

PASADENA.

Interesting Annual Business Meeting of the Y. M. C. A.—Notes and Personal.
PASADENA, Sept. 27.—The annual business meeting of the Young Men's Christian association was held last evening. The following gentlemen were elected to the board of trustees for the ensuing year: Dr. F. Grinnell, P. M. Green, Milford Fick, D. Galbraith, A. J. Wallace, E. C. Griffith, Dr. J. R. Townsend. The annual reports of the various working committees were very gratifying, showing some excellent work, and that the association is actively engaged in bringing help to those in need. An institution that can accomplish so much for the benefit of others, irrespective of creed or nationality, certainly commends itself to our citizens and should receive their hearty support. The visitations of the sick committee during the year have made 836 visits to sick men, and furnished 60 nights of nursing, supplying medicines, food, clothing and such other things necessary for their care and comfort. The bare figures of statistics cannot possibly convey the time, thought and responsibility expended in a work of this kind.

The devotional committee have held 53 gospel services with a total attendance of 5294. Of their meetings 20 have been addressed by pastors, two by physicians and five by professors. The services have been blessed to many who have requested prayer and accepted the Saviour.

The attendance at the reading rooms has been 7335. The social committee and ladies' central committee have given two lectures and three entertainments. An active Lyceum club has been organized, having 35 members.

The employment committee have assisted a number of young men to get employment. Four new members were elected last evening.

The following delegates were elected to the state convention to be held at Stockton on November 8th and 12th: Tilman Hobson, J. W. Patterson, Milo Bryte, L. E. Barnhart, F. A. Healy, W. H. Townsend, George Taylor, Dr. F. Grinnell, J. R. Turner, Dr. J. R. Townsend, E. C. Collingwood, Jr., and John D. Habbick.

The president appointed Mr. Frank Turner organist of the association.

At the close of the business session, Rev. J. G. Sabin of El Paso, Tex., delivered an address on the special features of the work in general. In the course of his remarks he took occasion to notice especially the lines of work pursued by the Pasadena association. His remarks throughout were listened to with marked attention and his kind injunctions will be remembered with interest as he leaves for his own home and association.

NOTES.
Mrs. Governor Markham arrived home from the east yesterday after a stay of several months.

All orders for the HERALD should be left at the office, 50 East Colorado street, to insure prompt attention.

The fire company was out for drill this morning, running to the corner of Colorado and Broadway.

Mrs. Fairchild, wife of the San Francisco paving contractor, arrived here today with her two daughters from the Bay city.

A. O. Bristol has been appointed day policeman by Marshal Buchanan in accordance with instructions of the city council. The selection is a good one.

Gov. W. H. Markham is home for a few days rest and recreation. He will, however, leave shortly for Sacramento, as business will not admit of his being absent long.

Quong Lee enriched the city coffers to the extent of $6 this afternoon, that being the fine Recorder Roster imposed for the privilege of peddling without a license.

Thrupp polytechnic continues to increase its membership daily. Classes are being formed in the new building and everything will be running smoothly in a few days.

The hand ball tournament at the Athletic club this evening attracted a large number of club members, and some good playing was witnessed.

A very pleasant social was given by the young people of the Universalist church last evening, which called out a good-sized crowd. The following officers of the Young People's society were elected: President, Robert Allen; vice-president, Miss Lida Roberts; secretary and treasurer, Dan McGilvray.

The marriage of Mr. Austin Munger and Mrs. M. B. Reese occurred last evening at the house of the bride on Peach place.

Mrs. Reese arrived from an extensive eastern trip yesterday but has lived in this city several years. Rev. O. E. Harris of the Baptist church officiated at the ceremony.

A New Cause.—When thousands flock to the STANDARDS. When every cause is presented to the public always attracts attention. A prominent physician has told that a gripe, during the last three years has done more to weaken the hearts of the world than any other cause that has ever existed. Those who have had this malady and consequently short breath, irregular pulse, wind in stomach, pain in side or shoulder, smothering spells, fainting, drowsy, etc., may feel assured they have heart disease, which unless checked at once, may result fatally. Dr. Miller's New Heart Cure is the only remedy that can be relied upon to effect a cure. Sold by C. H. Hancock, 27 E. Spring, on a guarantee. Ask for the doctor's new book, free.

aching, Aching Piles—Hall's Cream Salve will give immediate relief and is a positive cure. 25c and 50c. Off at Vaughn's drug store, 2nd and Spring streets.

