TYNAN IS ALIVE AND WELL

So Says a Man Who Wants the Reward.

His Estates Administered On Just the Same.

The Verdict of the Jury a Compro- mise.

No Clue to the Perpetrators of the Healdsburg Crime—The Newbern Disaster—Coast News in General.

By the Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—The remains of the unknown man buried in Arizona were exhumed several weeks ago and identified by fractured bones as the body of Dr. Tynan. It was after this identification that the estate of $250,000 came into litigation at Modesto. A local paper today prints an interview with James Burnes, a miner recently arrived from Southern Utah, who states positively that Dr. Tynan is alive and well at a mine about nine days' travel by team from Leadville, Colo. The old man is contented where he is, Burnes says. Burnes is seeking the reward offered for the missing man.

Modesto, Oct. 22.—The jury in the Tynan case came in at 3 o'clock this afternoon, with a verdict in favor of Mrs. Woodside and Mrs. Feguy for three-fifths of the rents, issues and profits and their stepfather's estate.
The arguments upon the legal points and issues involved are set for tomorrow morning in the superior court. The verdict was a compromise, some of the jurors favoring a larger award to the stepchildren.

EXCITED SETTLERS.

They Find That They Are Located on the Wrong Land.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 22.—Considerable excitement prevails on the Mesa Grande over the result of the surveys of Indian lands there. A surveying party in charge of E. L. Dorn, under the direction of the department of the interior, has been at work upon the mesa for about a month, with a view to the allotment of the reservation lands there to the Indians in severalty. It is said that some serious discrepancies were discovered, in some cases a quarter of a mile from the Fox and Wheeler surveys, under which most of the land has been located. Several of the ranchers have discovered that they were not living on nor were they cultivating their own land at all, and some who supposed they had fine ranches find that their possessions are now practically worthless. It is said that the present survey coincides with the survey of 1856, and that the field notes made the lines of that survey identical with the present one.

THE HEALDSBURG ROBBERY.

No Clue to the Perpetrators of the Crime as Yet.

HEALDSBURG, Cal., Oct. 22.—There are no new developments in the robbery case here, further than the finding of a bond among the papers of the city clerk in the vaults. The city authorities have displayed any action in the matter until about every avenue of identifying the robbers has been closed, and have now awakened to the fact that something ought to be done. They have engaged detectives, and developments are awaited. Treasurer Mulligan is improving slowly and is still confined to the house, and visitors are denied admission in accordance with doctor's orders. A surprise is rife on the streets as to the perpetrators, but no definite clue has yet been found.

AUTUMN SHOWERS.

The First Rain of the Season in Southern California.

ONTARIO, Oct. 22.—The first rain of the season began at 5 o'clock this morning, lasting till noon. Eighty hundreds of an inch fell. Considerable damage was done to the raisin crop, as the growers were unprepared for rain.

SANTA ANA, Oct. 22.—There have been heavy showers for 18 hours, and the weather is still threatening. Raisins and prunes are mostly under shelter; considerable barley is still in the field.

VENTURA, Oct. 22.—The first rain of the season began falling at 8 o'clock this morning. The precipitation was .20 of an inch. There are indications for more rain. Many beans are out and heavy loss will ensue if it continues to rain.

THE NEWBERN DISASTER.

Considerable Wreckage Saved—A New Survey Ordered.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—The survey steamer Patterson sailed for Santa Barbara channel today on survey work, ordered on account of the Newbern disaster. The Coos Bay arrived from the scene of the wreck this morning, with a big load of wreckage saved by the divers and wreckers. About $30,000 worth of silver bullion was included in the stuff rescued.

A GOOD IDEA.

The Next Nicaragua Canal Convention to Be Held on the Coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—George L.
Converse of Columbia, O., chairman of the Nicaragua canal association, has expressed himself in favor of holding the next Nicaragua canal convention in San Francisco during the midwinter fair, and will make the necessary call when further arrangements have been perfected. Mr. Converse thinks the convention should be held in February.

ROBBERY THE OBJECT.

The Murderers of the Wrattan Family Under Arrest.

