

policy of the United States is to be, has caused the political strain to become very great on both sides. As a consequence rumors are thick as bees in spring. The government has in consequence been on the lookout for the past few days for a threatened attempt of the Royalists to seize the executive building, under the theory that if they could hold it an hour the United States would support them as the existing government. Some of the leading Royalists deny that such an attempt has been contemplated. Others remain silent when questioned. In consequence of the strained condition of affairs, an extra guard of sharpshooters was stationed in the executive building last night and will be continued here, with the regular troops, until the matter is settled one way or the other. As a further precaution, the government has issued 30 rounds of extra ammunition to each member of the citizens' reserve guard.

FREQUENT CABINET MEETINGS. Between dark and 12 o'clock last night, two cabinet meetings were held yesterday to consider the situation. At the first were present, besides the cabinet, several members of the advisory council, together with Col. J. H. Soper of the military and Marshal Hitchcock of the police department. At 11 o'clock this morning President De la Riva visited the United States steamship Philadelphia, and was received with a national salute following at 11:30 he returned and was accorded the usual salute.

THE QUEEN VISITS WILLIS. Last Monday morning the ex-queen came unexpectedly called upon Minister Willis at the United States legation. She was accompanied by her former chamberlain. She remained at the legation about 20 minutes. Minister Willis has not yet returned the call. The ex-queen's actions have created much unfavorable comment as the Royalists as well as the Annexionists.

This afternoon the minister of finance will submit a statement at the regular session of the council which will show that the favorable condition of the finances of the government continues.

SKERRETT'S RECALL. It has been learned from semi-official sources that the reason of Admiral Skerrett's recall from this station was because he personally attended a ball given by the Annexation club to the officers of the U. S. S. Boston as a farewell and to the officers of the U. S. S. Philadelphia as a welcome.

DAVIES STILL AT WORK. Mr. Theo. H. Davies is still here working at his plan for a political compromise in favor of Kaullani, but thus far has met with little success. The rumor that he had gained a following in the advisory council is unfounded.

ADMIRAL IRWIN'S RECEPTION. Admiral Irwin was officially received at the executive building on Saturday, November 11th, at 1:30 p. m., with military honors. Upon the arrival and departure of the party, the government band played American national airs.

The agitation of the removal of royalists from office will probably rest in abeyance until something definite is heard from Minister Willis.

AWAITING FURTHER ORDERS. I have just had an interview with Minister Willis. He declares the first part of the reply he made to the American league should be qualified to "would like to see the stars and stripes waving over," etc., "under proper conditions." He declares he never said the result here would be such as "Americans would not regret," and added that nothing would be done nor would any action be taken until he again heard from Washington after the Alameda left. He said this at 2:30. The steamer sails at 3 p. m.

WILLIS' LAST WORDS. His last words to the Associated Press representative were that any trouble precipitated on either side would be stopped at once by the United States forces.

When his attention was called to a dispatch saying the ex-queen would be restored, he declined to express an opinion. It is believed here the dispatch is a joke.

At the last moment the provisional government declares they have no further information to give and certain they will be able to maintain peace.

THE CAT OUT OF THE BAG. Just before the Alameda sailed from Honolulu for San Francisco, the Honolulu Commercial Advertiser issued an extra edition containing a dispatch dated Washington, November 2d, which had been published in an Auckland, New Zealand, paper of November 4th, received in Honolulu by the Alameda. This dispatch stated that President Cleveland was preparing a message to congress, advising the restoration of the monarchy in Hawaii. Minister Willis, upon being shown the dispatch, refused to say anything in regard to it. The belief seems general in Honolulu that the dispatch is unfounded.

THE MOWERS FLOATED. The steamer Mowers floats in Honolulu harbor after being 41 days on the reef at the entrance. The vessel, after repeated examinations made by divers, is pronounced to be in a condition to be repaired, and at present writing it is thought she can be sufficiently repaired here to proceed to San Francisco. She now awaits the orders of her owners.

AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL. Little Excitement Caused by the Advice from Honolulu. WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The first intelligence of the arrival of the steamer Alameda at San Francisco was communicated to the secretary of state by the Associated Press this morning. The arrival was awaited with interest, but without special excitement, as it was not expected she would bring intelligence of a change of government.