SANTA ANA.

Interest in the Coming Races—Big Camp of Adventists—Notes.

SANTA ANA, Sept. 27.—The streets and sidewalks of Santa Ana are in a disgraceful condition, or at least many of them are. It would be a good plan if the street superintendent would do something in the way of having them cleaned off before fair week, when large numbers of visitors will be in this city.

Conservative estimates place the number of visitors here during the week of the races at 5000, and if 5000 visitors say Santa Ana's streets are filthy kept it will have a bad effect on the city.

That the attendance at the races here will be large is assured. Many rooms have been engaged already, and great preparations are being made.

On Tuesday next the races from the north will arrive, and from them an additional interest will be centered in the race track. This morning 400 or 500 persons visited the track and saw Silkwood go a mile in 2:11½, just as easily as a 300 horse can go a 40. But the horse, as his foot is in very poor shape. If it does not grow any worse he will be a strong horse in the free-for-all pace, but not a sure winner by any means.

That game son of Luca, Conn., owned by J. H. Kelly of San Bernardino, one of the best men on California's turf, trotted a mile easily yesterday in 2:22½. The horse is coming on finely, and is very steady.

Holcomb's Jenny June went a quarter this morning in 35, and the half in 1:11.

Marcus Foster was in town yesterday, and saw his runners gallop a little. The horses were speeded if they are running for the purse this year.

Nutford worked a mile in 2:22. The pacer's legs are not nearly right, but he will be able to get a record of 13 or better this year.

NOTES.
Twenty thousand dollars have already been paid out for harvesting the grain on the San Joaquin ranch this year, and the harvest is not nearly finished.

This money is now being scattered among the Santa Ana market.

The camp of the Seventh Day Adventists on the court house square is one of the features of Santa Ana at present.

There are some 300 people in camp, and they bring a good deal of business to the town. The Adventists keep the Sabbath Saturday, and are on principle opposed to any law compelling the observance of Sunday. This phase of their belief was fully elucidated in an address made last evening at the meeting.

Those who have big pumpkins or other vegetables suitable for exhibition at the world's fair are requested to leave them with M. J. Bundy before Tuesday, when the last shipment will be made for the Orange county exhibit.

An appeal has been filed from the justice court's judgment against E. Goodell, jr., in favor of the Santa Ana Abstract company for $38.75.

The board of education has shortened the time of recess in the grammar grades in the schools by 10 minutes, making the school day shorter by that time.

The school board would not sanction a bill for $2 for J. O. Petton's work, Life's Sunbeams and Shadows, but the members went down in their clothes and made up the price, presenting the book to the library.

The Episcopal church musicals at Tustin on Tuesday night realized nearly $30.

William L. Brassfield of Los Angeles was married today by Justice Freeman to Maggie E. Merrill of Willows Glenn county. Both bride and groom are 33 years of age.

The board of education requests the publication of the following: Ordered that children who will be 6 years old by January 1, 1894, be admitted now, and that no child be admitted to begin the first primary after November 11, 1893. Pupils who are to enter school for the first time this year must enter before November 11th.

SAN BERNARDINO.
Death of H. M. Roberts—Notes and Personal.

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 27.—The sad news was received in this city today of the death of H. M. Roberts, familiarly known as Bob Roberts, at Gila City last Monday. He is supposed to have been killed by Indians. The postmaster of that town was also killed, both having their skulls crushed.

Mr. Roberts was a prominent and highly esteemed citizen of this city, having held some very responsible positions here during the years of 1873 and 1874. He was deputy county clerk under S. P. Waite, and also held the position of deputy sheriff for one term. The body was found by a boy who went to the postoffice for mail, but the corpse of the postmaster was not found until later by the sheriff of the county.

BRIEFS.
Mrs. Will Garner and daughter left today for the east.

Henry Bell, the capitalist, of Los Angeles was in town today, en route to his mining property at Peris.

J. Mills Davies of the Los Angeles Evening Express was in town on business today.

Joseph Brown is home from the east, where he has been for several weeks.

Bud Waller, one of Peris' enterprising citizens is in town for a few days on business.

O. O. Buddington returned yesterday from Santa Ana and says that the coming races are the talk of the town.

Mrs. J. Cobb, mother of Mrs. J. L. Jones, arrived last evening from Los Angeles on a visit.

