

LOS ANGELES, 7; OAKLAND, 14.

The Visitors Grasp Victory from Defeat.

After a Good Start the Angels Fall by the Wayside.

The Game Lost by Poor Fielding at Critical Moments—Coaching Was a Feature—How It All Was Done.

Again the Angels have met the Oakland aggregation, and again the local players have succumbed to the prowess of the northern citrus belt. It ought to have been different. The Angels made enough runs in the first inning to have won the fastest game ever played in the league, but it seems they didn't keep it up long enough. The representatives from the land of fogs and strong winds had recuperative powers that no one dreamed of, and they won an up-hill game that should make them more than proud.

On both sides the first inning was unproductive, but in the second there was very material execution done. For the Angels, Reitz reached first by outrunning a short infield hit. Glenavlin followed him with an easy out to the right field. Griffith came next with what should have been an out at first, but Denny threw too late and wide of the mark, and Reitz tallied. McNabb hit for two bases, and both he and Griffith scored on Irwin's double.

The visitors made five runs in their half. Hines went to Peter Nab, but Hardie walked. Cantillon followed him with a hit, and O'Neill was given four wild ones. Speer flew out to Glenavlin, but the latter could not return the ball to the plate in time to out of Hardie's run. Devereux also waited for permission to walk and again the bases were full. Hernon came next with a base hit that scored two, and Irwin's error of Van Haltron's drive gave the visitors a total of five runs.

The Angels made one in the third, fourth and fifth innings and one again in the seventh, but even that, with one more in the seventh, was not enough to win.

In the third inning the Oakland made three runs on a lot of clean hitting, and four more in the sixth by virtue of one hit and a few opportune errors and a couple of bases on balls. They also added two in the eighth by way of a clincher, but they did not need them.

Score for Los Angeles: Irwin, ss, 4; O'Neill, 1b, 0; Reitz, 2b, 4; Cantillon, 3b, 2; Griffith, cf, 4; Denny, lf, 4; McNabb, rf, 4; Speer, c, 3; Devereux, p, 2. Total, 30. Runs by innings: 1-0, 2-5, 3-1, 4-0, 5-1, 6-4, 7-1, 8-2, 9-0.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

Work on the New Clark & Bryan Tract Progressing Nicely. A representative of the HERALD took a trip recently to the Clark & Bryan tract, at the corner of Eighth and San Pedro streets, where a busier scene than that which met his gaze would hardly be hard to find. House movers, street graders, wood choppers, etc., were at work in a manner as if vying one with another as to who should be ready first for the surveyor.

Mr. Clark was seen yesterday morning in his office and informed the scribe that, owing to the rain, the day of the announcement for the sale will necessarily be postponed for a few days, but that the announcement will be made within a short time from this date. Lots in this tract will doubtless be taken rapidly immediately they are placed upon the market, as it was learned that a large number has already been selected, both by actual home seekers and investors.

The Best Sugar Factory at Chino Will be open for inspection on Tuesday, October 31st. To reach the same take the grand excursion train which leaves the Arcade station on Tuesday, October 31st, at 9:30 o'clock a. m. It will be a fine opportunity for a day's outing, and the expense only $1 (including a collection) for the round trip. Easton, Eldridge & Co. will also sell 1000 acres of the choice Chino ranch land from under their big tent.

Grand Excursion. Easton, Eldridge & Co. will run to the important town of Chino a grand excursion, leaving the Arcade depot on Tuesday, October 31st, at 9:30 o'clock a. m. The best sugar factory will be open for inspection and 1000 acres of the choicest land, adjoining the town, will be sold at auction.

THE ORANGE GROWERS.

The District Organization Perfected at Yesterday's Meeting.

The fruit growers held a meeting at the chamber of commerce rooms yesterday afternoon to perfect the work of district organization. Mr. Burr of San Fernando acting as chairman and Mr. Sherer of Glendale as secretary.

Mr. Chamblin of Riverside stated the object of the meeting and outlined the plan for the work. There were delegates present from the following local organizations: Fernando, Glendale, Vernon, Pasadena, Duarte, Monrovia, Rivera, Downey and Alhambra. The incorporation of all these organizations into a new incorporated company, with headquarters in Los Angeles, was decided upon. It was understood, however, that the new organization is not to supersede or interfere with the local organizations, but rather to be representative of them all, its directors consisting of nine members, one from each of the local organizations in the district.

Considerable difference of opinion was exhibited as to the name to be selected for the organization. This matter, with other details of incorporation, was left to be decided by the nine representatives from the local organizations, who are to meet at the chamber of commerce rooms next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

One of the most important matters which will be decided by this meeting will be the selection of a general secretary, who shall have his office at the rooms selected by the company in Los Angeles, where all the business of the district will be transacted. The meeting was harmonious, and all the members present from the different localities expressed themselves well satisfied with the prospects for good and efficient work.

A WEATHER SHARP HERE

MAJOR BATE TALKS ABOUT THE WEATHER BUREAU.