GRESHAM NOT SURPRISED. An Associated Press bulletin from San Francisco, announcing that the Hawaiian queen had not been restored to the throne, was shown to Secretary Gresham, he said: "That is not surprising to me. I was not expecting to hear by this steamer that she had been restored."

INTEREST AT THE WHITE HOUSE. At the White House considerable interest was apparent. Private Secretary Thurber carried the information of the arrival of the steamer, furnished by the Associated Press, to President Cleveland, who was in the private apartments of the White House busily engaged upon his message.

Secretary Herbert is out of the city. There was a notable lack of excitement in the reception of the Hawaiian news today. The copyright letter from Honolulu was read to Gresham by an Associated Press representative. At the portion where Willis is reported to have said he would glad to see the American flag over Hawaii and every other island in the Pacific, the secretary said: "I do not believe that."

Even as subsequently modified by Willis with the additional clause "under proper conditions," the secretary said the minister must have been incorrectly reported. "Willis is a capable man," he said, "he ought not to have talked on that subject at all, and I do not believe he did."

Upon reading the statement that Admiral Skerrett was recalled for attending the Hawaiian anniversary club, Gresham said: "Absurd."

GRESHAM'S SKEPTICISM. The statement contained in a letter received in San Francisco from a private correspondent in Honolulu, that the provisional government was under arms all night preceding the departure of the Alameda, attracted the secretary's special interest. "If that is true," he said, "it is not likely your correspondent would have failed to know it and speak of it in his letter. I think there are many inaccurate statements in the letter."

Regarding the assertion that Willis said he would do nothing until he heard from the state department, he heard say nothing.

The statement reported as coming from the Philadelphia that some action was to be taken during the week following the departure of the Alameda is regarded as significant, tallying, as it does, with the rumor of a cabinet meeting in Washington on Tuesday that the queen was restored that day.

AT THE HAWAIIAN LEGATION. Mr. Thurston had nothing to say on the news reported.

W. N. Armstrong of the Hawaiian legation said: "The friends of the provisional government feel that any delay that brings the time nearer when the provisional government shall receive the recognition accorded by the public to Secretary Gresham's letter, gives added assurance that the plan to restore the ex-queen will be frustrated. For this reason the news of the past week in Honolulu will be looked for with special interest. The earliest date at which news can reach the outside world by the ordinary channel is December 7th, when the steamer Warimou will arrive at Auckland, whence the news will be cabled. News may be received via Vancouver December 9th."

A DAY OF SPECULATION. It was largely a day of speculation at the capitol regarding the situation in Hawaii. It seems that the report which came by way of New Zealand, that Cleveland was determined to restore the queen, was a surprise to the administration. The manner in which Willis has been performing his mission only adds more mystery to the situation.

It has been the theory that it would be the policy of Willis to allow the tension to become so great that the supporters of the queen would organize and establish her as the government, and before a clash between the queen's supporters and the forces of the provisional government, but upon demonstrations being made, marines from the Philadelphia would be landed for the purpose of protecting American life and property, and when the queen had accumulated sufficient strength to warrant it Willis would recognize her.

ment in the reception of the Hawaiian news today. The copyright letter from Honolulu was read to Gresham by an Associated Press representative. At the portion where Willis is reported to have said he would glad to see the American flag over Hawaii and every other island in the Pacific, the secretary said: "I do not believe that."

Even as subsequently modified by Willis with the additional clause "under proper conditions," the secretary said the minister must have been incorrectly reported. "Willis is a capable man," he said, "he ought not to have talked on that subject at all, and I do not believe he did."

Upon reading the statement that Admiral Skerrett was recalled for attending the Hawaiian anniversary club, Gresham said: "Absurd."

GRESHAM'S SKEPTICISM. The statement contained in a letter received in San Francisco from a private correspondent in Honolulu, that the provisional government was under arms all night preceding the departure of the Alameda, attracted the secretary's special interest. "If that is true," he said, "it is not likely your correspondent would have failed to know it and speak of it in his letter. I think there are many inaccurate statements in the letter."

Regarding the assertion that Willis said he would do nothing until he heard from the state department, he heard say nothing.

