A DEATH-DEALING VOLLEY.

Lynchers Come to Grief at Roanoke, Va.

A Dastardly Outrage and Its Bloody Sequel.

Terrible Results of an Attempt to Lynch a Negro.

A Deadly Fire Poured Into the Mob by a Company of Militia—Ten Men Killed and Twenty Wounded.

By the Associated Press. ROANOKE, Va., Sept. 20.—One of the most dastardly outrages in the history of the city occurred at about 10 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Henry S. Bishop was enticed by a negro named Thomas Smith from the market where she had come to sell produce, into an empty saloon basement, beaten into insensibility and robbed of her pocketbook, containing less than $2. The fiend was captured and lodged in jail. A crowd gathered around the jail and kept increasing as night approached. At 5 o'clock the Roanoke light infantry marched to the jail by orders of Mayor Trout. Guards were posted and the streets in the immediate vicinity patrolled.

About dark the crowd was increased by 100 men from the vicinity of the woman's home, headed by Mrs. Bishop's son. At 8 o'clock a portion of the mob battered at the side door of the jail, where the militia and Mayor Trout had retired. Shooting was commenced by the mob and the mayor was shot in the foot. The militia were then ordered to return the fire and a volley from about 25 rifles was poured into the mob. It is thought about nine men were killed by the fire and 20 wounded, some fatally. During the excitement caused by the volley, the negro was taken from the jail by officers and secreted. The dead and wounded were removed to a drug store and to offices near by, by physicians. The militia then dispersed and left the scene as quietly as possible.

Following is a list of the dead and injured as far as known at present: Dead—S. A. Vick, a railroad fireman; Charles W. Whitmore, a railway conductor; T. B. Taylor, of Blue Ridge; George White; W. Jones, a locomotive engineer; John Mills, at distillery of Rock Creek; Emanuel Smith, of Norfolk; B. Roanoke; George Settles, of Vinton; Thomas Newman.

Injured—Otto Falls, Will Eddoe, shot through the groin; George O. Monroe, shot in the hand; Frank Mills, shot in the arm; Tom Nelson, leg off; Leroy White, shot in the hand; J. B. McGee, shot in the leg; Shepard, shot in the leg; E. G. Small, shot in the abdomen; Charles Howell, shot through the body; J. H. Campbell, Edward Wahlin, C. W. Figgatt, C. P. North, O. E. Taylor, H. Hall, David Ruggles, N. E. Sparks, T. E. Nelson.

Several speeches were made after the militia retired, and Judge Woods of the Hastings court assured the mob that the negro Smith was removed from the jail, and accompanied two crowds through the jail to prove the truth of his statement. His statement did much to pacify the crowd, but they hung around the jail and adjacent streets for several hours afterwards, many dispersing to search for the secreted prisoner. At midnight the scene has quieted down and no further trouble is expected. The militia remains under the mayor's orders, although it is probable they will not be called out again. Mayor Trout is firm in the position he has assumed, and declares he will uphold the laws. The dead have been removed to the undertaking establishment and will be prepared for burial. The mob surrounded the jail and began to batter at the door. Stones flew through the windows and the doors were about to give when a volley of lead struck terror to the heart of the mob. The assailants stood a moment, and turning their attention from the jail, fired on the soldiers. Round after round followed in quick succession, and in a few minutes the avenue was clear of everything, save the dead and dying. There were fully 3000 persons in the city of the jail when the military began firing, but the greater part of them were there only to see what was being done.

Five hundred is a fair estimate of the number of men who participated in the attack upon the jail. At the first volley thousands fled, and many were knocked down in the rush. None were seriously injured. The firing of the militia was evidently a great surprise, not only to the mob, but to the citizens generally. As soon as the dead and wounded were cared for, excitement and indignation was again at fever heat, and the mob swore vengeance on the militia and the mayor, and started again for the jail. It was then that the judge persuaded them to desist, but crowds continued to hang around and denounce the action of the authorities in unmistakable terms.

A REIGN OF TERROR.

Whites Prepared to Barbecue a Negro Murderer in Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 20.—Some of the leading colored men of this city, at a secret meeting today, appointed a committee, asking the governor for troops for protection against the reign of terror in the Jefferson parish outskirts. A mass meeting of colored citizens of the state has been called for Monday. The indications are for serious trouble. Jefferson parish has been declared under martial law by the residents, sheriff, judges, senators, representatives and leaders of the regulators. It is impossible to learn whether murderer Julian was captured and burned at the stake. It is believed the state troops will be called out.

