LEGAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.—No news from Lang Winston. The council proceedings. Major Stern resigns. The Bar passes resolutions of respect to the memory of Judge O'Melveny.

NEIGHBORING PLACES. PASADENA.—A levitating doctress—City trustees meeting. SANTA ANA.—The supervisors—Superior court. POMONA.—News notes.

The tariff will now occupy some of the space in the newspapers heretofore engrossed by the Hawaiian question. Anything for a change.

The rainstorm which has been prevailing on the northern Pacific coast for the past few days, shows a tendency to move southward, probably reaching Southern California by Tuesday night.

The exit of the county to recover from Jabez Danbury certain moneys which he charged up against the county ostensibly for the conveyance of county funds to Sacramento came up before Judge Van Dyke yesterday and was submitted on briefs.

ALTHOUGH the cruiser Olympia has not yet concluded her official trip, it seems to be conclusively settled that she will wreat from the Columbia the proud title of Queen of the Ocean, which that admirable vessel so recently earned.

Our amusement resources have been increased by the opening of the new Burbank theater last night. The Doctor has shown his faith in the future of Los Angeles by his works, and there is plenty of room for the new temple of Thespis.

A LARGE number of people, particularly those who have to work hard for an honest living, would be pleased to know how and why it is that the builder of a cruiser, or other war vessel of the United States, is immediately presented with a bonus of $350,000 to $400,000.

a building for this section at the San Francisco fair, was none the less desirous to do all in its power to help our local movement to make an attractive display in this city, and would heartily co-operate in such movement.

NOW IS THE ACCEPTABLE TIME. We again return to the original refrain of the HERALD that, this year, our capitalists and property owners must put their hands in their pockets and dig up the money needed to make the requisite impression on the eastern people who shall come to this coast for the midwinter fair.

MEANWHILE, the duty of Angeles is plain as a pikestaff. They must co-operate in making the exhibit of the southern counties the most remarkable sectional display ever known on this or any other continent. To give the movement its full proportions our capitalists and property owners must rise to the occasion.

WHILE we have, in the foregoing, dwelt upon the necessity of our southern counties being adequately represented at the Midwinter fair, we do not wish to be understood as in the slightest degree undervaluing the benefits which will accrue from a thoroughly representative citrus fair, at Hazard's pavilion, or wherever else may be thought best.

ABSOLUTELY the most serious drawback from which Los Angeles is suffering today is the fact that we are not supplied with sufficient hotel facilities. In saying this we have not the slightest idea of reflecting on the present hotels of this city.

AT THE meeting of the chamber of commerce yesterday to consider the difficulties that have arisen about the midwinter fair, the whole matter was clearly presented and elaborately discussed, and the unanimous conclusion was reached that we should at once proceed with the erection of the building for Southern California.

MARRIAGE LICENSES were issued yesterday to the following persons: Robert J. Mayberry, native of Ireland, 34 years of age, of Norwalk, to Julia Miller, also of Ireland, 22 years of age, of Paterson, N. J.

are afraid, however, that we shall be obliged to wait several years to see the structure arise. In fact, we are inclined to think that our chances of having such accommodations will depend on enterprising people from abroad who shall come here and put their ducats in the work.

SOME time ago the HERALD had no hesitation in saying that, notwithstanding the recommendation of the board of supervisors looking to leaving the office vacant, ex-District Attorney McLachlan would be Judge Wade's successor.

THE tramp fraternity all over this country is acting lately in a way which will solidify the community against them if it is persevered in. The attempt to seek trains both in California and the east cannot fail to result in measures of repression, which would otherwise be repugnant to the feelings of humane people.

THE statement that 15,000 coal miners in Wisconsin will require to be supported by charity till spring, while in Michigan are equal numbers in destitute circumstances, is a striking proof of the universality of the poverty dispensation in this country just now.

MURDERS and suicides come to us now in job lots. Perhaps the most peculiar telegraphic horror is that reported from Indiana, in which an atrocious individual killed his wife, family and himself, making five altogether.

