THE HAYMARKET MARTYRS

Anniversary of the Death of the Anarchists.

Memorial Services in Chicago and London.

Schwab and Fielden Speak at the Chicago Meeting.

They Praise Governor Altgeld for Having Pardoned Them—Three More Anarchists Arrested at Barcelona.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Services in commemoration of the anniversary of the death of the five anarchists—August Spies, Albert Parsons, Louis Lingz, Adolph Fischer and George Engel were held today at the monument erected to their memory in Waldheim cemetery, where some 2500 people gathered. The occasion was notable by the fact that Samuel Fielden, Michael Schwab and Oscar Neebe, comrades of the executed anarchists, who were sentenced to Joliet, but pardoned recently by Governor Altgeld, were present. Fielden and Schwab were the orators of the day. When the men were pardoned it was said the condition of their release was that they should make no more anarchist speeches, but they made them today nevertheless.

The ceremonies at the cemetery were preceded by a procession through the streets to the cemetery at the cemetery began by the rendering of Annie Laurie, Parson's favorite song, and then Schwab delivered an address. The early portion of his speech was taken up by an account of his last night in jail, and the execution of the anarchists. He said: "It was the most wretched night of my life. The clicking of telegraph instruments conveying every act of the martyrs throughout the world, alternated with the monotonous hammering of the scaffold and the awful creaking when the ropes were tested. At last day dawned. Servants of the law, with distressed faces, were running back and forth smelling of schnapp which they had been taking in order to be inspired with courage for murder in the execution of which they were the instrument. At 11 o'clock Sheriff Matson appeared. Spies, Parsons, Fischer and Engel were handcuffed and the death-cap thrown over them. As they stood before the cells they used to us a last farewell and the march to the gallows began." The speaker then reviewed the causes which led up to the Haymarket massacre. He said: "The preparations of the capitalist class caused our leaders to advise us to arm and defend ourselves. This advice was perhaps foolish and imprudent. It cannot be called wise under the circumstances, for in the sphere of physical power the capitalists were superior to the workingmen."

Regarding the throwing of the fatal bomb, he said: "We defy the police to trace the thrower of the bomb to our ranks, or show that the man who threw it was a workingman."

In relation to his pardon by Governor Altgeld, the speaker said: "The act of Governor Altgeld brings us hope that there are men of stern honesty of purpose who have the courage to stand up for truth, and that there is a bright future before us in which truth and right shall prevail."

Fielden next spoke and said: "Today we stand in the face of a society based not on equal rights, but on rights of privileges, and the only thing that gives us courage is that here and there a man rises up like Governor Altgeld, who has the courage of his convictions. The men buried yonder will receive justice in the future. I beseech that you go to your homes and resolve to do your duty in righting the wrong done them."

After singing the assemblage dispersed.

SPANISH ANARCHISTS.

Threats to Blow Up the Madrid Bourse.

MADRID, Nov. 12.—The authorities having been informed that the anarchists of this city were threatening to blow up the bourse, all strangers henceforth will be excluded from that building unless identified.

Three anarchists were arrested today at Barcelona. One of the arrests is the keeper of a tavern where anarchists have been meeting. It is reported that a clue has been found as to the location of the head center of the anarchist conspiracy which is said to have existed all over Europe with branches in the United States. There is a report that there is a connection between the anarchists of Europe and Chicago. In the future no reports of trials of anarchists will be allowed to be published.

The feeling of alarm is in no way lessened by the report that the government of Spain has been compelled to ask for assistance of the governments of other countries. The suggestion that General Martinez Campos be given unlimited power to act is received with general approval. The veteran soldier mentioned is known to be a man utterly without fear.

WILL NEVER COME BACK.

Americans Warned Not to Go to Brazil.

To Go There Means Almost Certain Death.

They May Escape Rebel Bullets But Not Yellow Jack.

Yellow Fever Patients Buried Alive—No Sanitary Regulations—Rottenness of Politics—No Security for Life or Property.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—An American recently returned from Brazil, after a long residence, was visited by an Associated Press representative. The gentleman insisted that his name should not be used, as his large business interests in Brazil might suffer.

"It seems to me," said he, "it is an outrage to enlist men in this period of the year to go to Brazil. Yellow fever a month hence will be raging furiously in all sections where fighting takes place. I predict that 90 per cent of the men going with the Brazilian fleet will never return alive, even if they escape the bullets and torpedoes of the insurgent fleet. Besides the fact, which is intense from November to March, the scenes daily in these cities are sickening. Funerals of victims of yellow fever, smallpox and berri-berri, a species of African leprosy, are seen turning every street. The Brazilian authorities take especial pleasure in exercising brutality upon Americans for the reason of the lack of co-operation among the American colonies of Rio, whereas the English, French, German and other European colonies are united."

