RELIEF FOR THE BOOMERS
The Hot Wave Gives Way to a Cool Breeze.
But Not Before Many People Were Prostrated.
The Registration Facilities Increased by the Government.

Every Homeowner Will Now Be Able to Get a Certificate—A Rumored Plot to Burn the Railroad Bridges.
By the Associated Press.
ARKANSAS CITY, Sept. 14.—The hot weather which is causing the homeowners so much suffering continues. The blazing sun, hot winds and lack of water and shelter are causing sickness and prostration. Six more registration clerks were engaged this morning. The work is proceeding somewhat faster. The men in line, who have been there since Monday evening, are literally exhausted. Hundreds are afflicted with throat and lung diseases, caused by breathing the dust-laden air. Many have been obliged to drop out and secure the services of physicians. Several "strippers" were prostrated during the night and this morning. The Santa Fe train arrived late last night in five crowded sections. This morning crowded trains came in over all the lines. Fully 40,000 strangers are in and about town. As the day progresses the wind gets hotter.

A REFRESHING BREEZE.
The thermometer registered 97 degrees at noon, but the wave of hot wind died down and in its place came a breeze from the northwest which was comparatively refreshing. No deaths from sunstroke are reported today.
The action of the interior department in providing more extensive facilities for registration is heartily commended, and it is now believed that all can be provided with certificates before Saturday noon.

A SENSATIONAL RUMOR.
A rumor that the owners of last horses had plotted to burn the railway bridges in the strip, to handicap those who propose to make the race in excursion trains, caused much excitement. It is believed the patrol of troops established along the border is sufficient to prevent the entrance of all unauthorized persons, and that the plot, if one really exists, can be frustrated.

CATTLEMEN WING A PROTEST.
Cattlemen having ranges in the southwest country telegraphed the following protest to President Cleveland this afternoon:
"The undersigned cattlemen, thoroughly posted upon the condition of affairs here, respectfully protest against the registration system as carried on at the booths. Ten thousands people are now in line, and thousands arrive on each train. A conflict between parties not registered and troops is imminent, unless this system is abandoned. The honor of your administration is being jeopardized. Common humanity demands relief for the honest settlers desiring to enter the strip, but who cannot register."

CERTIFICATES FOR ALL.
At Orlando today over 8000 certificates were issued, and the number of people demanding an opportunity to register was 10,000. The force of clerks at the booths there was increased again today and a night force put to work.

At Caldwell a plentiful water supply near the booths relieved the suffering men in line. A brisk north wind came up this afternoon and somewhat tempered the heat. Fully 10,000 people are still waiting their opportunity to secure the precious certificates, and hundreds of people are coming in on every Rock Island train. The number of certificates being issued every 10 hours has reached about 8000, and it is believed all will be accommodated.

REGISTRATION FACILITIES INCREASED.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Land Commissioner Lamareaux has been notified that the force employed at the Cherokee strip is insufficient. He has delegated to Chief Clerk Jacobs, Inspector Winfield and Special Agent Womack unrestricted orders to employ all the help necessary. Each booth will hereafter, it is stated at the land office, be kept open 24 hours.

DYING OF CHAGRIN.
Ex-Minister Mizner Lying at the Point of Death.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—It is reported that Lansing B. Mizner, ex-minister to the Central American states, is dying. Mizner was recalled from his post by President Harrison on account of the Berrand affair. Mizner advised that Berrand, a political refugee, should be given up to the Guatemalan authorities. Chagrin at his failure to please the Harrison administration is said to be the cause of Mr. Mizner's ill health.

VEST IS NOT A BACKSLIDER.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Regarding the statement made in New York that he had changed his position and would vote for the unconditional repeal bill, Senator Vest said to an Associated Press reporter today, emphasizing the statement with considerable warmth, that it was a lie, manufactured out of whole cloth.

Weeks Will Be Extradited.
NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—District Attorney Nicoll announced publicly this afternoon that Francis H. Weeks, the absconding lawyer, is under arrest in Costa Rica, and there will be no difficulty in effecting his extradition.
Rate of Discount Decreased.
LONDON, Sept. 14.—The Bank of England directors today reduced the rate of discount 4 per cent.

THE BUCKEYE CAMPAIGN.

Lawrence T. Neal Fires a Broadside at McKinleyism.
NEWARK, O., Sept. 14.—Hon. Lawrence T. Neal, the Democratic candidate for governor of Ohio, against Hon. William McKinley, opened the Democratic campaign here this afternoon in the presence of a large and enthusiastic gathering of Democrats of this section of the state. After referring to the existing financial depression, the speaker declared the McKinley and Sherman laws were the cause of the trouble. He said the Democratic party was pledged in favor of bimetallicism and the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman act. He declared McKinleyism the greatest foe of the prosperity of the people. McKinley protection means taxation favoring the rich. For several years the government receipts exceeded the expenditures $100,000,000. The burden falls on the poor people. He declared the agricultural interest was the principal victim of protection. In 1890 the farmers owned almost half the property in the country; now they own less than one-quarter. The difference measures the farmers' loss and the manufacturers' gain. The defeat of the Republican party in Ohio will affirm the judgment of the people of the entire country entered at the presidential election last year, and will be the final decision of the American people.
The speaker appealed to the people to vote for the Democracy, the party of the people; the guardian angel of their rights and liberties, and thus secure the destruction of the monopolists and unjust taxation.

