There are undelivered telegrams at the office of the Western Union Tele-graph company, corner Main and Court streets, September 9th, for Rev. J. J. Fortier, H. Lechler (2), Ernest Morris.

Don't cover your head with an eccen-tricity or a survival that'll suggest a question as to where it came from, but go at once to Desmond's, in the Bryson block, where you'll find everything ap-propriate for fall and winter wear.

Mr. Sackett Cornell's paper, The Tele-gram (new series) made its first appear-ance yesterday afternoon. To charac-terize it as lively is putting it mild. It is essentially Cornelian and sprightly, and was generally read with interest.

A telegram was received yesterday by United States Marshal Gard, from Ator-ney General Olney, instructing the marshal to rigidly enforce the law in regard to the deportation of Chinamen. The deportation is to continue until the funds at present available are ex-hausted.

Desmond, in the Bryson block, has more ties, finer ties, handsomer, more stylish and novel ties than can be found elsewhere. In 50c ties he is simply be-yond all rivalry. Get your neckwear from his novel stock, and make your ties as seasonable as ice cream at a church social.

The fruit growers in and surrounding the Vernon district held an enthusiastic meeting in the Vernon schoolhouse last evening and completed an organization under the name of the Pioneer Fruit Growers' association. The following were elected directors: G. J. Griffith, J. H. Brewer, Geo. Hanna, Thos. Millesly Thos. Meade, H. R. Smith, E. H. Moran, R. K. Dorsey, Willard Bassett, Geo. W. Townsend and A. E. Putney.
