A PLOT TO KILL THE CZAR

Another Nihilist Conspiracy Nipped in the Bud.

College Professors and Students Implicated in It.

Wholesale Arrests of the Alleged Conspirators.

Five Young Ladies of Rank Included in the Number--Rioting in Great Britain--General Foreign News.

By the Associated Press.
BERLIN, Sept. 5.—A dispatch from Moscow says a widespread Nihilist conspiracy, the object of which was to accomplish the death of the czar, has been discovered in that city. Many conspirators, the dispatch says, have been arrested. They include 85 students, 8 professors and 5 ladies who belong to aristocratic families.

One of those under arrest is Prof. Stavo Bacht, one of the leading scholars of Moscow. His connection with the plot, the nature of which has not been made public, is surprising and has created a sensation. He has never been even suspected of having any connection with any unlawful body, and his disaffection has shocked the officials. The other professors are younger men and there is not so much surprise that they should have been interested with the students. The latter are from all parts of Russia and many of them are connected with high families. One is said to be the son of a high government official.

The ladies are all young and are the daughters of men whose connection with the imperial government has, up to the present, placed them beyond the pale of suspicion.

BRITISH RIOTERS.

Troops Required to Suppress Disorders in the Coal Centers.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—Reports of renewed disorder among the striking coal miners were received today. One thousand miners gathered this afternoon near Chesterfield and then marched in mass to Oakthorpe colliery, increasing in numbers and boldness at every step. The mob supplied itself with stakes from trucks they had overturned, and marched to Shirland colliery, where they committed fresh disorders. The police were unable to cope with the crowds, and now troops are en route from Sheffield. Similar disturbances occurred today at other places.

Reports this evening show that additional and serious demonstrations are being made by the striking coal miners. At Chesterfield, Derbyshire, the disorders are particularly violent and a troop of the Sixth Dragoon guards and a company of Irish fusiliers have been sent there to help restore peace. When the fusiliers arrived at Chesterfield they found that a mob of rioters had possession of the colliery premises. The rioters were dispersed. The people in the town are in a state of panic over the actions of the strikers. The troops will remain to prevent further disorder. Serious riots occurred tonight in Yorkshire. Several colliery buildings were sacked and burned. Troops were called to disperse the rioters and to guard mine property.

A miners' riot also occurred at Tramwale, Wales, this evening, and the aid of troops of cavalry was needed to suppress it.

UNCLE SAM'S FAULT.

Why the Brussels Conference Did Not Resemble.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—Long letters which passed between Commander Everett and Sir William Vernon Harcourt, chancellor of the exchequer, in regard to the silver question and the Brussels conference, are published. Sir William in one letter says the failure of the conference to reassemble was due to the United States. England was always ready for fair and careful consideration of any proposal made by other states. There was doubt in regard to England's position and intentions. The government entirely adhered to the declaration that any interference with the single monetary standard would meet with the gravest objections.

Home Rule to the Lords.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—There was a large attendance of the house of lords tonight when the home rule bill was called up on second reading. Earl Spencer made a rather tame speech, closing with the declaration that the Gladstonian plan of home rule was calculated to satisfy all the aspirations of Ireland to self-government. The duke of Devonshire moved the rejection of the bill. The debate continued until after midnight.

British Trade Unionism.

BELFAST, Sept. 5.—At the trades union congress today Samuel Money, the new president, said trades unionism was destined to be the honored instrument in freeing Ireland from the terrible incubus of religious bigotry and political intolerance. He denounced strikes as criminal folly in cases where the resources of civilization had not been exhausted in efforts to avoid the use of such extreme measures.

Groundless Rumors.

PARIS, Sept. 5.—Alarmist rumors circulated last night to the effect that President Carnot had undergone a painful if not critical surgical operation, have been proven unfounded by the Associated Press.

Death of a Danish Prince.
COPENHAGEN, Sept. 5.—Prince Wilhelm, the elder brother of King Christian of Denmark and a field-marshal lieutenant in the service of Austria, died at Fredensberg today.