He Does Not Think Los Angeles Will Get a Station, and Claims That the Bureau Does Not Discriminate Against California.

Major H. C. Bate, from the weather forecasting headquarters at Washington in the city yesterday.

The major has been inspecting the forecasting stations of the country and will soon return to headquarters with his report.

The inspector informed the HERALD reporter yesterday that the stations he had visited in all parts of the United States were in an excellent condition and in the hands of thoroughly competent men.

Major Bate was questioned as to the probability of a forecast station being located in this city, and told the reporter that the chances were small. Only a certain number of forecasting stations are allowed by the government, and at present all are occupied, to the number of about 25.

He was of opinion that there should be more stations on the Pacific coast, particularly near the shore of Vancouver island, where the warm current from Alaska causes a perpetual evaporation. The disturbances arising from the mingling of these two streams are the principal causes of the changes of weather to which California, Washington and Oregon are subjected. The major is of the opinion that a station in the above locality would be invaluable to the forecasters of the states mentioned.

A report has reached Professor Harrington, chief of the Washington weather bureau, to the effect that California claims a discrimination is made against them in regard to their weather service," said the major.

"The chief wishes me particularly to state that such is not the case. On the contrary, he wishes it understood that he is doing his utmost for California, considering the appropriation at his command. He will be glad to receive any complaints or suggestions tending to improvement, and will give them his best attention."

"Has any appointment been made yet in place of Forecaster Jenkins of San Francisco?" "None, sir. The report that his deputy, Mr. Grey, will get the position, is, I think, unfounded."

Sorrow in the Near Future

Awaits those who disregard symptoms of liver disorder. Be on time if you feel distress in the region of the liver, if your visage is sallow, eyeballs yellowish, tongue coated or if you are troubled with constipation, sick headache and occasional dizziness. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will banish these unpleasant symptoms and should be used early and persistently. The bowels are relaxed without pain or griping, and are not weakened by it as they are by the action of a violent purgative. Digestion grows more active when it is used and the system invigorated, because it insures assimilation of food constituents by the blood. Kidney complaints, neuralgia and rheumatism are overcome by this searching and thorough remedy.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon session of the convention began at 2:45 o'clock. The session was held in Aristotelian hall. E. Lawrence Hunt of New York, city secretary of the college department international committee, Young Men's Christian committee, was elected chairman of the convention, and C. H. Harwood of Pomona college, secretary. After singing, Diest Es thee Die That Bind, and prayer by Prof. McPherson of Occidental college, the programme was begun by an address by Rev. W. A. Rider, pastor of Memorial Baptist church, on The Holy Spirit. He designated the methods used in the Y. M. C. A. work as rails upon which the engine of the Holy Spirit should run.

We often try to do the work of the Holy Spirit in working with men, and after arguing with them concerning their sin, we are compelled to give up and call on the Spirit to do the work we failed in doing. The work of the Holy Spirit is (1) to convict the world of sin; (2) to convince the world of the righteousness of Christ; and (3) to convince the world of judgment.

A season of prayer was had and singing. Then followed the discussion by the delegates on The Weekly Meeting. E. F. Hahn of Pomona college, M. R. Alexander of Chaffey, and A. B. Embree led the discussion, followed by brief remarks by H. P. Dilworth of Occidental, E. E. Sibley of Chaffey, M. S. Mazze and E. P. Ward of the Y. M. C. A. Further discussion of The Weekly Meeting was postponed till Monday morning.

C. H. Harwood read an exhaustive paper on the finance department of the association, which was full of practical suggestions. Magee of U. S. C., Chairman Hunt, Barrows and Hahn of Pomona college participated in the discussion which followed.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

In the human heart lies the latent power of love, helpfulness, joy and latent moral power. But in the students of American colleges what a great amount of latent moral power is stowed up. The college student is the elect of the land, for he is to be the teacher of teachers and preacher of preachers. The characteristic of the latent moral power is that it is power in the germ, not on deposit.

There is not one of us but God has endowed with some latent moral power, and we need to bring out this power in the old fight of good against evil. We talk of the early approach of the millennium, but look at the missionary map and see the small part of the world that Christendom occupies. We have lots of work to do before the millennium comes. We must work to convert the Chinamen. If we were as anxious to convert the Chinamen in this country as we are to deport them, then we would send multitudes of them on the way to the Celestial city. We also owe a debt to the southern freedmen, and this question must be settled by the educated young people of the land.

How shall we develop this latent moral power? Latent power is valueless while undeveloped, it is in fact a curse. There are no implements to mine coal, so there are implements to mine latent moral power. The most important implement is consecration to God. Faith is another instrument. Some men handle the providences of God as if they were infernal machines. Trust in God alone will be a great asset.

Suppose the power be developed, then use it at once. If you do not improve the chances of doing good in your college life you cannot hope to do good in later life. Inactivity brings paralysis. Then, at the last, will come the reckoning and sweet will be the words of the Master, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

W. D. Ball, secretary of the Los Angeles Y. M. C. A., led in prayer.
