORLD'S MEDICAL CONGRESS. At today's session of the world's medical congress many delegates from India were seen in the quaint costume of that country, side by side with experts from Russia. Then there were Chinese experts in the art of healing, wearing flowing robes. Swarthy delegates from the tropics and representatives from all the European countries. The feature of the proceedings was the address by Prof. Scudder on Dirt as the Principal Cause of Disease. In the homeopathic section the chief speaker was Dr. William Tod Helmuth of New York, whose topic was Surgery in the Homeopathic School. Many other delegates were heard. In the medic-climatology section the trend of the discussion favored the theory that frequent bathing is more necessary in high altitudes than elsewhere.

THE DAVIS FUNERAL TRAIN.

Received at Every Station with Military and Civic Honors.

SOUTH BOSTON, Va., May 30.—The Davis funeral train was received at every station throughout the day by large concourses of people with military and civic honors. At Greenville, S. C., and Durham, Va., special demonstrations were made. When Raleigh was reached stores were closed, houses draped in mourning and bells tolled. Military and veteran organizations were present with a funeral car. The casket was placed upon it and taken to the capitol. The people filed by in a constant stream until the journey was resumed. Governor Carr and staff accompanied the train to Danville. At Reidsville Governor McKinney and staff joined the train. Everywhere flowers were showered into the funeral car. The train is expected to reach Richmond about 2:30 p. m., and the casket to be removed at once to the capitol. GREENSBORO, N. C., May 30.—All night from Atlanta to Charlotte there were demonstrations in the way of cannon or musketry salutes as the Jefferson Davis funeral train sped by. At Greensboro Governor Tillman boarded the train to go with it to Richmond. NEW YORK, May 30.—Mrs. Jefferson left this morning for Richmond to attend the services of the reinterment of Davis' body.

AN ATROCIOUS MURDER.

GREAT EXCITEMENT AT FALL RIVER, MASS.

Another Crime Similar to the Borden Tragedy Perpetrated—A Young Lady Horribly Butchered With an Axe.

FALL RIVER, Mass., May 30.—This city is in a state of intense excitement tonight, due to the discovery of an atrocious murder, rivaling in many respects those of Mr. and Mrs. Borden. The victim is Miss Bertha Manchester, aged 22 years. She was seen alive when her father, accompanied by his son and a hired boy, left for the city this morning. On their return the murdered girl was found lying in a pool of blood. A bloody axe was found in a wood pile near the back fence. An examination of the body disclosed horrible conditions. The head and face were frightfully mutilated. The sheathing and the windows all around the body were spotted with blood. On searching the house the police found the girl's bedroom rifled of some of its contents. The girl is said to have had no lovers, and no motive other than robbery is advanced.

WALTZING RECORD BROKEN.

Eleven Denver Young Men Dance 17 Hours and 30 Minutes.

DENVER, Colo., May 30.—The world's continuous waltzing record of 16 hours, duration, established in Few Fort in 1870 by Prof. Carter, has been smashed by 11 Denver young men, who danced 17 hours and 30 minutes, and only stopped this afternoon when the humane society and the police interfered. The men were allowed six lady partner's apiece, who relieved each other at stated intervals. The prize contested for was a $300 medal. Thirteen young men started but two played out.

FOSTER'S CREDITORS.

They Will Be Glad to Receive 50 Cents on the Dollar.

CLEVELAND, May 30.—A largely attended meeting of the creditors of ex-Governor Foster was held at Forstoria tonight. Resolutions of sympathy were adopted, after which it was agreed to accept 50 cents on the dollar in payment of claims, leaving it entirely with Foster whether he should pay more if he became financially able to do so. A statement from the governor was read, saying he would pay 50 per cent on his debts soon, and he wanted to pay in full.

Summary Justice in Mexico.

PIEDRAS NEGRAS, Mex., May 30.—A few days ago Luis Carranjes left Durango to visit his ranch 40 miles distant. He was accompanied by a large party of men. The squatters learned of it, drew lots, and four of their number so drawn waylaid and assassinated him and his servant. The governor of Durango sent a force to the scene, who captured 20 of the conspirators, 16 of whom were summarily shot.

Advice to China.

LONDON, May 30.—The Times says in a leader on the many law, even if the three Chinamen arrested in New York be expelled, which is probably the furthest extent to which the exclusion act will be carried, the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to so minute a grievance and not commit the blunder of offering defiance likely to check the generous impulse of the American people.

The Pope's Change of Mind.