The statement reported as coming from the Philadelphia that some action was to be taken during the week following the departure of the Alameda is regarded as significant, tallying, as it does, with the rumor of a cabinet meeting in Washington on Tuesday that the queen was restored that day.

AT THE HAWAIIAN LEGATION. Mr. Thurston had nothing to say on the news reported.

W. N. Armstrong of the Hawaiian legation said: "The friends of the provisional government feel that any delay that brings the time nearer when the provisional government shall receive the recognition accorded by the public to Secretary Gresham's letter, gives added assurance that the plan to restore the ex-queen will be frustrated. For this reason the news of the past week in Honolulu will be looked for with special interest. The earliest date at which news can reach the outside world by the ordinary channel is December 7th, when the steamer Warimou will arrive at Auckland, whence the news will be cabled. News may be received via Vancouver December 9th."

A DAY OF SPECULATION. It was largely a day of speculation at the capitol regarding the situation in Hawaii. It seems that the report which came by way of New Zealand, that Cleveland was determined to restore the queen, was a surprise to the administration. The manner in which Willis has been performing his mission only adds more mystery to the situation.

It has been the theory that it would be the policy of Willis to allow the tension to become so great that the supporters of the queen would organize and establish her as the government, and before a clash between the queen's supporters and the forces of the provisional government, but upon demonstrations being made, marines from the Philadelphia would be landed for the purpose of protecting American life and property, and when the queen had accumulated sufficient strength to warrant it Willis would recognize her.

THE NEW TARIFF BILL. A SYNOPSIS OF THE PROPOSED MEASURE. Nearly All Raw Materials on the Free List—The Duty on Oranges and Lemons Unchanged—Sugar to Be Taxed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 23.—In an interview Senator Voorhees said, relative to the Hawaiian question, if the evidence is true with reference to ex-United States Minister Stevens' action, the action of Secretary Gresham has placed the present administration on solid ground, and this government could not rightfully do other than it has done.

THE NEW TARIFF BILL. A SYNOPSIS OF THE PROPOSED MEASURE. Nearly All Raw Materials on the Free List—The Duty on Oranges and Lemons Unchanged—Sugar to Be Taxed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 23.—In an interview Senator Voorhees said, relative to the Hawaiian question, if the evidence is true with reference to ex-United States Minister Stevens' action, the action of Secretary Gresham has placed the present administration on solid ground, and this government could not rightfully do other than it has done.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 23.—The Herald's Washington correspondent claims to give an accurate outline of the new tariff bill so far as determined. These are the most salient points of reform:

The free list is to include nearly all raw and crude materials which enter into manufactured products. Wool, hair of camel and goat, bituminous coal, iron ore, lumber, salt, silver, lead ore, flax, hemp and jute and a large number of chemicals will all be free.

Steel rails will probably be put at $8 or $9 a ton. Pig iron will be put at 5 per cent ad valorem, and bar iron will be reduced at least 50 per cent.

Tin plates will be charged one cent a pound. Block tin and copper ore are on the free list.

There will be a uniform ad valorem duty upon finished manufactures of wood, but logs are free.

The committee believe a reduction of 5 or 10 per cent on duties will yield as much revenue as now.

Wool goods follow the rates of the Springer bill, but some cheaper goods, especially cloth, will be put in a separate class at 30 per cent. All manufacturers of cotton are 40 per cent.

Manufactures of flax, hemp and jute will be greatly reduced.

In view of placing raw materials on the free list, binding twine is likely to be made free. The high duties on agricultural products will be mercilessly slaughtered.

The duty is retained on lemons and oranges, but several other fruits go upon the free list.

The wrapper tobacco duty will be reduced to 81 or 81.50 a pound when unstemmed; 59 cents more a pound when stemmed.

An ad valorem rate of 25 per cent will be charged on all grades of sugar, although this question is still open.

There is no increase on beer, tobacco or cigars, but on whisky.

The proposed duty on sugar will bring in about $30,000,000, and it is thought $30,000,000 or $40,000,000 will be received from the increased tax on whisky and from the income tax.