AMERICAN PHYSICIANS.

President Cleveland Opens the Pan-American Congress at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—The session of the Pan-American medical congress assembled today. A prayer by Bishop Parrot of Maryland, President Cleveland welcomed the members, dwelling on the high and important position which the medical fraternity held in its relations to individuals and the government.

At the conclusion of his short address the president declared the congress open for the transaction of business. The occasion was one of great interest, as it was President Cleveland's first of social appearance since his return from Gray Gables.

Speeches of welcome were then made by Dr. S. S. Adams, chairman of the Washington reception committee, and by Dr. W. J. Ross for the District of Columbia. Dr. William Pepper, president, then spoke words of welcome to the congress to its foreign guests, and he was followed by addresses by foreign representatives. Other remarks were made by Hon. J. B. McCree of Kentucky and Dr. J. F. Hubbard, president of the American Medical association.

Reports were made by Dr. C. A. L. Reed of Cincinnati, secretary-general, and by Dr. S. S. Adams of Washington. The general address of the day was delivered by Professor Risquez of Venezuela on American plants and other drug products.

The most important work was at the meeting in Grand Army hall, Dr. Giban, medical director of the United States navy, in the chair. The subject attracting most attention was the establishment of the national scientific center of the public health. Dr. Giban offered the first paper on the subject, discussing chiefly the necessities of hygiene. In the course of his remarks he said: "Immigration is a huge pestilence of our civilization, and our pure lake of American people. The facts show that 17 per cent of the population is foreign, while 50 per cent of the inhabitants of our asylums and hospitals are foreign. Our race is dying out. Our children are coming from the children of other races. Who is to take their place? American no longer nurse their young. How can we prevent it? Give us a national scientific body and the care and betterment of the race will soon follow."

After other papers were heard resolutions were adopted declaring the interest of the public health should and must be entrusted in any nation to a department of the government especially charged with their administration, one of its indispensable requirements of such department being that it shall be national.

DID GRAVES SUICIDE?

The Coroner's Jury Unable to Arrive at a Decision.

DENVER, Sept. 5.—The coroner's jury in the case of Dr. Graves reported that, judging from the deceased left behind, he committed suicide, but that, from the testimony introduced, the jurors were unable to determine whether it was a natural death or suicide.

There is an evident attempt to disguise the fact that the doctor took his own life. At the request of Mrs. Graves, the board of coroners' commissioners will take no action on the request of the doctor that the expense of transporting his body east, together with his wife, mother and servant, be paid by the county. Mrs. Graves did not want to be placed in the position of receiving charity from the county.

CHINESE EVICTED.

Coolies Driven Out of the Oregon Hop Fields.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 5.—The hop fields at Butteville, 29 miles south of this city, were the scene of a Chinese eviction yesterday. About 100 white men headed up 56 Chinese hop pickers, drove them to the dock and forced the captain of a steamer to bring them to this city. There are about 500 more Chinese around Butteville in the hop fields, and more trouble may follow.

A Terrible Crime.

SEATTLE, Sept. 5.—Charlotte Fetting, a German woman 80 years old, was brutally murdered some time last night and robbed of $700 in gold. Her head was beaten to a pulp while she was in her night dress. Her body was discovered by her son, who came home from the theater about 2 a. m. There were probably two of the fiends who knocked at the door, and the old lady, thinking it was her son, unlocked it, when a cloth was thrown over her head, preventing an outcry. There is no clue to the murderers.

The Peary Expedition.

ST. JAMES, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Lieutenant Peary's expedition arrived today. She reports Peary and party all well, living at the head of Bowdoin Bay, North Greenland, and making preparations for an expedition next spring. Nothing had been heard of the missing scientist Verhooff, nor from the two Norwegian scientists, Kelaterrnus and Bjorling who last year set to explore Smith's sound. Mrs. Peary is expected to become a mother the latter part of September.

A Strike at Dubuque.

