CREDITORS' SALE!

MONEY!

The industrial condition of America is anything but prosperous. Values have been shaken. "Uncertain legislation" is to some extent responsible. People who have money are holding it tightly, and must be satisfied thoroughly that they are getting more than value received when they part with the precious stuff. This is human nature. Here in Los Angeles at the present time can be seen the practical demonstration. The

CITY OF PARIS DRY GOODS STORE IS THE PLACE.

The creditors of this establishment have been and are sacrificing every dollar's worth of goods in order to get the CASH. Actual values and cost of goods are disregarded—it is not a question of making money, or even expenses. The only consideration is to realize "money" and close out the business. This MUST and WILL BE done. The public can get more value for their $ $ $ at this great Creditors' Sale than anywhere else on the Pacific Coast.

CHRISTMAS!

Is coming, and Santa Claus will soon be knocking upon the chimney tops. The hearts of both the young and the old are to be made happy. Now is the time to be looking up presents. Therefore, remember that you can get more for your money at the City of Paris Creditors' Sale than elsewhere. You can SAVE MONEY—at least from 40 to 75 per cent—and at the same time get choice, first-class, reliable, new and seasonable goods for less than is charged elsewhere for "shelf-worn auction trash," that has been picked up here and there.

Commencing Monday, December 4th,

And continuing until Christmas, special efforts will be made in the Silk Department. The stock is complete in fancy and plain weaves, and all imaginable shades. Prices have been reduced to and below manufacturers' cost. Window displays will be made during the week, showing qualities, shades and prices of but a small portion of this complete and magnificent stock. Please remember that the prices and reductions are not merely for the goods in the windows, but for everything in the entire stock. It is not necessary to enumerate every article carried in the

As the Stock is Complete in Every Department, and from 40 to 75 Per Cent Will be Saved by Purchasing Now, and Here.

VICIOUS STATEMENTS.

UNPLEASANT REFLECTIONS BY THE SACRAMENTO BEE.

Health Officer Powers Receives a Communication From the State Board of Health About the Matter. His Vigorous Reply.

The Sacramento Bee has been indulging in some viciously inaccurate statements about the reports to the state board of health by our city health department, as well as reports from other counties in the state.

Dr. Powers, health officer, has received a communication from J. R. Lane, secretary of the state board of health, with reference to the matter, the substance of which is as follows:

A portion of the Sacramento local press is calling into question the value and reliability of the reports furnished the state board of health by local boards of health and health officers, and holds that the figures of the United States census of 1890 should be given, instead of the estimates by the local boards of the population of their respective cities. The United States census of 1890 gives Los Angeles a population of 60,400; your reports to the state board of health show your estimate to be 65,000. Last February the estimate was 60,000. Can this fluctuation be accounted for in any other manner than by a simple error? Please state if, in the opinion of your local board, the sentiment of your people and the judgment of your local press, you are justified in estimating your population above or below the figures shown by the latest United States census reports. State further how you arrive at this conclusion.

I would like your opinion as to whether the secretary of the state board of health would be warranted in setting aside an estimate of population made by you in your official capacity, and substituting the United States census report of 1890.

Dr. Powers was somewhat taken aback by the statements in the letter, and sent a reply by return mail to Mr. Lane. In it he said:

"In reply to your letter received this morning in regard to the estimated population of this city as given in our monthly report, I will say that our estimate has been uniform and without fluctuation, as you can see for yourself by referring to our monthly reports filed in our office. (In evidence I enclose the report for the month in question by the newspaper.)

"The estimate of 65,000 in population has been based upon the United States census of 1890, plus the increase in population as shown by the number of buildings constructed and occupied since 1890, the increased number of voters as shown by the great register from 1890 to 1892, and the increase of the number of children of school age as shown by the school census for the present year.

"We are satisfied that our estimate is correct, and any change would work an injustice to us. The city officials who have a knowledge of the population of the city consider our estimate to be the lowest possible in reason."

MUNRO'S DEATH.

The Insurance Men to Take Charge of the Burial Today.

There was no further developments in the matter of the suicide of D. Munro yesterday. A pathetic incident came to light in the fact of a telegram being received for Mr. Munro on Thanksgiving day from his family in Canada, announcing the death of his brother. Munro was at the bottom of the lake in Westlake park when the message arrived. He was a native of Canada, and had lived as a sugar planter in Honolulu for some time, coming to this city from the islands.

He left no estate, the local board of fire underwriters providing for his funeral, which will take place this morning at 9 o'clock.

A special meeting of the board was held at the board of trade rooms yesterday afternoon for the purpose of taking suitable action.

R. G. Lunt and J. P. Yates were named by the president to act as pallbearers. W. A. Bonyng and Louis F. Vetter were appointed a committee on flowers.

The following resolutions were adopted, being prepared by a committee consisting of Louis F. Vetter, W. A. Bonyng and F. A. Walton:

Whereas, It has pleased a Divine and inscrutable Providence to remove from our midst our friend and fellow-member, David Munro;

Resolved, That while we deplore his untimely decease, we bow to the wisdom of Almighty God and believe implicitly that "He doeth all things well."

Resolved, That we extend to the friends and relatives of our deceased associate the sympathies of this body, and, while we recognize the fact that human sympathy can be of but little comfort to those in affliction, we commend them to the loving care of the Father of all, in whose arms they will find consolation.

Resolved, That we will attend, in a body, the funeral of our deceased associate, and that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this board.

