SANTA ANA.

The Supervisors-Superior Court-News Notes.

SANTA ANA, Nov. 27.—The board of supervisors were in session today with a full attendance, Chairman Yoch presiding.

The first business was the reading of a communication from Judge Turner, as follows:

"I wish to terminate the present arrangement with you under which I have been using my office for chambers, and think it proper to state to you that the matter of furnishing a suitable room or rooms for judges' chambers may be considered and acted on by you in connection with the matter of another courtroom, which I now before you.

"I therefore hereby notify you that said arrangement will terminate on the 31st day of December next, and I respectfully request that you provide suitable rooms for such chambers with the things named in section 144, code of civil procedure, sufficient for the transaction of business after January 1, 1894."

Placed on file.

A petition from residents of Tustin was read asking that Lewis, Orange and Santiago streets be closed. The petition was referred to Supervisor Tedford.

Superintendent Greely appeared before the board and asked that a new school house be built in Santa Ana, and that a new district be cut off. He remarked that there were 50 scholars in that territory, and that as things were now some of them are compelled to walk four miles to school, while Anaheim is employing eight teachers and drawing pay for each chamber with the things named in section 144, code of civil procedure, sufficient for the transaction of business after January 1, 1894."

The matter was referred to Supervisor Schorn and Superintendent Greely.

A petition was presented from the people living on the east side of the river opposite the Olive bridge in which they complain that not enough money has been appropriated to protect their property from damages from overflows of the Santa Ana river, and they pray that the county make an extra appropriation for protecting property in that locality. The matter was referred to Supervisor Schorn and Surveyor Finley.

McNeil, Santa Fe roadmaster, said that seven more rock was needed to protect the bank of the river at the Santa Fe bridge west of Orange, and that it is to be furnished it should be done before the quarry is closed.

About 100 tons more rock is needed and it would cost about $46, one-half of which would fall on the county. The matter was referred to Superintendent Armour with power to act.

Mr. Jean Yralley made the following proposition: "I, Jean Yralley, herein offer to lease, for the term of three years, to Orange county, at a monthly rent of $20, the downtown portion of my brick building, No. 308 Fourth street."

The communication was placed on file.

NOTES.

The San Joaquin ranch people are still enforcing their policy of turning off their tenants after they have been on the ranch four years.

John Stevens of Compton is the last to have the ranch. His four years were up this morning and this morning he passed through Santa Ana with all his belongings on his way to his former home.

H. B. Keeler of San Diego was in the city today.

W. Lee of Los Angeles was in Santa Ana today on business.

For some time past the Hotel Brunswick has been forging to the front, until it has become one of the most popular hotels in Southern California. The present manager, Mr. Clarence Parker, has worked up a reputation for himself that should be proud of, and all the traveling men are high in their praise of the hotel's accommodations.

Wuest, Price & Co., owners of the Santa Ana Feed mills, are putting in some new machinery and are in better shape than ever to meet the demands of the city.

Wm. Lamson, 64 years old, is quite sick at his home near Alamitas.

Geo. S. Smith, the junior member of the firm of S. W. Smith & Son, was taken home today on account of being taken sick on the streets with la grippe.

Mrs. Dr. Coeran and daughter visited Los Angeles this afternoon.

Yesterday as Mr. Wilkinson, the agent of the Santa Fe, drove to church his horse became frightened just after his wife alighted and upset Sexton's main street out past Sexton's, while Mr. Wilkinson followed up in the rear. F. L. Sexton offered to take his horse and buggy and go in search of the runaway. The proffered aid was accepted and the two followed the horse clear down to the San Joaquin ranch, where they found the horse, with the buggy so badly demoralized that one could not ride in it, so Wilkinson led his horse behind Sexton's buggy. They had gone but a short distance when the runaway horse made a lunge forward and upset Sexton's buggy, throwing them both out, while Sexton's horse ran away and broke his buggy into kindling wood. Then Wilkinson's horse began kicking, and Sexton says he struck the buggy all over the San Joaquin ranch. However, no one was hurt badly, but the men had to go down in their pockets to pay for repairs or else go without buggies.