DUBUQUE, Ia., Sept. 5.—Nearly 200 men, employed by the Iowa iron works in the construction of the torpedo boat Ericson and the revenue cutter William Windom, struck today a 10 per cent reduction today. The company says they can fill the places of the strikers, while the men think they will win the fight within a week.

The German Maneuvers.

METZ, Sept. 5.—Emperor William, accompanied by the crown prince of Naples and others of his guests, again attended the maneuvers of the army today.

CHARMED WITH THEIR TRIP

The Chamber of Commerce Tourists' Progress.

They Have a Delightful Run Through Arizona.

Secretary Day Compelled to Leave the Party at Flagstaff.

Elaborate Arrangements for California Day at the World's Fair--Ten Carloads of Fruit to Be Distributed.

Special to the HERALD.

GALLUP, N. M., Sept. 5.—The chamber of commerce special is nearing Gallup, after a day of delightful reminiscences. The rain which preceded us made the ride over the verdant-land mountains of Arizona, with their brilliant snowflakes, more than a pleasure.

A reception was tendered and accepted at Flagstaff. Speeches in return were made by Judge Smith and Judge Minor. At that point we were sorry to part with our popular and efficient secretary, C. E. Day, but important business required his return to Los Angeles. He turned over the portfolio of his office to C. W. Hicks, after which the party gave him three rousing cheers in parting, and extended to him a most hearty vote of thanks for the valuable services rendered and the many courtesies extended to all.

The special train is in charge of Mr. H. M. Van Slyck, general passenger agent of the Atlantic and Pacific road, who is succeeding admirably in making the trip enjoyable and memorable. The itinerary has been faithfully carried out, the train making all points on time.

Supper was had at Fred Harvey's eating house at Winslow, and it was good. We will be breakfast at Lamy. The party are in the best of health and spirits.

WORLD'S FAIR NOTES.

Opening of the Welsh Festival--Preparations for California Day.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—The weather was fair today with a cooling breeze. The features of the day at the world's fair was a parade of live stock, reviewed by Governor Flower of New York and Honorable Chauncey M. Depew, and the opening of the great Welsh musical festival in Festival hall, with what is known as "Gorseddol Isles of Great Britain," the first of the kind ever given beyond that country.

Prior to the session of Welchmen at the Festival hall a dozen members of the Bardic order met on the green before the government building. The Howells, the chief bard of the Gorseddol, mounted an unheaven stone called "men clog," and read a dissertation issued at the world's fair and authorizing the Howells, Rev. Roland Williamson, a Presbyterian clergyman from Wales, to establish a branch of the Druid organization in this country. The proceedings were all in the Welsh tongue and designed to be in the ancient Druid priests conducted their centuries ago.

Intending to hold a ball session centers in the male chorus competition, the organizations participating in which contain the cream of Welsh singers from Wales and this country.

The national commission had another fruitless session today, and unless a quorum can be got together tomorrow an adjournment for 15 or 30 days may be declared.

The special committee appointed to investigate the charges against Frank B. Higbee, a judge of awards, accused of having tried to extort money from a safe exhibitor, submitted a report finding him guilty and recommending his discharge. Owing to the lack of a quorum no action was taken.

Governor Patton, accompanied by his staff, the famous city troop of Philadelphia, and the first battalion of the Pennsylvania naval reserves, arrived today to take part in the Pennsylvania celebration on Thursday.

Governor Peck of Wisconsin will be an honored guest tomorrow at the fair. It is Wisconsin day and a big time is expected in honor of the Badger state. Saturday, California day, will be elaborately celebrated; great preparations are being made by the representatives of the Golden state. Not the least of these will be the distribution of fruit, 10 carloads of that acceptable commodity being on the way from California to be given that day.

The total admissions today was 169,939, of which 149,934 paid.

RIOTING IN CLEVELAND.