Chattel Mortgages. A man who gives a chattel mortgage should always examine it carefully to make sure it is not "on demand." Sharp money lenders who loan funds on chattel mortgages often try to have this clause inserted, and when it is the borrower may expect to part with his chattels at almost any moment. It is a trick by which advantage is often taken of the unwary.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Bound to Have a Nap. Conductor (giving him a shake)—Tickets! Sleeping Suburbanite (pushing his hand away)—No, you don't, Maria! If you want that baby walked with, you can walk with him yourself. I'm going to get some sleep tonight, by jocks, if I miss 50 trains!—Chicago Tribune.

ment in the reception of the Hawaiian news today. The copyright letter from Honolulu was read to Gresham by an Associated Press representative. At the portion where Willis is reported to have said he would glad to see the American flag over Hawaii and every other island in the Pacific, the secretary said: "I do not believe that."

Even as subsequently modified by Willis with the additional clause "under proper conditions," the secretary said the minister must have been incorrectly reported. "Willis is a capable man," he said, "he ought not to have talked on that subject at all, and I do not believe he did."

Upon reading the statement that Admiral Skerrett was recalled for attending the Hawaiian anniversary club, Gresham said: "Absurd."

GRESHAM'S SKEPTICISM. The statement contained in a letter received in San Francisco from a private correspondent in Honolulu, that the provisional government was under arms all night preceding the departure of the Alameda, attracted the secretary's special interest. "If that is true," he said, "it is not likely your correspondent would have failed to know it and speak of it in his letter. I think there are many inaccurate statements in the letter."

Regarding the assertion that Willis said he would do nothing until he heard from the state department, he heard say nothing.

The statement reported as coming from the Philadelphia that some action was to be taken during the week following the departure of the Alameda is regarded as significant, tallying, as it does, with the rumor of a cabinet meeting in Washington on Tuesday that the queen was restored that day.

AT THE HAWAIIAN LEGATION. Mr. Thurston had nothing to say on the news reported.

W. N. Armstrong of the Hawaiian legation said: "The friends of the provisional government feel that any delay that brings the time nearer when the provisional government shall receive the recognition accorded by the public to Secretary Gresham's letter, gives added assurance that the plan to restore the ex-queen will be frustrated. For this reason the news of the past week in Honolulu will be looked for with special interest. The earliest date at which news can reach the outside world by the ordinary channel is December 7th, when the steamer Warimou will arrive at Auckland, whence the news will be cabled. News may be received via Vancouver December 9th."

A DAY OF SPECULATION. It was largely a day of speculation at the capitol regarding the situation in Hawaii. It seems that the report which came by way of New Zealand, that Cleveland was determined to restore the queen, was a surprise to the administration. The manner in which Willis has been performing his mission only adds more mystery to the situation.

It has been the theory that it would be the policy of Willis to allow the tension to become so great that the supporters of the queen would organize and establish her as the government, and before a clash between the queen's supporters and the forces of the provisional government, but upon demonstrations being made, marines from the Philadelphia would be landed for the purpose of protecting American life and property, and when the queen had accumulated sufficient strength to warrant it Willis would recognize her.

THE NEW TARIFF BILL. A SYNOPSIS OF THE PROPOSED MEASURE. Nearly All Raw Materials on the Free List—The Duty on Oranges and Lemons Unchanged—Sugar to Be Taxed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 23.—In an interview Senator Voorhees said, relative to the Hawaiian question, if the evidence is true with reference to ex-United States Minister Stevens' action, the action of Secretary Gresham has placed the present administration on solid ground, and this government could not rightfully do other than it has done.

THE NEW TARIFF BILL. A SYNOPSIS OF THE PROPOSED MEASURE. Nearly All Raw Materials on the Free List—The Duty on Oranges and Lemons Unchanged—Sugar to Be Taxed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 23.—In an interview Senator Voorhees said, relative to the Hawaiian question, if the evidence is true with reference to ex-United States Minister Stevens' action, the action of Secretary Gresham has placed the present administration on solid ground, and this government could not rightfully do other than it has done.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 23.—The Herald's Washington correspondent claims to give an accurate outline of the new tariff bill so far as determined. These are the most salient points of reform:

The free list is to include nearly all raw and crude materials which enter into manufactured products. Wool, hair of camel and goat, bituminous coal, iron ore, lumber, salt, silver, lead ore, flax, hemp and jute and a large number of chemicals will all be free.