Mrs. A. J. Saunders of McPherson has returned from the world's fair.

Paul Knapp was called to the City of Angels on important business yesterday.

Twelve carloads of walnuts have been shipped from Anaheim by Max Nobeling.

Mrs. J. W. McLaugh returned to her home in Newark this morning.

Verus Reynolds, after an absence of about two years in Indiana, has returned to El Modena to spend the rest of his days.

Latayette Easton of Ventura is visiting his cousin L. B. Fine and family and will remain a week or so.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. S. Wade have returned from the East and the world's fair. Mr. Wade will resume charge of the Western Union telegraph office December 1st.

H. T. Mathews and wife are expected home from the world's fair by December 1st.

Arthur Hill has been licensed to wed Miss Edna Hennehan, both from Laguna beach.

The tax collector reports nearly $12,000 collected on last Saturday. After 6 o'clock tonight the first installment becomes delinquent, when the law that was made for the purpose of the poor class puts on a penalty of 15 per cent, while the rich man can take advantage of the poor man and loan him the money to pay his taxes and charge him only 10 per cent, thereby saving the poor man 5 per cent. What a grand law that is for the poor working man!

There will be a meeting of the churches of this city, represented by their pastors in the ministers' association, on Thanksgiving day, at 11 a. m., at the Main street M. E. church. Rev. T. J. Hopkins of the Presbyterian church will preside, and with several other ministers will address the congregations on different topics. The music will be under the management of Mrs. Mues.

The young men gave a very enjoyable entertainment last night at the M. E. church. A large crowd was present and enjoyed the programme to the very last. Quite a best sugar boom has been going on at Westminster, and before we are aware of it they are liable to have a factory in course of construction.

Dr. Manzes went to Los Angeles this evening.

SUPERIOR COURT.

Estate of Francis Geyer, deceased—December 7th set for hearing petition for probate of will.

People vs. Wm. Grimes, defendant—Pleaded not guilty. Set for trial December 14th. F. O. Daniel appointed counsel for defendant.

People vs. Hall—Continued for trial to November 29th.

Redick vs. Redick—Decree granted plaintiff.

PASADENA.

The City Trustees Proceedings—A Levanting Deceit.

PASADENA, Nov. 27.—Only four members of the city board of trustees were present when the regular weekly meeting was called to order at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

City Attorney W. E. Arthur was not in his accustomed place either, being laid up with an attack of grip.

THAT ELECTRIC LIGHT CONTRACT.

The time honored discussion over the electric light contract came up with its usual regularity. This time the cause of electric company had a defender in the person of Mr. Torrance, who addressed the board relative to the service which is being furnished the city and the extension of their contract. He stated that the electric light company could not afford to make expensive changes in the financial condition of the city as long as the city refused to give it a contract for more than one or two years at a time, leaving them in doubt as to when their contract may be terminated. He stated that under a long time contract the company could afford to improve their plant and furnish lights cheaper than it is doing at present.

Judge Weed thought that a one year contract was long enough and wanted more light in the lamps that burned even if the number had to be reduced.

It was finally agreed to meet as a committee of the whole and arrange some agreement for the lighting during the coming year, commencing January 1st, when the present contract expires.

GENERAL BUSINESS.

An ordinance establishing the grade of Madeline drive was passed.

A communication from the city attorney was received relative to supplies and filed.

A petition was received from property owners asking that Grove street from Terrace drive to Orange Grove avenue be graded, curbed and guttered. The matter was referred back to the citizens to have more territory included.

A petition was granted asking that Encino avenue be guttered and curbed from Colorado street to California and graded from Center to California street.

The plumbers sent in a request to have the $25 put up by them to insure the city against loss while making connections with the sewer returned, which was ordered done.

The report of City Engineer Chadwick on the grade of Glenarm street from Fair Oaks to Marengo was received and the city attorney instructed to draw up a resolution of intention to establish the same.