James McFadden of Santa Ana was in town today.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by C. F. Heinemann, 222 S. Main st.

250 envelopes, 50c; 100 writing paper, 25c; Langensider, 214 W. Second, Hollander Hotel.

POMONA.

Requests by Southern Pacific Officials Granted—Notes.

POMONA, Sept. 27.—The city council met last night at 7:30 in the city hall, a full board being present. As the water committee had no further report to make, a motion was made and carried that the options, as requested by the Citizens' Water company and Robert and Augusta Cathcart at the last session of the board, be returned; and it was so ordered, Alderman Hutchinson voting nay.

The ordinance regulating the speed of engines, trains, cars, etc., through the city, and the limit as to the blocking or obstructing the passage of streets, was then brought up and read. Judge Bicknell and Division Superintendent Muir of Los Angeles were both present in the interest of the Southern Pacific, and made very neat plausible and courteous statements, arguments and requests that the limit of speed be changed from six to 15 miles an hour, that the "allow up" point limits be narrowed to a half mile on each side from the passenger depot, and that the five minutes limit to the obstruction of streets on cases of public streets within said one mile "allow up" limit, be changed to 10 minutes—the points were discussed, a map looked over, and finally the two former were granted; but the five minutes limit was maintained.

The ordinance as then amended was referred to the city attorney.

The matter of lighting the streets by electricity, especially Second and perhaps two other very necessary points near the Ellen street and Garvey avenue railroad crossings, was presented in pamphlet form, 1000 copies was brought up and talked over, but action was finally deferred and the board adjourned to meet on Tuesday evening next at 7:30.

NOTES.
Messrs. Will Holladay and Carl Rolph will leave tomorrow for Chicago.

Pomona can now boast of a dyeing establishment on a small scale, in addition to the agencies for the laundry by the steam laundry.

City superintendent of streets, Mr. Petty, and his assistant, Mr. Owens, are always busy and on the alert for any repair or clean-up that may be necessary, either from their own observation or that of the inspecting bench officers.

The Mock Legislature under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., at Armory Hall opera house last night, drew a very large crowd and proved a laughable farce.

All absorbing topics today since about 10:15 a. m. has been what is termed the "Whitten trial." It is in evidence that Whitten furnished all the money in the business; that he told his partner, Mr. Francis, he wanted some money to meet an obligation on Monday; that there was more or less of a "fuss" about it; that he could get no settlement; that he had secured for the purpose two witnesses to see him break open the safe and get the money; and that he carried it and box to his hotel, where he was asked him to put the money in the hotel safe, but the clerk could not do so as the safe was full of packages at that time; that when arrested, he, in reply to a question whether he would give up the money, said that he would die before he would give it up to Francis, but that Officer Sankner could take it, he would not voluntarily give it up.

RIVERSIDE.
A Fight Over a School Location—Local Notes.

RIVERSIDE, Sept. 27.—The second high school fight is ended, and the good people of Menifee have lost.

Judge Noyes rendered a decision yesterday in favor of Winchester. Like the first case of the same nature, Hemet vs. San Jacinto, the case was caused by the trustees attempting to locate the school at a place not in harmony with the wish of the community. Considerable testimony was adduced by both factions, after which the judge took the matter under consideration and rendered a written decision, which restrains the defendants, the trustees of the Vale Union high school, from locating the same at Menifee.

On the plaintiff furnishing a bond of $1000 pending the time an appeal may be taken from the decision of this court. It is understood no appeal will be taken from this ruling.

NOTES.
J. C. Hardman arrived home yesterday from the east.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Mescham and E. A. Mescham are home from the east.

Supervisor Pierson and Assistant Lowme are working on a map of the county.

Miss Partridge, Mrs. Emery, Mrs. Brinkhoff and Miss Smith will attend the annual meeting of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society which meets in Los Angeles on September 28th and 29th.

G. Rouse is entertaining F. H. Peck, an old-time friend from Watertown, N. Y.

I. T. G. Chamblin died yesterday at the residence of his brother, T. H. B. Chamblin.

Mike Cusick was arraigned in the superior court yesterday for cutting J. W. Holmes.

Grape cutting is going on rapidly in this valley. White laborers are employed all together.