Striking Huns and Poles Create a Lot of Trouble.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 5.—A mob of between 3000 and 4000 street laborers who are out of employment caused no end of excitement and trouble in the southeastern part of the city today. The leaders of the mob were Hungarians and Poles, who had refused to accept a reduction in wages made by one paving contractor. The men at work on the sewers and street improvements were ordered to quit, and when they did not do so, they were assaulted with clubs and stones. Joseph Bailey, city inspector, was beaten to insensibility. At 4 o'clock a collision occurred between the rioters and police and four of the ring-leaders of the Hungarians were arrested and placed in jail.

THE CATHOLIC CONGRESS.

Monignor Satolli Presents the Pope's Greeting to America.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—In the name of Leo XIII I salute the great American republic, and I call upon the Catholics of America to go forward, in one hand bearing the book of Christian truth, and in the other the constitution of the United States," said Papal Delegate Satolli, wrapping the purple robes of his office about him and speaking with a burning intensity of feeling that surprised the great multitude gathered in the Catholic congress. The scene was dramatic in the extreme. The personal representative of the Roman pontiff to the United States was literally shaking under the stress of the excitement of the occasion, which was his first public appearance at a national gathering since his appointment to office, and is by many regarded as his installation into office. All this occurred after the congress was called to order by the presiding officer, Judge M. J. O'Brien of New York, who delivered an address of welcome. Meantime the papal delegate sat on a lofty throne-like chair, and to have been brought to America by Columbus. The papal delegate spoke in Italian, which was afterwards translated by Archbishop Ireland.

Satolli said the model for this and every such gathering was when Christ, surrounded by the children of Israel, delivered the great sermon on the Mount, the burden of which was: "Seek first the kingdom of God and all other things shall be added unto you." The delegate said here in America was the key to the future, and the pope charged him to speak words of hope and blessing and the message quoted above.

Other addresses were made by Bishop Watterson of Columbus, O., cousin of Hon. Henry Watterson, of Louisville, and a number of laymen.

Among those who participated in the discussion opened by Bishop Watterson, were Edward Osgood Brown, a single tax advocate, Judge John Gibbon of Chicago; Timothy Dwight, of Boston, and May Thorne Elder, of New Orleans. An interesting address on the "Catholic Summer school and Catholic reading circle" was delivered by Katherine Conway of Boston.

By special invitation, several representatives of the colored Catholic congress were given seats on the platform.

IOWA PROHIBITIONISTS.

A Candidate From the Republican Banks Selected for Governor.

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 5.—The citizens' prohibition state convention was called to order shortly before noon by A. P. Lowrey. Only 100 delegates were present. Dr. Emery Miller was made temporary chairman. He said if Governor Boies was re-elected it would be the result of the Republican convention of last August, not of this. The question was to save as many members of the legislature as possible for prohibition.

Rev. J. D. Wells was made permanent chairman.

At the afternoon session a platform was adopted. It was resolved that, as neither the Republican nor Democratic party had adopted a satisfactory platform respecting the liquor question, that a candidate for governor be nominated whose views and sentiments accord with the platform expressed by the will of the people of the state upon the liquor question. The doctrine of local option of license, or any other device by which the saloon may gain a legalized existence in Iowa, is repudiated in a most emphatic manner. It was declared that the question of maintaining and enforcing the prohibitory law of the state was regarded as the paramount and practically the only issue involved in the approaching November election, and they would not be deceived or misled by those who should attempt to divert the attention of the people from this question by the discussion of those questions over which the governor and members of the general assembly elected can exercise no direct control.

There were discussions of various amendments for three hours, but the platform was finally adopted as above outlined. One member of the committee on resolutions, Dawson of Washington county, repudiated them, saying he was a Republican.

The convention then proceeded to nominate a candidate for governor and L. S. Coffin, ex-state railroad commissioner was unanimously chosen. An attempt was made tonight to reach him, he being at present in the east, but he has not yet been found. The Republicans believe he will not accept. The convention made no other nominations.

Death's Shining Marks.

BOSTON, Sept. 5.—John S. Dwight, a veteran musical critic, formerly editor and owner of Dwight's journal of music, and one of the most earnest promoters of musical culture in America, died today aged 80.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 5.—John T. R. Mackey, general freight agent of the Lake Shore railroad, died tonight of paralysis of the heart, aged 55 years. He had been in the service of the company 39 years.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 5.—Adam Itzel, Jr., a talented musician and composer, died today of consumption.