WASHINGTON, Ind., Oct. 22.—At last the guilty murderers of the Wrattan family are in the toils of the law. Last Saturday the grand jury ordered the arrest of James Stone, who first discovered the terrible tragedy. His arrest was caused through his own wife, who testified that Stone, on the night of the murder, complained of a violent toothache and said he was going to a dentist's; that he did not return until a late hour, and then covered with blood; that Stone maintained the blood was caused by his bleeding tooth. On inquiry it was found that no dentist extracted a tooth for Stone. At first Stone strenuously denied everything, but on being assured that clemency would be guaranteed him if he made a confession, he, at midnight, yielded to the overtures and told the story about as follows:

Knowing that Mrs. Wrattan kept a great deal of money about the house, Grandson Cosby, a notorious character in the country, planned a robbery. His names were notified of the plan, Martin Yarder, William Kalgs, John W. White, Glen Clark and James Stone.

At the time of the robbery, Cosby was so drunk that he did not reach the house at all, but Stone arrived after the murder was committed, and because he was late the other conspirators allowed him in the blood of the victims, and in that condition permitted him to go home. Stone does not know why they killed the Wrattan family.

All the criminals, as mentioned above, were arrested and taken to Jeffersonville last night. Excitement is more intense than ever. Woe to the murderer if Davies county can lay hands on them!

THE HAMMOND CLUB.

A New Fraternal Organization Formed in Indiana.

HAMMOND, Ind., Oct. 22.—In this city during the past week organization was perfected and articles of association drawn for the Hammond club to take possession of the Roby arena to give contests of science and skill that will come wholly within the law passed by the last legislature. The members of the new organization are all residents of Hammond, and among them are influential citizens and the wealthiest men of Lake county. The superdees granted by the supreme court was asked for by the new organization, and as soon as the club is incorporated will be ready for business. There will be no more prize fights, as the members believe they attempt to conduct a fight Governor Matthews would order out the militia. The opening under the new organization will be a benefit for Griffith and La Vigne.

WORLD'S FAIR NOTES.

The Largest Sunday Attendance of the Season.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—The attendance at the fair the past week was less by several thousand than the previous week.
Today saw probably the largest crowd ever assembled at the exposition on Sunday. The principal attraction during the afternoon was a concert given by the Thirtieth regiment band of New York. The Elgin, Ill., band gave an enjoyable concert tonight. The old guard of New York today held divine services at its headquarters in the Grand Pacific hotel, which were largely attended. The feast of the fair for the coming week will be marine day, which will be celebrated on Wednesday. Today's attendance was 152,205, 140,578 paying.

GRAND TRUNK WRECK.

The List of Dead Now Numbers
Twenty-eight.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Oct. 22.—Thirteen of the 23 dead as the result of the result of the Grand Trunk wreck here Friday morning have been identified.
Albert Bradley, whose leg was amputated, died today. There are still 22 badly injured in the hospital; of these Mrs.
Vance cannot live.

This afternoon friends identified one of the burned bodies as that of the widow of Dr. Aldrich, of Edwardsburg, Mich. There are now 14 of the fair for bodies. The following are known to be among those burned to death: Mrs. A.
K. Warner, of Brockport, N. Y.; Mrs. J.
A. Wood, of Odessa, N. Y.

EULENBERG RESIGNS.

A Movement on Foot to Oust Chancelor Caprivi.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The Herald's special Berlin dispatch says: It is rumored that Count Von Eulenber, president of the Prussian ministry, has, owing to a difference between himself and Count Von Caprivi over the Russian commercial treaty, sent his resignation to the emperor. It is said this is the beginning of a powerful effort to oust Count Von Caprivi from his present position.

ONLY TOO TRUE.

Chancellor Caprivi Falls Down on a Libel Suit.

BERLIN, Oct. 22.—Chancellor Von Caprivi presented the Vossische newspaper for libel in declaring that ex-Governor Gordon while in office at Cameroons, in West Africa, entered into a commercial enterprise and bought land which he resold to the government at a profit. The court dismissed the suit on Friday, finding the charges were true.

READY TO RESUME.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 22.—The First National bank of Ellensburg, Wash., which suspended in July last, will reerate prices from H. A. Getz, 112 West

POMP OF PEACE AND WAR.

The Imposing Funeral of Marshal MacMahon.

Many Emblems of Mourning Were Displayed.

Distinguished Personages Partici- pate in the Ceremonies.

Paris Streets Packed With People Anxious to View the Cortege—M.
Dupuy's Tribute to the Dead.