The clerk reported that two warrants had been drawn for one bill and asked that one be cancelled, which was ordered done.

Mr. Clarke of the fire and water committee reported that permits have been granted Peter Steel to construct a bowling alley and to another party to erect a brick building, which was approved.

A FLY DOCTOR.

The clever scheme of a fly female operator who attempted to "fold her tent like the Arab and quietly steal away," leaving her creditors to mourn her departure in this city, was partially frustrated by some very lively work on the part of Attorney J. G. Rarritte and a few others.

About two months ago a Mrs. Dr. P. R. Johnson leased the Machine property on South Pasadena avenue from Captain Neaman of Los Angeles for the purpose, as she stated, of establishing a first-class sanitarium.

As she claimed to be a little short of ready cash the captain very kindly allowed her to go in without paying up the cash in advance, which confidence,

THE ELKS POLY BALL.

THE LOS ANGELES MEN ACCEPT DEFEAT GRACEFULLY.

San Diegans Frightened by the Huge Fitcher from the North—They Find Him Harmless—Jolly Social Session.

Sunday's San Diego Union: Yesterday a company of the golden lads of Los Angeles, members of the order of Elks, arrived to taste of the hospitality of their brothers of the order. The visitors were received with cordial welcome, with all the mystic rites at command. The social fellowship of the two lodges was exemplified in the afternoon in a baseball contest at Recreation park, where several hundred friends and the public generally were freely invited. The city Guard band discoursed inspiring airs while the visitors repaired to don their suits. The home boys wore uniforms, too, but they were not uniform in color, size or style, while the Los Angeles team captured the admiration of the audience at once by appearing in white canvas suits and caps of the starchiest primness, revealing their reticent charms. It was seen at once that the Angelenos were several tons ahead of the San Diegans, but speculation as to the cause was cut short by the order to play ball.

This order was lived up to by both teams in deadly earnest. San Diego won the toss-up, and gave Los Angeles the first chance to make a score. Lew Works pitched for the home nine, and Harry Loomis wore the mask, pad, chest-protector and boxing-glove. The other San Diegans were posted as follows by Capt. Wright: Hawley, first; Doolittle, third; Jackson, left; Dudley, right; Wright, second; Myers, short; Simpson, center. Such good work was done that the visitors got only one run in the first inning.

When San Diego went to the bat and the Los Angeles pitcher, J. Brink, stepped into the box, there was a thrill of terror. Brink is as big as Grover Cleveland, and he handles the ball as Grover handles the reins. Gilkey, the catcher, managed to corral most of the erratic balls, and did much to keep down the score. The other positions were filled as follows: Flemming, short; Lehman, center; Gutch, right; W. O. Gilkey, second; Holdalander, third; Moore, left; Sailer, first. The Los Angeles team in three falls in the first inning. A. L. Corlett, a popular Elk of Los Angeles, acted as umpire.

Four innings were played, the score standing at the finish 20 to 4 in favor of San Diego. The visitors accepted their defeat gracefully, and claimed that it was confidently expected beforehand. A tug-of-war, they said, was more in their line, anyhow.

In the evening, after a special business meeting of the lodge, in which several members were elected to office, a social session was held, at which the kindest good fellowship was expressed by words and otherwise. Several members of Fanny Davenport's company, Elks of high degree, were present and added to the merriment of the evening. Among the visiting Elks are Grand Exalter Ruler E. V. Naud, Past Grand Exalter Ruler Judge W. H. Clark, E. E. Henry, Dr. E. W. Flemming, F. Holdalander, R. F. Skellenger, A. C. Gilkey, A. L. Corlett, J. R. Hamilton, H. F. Gulesch, W. L. Moore and John E. Brink.

ORANGE GROVERS MEET.

A meeting of the Orange Grovers' association was held in the rooms of the board of trade this afternoon. Mr. Smythe presided, while Dr. Allen acted as secretary.