Many white women and children have come to the city for refuge. Blood hounds from the penitentiary were let loose this morning in the swamp to track the murderer. On the exact spot where Judge Estopinal fell an iron stake has been driven into the ground, to which the murderer will be tied when caught. Restless pine faggots surround it, and branding irons are ready, with which he will be tortured while suspended from the gallows by the arms above the fire.

MISS GILMORE'S SAD FATE.

The Mystery of the Floating Head Cleared Up.

It Was Undoubtedly That of a Murdered Girl.

Dr. Eugene West Arrested, Charged With the Crime.

The Unfortunate Young Woman's Father Says West Confessed His Guilt to Him—The Prisoner's Conflicting Stories.

By the Associated Press. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 20.—Dr. Eugene F. West was placed under arrest tonight and is now in the city prison, charged with the murder of Miss Addie Gilmore, whose head, tied in a wire netting, was found in the bay at Sausalito last week, and portions of whose body have been found in other parts of the bay since then. Dr. West was located by detectives tonight in the house of a friend, where he was eating dinner. He submitted quietly to arrest, but had little to say upon the subject of the crime. He did acknowledge to a reporter, however, that he had treated Miss Gilmore; that she had called upon him early in the month, while suffering from the effects of an unlawful operation which had been performed upon her; that she remained in his house several days and left there about September 9th.

In answer to a question, Dr. West said he believed the woman was still alive. John Gilmore, father of the woman, told a story tonight which he has heretofore kept quiet. He says that last Monday before the head found in the bay had been identified, he became aware of the fact that his missing daughter had been treated by West. In company with several friends he called upon West Monday night, and the physician confessed to him that he had treated his daughter; that she had died in his house, and that the head found in the bay was hers. He at first said he had given the head to medical students who placed it in the wire netting, but afterwards he said he had placed the head in the netting himself.

Mr. Gilmore states that Dr. West practically admitted to him that he had caused the woman's death. He also states that the reason he did not disclose these revelations to the police sooner was that for the sake of the family honor he desired to keep the matter quiet.

Until yesterday West had his office on Turk street, this city, but he disappeared yesterday afternoon, when the fact was published that the head had been identified.

FURIOUS FOREST FIRES.

HAVOC CREATED BY FLAMES IN SOUTH DAKOTA.

A Number of Villages Destroyed—Inhabitants Compelled to Flee for Their Lives—Several People Fatally Burned.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 20.—A special from Deadwood, S. D., to the Bee says: At 6:30 the forest fire had burned to Lead City. The Homestead sawmill and lumber yard were the first to go. The flames, aided by the prevailing strong wind, are making havoc among the frame buildings of the town. Help has been called for from other towns, and 1500 men are battling with the fire. At 9:30 the wind changed and there appeared to be hopes of saving the city. The fire on the east has reached the foothills, five miles from here, and is threatening ranch property. The property of Henry Stearns was burned, and also that of Charles Trever. The Stearns family drove two miles through the flames to this city. The condition of old Mrs. Stearns, Mrs. Henry Stearns, two boys, a baby and Frank Stearns is serious, as all their exposed flesh is as follows: Henry Crawley, They will probably die. A bad fire is now gaining headway on top of Black Tail divide, threatening Central City and the county poor house. The inhabitants of Terry had left the town to the flames. Everything within a mile of the town is now a total loss and the damage will amount to $60,000. The Huston mill and dwelling house, valued at $12,000, were destroyed. Fire is raging with great fury over a district seven miles long and six wide. The damage on Centennial street is as follows: Henry Crawley, Centennial hotel, $12,000; Charles Trever, Cliff house, $8000; Charles Plunder, $6000; Henry Stearns, $6000; Charles Thompson, $5000. Deadwood is not seriously threatened, although 200 men are controlling the hills and putting out fires. The United States 60-stamp mill and the town of Perry have been destroyed. Communication is shut off and the full extent of the damage cannot be learned. Fire is burning at the fair grounds, and the stables and other buildings will probably be destroyed. A special train left here at 10 o'clock for Fort Meade to bring up three companies of soldiers to aid the Lead City citizens in controlling the flames.