A Minneapolis Absconder.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 5.—Philip M. Schleg, teller of the Bank of Minneapolis, left Saturday night for Chicago, and a shortage which may reach $25,000 has been discovered in his accounts. Two of his brothers have been arrested and a package of money containing $3000 left by him recovered. He also left a letter containing an intimation of suicide and the transfer of $18,900 insurance policies.

In Foreign Waters.

QUENBETOWN, Sept. 5.—The United States training ship Monongahela arrived today. All aboard are well. The Monongahela will proceed for Cadzow September 11th.

SOUTHAMPTON, Sept. 5.—The United States cruiser Chicago left here today for Havre.

The Denver Suicide.

DENVER, Sept. 5.—W. H. Smythe, who suicided here, was not a son of Recorder Smythe of New York as reported, but of L. F. Smythe, a prominent man of Albany.

THE GREAT CRIME OF '73

Stewart Springs a Surprise on the Senate.

He Tells How Silver Was Demonitized.

John Sherman's Underhanded Trick Bitterly Denounced.

The Repeal Men Get Their First Setback Hereafter a Quorum Will Be Insisted Upon by the Silver Men.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Silver men in the senate today sprung a surprise on the repeal forces in the declaration of Stewart that hereafter a quorum of the senate would have to be present when senators spoke upon the silver question.

If the opponents of repeal insist upon a quorum being present at all times, it will be a new move and may seriously interfere with the programme of the friends of repeal. Substantially the entire day in the senate was consumed by Stewart (Rep.), of Nevada, who took positive ground against the repeal of the Sherman act until silver was demonitized. The vote of the senate to proceed to consideration of executive business after Stewart's speech was the first set-back the repeal men have thus far sustained in the senate.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

Peffer introduced a bill creating a department of education under the supervision of a secretary of education, who within three years after the passage of the act shall cause to be constructed a college of scientific learning, in which shall be taught all classic and professional studies, art, etc., to be known as the Scientific University of the Red, White and Blue Cross. The bill appropriates $10,000,000 to construct the college, and $8,000,000 more is appropriated to create an endowment to be known as the Scientific College fund. The secretary of the treasury is directed to purchase platinum to the total amount of the appropriations and coin in denominations of 1 cent to $20.

Voorshee submitted a resolution for beginning the sessions at 11 o'clock. Laid over.

Morgan of Alabama offered a concurrent resolution for the appointment of a joint select committee on finance of seven members of each house to examine into the financial and monetary condition of the government and the people with a view to devising means for its betterment. Its powers are very wide, including the question of the re-monetization of silver, its ratio with gold; revision of the laws relating to legal tender; repeal of the state bank tax; the cause of the present financial depression; legislation to prevent national banks from abusing their privileges and powers to the detriment of the government and the people. Laid over.

Allen's resolution asking the secretary of the treasury if he had redeemed any silver certificates in coin was agreed to.

Peffer took the floor and concluded his remarks in opposition to repeal.

STEWART BEGINS HIS SPEECH.

Stewart of Nevada followed in opposition to repeal. He said in 1867 the mints of the continent of Europe and those in the United States were open to free coinage of silver. He then recited the events leading up to the demonitization of silver in 1873. Sherman, he said, introduced a bill prepared by a clique in the treasury department, headed by John Jay Knox, professing to revise and codify the mint laws, but which in reality omitted the standard dollar from the list of coins for the two days' debate the bill, which had been reported by Sherman from the finance committee passed, Sherman, he said, voting in the negative. Sherman very well knew, said Stewart, before his name was reached in the east, but he has not yet been found. The Republicans believe he will not accept. The convention made no other nominations.

There were discussions of various amendments for three hours, but the platform was finally adopted as above outlined. One member of the committee on resolutions, Dawson of Washington county, repudiated them, saying he was a Republican.
