WORST NEWS CONFIRMED.

Southern Storm Reports Grow in Horror.

About 2500 Lives Lost Below New Orleans.

The Unburied Corpses Causing a Terrible Stench.

Relief Being Dispatched to the Devastated District—Woods Fall to Describe the Awfulness of the Calamity.

By the Associated Press. St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 5.—The Republic's special from New Orleans says: The return of several relief parties sent to the storm-stricken districts of the state fully confirm the views of yesterday, and corrected lists put the total of dead at 1041. This may be increased by some 500 by subsequent news. The loss of life at Cheniere is now put at 1250; at Bayou Andre, 72, and at Grand Island 24, instead of 10. Fears are entertained for fishermen to the number of 200 living at Lake Borgne swamp.

There is great complaint throughout the Bayou Coo section of the stench of the bodies lying in the swamp. A large number have been buried, but there are still over 200 exposed. The damage at Chandler island is more serious than thought at first. Nearly all the vessels anchored there were wrecked. The United States quarantine station and the transfer steamer Walsh were destroyed and every body in quarantine lost except the United States physicians. The loss to the government is $130,000. The steward, nurse and three patients were drowned.

Relief for the sufferers poured in today. The city of New Orleans subscribed $2500, and the parish authorities of Jefferson and Plaquemine voted money and at once sent a relief expedition. A dozen loggers reached New Orleans from portions of the storm country today, all crowded with refugees and there are now between 200 and 300 in town.

According to the Republic special, below New Orleans the damage to shipping and number of lives lost aboard ships is as follows: Off the American 15, Nikita 12, Annie B. 6, Laura 6, New Union 5, Annie Bade 13, Lurd 4, General Vixie 4, Three Brothers 3, Rella Smith 3, Sino Roosa 4, Anglique 6, other vessels 6.

THE HORROR GROWS.

Frightful Loss of Life and Property Below New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 5.—The storm horror continues to grow in frightful loss of life and property hour by hour as reports come in, though it is believed approximately full details are now at hand. In the Pointe a la Hache country the death list has swollen to 80, with the prospect of reaching 100. At Shell Beach and St. Malo island the loss is about 30. On Mississippi Sound and vicinity probably scores were perished. It is reported that the Chandeleur islands were swept away, with great loss of life and property. The loss of life in the Cook Bayou country will approximate 200. The country was swept clear of houses. Scores of fishermen's canoes were destroyed. News from Grand Island this morning places the loss of life there at not above 25, all negroes. The property damage there is $100,000. At Cheniere the population was about 1400, and the loss of life is 900 to 1000. Seventy-two persons were killed on the Chinese camps on Bayou Senat and Bayou Andre. The estimated aggregate loss of life in the storm is between 1200 and 1600. The property loss is several million dollars. There were 300 or 400 fishing craft, of which nearly half were wrecked.

This cripples the oyster industry and an oyster famine for a time in this city is looked for.

Fifty-seven bodies were found in the vicinity of Grand Prairie and the old quarantine station.

At Bayou D'Arbo 10 persons were drowned. Coffins are out of the question and the unidentified are buried in trenches. The sufferings of the survivors are being relieved as much as possible and a second shipment of supplies was sent this morning. Dead bodies are floating around on every side. The calamity is unparalleled in the history of the south.

CONSPERATION IN RIO.

Frightful Outrages Perpetrated by Peixoto's Soldiers—Inhabitants Flying in Terror from the Capital.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The Herald's Montevideo special says: Word is just received from Rio that the bombardment of the city by the rebel fleet, begun yesterday, continued without cessation all day, shot and shell from the ships being thrown into the city, while the batteries manned by Peixoto's force returned the fire. The greatest alarm prevails in the Brazilian capital which is in an absolute state of panic. Business is entirely suspended; the banks are closed; the bourse is entirely deserted; workshops and railways are shut down, and every man, woman and child who can do so is fleeing from the city.