A report has reached Lead City that Runkle, a small town, 25 miles from here, has been destroyed by fire. One hundred and fifty homeless people from the burned section are now at Piedmont. On Centennial prairie a number of residences have been destroyed and several people burned, one woman so badly that she may die. The fire near Lead City is under control, owing to the change in the wind, and no further danger is apprehended.

THREE DEAD BODIES.

A Triple Tragedy Enacted on a Street in London.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—When Daisy Montague, a ballet girl at the Empire, left the theater this morning she was joined by a man. When near King's Cross the pair was stopped by a second man. Just what passed between the three is not known. They talked in loud and angry tones, and attracted the attention of passers-by. Suddenly one of the men shot the woman, killing her almost instantly. He then shot the other man dead, and afterwards turned upon himself. When the police arrived they found three dead bodies.

A GAMBLER'S YARN.

American Express Officials Deny That Whitman Was Kidnaped.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—The American Express officials in this city deny that there is any truth in the statement telegraphed from San Diego that adscender Whitman was drugged and kidnaped. They declare he came east voluntarily. Whitman is now in Springfield.

An American Express official in San Diego says: "The story about drugs and force is groundless. It probably comes from a gang of gamblers. Whitman had spent some $1500 with them, and they were reluctant to part with him until they could get the balance of the $4000 he took. I believe they went so far as to petition for a writ of habeas corpus, but Whitman was not released. We recovered about $2500 of the amount Whitman stole."

WILLIAM'S KINDNESS.

The Kaiser Telegraphs Aid and Sympathy to Bismarck.

BERLIN, Sept. 20.—Emperor William sent a telegram from Genuz to Prince Bismarck expressing sympathy with him in his illness, and offering him the use of the imperial castles, which he thought might prove beneficial in view of the prince's place of residence. Prince Bismarck replied in a long telegram, in which he cordially thanked his majesty for his sympathy and the use of the castles, but said he was obliged to decline the emperor's kind offer, as his physician was opposed to his making the change.

MORE TRAIN ROBBERS.

AN EXPRESS ON THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL HELD UP.

The Conductor, Engineer and Fireman Shot—One of the Bandits Captured. Particulars of the Affair.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—3:35 a.m.—Word has just been received of a train robbery on the Illinois Central at Centralia at 2 o'clock. The conductor, fireman and engineer were shot, and one of the robbers captured. Particulars, if obtainable at all, will be late.

CENTRALIA, Ill., Sept. 21.—A daring attempt was made by three masked men to rob the Illinois Central through express train No. 3, which left Chicago for New Orleans at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and arrived here at midnight, two and a half hours late, with Engineer Ben Young in the cab and Ed McDonough as fireman. The train stopped at a coal chute south of the city for fuel, when the robbers, who rose on top of the baggage car, swung down on the tender and fired three shots at the engineer and fireman, one shot striking the engineer in the shoulder and coming out at the elbow. The other hitting him in the back, lodging in the left hip. The fireman was shot in the chin and forehead, one ball lodging in the neck. He then struck the robber, knocking him off the train, leaving him senseless.

One of the robbers had entered the baggage car in the meantime and ordered the express messengers at the point of a revolver to throw up their hands and open the safe. The reply was that the safe was already open, and when the robber was at work there the brakeman went to the passenger car and asked that everybody with guns come on, as the robbers were in the express car. An old-time brakeman, Jake Sanders of Duquoin, was just returning from a hunt and at once went to the car, opening fire just as he entered the car in which the bandit was at work. In trying to reach over Conductor Odum to shoot, he caught the conductor in the right hand, inflicting a slight wound. The robber got a ball over the left eye. The man who was captured is the wounded robber, who passes under the name of Daniel L. Joseph, and carried a traveling card from the Chicago Order of Railway Trainmen, issued August 24th; also a switchman's card issued by the Santa Fe route at Kansas City. After being shot he jumped from the car and was caught by the train, his foot being crushed.

The train was in charge of Conductor Odum, with Ben Young as engineer, and McDonough as fireman. When the brakeman was captured the train stopped.

HIS HEAD CRUSHED IN.

The Body of a Man Found in Lyle Creek Canyon.