Upon recommendation of the committee it was decided to reduce the value of shares in the association from $25 to $10, giving the small growers a chance to get in.

A change was also made in the by-laws so as to limit the association, if it should desire, to dry and can fruit.

A general discussion of the interests of the fruit producers followed, and it was generally decided to stand by the organization as against the shippers during the coming season, which will open soon. The growers fully realize that the hardest time will come at the start, and are making preparations for meeting the enemy and laying him low.

NOTES.

Mr. W. B. Darnell, an old Iowa newspaper man, is spending the winter in the city.

Messrs. Keyes and Masters will attend the meeting of the Midwinter fair committee in Los Angeles tomorrow.

The death of Mr. W. B. Gally, brother of Mrs. Greer of this city, took place in Ventura county on the 25th instant.

A reception will be tendered to Rev. and Mrs. Dr. Conger at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wilde, Wednesday evening next.

Mr. Foster is reported as laying quite low at his home in the southeastern part of the city.

George H. Stewart, cashier of the Bank of America of Los Angeles, and Judge Utley of Pasadena, will hold a discussion on the financial condition before the Fortnightly club at the Universalist church in Pasadena this evening. Mr. Stewart is an advocate of monometalism, while the judge favors bimetallism. Admittance free. Everybody invited. Speaking will commence at 7:30 p. m.

POMONA.

Plenty of Entertainments—Local News Notes.

POMONA, Nov. 27.—The entertainment which was announced for last Friday evening at the Methodist church, to be given by Miss Murphy and Mrs. Clapp for the relief of the needy, and which had to be postponed on account of the sickness of the former lady, will come off tomorrow (Tuesday) night. Pomona people always receive freely and willingly to a call of this nature, and both patronize and appreciate good literary and musical talent, whether local or from abroad.

The attendance though good will not be so large on this occasion, however, as Pomona has a great many who are knowing that a good attraction, The Wolves of New York, will be presented at the opera house on the same evening, will take advantage of this opportunity, especially as they will be few and far between in our vicinity.

We hope, however, that both will receive worthy patronage.

The ladies of St. Agnes guild expect to give a photograph entertainment in their rooms, Ruth block, this evening instead of their usual weekly social tea, a good instrument having been secured for the purpose.

Misses Nannie E. Mock, Beatrice Scott and Trixie Becket, three of Pomona's young ladies who secured schools this fall outside of our own county, left this morning to attend the respective county teachers' convention—the former in Riverside, the two latter in San Bernardino. The old settlers among us have seen them all three grow up from little girls in our midst, and feel a pride in their success.

The Good Templars have a social in McComas' hall on next Thursday evening.

The Arabian Oil Company have left for San Bernardino.

Willard Goodwin left this morning for a business run of a day or two to Redlands and Riverside.

Mr. Charles Sanborn, of the Los Angeles postoffice attaches, has been in town a day or two visiting his parents.

J. L. Overton went to San Bernardino today on business, returning this afternoon.

The two defendants, Andres Duarte and Fidal Jinescu, tried before Judge Finney today, were discharged.

R. J. Whitten's saloon, on North Main street, is finally running along smoothly, and the council will no doubt grant his request for a bartender on tomorrow evening in their session, as the city has collected the first six months' license of him.

The programme for November 30th, handed into us for publication, will appear in Wednesday morning's paper.

All anticipations of a real treat at our opera house tomorrow evening.

THE COURING CLUB.

Since the announcement of the big couring event to be held at Long Beach on Thanksgiving day by the Los Angeles Couring club, the interest in the sport has spread to a surprising extent. The prospect of scoring a big killing, either in the field or in the pool box, has been a great incentive to local courers, and the greyhounds are being carefully trained and put in good condition for the event.