"I have personal knowledge of the fact that two American employees of a firm of American manufacturers sent to Brazil met death through the unscrupulous and inhuman neglect of the Brazilian authorities. They were taken and placed off to a hospital as yellow fever patients. Their cases were pronounced hopeless, and they were thrust, against all entreaty, into coffins and buried before life had become extinct. These are two instances out of an almost daily list of similar occurrences. The attendants of the hospitals are so lazy and thoughtless and so accustomed to such scenes that they become hardened, and thrust human beings alive into coffins, thinking there is no difference if the patients are hastened to the end of a little. Thousands of lives might have been saved in Rio de Janeiro, alone, had any kind of decent regulations of health been observed."

"Everybody in the army and naval and civil service in Brazil is actuated by the pettiest kind of jealousy and selfishness. Therein is the cause of the whole present trouble, and it really does not matter much to the republic of Brazil which side wins the present contest. Peixoto is undoubtedly an autocratic tyrant who would not be competent to act as the executive of a moribund village in any other country than Brazil. He was placed in power merely on account of being a leading general in an army that had never seen service."

The spokesman, Barbosa, is a man whose patriotism consists in looking after the spoils of office. He was one of the leaders in the bloodiest insurrection which resulted in the deposition and exit of Dom Pedro; then became secretary of the treasury under the reckless and corrupt administration of De Fonseca. Barbosa is gathering around him a lot of adventurers who carried on a series of wild financial operations. If Mello succeeds, this man will undoubtedly come to the front again. If Peixoto retains power, his inner circle of friends will continue to keep the commerce of Brazil disturbed for a good many years to come."

"Old Emperor Dom Pedro was a republican at heart, and it undoubtedly was his intention to bring to the front the best men. The most corrupt element of politicians, however, prevented the realization of the desires of this noble ruler. Since that time capable and honest men have stood no show in the councils of the country. It simply has been a fight between the army and navy. Barbosa and his crowd of politicians were with the army so long as that side had leeway to create new money and grab everything in sight. Now that the game is at an end, they have gone over to the navy."

"Salaries in Brazil average very much lower than in the United States, while living costs four times living in New York, which is the most expensive place in the United States. I hope good men who are going on this expedition will become informed what is ahead of them and fully realize the terrible risks they take before engaging in the thankless task."

NEW FROM BRAZIL.

Santos and Bahia Are Loyal to President Peixoto.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The steamer Melbourne, from Santos and Bahia, Brazil, came into port today. The people of Santos, which is only beginning to recover from the terrible yellow fever visitation, are loyal to Peixoto. Business is flourishing in Santos. The blockade Mello threatened was ineffectual. At Bahia the officials and people continue loyal to Peixoto. Whilst the Melbourne was at Bahia Mello's forces attempted to seize a portion of her cargo, but troops coming to the rescue Mello's forces desisted.

THE SITUATION AT RIO.

Martial Law Again Proclaimed—Notice of Bombardment.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The World's Buenos Ayres dispatch says: Martial law has been proclaimed again in Rio de Janeiro by Peixoto, extending to November 30th. When it became known that Mello had warned the families liv-

THE REDS IN LISBON.

Three Disturbers Arrested—A Bomb Exploded in the Street.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The correspondent of the Times at Lisbon says the police arrested there three anarchists who were distributing a manifesto calling a meeting at the theater to protest against the execution of the anarchists at Chicago. About the same time a bomb was exploded in one of the principal streets of Lisbon. No damage was done.

Herr Most's Memorial Meeting.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The chief anarchist, Johann Most, held a big memorial meeting in honor of the Chicago anarchists tonight. The audience packed the theater, and red silk banners were conspicuous in the decorations. The mottoes were quotations from the last words of the four "martyrs." The speech-making was very mild, especially in the case of Herr Most.

Spain's Request.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—Auroris says Spain has proposed the appointment of an international commission to draft a common code of measures against Anarchists.

TAKEN INTO CUSTODY.

The Five Siberian Refugees Arrested in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—The five Russian refugees picked up by the American whalers in Okhotsk sea, after their escape from the Siberian penal colony, have been taken into custody by the police on request of the immigration commissioner, and will be held pending an investigation at Washington. The escaped convicts, who first admitted that they were banished for serious crimes, several confessing murder, now insist that they are political exiles, guilty only of offenses against the Russian government.

BUSINESS PICKING UP.

THE COUNTRY RECOVERING FROM THE PANIC.

So Says the Comptroller of the Currency—That Wisconsin Ascribes the Improvement to the Repeal of the Sherman Law.