Smith's Nerve and Liver Pills.
Act on a new principle—regulating the liver stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new discovery. Dr. Miller's Nerve and Liver Pills, cures all cases of biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles, constipation. Unequalled for men, women and children. Sufferers, mail order. Fifty cents 25 cents. Samples free. C. H. Hancock, 177 North Spring.

Farmers and Horsemen—Hall's Cream Salve for horses will keep the flies off a sore, best for cuts, ulcers, all sore, something new, something good, $1. Off at Vaughn's drug store, 2nd and Spring streets.

Items of Interest.
SCHADER & CO., beer, wines, liquors, min. oral water, sodas, etc. Opposite postoffice.

COMPTON.

A Justice Court Case—Notes and Personal.

COMPTON, Sept. 27.—Rev. Charles Leach left for Chicago and the world's fair yesterday.

Lee Rice and family returned yesterday from a trip by team to Monrovia.

J. W. Morris, a former pastor at Compton, is visiting friends in this vicinity.

A visit to J. J. Harsman's cheese factory is well worth the time it will take. It will show as fine a lot of the justly celebrated anchor brand of cheese as one could wish to see. Mr. Harsman deserves a great deal of credit for what he is doing to develop the dairy business of this most favored locality.

Stanley Armstrong returned from Santa Ana yesterday, and reports the injury to Al Talamante's hand not so bad as feared at first.

Judge W. A. Gaines has been wrestling with a knotty law case this week, in which W. H. Harbell is plaintiff and Mrs. Betty Haylock defendant. The court cited Mrs. Haylock to appear and give an account of certain moneys claimed as the result of a sale of a homestead, a portion of which she admitted having used to liquidate debts to other parties. The court ordered the remainder of the money brought into court, which the defendant failed to do. It looks as though his honor could now soothe his wounded dignity by a fine for contempt.

The Coming of Woman Suffrage.
Is woman suffrage coming? It begins to look so. Out in Kansas, in a recent election, women having the right to vote, the balance of political power in their hands, and staid ladies, not merely a handful, but 95 per cent of the registered female voters. This incident is bound to exert an influence, and the chances are that Kansas will very soon be followed by other states. Once the thing takes an actual turn opposition to woman suffrage will not have a foot of earth to stand upon. Down in this country, where it is our pride and boast that our women are too good for such duties, there is as yet no agitation. But woman's sphere has of late been greatly enlarged. She is a part and parcel of our commercial, our industrial and our scientific as well as our social world. She has come to be a breadwinner, and with it a taxpayer. She is a factor in civilization's development and a formative, creative and executive entity in our political economy.

Heretofore, except sporadically, she has not wanted suffrage. If, however, her ideas are changed, and she calls for the right to make laws and assist in filling the offices, there is no doubt but that she will be accorded every opportunity. Theoretically it is a right to which she, as a property owner and a supporter of public institutions, is entitled. Practically and sentimentally her sphere is higher and nobler. The American woman, on record as an advancing citizen, suffrage, but it is bound to admit that the tendency of the times and incidental conditions are growing more and more favorable thereto.—Nashville American.

"The Song of the Shirt."
The miseries of the east and needle women form no new theme. They date back to "The Song of the Shirt"—even before it. Yet in spite of all that has been done in recent years in the way of social and remedial legislation and in the way of organized individual effort for the elevation of the "masses" the woes of the unfortunate class have met with no amelioration. On the contrary, they have deepened and intensified as the years rolled on.

Speaking generally, there has been of late years a decided upward tendency in the wages paid for men's labor, and a consequent rise in their habits, their homes and their scale of living generally. Even the wages of some women workers, notably those of skilled factory hands, have shared in this improvement, though to a more limited extent. But the condition of what may truly be termed the residuum, the lowest stratum of the toilers, the needle women employed in the cheap clothing trade in London and some of the provincial cities, but more especially London, has gone from bad to worse.

It is 50 years since Hood wrote his inspired poem which aroused such general sympathy for the class for which he pleaded. They need that sympathy more now. When "The Song of the Shirt" was written, these poor women were earning an average wage of at least 34 pence per hour. At the present time many of them—most of them—cannot average more than 14 pence an hour.—Nineteenth Century.

A Horseback Rider in Rochester.
A young woman of trim figure seated astride a horse is one of the sights of early morning in Rochester. The equestrian's skirts, for there are two of them, widen gradually from the waist down and fall gracefully on the horse's sides. Concealing the feet, stockings and all, the waist of the habit is like that of an ordinary dress. A dainty riding cap completes the costume.