THE case of the application of Miss Teasa L. Kelso for a writ of mandate to compel City Auditor Teale to pay the expenses of an alleged trip to Chicago was argued before Judge Shaw yesterday, and was taken under advisement by the court.

PERSONAL

H. G. Tinsley of the Pomona Progress was in the city yesterday.

Mr. J. Skinner of Santa Paula, who is a Mexican war veteran, is in the city.

C. B. Wilson, the well-known young attorney in the California bank building, returned yesterday from a short business trip to San Francisco.

John Adams and wife, St. Louis; L. J. Jones, Tombstone, Ariz.; William C. Wilson and wife, St. Louis, and C. W. Babcock and family, Kasota, Minn., arrived today at the Bellevue Terrace.

E. Jarrell Calley of Oakland, Cal., and Miss Nellieann L. Nelson of Chicago, Ill., were married at Council Bluffs, Ia., on the 19th inst. Mr. Calley is a well-known Pacific coast commercial man with headquarters in San Francisco.

P. H. Mathews, accompanied by his wife, returned Sunday from an extensive business trip covering three months' duration, during which time they visited the world's fair and all the principal cities of the east.

They May Wed. Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to the following persons: Robert J. Mayberry, native of Ireland, 34 years of age, of Norwalk, to Julia Miller, also of Ireland, 22 years of age, of Paterson, N. J.

AMUSEMENTS

LOS ANGELES THEATRE.—Fanny Davenport's Cleopatra is familiar to playgoers hereabouts, but the former presentations of the drama seem to have whetted the people's appetite for it, for a large audience greeted Miss Davenport last evening.

THE conception of the role as given by this actress has been treated at length several times in this journal, and so little remains to be said now. The same statement applies to Mr. Macdowell's 'Mark Antony.'

THE gorgeous scenic effects, glittering costumes and barbaric abundance of glitter and sheen were as effective as of yore, and that the audience appreciated both acting and scenery was evidenced by the generous applause.

THE Los Angeles slaves, soldiers, teachers and dancing girls were all that could, perhaps, be expected, but the latter should be informed that the morn comes in the afternoon and that its exhibition under fleshings partakes of the absurd.

THE Burbank.—The fine new Burbank theater on Main, between Fifth and Sixth streets, was opened last night, and there was a remarkable attendance.

LONG before 8 o'clock arrived long lines of people were standing in front of the Burbank office, and it was not before 8:30 o'clock that they could be all accommodated. It was a jolly crowd, however, and the spick and span refreshment saloon was crowded.

WHEN the orchestra had played certain fine selections under the leadership of W. F. Webb, Mr. Arthur Sutherland delivered a happy little speech before the footlights. In it he called attention to the enterprise of Dr. Burbank in building the theater, to the indomitable energy of Manager Cooper in pushing forward the equipment of the house and to the policy of the management in opening a place where the people could see good plays by a thoroughly trained and accomplished company at prices that are within the reach of all.

THE new drop curtain was rung down at the close of the introductory remarks and called out enthusiastic applause from the audience. It represents a palace interior with little George Cooper in the dress of a page tripping down the broad entrance.

THE comments of the audience upon the handsome appearance of the interior of the theater; its comfortable seating arrangements, the scenic decorations, attractive and comfortable boxes were frequent and very enthusiastic. There might have been an impression that as a theater of popular prices it might not be a very attractive place, and the agreeable disappointment of the immense crowd was very pleasant to witnesses.

AS to the performance, the curtain rose upon the familiar scenes of the play about 8:30 o'clock, and the curtain went down about midnight. The company has been at much disadvantage in getting in shape for the initial performance, and they did themselves much credit.

THE 'Tom Cooper' of Darrell Vinton was a fine piece of character acting and he made a decided hit. This was also true of Miss Alice Mott as 'Annie Standish.' She gave a careful and finished delineation of the tragic and pathetic scenes through which she passed and her rendition was greatly admired.