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, Oct. 22.—Amid all the pomp of peace and war the remains of Marshal MacMahon, ex-president of France and duke of Magenta, were conveyed today from the church of La Madeleine, where they were deposited upon arrival from Cressen last night, to the Hotel des Invalides, the resting place after death of the distinguished sons of France.

By 9 o'clock this morning the streets and boulevards near the Madeleine and the Hotel des Invalides were crowded with people anxious to see the funeral. La Madeleine was draped with mourning-bands, presenting a peculiarly sad appearance amidst so much fete decoration. Along the route of the funeral procession many emblems of mourning were displayed.

At 9 o'clock this morning the coffin was placed on a catafalque beneath the rear grand portico of La Madeleine. The remains of the famous soldier and statesman were then viewed by a vast crowd.

The catafalque was surrounded by a military guard of honor and the entire route from the Madeleine to Des Invalides was lined with troops. Countless beautiful wreaths, crosses and pillars of flowers were placed upon and around the casket. Floral offerings were received from Queen Victoria, the Prince of Wales, Emperor William of Germany, the Russian Mediterranean squadron, King Humbert of Italy, the city of Milan, and a number of Italian officers.

At 10:30 distinguished personages began to arrive to participate in the obse-quies. First came Gen. Bois d'Espre, chief of the general staff of the French army, and Gen. Sausser, military commander of Paris, followed by two German attaches of the imperial embassy.
Soon after the Russian visiting officers, headed by Admiral Avellan arrived.

The next party to arrive was the Marquis of Dufferin, British ambassador, followed by all the other members of the diplomatic corps.
The streets were packed with people. All the windows and balconies were filled and every available house-top had occupants. Dull, long, low, rolling, muffled military drums broke upon the air at 11:20, and shortly afterwards the troops of honor of France all down the Rue Royale and the funeral cortege started on its journey, headed by a group of priests. Behind the priests came the coffin, borne upon the shoulders of non-commissioned officers and followed by representatives of President Carnot, the emperor of Germany, the visitors, and as a soldier and patriot he well understood their significance.

A most impressive march past the coffin by troops followed. After this ceremony and the last tribute of respect upon the part of the military authorities, the coffin was slowly borne to the cathedral reserved for the convulsions of France, during which the choir chanted De Profundis in a most impressive manner.
When all the funeral ceremonies were completed, Marshal Canrobert, the last of the French marshals, was presented with the remnants of two flags by Crimean veterans.

IRISH DYNAMITERS.

No Prospect of Amnesty Being Given the Convicts.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—In a speech last night Home Secretary Asquith referred to the Irish dynamiters now in prison.
The dynamiters, Asquith said, were fairly convicted, and it would not be right to extend toward them any further consideration than is shown toward any other class of convicts. The secretary admitted that there was one case, however, whereupon he entertained a reasonable doubt of the justice of the conviction.

Conk, Oct. 22.—John Redmond, the Parliament leader, in a policy in this city today, said amnesty for the Irish dynamiters was demanded because the Irish people believed all of the Irish political prisoners were honest patriots.

DUBLIN, Oct. 22.—A big Parnellite demonstration was held here today.
The meeting advocated a policy of hostility toward the members of the Mc-Carthyite party. Resolutions were enthusiastically adopted demanding the release of the dynamiters, the reinstatement of the evicted tenants and the repeal of the coercion act.

RAILWAY DISASTER.

Dense Fog Causes a Wreck on the Pittsburg and Chicago Road.

LIMA, O., Oct. 22.—A bad wreck occurred on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road in a dense fog about 6 o'clock this morning between the second section of westbound vestibule train No.
25, which was standing at a switch near Monroeville, and the second section of eastbound passenger train No. 4. The eastbound train was late and running at a good speed, but Engineer Cowan commenced to slow up, as he thought it was about time for him to reach the switch. Suddenly the other train loomed up, and before he could jump they crashed into each other and piled up in a wreck. Engineer Cowan was frightfully scalded. Fireman Daily was badly hurt. Brakeman Flint is suffering from wounds which may result fatally. The first car from the engine was not damaged, but the two following were smashed and some passengers were hurt, two seriously. Mrs. Anna Smith of North Jackson and Miss Nettie Wilson of Allegheny. On the westbound train the engineer and fireman escaped, but the tender was driven through the baggage car, pinning Baggage Master Stevens under the debris, fatally injuring him, it is thought.