ROME, May 30.—It is reported that the pope is about to publish a rescript on the school question, with special application to the church in the United States. The rescript is expected to show a considerable modification of the pope's former views on the subject, and is said to differ radically in many points from the opinions held by Archbishop Ireland.

AT THE TOMB OF GRANT.

Thousands Visit the Silent Soldier's Grave.

Tender Tributes Paid to the Nation's Dead.

Flowers Heaped on the Sleeping Heroes' Beds.

Memorial Day Observed Throughout the Country as Well as by Patriotic Americans Abroad—Parades and Orations.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, May 30.—Memorial day was observed with the usual parade, and the line of march was crowded with patriotic and enthusiastic spectators. Many thousand people attended the memorial services at the tomb of General Grant. It was tastefully decorated by the members of U. S. Grant post 327, and elaborate floral offerings were sent by Mrs. Grant, the Loyal Legion, President Cleveland, the association of the Sons of Veterans, the Chinese legation and General Meade post of Philadelphia.

The oration at the tomb was delivered by ex-Governor Foraker of Ohio, who reviewed the principal incidents in the military career of General Grant, and in conclusion said: "As the years pass by, the pride of Americans in America and her institutions will grow stronger and the feelings of gratitude for those who saved the United States will constantly increase, and notwithstanding all efforts to the contrary, it will stand in history that in that great struggle the side of the Union were right and the other side was the wrong side. Not a little wrong, nor half way wrong, but absolutely and everlastingly right, and absolutely and everlastingly wrong."

The benediction was pronounced by Chaplain Rev. Mason Gallagher. A salute of 21 guns was fired by the United States warship Miantonomah, which was lying in the North river near the tomb.

INFANTA EULALIA.

The Spanish Princess Lays a Wreath on Gen. Grant's Tomb.

NEW YORK, May 30.—Infanta Eulalia arose early this morning and prepared for a busy day. About 10 o'clock she went out to a photographer's and had pictures taken. At 1:30 this afternoon the princess again left the hotel, this time for Riverside park where she participated in the ceremonies at General Grant's tomb. A troop of mounted police escorted the party to the tomb. The infanta and party drove through Central park and out through Seventy-second street to Riverside drive, thence to General Grant's tomb, where they arrived at 2:25 o'clock. The party alighted immediately and walked up the steps to the tomb. Mayor Gilroy was waiting to receive the princess. Without a ceremony of any kind the princess placed a beautiful wreath of flowers on the tomb. The party at once returned to their carriages and were driven back to the hotel. At 5 o'clock the hallways of the Savoy were crowded with guests bidden to a reception given by Commander Davis, as the representative of the United States government. Ladies in the smartest afternoon toilets arrived so rapidly that a crush was threatened. At 5:15 the infanta took a position at the west end of the private reception rooms. The ladies and gentlemen advanced through a suite of handsome reception rooms and were presented, bowing first to the princess and then to the prince and other royalties. Guests continued to arrive until a few minutes before 6 o'clock, when the infanta and receiving party retired.

The infanta, accompanied by the prince and suite and escorted by Commander Davis, went to the Fifth Avenue theater this evening. The first two rows in the orchestra were occupied by the party and members of the committee of one hundred and wives.

THE DAY AT WASHINGTON.

Graves of the Soldiers Decorated at the National Cemetery.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—Decorations day opened with beautiful weather, although heavy rains yesterday made the ground very damp. Early processions began at G. A. E. headquarters and at noon programmes at the different cemeteries were under way. The largest crowd was at the National cemetery at Arlington, where a most elaborate programme was carried out. After honoring the 14,000 dead heroes buried there, an immense audience gathered in the amphitheater where a programme of music and addresses were gone through with. The orator of the day was Hon. W. E. Simonds.

At the Soldiers' home cemetery the veterans took a prominent part. An oration was delivered by Hon. Benjamin Butterworth.

At the Congressional cemetery Rev. George L. Spinning, D. D., of New York delivered an oration.

President Cleveland came into town from his suburban home and spent the afternoon quietly at the White House, seeing no one but Secretary Lamont, who called soon after the president reached the mansion, and remained two hours. The doors of the White House were closed to the public.

A MEMORIAL DAY INCIDENT.

Gen. Black and Maj. Warner Exchange Views on the Pension Question.

CHICAGO, May 30.—The Memorial day exercises at the Art Institute tonight were rendered sensational by an exchange of opinions on the pension question between ex-Pension Commissioner Gen. John C. Black and Major