The young woman may be seen riding any fine morning. She does not seek the seclusion of the side streets and the byways, but rides in the business streets and in the finest resident districts. It is an uncommon sight, and many people on their way to business stop and stare at the rider as if expecting some manifestation of a circus nature. The young woman rides as if born to the saddle, and it is evident that she greatly enjoys her morning exercise.

A horseman said today: "I am glad to see that the recent English custom is followed here, even by one lady rider. There will be more to do in time, and the horses will benefit thereby. I never have thought that the side saddle was either dignified or easy, and I am certain that the tighter the girth the harder it is for a horse."—Cor. Pittsburg Dispatch.

THE LILY AND THE LOTUS.

There grew a flower in Babylon

Whose perfume makes young lovers weep.
On it Assyrian moonlight shone,
Euphrates murmured it to sleep.
It brings back old forgotten dreams;
Its petals breathe a dead love's kiss.
Asterie bathed in it her hair,
In the gardens of Semiramis.

But Egypt has a sweeter bloom—
The lotus of forgetful breath:
Swathed and embalmed in spiced gloom,
The sad Nile sobbed its dreams to death.
It soothes remembered loves to rest
As quiet as death's waxy lid.
They laid it on Nitocris' breast
Beneath her silent pyramid.

Loneliness of the Pacific.
In the summer of 1891 I left San Francisco on a sail vessel (formerly from Baltimore) for Panama, distance 4,000 miles, and on the entire route, which lasted 43 days, we never saw a sail. Loneliness is no word for it, especially when we lay becalmed in the tropics, with our vessel floating as helplessly about as a chip on a mill pond, the ground swell keeping up the monotonous roll of the vessel from side to side all day and night and day after day, each roll being accompanied by a flap of the sails and a creaking of the rigging that might have passed for the flap of the wings and the wail of lost spirits.

When we read about Noah and his ark, we are apt to think that he must have had rather a lonely time, but then he was out only 40 days, and besides, with all the animals, etc., on board, he had plenty to occupy his time and attention, and if he wanted amusement to while away the time he had only to start a sparring match between his monkeys and parrots. True, there is no report of any such proceeding on his part, but that is doubtless because there was no modern newspaper reporter on board. I tell you a man cannot realize what loneliness or discomfort is until he has made some such trip, and if he wants to complete his education in that line he should preface it with a tramp of 2,000 miles over the mountains and across the deserts amid wolves and wild Indians, as thousands of forty-niners did.—Washington Star.

One Girl's Proposal.
One day came an offer from a man who had loved me ever since I was a little girl and who is the only lover I ever had who became my friend afterward. It seems to me I must always have known that he loved me, and he is still so unselfish and patient a friend that I always think of him as unchanging. All that he said was:

"Phyllis, we have gone this far in life apart. Can't we go the rest of the way together?" And when I said "no" and began to excuse myself, he stopped me:

"Dear girl, don't say that to me. I have loved you much too long and too well not to know you. I understand all you would say. Trust me as I trust you, and forget everything I ever said, except that my heart aches with love for you. Remember that always. Shall we walk on?"

I was so dismayed by his abrupt dismissal of the subject that I nearly fell down instead. How conventionality helps one through a crisis!—Ladies' Home Journal.

MISERIES OF CATARRH.
Complete Relief and Quick Cure

By the New Method of Treatment.

Mr. Walter Greenwood, who lives at 420 South Front street, is another enthusiast who cannot speak too highly of the success of the new method of treatment. He makes the following statement:

"I know what it is to suffer the miseries of catarrh. I did for about three years. The last episode was a cold, causing me to have a light-weight clothing I would suffer with a severe cold for weeks. In fact I believe these frequent colds caused all my trouble."

"I had a watery discharge from the nostrils, my throat was sore, and I had a very severe cough and a constant hawking and spitting. This led to pains in my chest and soreness over the lungs. My stomach became affected, and I could not eat in the morning without nausea."

"My friends advised me to try Dr. De Monco and associates. After a time I concluded I would try it under their treatment."

"Now, after a partial course of their treatment, I feel first-class. I am perfectly satisfied with the results, and cannot recommend Dr. De Monco and associates to all sufferers highly enough."