Steel rails will probably be put at $8 or $9 a ton. Pig iron will be put at 5 per cent ad valorem, and bar iron will be reduced at least 50 per cent.

Tin plates will be charged one cent a pound. Block tin and copper ore are on the free list.

There will be a uniform ad valorem duty upon finished manufactures of wood, but logs are free.

The committee believe a reduction of 5 or 10 per cent on duties will yield as much revenue as now.

Wool goods follow the rates of the Springer bill, but some cheaper goods, especially cloth, will be put in a separate class at 30 per cent. All manufacturers of cotton are 40 per cent.

Manufactures of flax, hemp and jute will be greatly reduced.

In view of placing raw materials on the free list, binding twine is likely to be made free. The high duties on agricultural products will be mercilessly slaughtered.

The duty is retained on lemons and oranges, but several other fruits go upon the free list.

The wrapper tobacco duty will be reduced to 81 or 81.50 a pound when unstemmed; 59 cents more a pound when stemmed.

An ad valorem rate of 25 per cent will be charged on all grades of sugar, although this question is still open.

There is no increase on beer, tobacco or cigars, but on whisky.

The proposed duty on sugar will bring in about $30,000,000, and it is thought $30,000,000 or $40,000,000 will be received from the increased tax on whisky and from the income tax.

Chattel Mortgages. A man who gives a chattel mortgage should always examine it carefully to make sure it is not "on demand." Sharp money lenders who loan funds on chattel mortgages often try to have this clause inserted, and when it is the borrower may expect to part with his chattels at almost any moment. It is a trick by which advantage is often taken of the unwary.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Bound to Have a Nap. Conductor (giving him a shake)—Tickets! Sleeping Suburbanite (pushing his hand away)—No, you don't, Maria! If you want that baby walked with, you can walk with him yourself. I'm going to get some sleep tonight, by jocks, if I miss 50 trains!—Chicago Tribune.

ment in the reception of the Hawaiian news today. The copyright letter from Honolulu was read to Gresham by an Associated Press representative. At the portion where Willis is reported to have said he would glad to see the American flag over Hawaii and every other island in the Pacific, the secretary said: "I do not believe that."

Even as subsequently modified by Willis with the additional clause "under proper conditions," the secretary said the minister must have been incorrectly reported. "Willis is a capable man," he said, "he ought not to have talked on that subject at all, and I do not believe he did."

Upon reading the statement that Admiral Skerrett was recalled for attending the Hawaiian anniversary club, Gresham said: "Absurd."

GRESHAM'S SKEPTICISM. The statement contained in a letter received in San Francisco from a private correspondent in Honolulu, that the provisional government was under arms all night preceding the departure of the Alameda, attracted the secretary's special interest. "If that is true," he said, "it is not likely your correspondent would have failed to know it and speak of it in his letter. I think there are many inaccurate statements in the letter."

Regarding the assertion that Willis said he would do nothing until he heard from the state department, he heard say nothing.

The statement reported as coming from the Philadelphia that some action was to be taken during the week following the departure of the Alameda is regarded as significant, tallying, as it does, with the rumor of a cabinet meeting in Washington on Tuesday that the queen was restored that day.

AT THE HAWAIIAN LEGATION. Mr. Thurston had nothing to say on the news reported.

W. N. Armstrong of the Hawaiian legation said: "The friends of the provisional government feel that any delay that brings the time nearer when the provisional government shall receive the recognition accorded by the public to Secretary Gresham's letter, gives added assurance that the plan to restore the ex-queen will be frustrated. For this reason the news of the past week in Honolulu will be looked for with special interest. The earliest date at which news can reach the outside world by the ordinary channel is December 7th, when the steamer Warimou will arrive at Auckland, whence the news will be cabled. News may be received via Vancouver December 9th."

A DAY OF SPECULATION. It was largely a day of speculation at the capitol regarding the situation in Hawaii. It seems that the report which came by way of New Zealand, that Cleveland was determined to restore the queen, was a surprise to the administration. The manner in which Willis has been performing his mission only adds more mystery to the situation.