IN AN UGLY SCRAPE.

Banker Gage in Court to Answer the Charge of Seduction.
CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—James Philip Gage, president of the Farmers' National bank of Clinton, O., arrested yesterday on complaint of Mrs. J. W. Burson, charged with drugging and assaulting her daughter, was arraigned in the police court this morning. The case was continued. Gage was released on bond. Mrs. Burson and daughter are from Washington, and claim social prominence. They allege that Gage made their acquaintance and took them to the theater, the mother sitting beside the daughter to Milwaukee to marry her. No train was found, so he promised to marry her here next day. He gave the girl a drugged drink and induced her to go to a room with him, where the night was passed. They drove round the city next day, the girl escaped and went to her mother. Gage refuses to explain, but denies the charges.

A NEFARIOUS CALLING.

Two Women Arrested for Making a Business of Infanticide.
VIENNA, Sept. 14.—A sensation has been caused by the arrest of two women, living in separate villages, in the district of Kutenberg, Bohemia. It seems they were engaged systematically in the business of murdering children whose parents decided to have them out of the way for any reason. They contracted to dispose of the bodies effectually, and guaranteed secrecy. They did a thriving business at five florins per child. The discovery was made by accident. One of the women actually kept account books, in which she entered the sums, from whom, and the age and description of the child, and the date disposed of. By the help of this horrible record, the authorities expect not only to convict the women, but also a large number of guilty parents.

OUT OF ROTTEN ROW.

Admiral Farragut's Old Flagship Ordered Rebuilt.
VALLEJO, Cal., Sept. 14.—It was ascertained at the Mare Island navy yard this afternoon that Secretary Herbert has, after reviewing the recommendations of the board which recently surveyed the United States ship Hartford, authorized the rebuilding of the old ship, and the date of the reconstruction act of congress. It is stated that Secretary Herbert has authorized the expenditure of $456,000 for this purpose, approving the entire recommendations of the board, and that orders are at hand directing that the work of reconstruction begin at once.

HIDING IN THE BRUSH.

County Judges Dodging United States Marshals in Missouri.
KANSAS CITY, Sept. 14.—The county judges of Dallas county, Mo., following the precedent set by their predecessors in their own county and by the St. Clair county judges, refused to issue a tax levy to pay bonds of the county, amounting with interest to half a million dollars, pledged in aid of a railroad that was never built, which levy was ordered by United States Judge Phillips. Two of the judges are now in hiding in the brush, seeking to escape United States deputy marshals.

THE BOMBARDMENT OF RIO

Little Damage Done by the Insurgent Ships.
Only One Woman Killed So Far as Heard From.

The Attack Not Directed Against the City Proper.
Bad Marksmanship Displayed—A Naval Battle on the Tapia—The Overthrow of President Peixoto Anticipated.

By the Associated Press.
BUENOS AYRES, Sept. 14.—Dispatches have been received here from Rio which give some idea of the bombardment which has taken place in the bay. The facts as they reach here are as follows: The rebel ships Aquidaban, Republica and Trajano yesterday made an attempt to land soldiers and marines at Gamba, in the bay of Rio. The insurgent ships are reported to have used only small firing guns in firing upon Gamba, and their first fire was supposed to have been intended more for the purpose of covering the landing of the insurgent forces, than as a regular bombardment.
The rebels, it is added have taken prisoner the officers of the gunboat Alouca, and as this message was sent the insurgents were firing in the direction of the arsenal, with the expectation of blowing it up. The guns on the Aquidaban thundered forth at long range, for the rebel ships are not foolish enough to engage the forts, and the latter replied to the fire of the war vessels without apparent damage.
A PERIOD OF CALM.
At night there was a period of calm, but hostilities were expected to be resumed this morning, unless some understanding could be arrived at between the rebels and the government. The people believe the rebel ships would be too good to put to sea, but the contracted entrance to Rio bay with Sugar Loaf fort on the left and Fort Santa Cruz on the right, is a dangerous place for them to attempt to pass.
VERY POOR MARKSMANSHIP.
The insurgents fired a few shots at the forts, but did not engage them in a true sense. The sounds of the firing reaching the city caused alarm among the inhabitants. The loss of life, so far as known, is only one. A woman residing near the arsenal was killed by a falling brick.
Both sides seemed to know little about handling modern ship artillery. At the rate things are going, the war ships will soon have to surrender for lack of ammunition and provisions. Fort Lage was also treated to a few shells by the rebels, but Fort Santa Cruz was the object of most of the rebel attention. Fort Slezia did most of the replying to the bombardment and the attempted landing of Gamba, but there is no record of any war ships having suffered any damage from shot or shell.
RIO NOT BOMBARDED.
Rio itself was not bombarded. A few stray shells fell in the city, the result of bad marksmanship, but no great damage was done.
No doubt many people on shore are in sympathy with the insurgents, for the latter seem able to keep posted concerning all the doings ashore.
A BOLD ATTEMPT.
A few nights ago a bold attempt was made by a small steamer with some government army and navy officers on board. It crept up to the ironclad at night. The tug had a torpedo-boom rigged on ahead, and was steering quietly up to the apparently sleeping ironclad in the darkness, when the search lights were turned on, and a second or two later a hail of machine-gun bullets was flying. Happily for the torpedoists the aim of the rebel salloots was very bad, and the tug seems to have got away with all safe on board.