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 20.—(Special.) The body of an unknown man was found this afternoon at the mouth of Lyle Creek canyon, about 12 miles from this city. One side of his head was crushed in and several other bruises were found on the body. The coroner and undertaker left for the scene at 4 o'clock, but will probably not return before midnight, as the travel is very slow over the rough roads between here and the canyon. The supposition is that the man was robbed and murdered. The messenger who came after the coroner said the body had lain for some time, but he could not state just how long. The coroner will make a thorough investigation.

A GOOD STRIKE.

Wonderfully Rich Placers Discovered in the State of Washington.

MARCUS, Wash., Sept. 20.—This western country is excited by reports of wonderfully rich placer strikes on a tributary of Kettle river. Two Chinamen, digging in $2000 gold, some of the nuggets weighing $25, and exchanged it for currency. This excited suspicion and the strike at Boundary falls rushed in and discovered diggings that have turned out to be every miner and prospector in the section. Claims are being rapidly staked and are paying from $50 to $100 a day to a man.

THE SWITCH WAS OPEN.

A Passenger Train Crashes into a Freight at Merced.

MERCED, Cal., Sept. 20.—Passenger train No. 20, north bound, ran into a freight train at Merced, Cal., this morning. The engine crashed into a freight train standing on the side track, and a box car and tearing the engine off the engine, besides other damage. Just before the collision the freight train reversed the engine. Then the passenger train jumped off. The freight train was injured in jumping. The train had remained here until a new engine was sent up from Fresno.

HE OUT-HERODED HEROD.

Czar Reed Turned Down by His Successor.

Mr. Crisp Is Somewhat of an Autocrat Himself.

The Ex-Speaker Dumfounded by the Speaker's Rulings.

Republican Filibusters Reach the End of Their Rope in the House—The Democrats Muster a Quorum.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The decree of King Caucus was all dominant in the house today. The Democratic majority acted as a unit on ending the filibustering which has blocked legislation for weeks. When the house met the Democratic benches were crowded. The committee on rules had held a meeting, at which, over the protest of the Republican members, the committee was instructed to report rules that would disarm the filibusters. As soon as the journal was read, Lord of California asked unanimous consent for consideration of a resolution asking the secretary of the treasury how many ounces of silver were purchased in July and August, the amount offered, and if the government had not purchased the amount, request on the law, under what authority the secretary acted. Fitch objected, and the struggle began. Burrows moved to dispense with the call of the committees for reports. Catchings, from the committee on rules, presented a report providing that no other business be in order until the reports of committees were received. Burrows made the point of order that the report was not in order, as it had originated with the committee.

REED'S FUTURE RAGE.

Barrows Moved to Lay the Motion on the Table.

Barrows moved the house take a recess for one hour. Catchings made the point of order that the report of the committee on rules was the only thing in order. The speaker instructed the clerk to read the report of the committee. Reed made a vehement fight against the action of the speaker, and declared the clerk had no right to read the report, declaring (amid Democratic cheers) that the action of the speaker was the most surprising in legislative history.

HEROD OUT-HERODED.

After some further strictures on the chair, Reed concluded: "If Herod is to be out-heroded, Herod intends to witness the transaction." He then went carefully over the parliamentary status, and concluded by sustaining the point of order made by General Catchings against Barrows' motion to take a recess.

Payne attempted to appeal from the decision. "Two appeals cannot be in order," shouted the speaker. "The clerk will call the roll on the appeal of the gentleman from Michigan."

By a vote of 172 to 56, the house sustained the decision of the chair.

Heppburn of Iowa, upon the announcement of the vote, the Republicans, in obedience to a nod from Reed, refused to answer to their names. The decision of the chair was sustained—177 to 2.

The question then recurred on ordering the previous question on the report from the committee on rules. Then motions came thick and fast. All were brushed aside by the speaker, who said the vote just taken sustained the decision of the chair, which held that no motion was in order except one to adjourn. The whole Democratic side broke into wild cheering when the announcement was made, and the wave of applause swept over the galleries.

REED'S FUTURE RAGE.

Although realizing that they were baffled, the Republicans persisted in a struggle.

Barrows moved to lay the motion on the table. The speaker ruled the motion out of order and declined to entertain an appeal. A confusion followed. A member of the Democratic side broke into wild cheering when the announcement was made, and the wave of applause swept over the galleries.