Frightful outrages are being perpetrated by Peixoto's soldiers, who are committing murder and robbery and are apparently beyond restraint. They killed many defenseless persons and carried on a general plundering raid on stores and private residences. Their excesses increased in ferocity during the panic caused by the bombardment of the city. Squads of armed soldiers are scouring the city in search of recruits. A number of churches are being pressed into Peixoto's service.

All the English residents of the city have been warned by the British minister to escape from Rio de Janeiro, as the fleet has given notice of its intention to continue the bombardment. Postal facilities are suspended. Peixoto is searching all the mail. Peixoto is blamed for drawing the fire of the fleet upon the town, as the sympathies of the entire city are with Mello. Peixoto opened fire from the shore—batteries on the fleet which replied to his guns.

A number of dispatches were received in the harbor remain inactive. Deceptive battles are momentarily expected in the vicinity of the cities of Rio Grande do Sul, Port Alegre and Pelotas.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—A high British official has received a dispatch from Rio de Janeiro saying the insurgent are agitating the city.

The dispatch adds that the bands and business offices are closed and business is at a standstill. In reference to the statement that the foreign admirals were undecided as to what they should do in view of the Brazilian government's repudiation of the foreign admiral's action in London says the action of Brazil in erecting forts in the city made intervention extremely difficult. He thought unless Brazil abandoned the new defenses intervention on the part of the foreign ships would be impossible.

A number of dispatches were received today from Rio, including one by the Bank of England, making no mention of the bombardment. On the contrary they say everything is quiet; banks are reopening and business resuming.

SENT TO SAN QUENTIN.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 5.—Ex-County Clerk M. D. Hamilton was today sentenced by Judge Pierce to two years at San Quentin for failing to turn over public moneys to his successor. The judge said he did not believe the money was taken with evil intent. The case has been pending two years, and will now be appealed.

Captured in Mexico.

TUCSON, Ariz., Oct. 5.—Acting Governor Bruce received today a dispatch from the governor of Sonora that Nicolas Acebedo, one of the murderers of Frank W. O'ary, was under arrest at Altar, and as he was an American citizen, he could only be delivered upon a requisition made on the authorities at the City of Mexico.

A TAME DRIFTING MATCH.

Bad Beginning of the Big Yacht Race.

The First Heat Resulted in No Contest.

A Lack of Wind Caused the Trial to Be a Fizzle.

The Valkyrie Proved Herself to Be the Better Drifter—Thousands of Tired and Disappointed Spectators.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Raffled by light winds, the yachts Vigilant and Valkyrie, which started today on the first of the international races for the America's cup, were compelled to abandon the contest. The English cutter was then a mile in advance of the Vigilant, and the point from which they started about six hours before was yet miles away. It was a keen disappointment to the thousands who had stood by the rails and clung to a vantage ground on board of a steamer all day. The overpowering attraction of the big race between the British and American prize winners drew the biggest flotilla that ever sailed to Sandy Hook to see yachts race, and every boat was crowded, too. From the deck of the steamer Republic Associated Press reporters dispatched carrier pigeons with the earliest news of the start, finish and progress of the contest.

There was as a matter of fact no actual contest between the yachts, not under today's conditions it has to be admitted the Valkyrie had everything her own way. The little wind prevailing was due northwest and the regatta committee decided that the boats should start away to the leeward for the first 15 miles and return to the windward. The international racers, lying close to the starting point, were busy with preparations till well on to 11 o'clock, when they began to make sail. There was a general remark that the Valkyrie's sail area was greater than that of her opponent. When the preparatory gun was fired, the Valkyrie came around and found a position under the Vigilant's lee quarter. Both boats then headed for the line. It was only 40 seconds after the starting gun was fired that the Vigilant got over the line. The English boat was about six lengths behind. When two miles out the center-board gained half a minute of time apparently.