OFFICIAL ADVICES.

Minister Thompson Confirms the News of the Bombardment.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Secretary Gresham has received the following dispatch from Minister Thompson at Rio: "At 11 o'clock this (Wednesday) morning the revolutionary forces bombarded the forts commanding the entrance to the harbor; also the arsenal on the wharf in the center of the city. A few shells were fired into the city. One woman was killed. Commercial telegrams are forbidden. The cruiser Charleston has not yet arrived."
This dispatch practically disposes of the hopes of the navy department that the cruiser Charleston has reached Rio. It is now believed that she was direct to Montevideo without touching at any Brazilian port. The telegram from Minister Thompson was eagerly read by all who knew of its arrival in both the state and navy departments, and the belief was expressed that the engagement may be a fierce and determined one. While the minister makes no mention of it, it is presumed the Brazilian government is taking active measures to repulse the insurgents.

OPEN WAR IN THE HOUSE.

Partisan Hostilities of the Bitterest Kind.
Republicans Filibuster Against the Tucker Bill.

A Hot Fight Precipitated Despite the President's Wishes.
It May Endanger the Passage of the Bill to Repeal the Sherman Law—House and Senate Proceedings.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Open war began in the house today. Partisan hostilities were inaugurated over the Tucker bill to repeal the existing federal election laws. It became apparent at the outset that the Republican members would fight the proposition to repeal the existing election laws to the bitter end. Burrows of Michigan led in the filibustering movement. He declared, in justification of his course, that a measure so sweeping as the Tucker bill, driving the national government out of the states and leaving no one on guard at the polls to prevent fraud and corruption in congressional and presidential elections, should have no status in the house until the Democrats produced their own quorum.
Furthermore the leaders declare, once it gets into the arena of debate, they will resist its passage with every expedient known to parliamentary law. In the filibustering fight today they demonstrated their ability to block matters and deadlock the house until a quorum of Democratic members is produced. By their actions and words today it is understood they are in desperate earnest, and the present election laws will only be repealed after a hard fought, exciting and bitterly contested struggle. They won first blood today by forcing the passage of a resolution revoking all leaves of absence and summoning absentees by telegraph to Washington.
Some administration Democrats, led by General Tracey of New York, knowing the White House opposition to the present consideration of this bill or any other bill in the house which may complicate the fight in the senate for the unconditional repeal of the Sherman law, acted with the Republicans today. This angered the silver Democrats in the house, especially the southern men, who are particularly interested in the passage of the Tucker bill beyond any other measure. It is claimed tonight that the president did not countenance this course on the part of some of his recognized lieutenants in the house. If this is true they will probably be promptly called off, and their position in the future, reflecting that of the administration, will show a change of sentiment at the other end of the avenue.

COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Why the Federal Election Laws Should be Repealed.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The majority report of the committee on the bill repealing the federal election laws declares that the purpose and object for which these laws were passed have long passed away. Surely no officer of the army or navy should be left to determine when it is necessary to bring troops to the polls, and the constitution as implicitly prohibited it.
With reference to those laws relating to the appointment, duties and composition of supervisors of election and deputy marshals, the report goes into the constitutionality of the laws which were passed under warrant of the section of the constitution prescribing elections, and says: "The object of legislation should be to prevent conflicts between state and federal authority. The conditions here were designed to meet happily passed away, and we feel they cannot be too quickly erased from the statute books. Let every trace of reconstruction legislation be wiped from the books. Let the states understand that the elections are in their own hands, and there be fraud, coercion or force, they alone will suffer by it. Responding to the demand for purity in elections, many states have enacted laws to protect and purify the ballot."
The report concludes that these states should be freed from federal authority; because they have been and will be used as part of the machinery of a political party to forward friends and destroy enemies; because under them the rights of citizens have been taken from them; because their enactment shows distrust of the states and their ability to guard elections; and last because their repeal will eliminate the judiciary from the political arena, and restore somewhat the confidence of the people in the integrity and impartiality of the federal judiciary.
The minority report, prepared by Johnson of North Dakota, goes at length into the constitutionality of these laws; draws a picture of the conditions existing prior to their enactment in 1869, from the report prepared then by Congressman Lawrence of Ohio, and the condition of affairs after their enactment in 1877.
It is remarkable that the minority report does not even allude to the effects of the election laws in the South. This, Johnson says, is in accordance with the policy of the Republicans not to raise the "bloody shirt" cry. They say it is raised, it will be by the other side.