BOSTON, Nov. 12.—James H. Eckles, comptroller of currency, came to Boston today to address the bankers of Boston tomorrow evening. To a reporter of the Associated Press he said this evening, concerning the late financial depression and its consequences: "Imagine my position when I mention the fact that there are usually from eight to ten failures of national banks a year. When I assumed the position they began, one after another, until in four months there were 150. I am glad to say of this number ninety resumed business and others undoubtedly will. The majority of those which will not, ought never to have been organized. The withdrawal of money on deposit went steadily on for months. Over $350,000,000 was withdrawn in that time from national banks alone. The repeal of the Sherman silver act had much to do with alleviating the situation. There was a change for the better when the bill passed the House. Look at the figures: July, 72 failures; August, 32; but after the 28th of August only two. The country is now in the condition of a man who has been sick. He is recovering, but slowly. I look for an improvement about the first of January."

THE NEW TARIFF BILL.

It Will Be Hard to Devise a Satisfactory Measure.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—It appears that the chief embarrassment of the ways and means committee is to come, not from articles upon which the specific ad valorem duties are to be reduced, but from articles that are to be put on the free list. Altogether the lot of Wilson and his colleagues is not a happy one. With a score or more of influential gentlemen demanding a caucus for the consideration of the tariff bill, and various others declaring they will not vote for the measure if it makes drastic reductions on articles in which their constituents are interested, the difficulty of securing Democratic harmony on the measure now being solved by the ways and means committee is every day becoming more apparent.

Attempted Lynching.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 12.—An Orlando special to the Times-Union tonight says: The sequel to the acquittal of Walker for murder occurred last night when a mob attempted to gain access to the jail, apparently intending to shoot Walker. Sheriff Anderson was prepared to guard the jail. When the mob found the jail guarded by militia they dispersed.

Christian Workers.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 12.—Delegates of the Christian Workers' convention preached in the churches of the city today. This afternoon an immense religious mass meeting was held. Three thousand were present. There was a large number of conversions.

DO NOT EXPECT TROUBLE.

Proposed Restoration of the Hawaiian Queen.

How Cleveland and Gresham Will Do It.

They Do Not Think It Will Be Necessary to Use Force.

They Think the Provisional Government Will Yield Gracefully to Their Demand—Hawaiians Think Differently.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Whatever course the administration may have determined upon to secure the restoration of Queen Liliuokalani, it is very evident that Secretary Gresham does not expect extreme measures will have to be resorted to. The course proposed to be pursued seems to be to request the provisional government in the name of the United States to give way quietly to the restoration of the queen. The Hawaiians in this city are very firm in the conviction that the provisional government will refuse to yield to any such gentle persuasion. They assert their earnest belief that it will require at least a show of force to induce them to resign the reins of authority. But this opinion is not unanimous among those familiar with affairs in the islands. It is pointed out how long and severe the strain there has been on the members of the provisional government in the uncertainty that beset their position. The manner and purpose of their creation, it is pointed out, shows how dependent they feel upon the United States.

The absolute disapproval of them by this government will be announced to them by Minister Willis. Whatever outcry of public sentiment there is here in sympathy with them and against their deposition, they will be absolutely cut off from all they have gained and be virtually dependent upon good order and the maintenance of law in the country. Any sort of assurance from Minister Willis that the moral influence of the United States will be exerted to maintain a stable government, by the queen and restrain it from such vagaries and excesses, and the constitution she sought to have adopted January last, might tempt the members of the provisional government to step aside and leave to the United States to preserve their interests in its own way. This is what Cleveland and Gresham hope for, though what assurances they authorized the minister to give as to the future influence of this government in the islands is not known.

Congressman O'Neil of Massachusetts has laid before Secretary Gresham an appeal from a Boston house having large interests in the islands, which shows that all those acquainted with the conditions are not so hopeful as to the outcome of the effort to restore the queen. The dispatch reads as follows:

BOSTON, Nov. 11.
Please call on the proper officials and request, on behalf of your constituents holding property in Honolulu and throughout the kingdom, that instructions be sent the United States minister to protect them. We believe there is great danger of bloodshed and destruction of property. Have telegraphed Senator Hoar these facts.

PROTECTION GUARANTEED.

Instructions Given to Protect Life and Property in Hawaii.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—A prominent Hawaiian in this city received this evening the following telegram from Charles Brewer & Co. of Boston, mentioned in the Associated Press dispatches tonight:

At our request Congressman O'Neil has ascertained from the proper officials at Washington that careful and positive instructions have been given to protect life and property.
(Signed) CHARLES BREWER & Co.

THE EX-QUEEN'S SECRETARY.

He Is Jobless Over Secretary Gresham's Position.

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 12.—F. M. English, ex secretary of Queen Liliuokalani of Hawaii, who, since she was deposed, has been living in Denver, is jubilant over the position of Secretary Gresham. Mr. English says the facts set forth in Secretary Gresham's letter are absolutely correct. As for war and bloodshed, he laughs at the idea.