AN OBJECT LESSON.

Seven W. C. T. U. Workers Visit the Remains of the Wrecked Train.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Seven members of the Woman's Christian Temperance congress, which closed its session here Saturday night, escorted by detectives from the Central station last night, made a slumming tour through the "leaves" district.

The party consisted of the following well-known ladies:
Miss Mollie Hay, Indianapolis; Mrs. E.
L. Calkins, South Bend; Mrs. Ella Moore, Lakeville; Mrs. Emily Tompkins, Elkhart; Mrs. Addie Field, Indianapolis; Mrs. Leonard Ayres, Indianapolis; Mrs. Mendenhall, Richmond; Mrs. Gertrude Fulton, Richmond. At the first place visited the party were denied admission because too many people were already there, but received an invitation to come again. At another place all of the men, save one, fled from the house. This individual was drunk and insisted upon dancing with the missionaries, but was finally scolded by the officers. The information gained will undoubtedly aid the ladies in conducting a warfare against vice and intemperance.

NEGROES LYNCHED.

Dark Crimes of Black Fiends Speedily Exploited.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 22.—Friday evening, near Pikeville, an orphan girl, Miss Rosa Batry, was found with her throat cut from ear to ear. An examination showed that she was outraged before being murdered. A negro named Cambriel, arrested this morning charged with the murder, made a complete confession. A mob took Cambriel from the officers and strung him to a tree.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 22.—Ned Jenkins, a negro, was lynched in Clayborne county last night, he having confessed that he poisoned Wm. Burke's family of seven a few days before.

A TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

The Result of a Young Lawyer's Domestic Troubles.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 22.—Tonight at Sioux Falls, S. D., Harry Lacy, a lawyer and real estate agent, shot and killed his wife, his mother-in-law, Mrs. Lida Bunker, and then sent a bullet through his own brain. A year ago Mrs. Lacy applied for a divorce, but the proceedings were dropped and Lacy and wife were again living together. The tragedy occurred in Mrs. Bunker's house, where Mrs. Lacy had gone for an afternoon visit. Lacy's two children witnessed the murder and suicide. Yesterday Lacy settled up all his small bills.

MURDERED AND ROBBED.

The Fate of a Wealthy Colored Man at Washington, Pa.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Samuel Dorsey, a widely known and prosperous colored citizen, was murdered and robbed by two unknown men on one of the principal thoroughfares of this town this morning. The town is wild with excitement and armed posers are searching for the murderers. A report from Johnstown station says detectives, with a posse, have two men penned up in a coal shaft there.

THE KAISER IN DRESDEN.

Fetes in Honor of King Albert Auspiciously Begun.

DRESDEN, Oct. 22.—Kaiser Wilhelm arrived here today to attend the military jubilee of King Albert of Saxony.
The Kaiser was loudly cheered on alighting from the cars, and the cheering was kept up until his arrival at the palace.
The emperor presented King Albert a field marshal's baton. This evening a banquet was given in honor of the imperial guest.

council of the Protestant Episcopal church formally opened here tonight.

Outlook in Congress for the Coming Week.

What One Who Claims to Know Says Will Be Done.

Prospects of a Compromise Ex- ceedingly Favorable.

No New Supporters of the Bill Have Been Secured but Everything Points to Its Passage This Week Nevertheless.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—A man high in the councils of the administration said tonight: "The president adheres to the position that the purchasing clause of the Sherman law should be unconditionally repealed. The lower house of congress voted for repeal by an overwhelming majority. The majority in the senate was in favor of unconditional repeal, and the sentiment of the country demands the passage of the pending bill. It is not true that Secretary Carlisle has been in favor of the compromise which was subscribed to by a number of Senators on Saturday. He and other members of the cabinet are opposed to that measure."

Even though the compromise bill will be brought into the senate tomorrow, there is little prospect of concluding consideration of the question before the latter part of the week. There is a possibility that the compromise may fail, though all the probabilities are in favor of its success. If it should fail the thro-tle will be thrown wide open, and no one can foretell what the week might bring forth.

The course of events in the house the coming week will hinge upon the result of the effort to put through the compromise at the other end of the capitol. It is not expected, however, that it will reach the house until near the end of the week.