During the first two miles the breeze freshened up a bit, but scarcely had the sport made itself known than it died out and left less air than prevailed previously. From then the boats entered into a drifting match. The Vigilant was nearly half a mile ahead, when the accident of the day occurred. The Vigilant was seen to point off to leeward, as though about to enter new waters. The appearance of row boat gun foundation for the helmsman that the American yacht had lost a man overboard and was lying to pick him up. This opinion was lost in the minds of those who held it when they saw the American boat continue to leeward. It transpired later that the helmsman simply met the wind and could not hold her on.

It was fully a quarter of an hour before the Vigilant made indication of picking up her heels again. By that time her adversary was so far ahead that it was generally conceded that the English boat must win the race unless a drifting match, the Vigilant's position under the Vigilant's lee quarter, could overcome the obstacles. When about half the homeward journey was completed, Lord Donarvon, who was on his own boat, hailed a tug, asked for a tow line and was brought back to the bay under steam power. Almost simultaneously did Mr. Leslie on the Vigilant determine to do the same thing.

There will be no race tomorrow, but another attempt will be made Saturday.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—The greatest interest is taken in England in the race between the Valkyrie and Vigilant. The various clubs and hotels and other resorts at which it was possible to obtain news of the race were thronged until midnight.

Roberts Goes Ahead.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The series of billiard matches between Roberts and Ives was continued today. Ives played poorly and Roberts again went ahead. When the afternoon's play was over Roberts' score was 5400 and Ives' 5088. At the evening game Roberts ran out in the 47th inning, with an unfinished break of 10, which made his total for the night 1000, while Ives only made 748. The entire score is: Roberts, 6400; Ives, 5788. Highest run: Ives, 202; Roberts, 143. Averages: Roberts, 21 14-47; Ives, 16 6-23.

They attempted to check the trucks to San Francisco, but the train agent who had been telegraphed refused and the men skipped. Marshal Gardner succeeded in bagging two of the men who are jailed here awaiting examination. The goods were recovered.

JUDGE LONG'S PENSION.

Commissioner Lochron's Action to Be Tested in the Courts.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Judge Charles D. Long of Detroit, a member of the supreme court of the state, filed a petition for a mandamus in the district supreme court to compel the commissioner of pensions to pay the plaintiff his pension, which he holds as illegitimately suspended. This will bring out the whole question of the action of Pension Commissioner Lochron in suspending pensions. The commissioner is cited to show cause October 19th why a writ should not issue.

THE BIG FOUR STRIKE.

A SERIOUS RIOT AT THE MOORFIELD SHOPS.

"Seab" and Officers Stoned by a Mob. Many Shots Exchanged—A Crowd of School Children Fired Upon.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 5.—The first serious outbreak since the strike of the boiler-makers on the Big Four began, occurred at the Moorfield shops today. If a guard appeared he received a shower of rocks and was compelled to retire, by young men who sympathized with the strikers. A policeman who was being assailed pulled a revolver and fired. The bullet struck a man named Stamm in the hand. Stamm showed his bleeding hand, and it caused much indignation. Tonight when a train with "seabs" aboard started for the city, a crowd howled and some cast stones. In a moment hundreds of stones were thrown against the car. A special officer stepped to the car door and fired into the crowd of school children standing on the sidewalk. They escaped injury, but J. B. Pitts, a fireman, was shot and fatally wounded. The firing aroused the indignation of the crowd, which immediately began shooting, and about 50 shots were fired at the train, but no one was injured. Trouble is anticipated in the morning.

Congressman Bryan announced his withdrawal from the Democratic party as the result of the convention's failure to adopt a free silver platform.

BEHIND CLOSED DOORS.

A Long Executive Session of the Senate.

Anti-Home Rule Appointments Considered.

A Lot of Carpathian Indian Agents Confirmed.