The drawing of dogs took place last night, with the result that Frank Wilkinson's Fannie will run against E. Carr's Handy; H. Simister's Roxy against W. Cota's Conchita Belle; W. Workman's Jerry against A. Barrell's Renny; W. Powers' Boycott against J. M. Cota's Oberon; and J. H. H. against P. Reynolds' Fishpole; J. Reihner's Lily Ha against H. Preston's Chief; B. J. Hall's Ponto against W. Workman's Tom, and D. T. Cahill's Ned of the Hills against Julius Tonnemacher's Wallace.

Mr. Al Barrell will be president of the day, and Mr. P. Parrell will officiate as judge, with J. Tonnemacher as alternate judge; D. T. Cahill will act as field steward, and William Powers as field clerk, while the slips will be handled by T. Rice and J. M. Cota.

The value of the valuable money prizes for the first and second dogs, six minor prizes have been generously donated by Los Angeles merchants, and exciting races for the coveted awards are a foregone conclusion. The members of the club wish their dogs will leave Los Angeles by the 9:45 a. m. train on the Terminal, and lovers of the grand old sport will undoubtedly be in attendance in great force.

NAVAL RESERVE.

The Meeting Held Last Night for Organization.

At a large and enthusiastic meeting at the Hollenbeck hotel parlors, last evening, Company O of the State Naval Reserve was organized. This makes the fifth company in California, there being one at San Diego and three at San Francisco.

Speeches were made by the prominent workers present in which the plans of organization were outlined. Plans for equipment and uniform were considered and the list of officers to be elected was read. A letter was read from Lieutenant L. S. Butler of the state naval reserve, in which he stated that the military authorities would give the movement their support.

A temporary organization was effected with B. Emery as president, F. Van Vleck secretary, and J. S. Oliver financial secretary.

The next meeting will be held at the Hollenbeck parlors next Monday evening, when a permanent organization will be effected and all the necessary officers elected.

Lieut. L. S. Butler was present and made a lengthy speech in which he stated that the military authorities would give the movement their support.

A Wonderful Engine.

CANNOT BE SURPASSED—An engine exerting surpassing power is always a source of wonder and yet how many are entirely forgetful of the existence of themselves in a more powerful and enduring than any ever invented. Not perhaps until they experience irregularities, heart fluttering, tenderness in shoulder and arm, swollen ankles, asthmatic breathing, weak and haggard spells, smothering short breath, or pain in side, when his existence is no longer to be denied, as the possessor must know he has heart disease. Mrs. De Bar, Pittsburgh, Mich., had heart disease, year after year, and she was unable to live on liquid food, used her Mils' Compound, and she is now well. Continued use cured her. Sold by C. E. Hance, 177 N. Spring, on a guarantee, who will give you the doctor's book free.

The County Wants Its Money from the Expressmen.

The suit of the County of Los Angeles vs. Jabez Banbury was submitted to Judge Van Dyke yesterday upon an agreed statement of facts and briefs to be filed.

The suit was one to recover $5067.52 monies alleged by him to have been paid for expressage and exchange charges upon moneys sent to the state treasurer.

Which Has His Trouble—His Friends Thought He Had Consumption—But He Gained so Much Weight in a First Month's Treatment.

This is the experience of Mr. Wm. M. Baker, an employe of Jacoby Bros., in their furnishing department:

MR. WM. M. BAKER.

"I had catarrh for four or five years; tried several physicians, but gradually grew worse until I began treatment at the DeMacon Medical Institute. Had cold headaches; nose was so clogged up, so much so that I could sleep with my mouth open in order to breathe; hard lumps collected in back of nostrils, also a discharge from nostrils, which was very disagreeable, and hearing was impaired. For several months I had a very severe cough, which annoyed me both night and day. In coughing sometimes would have soreness in chest and over my head, which caused my friends to think I had consumption. Appetite was poor, sleep very restless, many mornings would get up with a heavy feeling in head. The first month's treatment I improved and gained about FIVE POUNDS IN P.L.E.H. Now I feel fine, that anything could be so stopped, sleep well, have a splendid appetite. Naturally I am grateful for the result, and I say to all with similar cases to try the Doctor's."