It has been the theory that it would be the policy of Willis to allow the tension to become so great that the supporters of the queen would organize and establish her as the government, and before a clash between the queen's supporters and the forces of the provisional government, but upon demonstrations being made, marines from the Philadelphia would be landed for the purpose of protecting American life and property, and when the queen had accumulated sufficient strength to warrant it Willis would recognize her.

THE NEW TARIFF BILL. A SYNOPSIS OF THE PROPOSED MEASURE. Nearly All Raw Materials on the Free List—The Duty on Oranges and Lemons Unchanged—Sugar to Be Taxed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 23.—In an interview Senator Voorhees said, relative to the Hawaiian question, if the evidence is true with reference to ex-United States Minister Stevens' action, the action of Secretary Gresham has placed the present administration on solid ground, and this government could not rightfully do other than it has done.

THE NEW TARIFF BILL. A SYNOPSIS OF THE PROPOSED MEASURE. Nearly All Raw Materials on the Free List—The Duty on Oranges and Lemons Unchanged—Sugar to Be Taxed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 23.—In an interview Senator Voorhees said, relative to the Hawaiian question, if the evidence is true with reference to ex-United States Minister Stevens' action, the action of Secretary Gresham has placed the present administration on solid ground, and this government could not rightfully do other than it has done.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 23.—The Herald's Washington correspondent claims to give an accurate outline of the new tariff bill so far as determined. These are the most salient points of reform:

The free list is to include nearly all raw and crude materials which enter into manufactured products. Wool, hair of camel and goat, bituminous coal, iron ore, lumber, salt, silver, lead ore, flax, hemp and jute and a large number of chemicals will all be free.

Steel rails will probably be put at $8 or $9 a ton. Pig iron will be put at 5 per cent ad valorem, and bar iron will be reduced at least 50 per cent.

Tin plates will be charged one cent a pound. Block tin and copper ore are on the free list.

There will be a uniform ad valorem duty upon finished manufactures of wood, but logs are free.

The committee believe a reduction of 5 or 10 per cent on duties will yield as much revenue as now.

Wool goods follow the rates of the Springer bill, but some cheaper goods, especially cloth, will be put in a separate class at 30 per cent. All manufacturers of cotton are 40 per cent.

Manufactures of flax, hemp and jute will be greatly reduced.

In view of placing raw materials on the free list, binding twine is likely to be made free. The high duties on agricultural products will be mercilessly slaughtered.

The duty is retained on lemons and oranges, but several other fruits go upon the free list.

The wrapper tobacco duty will be reduced to 81 or 81.50 a pound when unstemmed; 59 cents more a pound when stemmed.

An ad valorem rate of 25 per cent will be charged on all grades of sugar, although this question is still open.

There is no increase on beer, tobacco or cigars, but on whisky.

The proposed duty on sugar will bring in about $30,000,000, and it is thought $30,000,000 or $40,000,000 will be received from the increased tax on whisky and from the income tax.

Chattel Mortgages. A man who gives a chattel mortgage should always examine it carefully to make sure it is not "on demand." Sharp money lenders who loan funds on chattel mortgages often try to have this clause inserted, and when it is the borrower may expect to part with his chattels at almost any moment. It is a trick by which advantage is often taken of the unwary.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Bound to Have a Nap. Conductor (giving him a shake)—Tickets! Sleeping Suburbanite (pushing his hand away)—No, you don't, Maria! If you want that baby walked with, you can walk with him yourself. I'm going to get some sleep tonight, by jocks, if I miss 50 trains!—Chicago Tribune.

ment in the reception of the Hawaiian news today. The copyright letter from Honolulu was read to Gresham by an Associated Press representative. At the portion where Willis is reported to have said he would glad to see the American flag over Hawaii and every other island in the Pacific, the secretary said: "I do not believe that."

Even as subsequently modified by Willis with the additional clause "under proper conditions," the secretary said the minister must have been incorrectly reported. "Willis is a capable man," he said, "he ought not to have talked on that subject at all, and I do not believe he did."

Upon reading the statement that Admiral Skerrett was recalled for attending the Hawaiian anniversary club, Gresham said: "Absurd."