Spicy Debate on the Tucker Bill in the House—Blynot's Alleged Report on the Hawaiian Question.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—On motion of Voorhes the Senate at once proceeded to executive session, for the consideration of presidential appointments for positions in territories which violated the home rule plank in the Democratic platform. Speeches were made in opposition to the appointments, by Hill of New York, Davis and Washburn of Minnesota and others.

Mills made a speech criticizing such appointments in general as a violation of the Democratic platform. Davis and Washburn spoke specifically of outside appointments to Minnesota, particularly that of R. M. Allen of Illinois as agent for the White Earth Indians.

Some of the president's friends defended the appointment on the ground that the appointments so made were all of a strictly national character. Voorhes and Palmer spoke in this line. The opponents of confirmation believe they can defeat the administration. They count on all the Republicans and on senators Hill and Murphy of New York, Allen of Nebraska, Martin of Kansas and possibly Roach of North Dakota.

The senate remained in executive session until 5:15, then adjourned till tomorrow.

The greater part of the session was devoted to the discussion of the alleged violation of the home rule principle of appointing Indian agents. The objectionable appointments are as follows: W. L. Hargrave of Indiana at the Western Shoshone agency, Nevada; Isaac J. Wooters of Delaware at the Nevada agency, Nevada; Robert M. Allen of Illinois at White Earth, Minn.; James A. Smith of Mississippi at Yankeetown, S. D.; Joseph Robinson of Missouri at Nez Perce, Idaho.

The senators of the various states to which the appointments were made, and who are accepted as one man of the violation of the home rule doctrine, and called attention to the fact that, in making appointments the president violated the pledges of his own party platform.

Senator Voorhes, speaker and others of the Democratic side, defended the president stoutly. Two Democrats present, Hill of New York and Martin of Kansas, voted with the Republicans, as did Allen, Populist of Nebraska. Murphy of New York paired against confirmation.

The first vote taken was upon the confirmation of Allen, and he was confirmed by 24 to 21, while the vote of the other cases stood 24 to 22 in favor of confirmation.

After the Indian agencies were disposed of the appointment of Henry W. Smith of Virginia to be chief justice of New Mexico was taken up, and the same fight was made upon him. He also was confirmed by a party vote.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

Urgency Bills Passed—Spicy Debate on the Tucker Bill.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—In the house today Oates called up the bill repealing the statutes referring to affirmative proof of loyalty to pensioners of the war previous to the late war, and also permitting such pensioners to secure bounty lands earned in service in the Mexican and Indian wars. At the suggestion of Burrows the bill was withdrawn.

Gates then called up the bill disqualifying United States judges from sitting in cases in which they have been interested as counsel, or by ties of consanguinity, and it passed.

The bill permitting boiler inspection at the place of manufacture passed, and also the bill including the secretary of agriculture in the list of presidential successors.

The bill restoring the property of the Mormon church, now in the hands of the receiver in accordance with the provisions of the Edmunds-Tucker act, to that church, created some opposition, and Delegate Rawlins explained that as polygamy was given up the property should go back to the original purpose for which it was designated. The passage of the bill is necessary to permit the receiver to make the restoration.

After further debate the bill was passed and consideration of the Tucker bill was resumed. Murray of South Carolina taking the floor for the completion of the speech he commenced yesterday. The colored man declared that no gambler nor conjurer ever devised more plans to defraud his victims than were conceived by the Southern Democratic politicians to rob men of his race of their votes. He applied such epithets as "murderers," "thieves" and "ballot-box rappers" to southern Democratic politicians, and appealed eloquently to the northern Democrats, western Populists and patriotic Republicans everywhere to resist the passage of this nefarious bill. He announced that the bill was a step in the direction of the abrogation of the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments, and called on the people of his race to mark well every man who voted for this bill. "But even if the bill is passed," concluded Murray, "I cannot believe that the good and philanthropic man in the White House is too humane to strike down the legal walls that protect the black man." Russell of Georgia followed in advo-