Thurston Speeding to Honolulu.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—L. A. Thurston, ex Hawaiian minister, has not arrived in Washington. It is believed he is speeding across the country to take the next steamer to Honolulu.

ASTONISHING SELF CONTROL.

America Wants Hawaii but Refuses to Take It.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The Daily News editorially says: "The American government and people have acted in the Hawaiian matter with astonishing self control. Hawaii was theirs if they cared to stretch out their hands for it. They wanted Hawaii and were aware that other powers coveted it, yet President Cleveland refused to take it. Such is the strength of national tradition against the policy of colonizing. President Harrison thought he might annex it and did his best to pledge his successor to do so, but President Cleveland refused the bait. The deposed queen has not protested in vain."

ADMIRAL MELLO'S AGENTS.

They Make a Careful Inspection of Peixoto's New Fleet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Agents of Admiral Mello are working very quietly in this city in behalf of the Brazilian revolutionists. Two of them today visited the El Cid and made a careful inspection of the vessel and noted her boilers, engines and other important machinery located above water and in a position where they would be crippled by a well-directed shot. They paid equal attention to other boats of the Peixoto fleet. One of Mello's sympathizers said to an Associated Press reporter: "We are reliably informed direct from Rio that Mello has completed control of Rio bay and can go in and out at will, and feeling in the city of Rio is decidedly in Mello's favor."

THE IMPERIAL FLAG.

Brazilian Revolutionists Resolve to Restore the Empire.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The Times publishes the following paragraph: "We learn through a private channel that on Tuesday the leaders of the Brazilian insurrection held a conference, at which it was decided to hoist the imperial flag and direct their efforts towards the restoration of the monarchy. This decision seems to have been announced by Admiral Mello to the other revolutionary leaders by whom it was well received."

Outlived His Usefulness.

TORONTO, Kan., Nov. 12.—E. P. Barnard, 80 years old, tonight shot and killed his wife, aged 63, his daughter, aged 26, and himself. He left a letter saying he had outlived his usefulness. It is thought he has been contemplating the crime for some time, as he recently bought a lot in the cemetery.

IMPRISONED IN HAVANA.

AMERICAN CITIZENS MALTREATED IN CUBA.

Thrown Into a Foul Prison and Denied the Right of Trial—One of the Victims a Nephew of Governor Oglesby.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The World this morning prints a letter received from P. C. Oglesby, who states he is undergoing confinement in the royal prison, Havana, where he was placed without trial and without a prospect of one for months to come. The charge against him is "assaulting the military police." Proceeding, Oglesby says: "The simple facts of the case are these: On the evening of October 28th I was assaulted by two soldiers, who bound my arms behind my back, ransacked my pockets, dragged me before an officer and preferred a charge against me for assaulting them. An hour later a man informed me he was clerk of the consul-general of the United States. He took my statement and passports, and I have never heard from him since or the consulate. Meanwhile I am confined in ward 24, with malefactors. For a bed I have soft granite. Twice daily the prisoners are fed with food a hog would decline with disdain. There is present the amount of vermin and filth to be expected under the circumstances. Now, confined in the same ward with myself is a young American, Harry Howard, a native of Boston, awaiting trial for five months, with no prospect of getting one. The charges against him is 'Arresion de fuerza armada.' The fact is that he defended himself when attacked by four soldiers. I am a native of Georgia, 20 years of age, well known in Nashville, Birmingham and other cities of the south as a printer, editor and newspaper man."

Oglesby claims to be a nephew of ex-Governor Oglesby of Illinois.

EXCITEMENT AT MATAMORAS.

A Noted Revolutionary Leader Imprisoned by President Diaz.

MATAMORAS, Mex., Nov. 12.—A great sensation was created here by the telegraphic announcement from the City of Mexico that Gen. Juan G. Cortina, one of the great revolutionary leaders in Mexico, had been arrested and imprisoned in San Juan de Ulloa, by order of President Diaz, for attempting to incite another revolutionary uprising against the government of Matamoras. General Cortina's old home. Twenty-five years ago he was the most desperate and greatly feared man in Mexico. He ruled the Rio Grande border from Laredo to the mouth of the river.

A Kentucky Race War.

BARDSTOWN, Ky., Nov. 12.—Phil Evans' home was burned to the ground and his family either perished therein or were run away by the infuriated crowd. Who committed the act is unknown. Ed Hall's house, father of Evans' victim, and every road and every house at Samuels' depot is guarded tonight by men armed with shotguns in anticipation of a negro uprising.

Methodist Bishops.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 12.—Platform meetings have been the order of the day with the Methodist bishops. Bishops were omnipresent and every Methodist congregation today has been visited by one or more of them.