THE other parts were taken well by the different members of the company and altogether it was a most creditable performance for the first night. Nearly every one was the recipient of floral tributes from friends, and Manager Cooper may well well satisfied with the result. The cast was as follows: Tom Cooper, a sailor.....Darrell Vinton George Benson, a man about town.....Oliver Paul District Messenger.....Little George Cooper Billy Eonan, a warm-hearted Irish girl.....Annie Standish.....Miss Alice Mott Anne Standish, her daughter (acts 1 and 2).....Helen Standish, her daughter (acts 2, 4 and 5).....Mrs. Higgins, one of the neighbors.....Christine Hill Jack Diamond, turnkey at Blackwell Island.....Joe Downey, turnkey at Blackwell Island District Messenger.....Little George Cooper Billy Eonan, a warm-hearted Irish girl.....Annie Standish, her daughter (acts 1 and 2).....Helen Standish, her daughter (acts 2, 4 and 5).....Mrs. Higgins, one of the neighbors.....Christine Hill Jack Diamond, turnkey at Blackwell Island.....Joe Downey, turnkey at Blackwell Island

THE Shadows of a Great City will run the balance of the week at the Burbank.

HERMOSA VIETA, the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Glover at South Pasadena was thrown open to a host of friends yesterday afternoon from 2 until 5, the occasion being the celebration of the golden wedding of that worthy couple. After hearty congratulations the guests were invited into the dining room where delicious refreshments were served. The room presented a beautiful appearance flowers being placed in every available nook.

IT was a delightful informal affair. Mr. and Mrs. Glover have resided in California 11 years, coming here for the health of their son Frank M. Glover, who was the first postmaster in South Pasadena then known as Hermosa. While holding that office he died of consumption, an only sister soon died of the same disease, leaving George W. Glover Jr. Editor of the South Pasadena as the only child. That Mr. and Mrs. Glover are well and favorably known was testified to by the constant stream of guests coming and going who sincerely hope they may enjoy many more years of usefulness.

MR. F. W. Kringle was made happy Saturday evening by the return of his wife from a three-months visit at Milwaukee, Chicago and other eastern points. Mr. Kringle celebrated the event by planning a surprise party for Mrs. Kringle Monday evening. There were present Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Voigt, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mertins, Mr. and Mrs. Livengood, Miss Livengood, Miss Eis-feller, Miss Emma Winters, Miss Gossie Winters, Miss Lily Winters and Messrs. Rundel, Cheney and D. Clarke. A very merry time was had at progressive whist and other games. Mrs. Kringle was taken quite by surprise at having so many of her friends call so soon after her return, her husband having guarded his secret well.

MR. J. G. Jarvis and the Misses Jarvis and Mrs. H. W. West, Mrs. Henry West Hughes, arrived in this city Saturday morning. They will spend six months in California, where, doubtless, their old Louisville friends will give them a pleasant time.

MR. and Mrs. W. B. Wilschire, prominent society people of San Francisco, are visiting Mrs. Charles Carpenter, Mrs. Wilschire's sister.

AN ARTISTIC DISPLAY.

GERMAN'S ART CENTRE ON SOUTH SPRING STREET.

Work on the Interior Fittings Rapidly Progressing—Not a Mere Jewelry Store—Some of the Departments That Will Be Included.

Work has been rapidly progressing during the past week on the interior fittings of the German jewelry establishment of Mr. German, on South Spring street, between Third and Fourth, to which reference has already been made in these columns. The artistic counters, showcases and furnishings are in place, with a large stock of valuable goods, including some tasteful engravings, elegantly framed, it is evident from what may be seen already, that this is destined to be one of the show places of Los Angeles.

MR. German has exercised good judgment in the selection of a location for his business. It is convenient of access to the best residence section of the city, and just a little south of the business center, which is moving steadily in this direction, from day to day.

It should be understood by the public that this is something more than an ordinary jewelry store. As already stated, over thirty persons will be employed. Besides the most extensive and complete stock of fine class jewelry to be found on the Pacific Coast, outside of San Francisco, there will be a department of manufacturing jewelry to order: an optical department, under charge of a capable and experienced optician, who will give free of charge a watch-repairing department, and a complete line of artistic society stationery, including copper-plate engraving of wedding and invitation cards. Monograms and addresses will be engraved without extra charge to those who buy stationery.

Ladies and gentlemen who are passing this establishment should not fail to inspect the attractive counters.