GRESHAM'S SKEPTICISM. The statement contained in a letter received in San Francisco from a private correspondent in Honolulu, that the provisional government was under arms all night preceding the departure of the Alameda, attracted the secretary's special interest. "If that is true," he said, "it is not likely your correspondent would have failed to know it and speak of it in his letter. I think there are many inaccurate statements in the letter."

Regarding the assertion that Willis said he would do nothing until he heard from the state department, he heard say nothing.

The statement reported as coming from the Philadelphia that some action was to be taken during the week following the departure of the Alameda is regarded as significant, tallying, as it does, with the rumor of a cabinet meeting in Washington on Tuesday that the queen was restored that day.

AT THE HAWAIIAN LEGATION. Mr. Thurston had nothing to say on the news reported.

W. N. Armstrong of the Hawaiian legation said: "The friends of the provisional government feel that any delay that brings the time nearer when the provisional government shall receive the recognition accorded by the public to Secretary Gresham's letter, gives added assurance that the plan to restore the ex-queen will be frustrated. For this reason the news of the past week in Honolulu will be looked for with special interest. The earliest date at which news can reach the outside world by the ordinary channel is December 7th, when the steamer Warimou will arrive at Auckland, whence the news will be cabled. News may be received via Vancouver December 9th."

A DAY OF SPECULATION. It was largely a day of speculation at the capitol regarding the situation in Hawaii. It seems that the report which came by way of New Zealand, that Cleveland was determined to restore the queen, was a surprise to the administration. The manner in which Willis has been performing his mission only adds more mystery to the situation.

It has been the theory that it would be the policy of Willis to allow the tension to become so great that the supporters of the queen would organize and establish her as the government, and before a clash between the queen's supporters and the forces of the provisional government, but upon demonstrations being made, marines from the Philadelphia would be landed for the purpose of protecting American life and property, and when the queen had accumulated sufficient strength to warrant it Willis would recognize her.

THE NEW TARIFF BILL. A SYNOPSIS OF THE PROPOSED MEASURE. Nearly All Raw Materials on the Free List—The Duty on Oranges and Lemons Unchanged—Sugar to Be Taxed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 23.—In an interview Senator Voorhees said, relative to the Hawaiian question, if the evidence is true with reference to ex-United States Minister Stevens' action, the action of Secretary Gresham has placed the present administration on solid ground, and this government could not rightfully do other than it has done.

THE NEW TARIFF BILL. A SYNOPSIS OF THE PROPOSED MEASURE. Nearly All Raw Materials on the Free List—The Duty on Oranges and Lemons Unchanged—Sugar to Be Taxed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 23.—In an interview Senator Voorhees said, relative to the Hawaiian question, if the evidence is true with reference to ex-United States Minister Stevens' action, the action of Secretary Gresham has placed the present administration on solid ground, and this government could not rightfully do other than it has done.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 23.—The Herald's Washington correspondent claims to give an accurate outline of the new tariff bill so far as determined. These are the most salient points of reform:

The free list is to include nearly all raw and crude materials which enter into manufactured products. Wool, hair of camel and goat, bituminous coal, iron ore, lumber, salt, silver, lead ore, flax, hemp and jute and a large number of chemicals will all be free.

Steel rails will probably be put at $8 or $9 a ton. Pig iron will be put at 5 per cent ad valorem, and bar iron will be reduced at least 50 per cent.

Tin plates will be charged one cent a pound. Block tin and copper ore are on the free list.

There will be a uniform ad valorem duty upon finished manufactures of wood, but logs are free.

The committee believe a reduction of 5 or 10 per cent on duties will yield as much revenue as now.

Wool goods follow the rates of the Springer bill, but some cheaper goods, especially cloth, will be put in a separate class at 30 per cent. All manufacturers of cotton are 40 per cent.

Manufactures of flax, hemp and jute will be greatly reduced.

In view of placing raw materials on the free list, binding twine is likely to be made free. The high duties on agricultural products will be mercilessly slaughtered.

The duty is retained on lemons and oranges, but several other fruits go upon the free list.

The wrapper tobacco duty will be reduced to 81 or 81.50 a pound when unstemmed; 59 cents more a pound when stemmed.

An ad valorem rate of 25 per cent will be charged on all grades of sugar, although this question is still open.