"THANK YOU, JUDGE."

A Tough Little Boy Who Wanted to Go to the Reform School.

A 12-year-old youth named Dezie Robinette was before Judge Austin yesterday on a charge of stealing papers from the doors of residences. He and Willie and Moses Hall were arrested on the charge, having been caught in the act.

The boys were finally discharged. Robinette lives with his parents at 515 South Flower street, but if his capers on the street are any criterion they have not the slightest control over him.

REV. WIGHT AGAIN.

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH TAKES FURTHER ACTION.

An Endorsement of the Action of the Church Signed by a Number of Well-Known Pastors. The Resolutions.

Some months ago the HERALD published an account of certain dissensions in the Central Christian church, regarding the goings on of Rev. Frank A. Wight, who had been the pastor. Certain of the congregation asserted that Mr. Wight had been guilty of more or less salacious conduct with some of the sisters in the church, and it was stated that his resignation was demanded, given and accepted.

A portion of the congregation, however, it appears refused to believe Rev. Wight guilty and staid by him, so that on his return from the east, recently, he started teaching on his own account and drew unto him the church people who still believed in him, so the following document was signed by representative clergymen of that denomination.

Resolved, That the action of the Central Christian church of Los Angeles in withdrawing fellowship from F. A. Wight be endorsed. Signed by Cal. Ogburn, pastor of Riverside Christian church; A. C. Smith, pastor of Temple street Christian church; T. D. Garvin, pastor of Pasadena Christian church; D. A. Wagner, pastor of Thirty-third street mission Christian church; S. D. Coker, pastor of Artesia Christian church; J. W. Utter, pastor of Orange Christian church; B. F. Coulter, pastor of East Los Angeles Christian church; J. E. Hopkins, pastor of China Christian church; H. H. Abrams, pastor of San Bernardino Christian church; H. D. Connell, pastor of Santa Ana Christian church; J. P. Ralston, pastor of San Jacinto Christian church.

The following is the resolution by which Mr. Wight was let out of his ministerial job.

At a meeting of the Christian church, held at Los Angeles, Cal., this 29th day of October, 1893, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, Frank A. Wight has been the regular minister of the Central Christian church in this city for the year just passed, and

Whereas, The said F. A. Wight was forced to resign as minister of said church on account of his unchristian conduct toward certain members of this and other congregations in Southern California, and

Whereas, He has walked in an unchristian and unbecoming manner by conducting a meeting within a short distance of the Central church, with no other apparent object in view than to weaken or break down the said church;

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the Central Christian church withdraw their fellowship from said Frank A. Wight, and that the clerk be instructed to notify the several congregations in Southern California to that effect.

The above is a true and correct copy of the resolutions.

L. M. ANDERSON, clerk. And so the matter stands. It will be interesting to see what effect upon Mr. Wight's power as an exhorter and revivalist this action of all the Southern California ministers will have.

THE COURTS.

Two Opinions from the Supreme Bench.

Two opinions were received yesterday from the supreme court for filing in this city.

In the case of William G. Knight et ux., respondents vs. Pacific Coast Stage company appellant, the jury in the lower court rendered a verdict in favor of plaintiffs in the sum of $1000 for damages sustained by reason of one of the defendant's coaches upsetting in which they were travelling, in December, 1891. Defendants appealed. Judgment and order affirmed.

In the matter of the estate of Care J. Couts, deceased, the order of the court is affirmed.

NEW SUITS.

Preliminary papers in the following new suits were filed with the county clerk yesterday:

Emma B. Davidson vs. O. W. Battey et al. Suit to prove title to certain real estate.

Mrs. Jennie Frank vs. Southern Pacific Railway company et al.

A Hair Splitting Bishop.

It is recorded of a certain hair splitting English bishop, who was accustomed to compose his "charges" in the train, and whose desk was always placed opposite to him, that he invariably treated it as though it were a living vis-a-vis. The train being very full on one occasion, a would be passenger inquired if this place was taken, and the bishop, with his sunniest smile, expressed regret that there was no room. "I don't think that was quite right, my lord," said one of his fellow passengers. "What was not right?" inquired his lordship urbanely. "To say that the place was taken." "Pardon me, I did not say that it was taken; I was particularly careful to use the word 'occupied.'"—San Francisco Argonaut.

He Was a Senator.

Senator Allen of Nebraska is a big, burly man who looks like a prosperous dealer in live stock. Shortly after his arrival in Washington he was stopped at the door of the senate chamber by a new doorkeeper, who informed him that no one save senators was allowed on the floor. Mr. Allen smiled sadly, waved his hand and said: "Very well, sonny, I'm a senator. I don't look it. I know, but I am, just the same," and passed into the sacred precincts.—Chicago Herald.

BOLD BURGLAR ON TRIAL

HE HAD A PENCHANT FOR MILEAGE TICKETS.

A Falling on Trial for Burglary—He Is Declared to Be the Author of a Series of Burglaries—The Evidence Yesterday.

A. Falling was on trial yesterday before Judge Smith and a jury in department one, upon a charge of burglary.

Falling is a gentlemanly, good-looking young fellow, who, on October 21st, last, was residing at the Hollenbeck hotel.

From the evidence adduced yesterday it appears that on the morning of the 21st, Falling entered Duffin's ticket office, on Spring street, and offered a mileage ticket for sale.

W. Bolen, the clerk, noticed that the ticket was made out to L. Schranz, and knowing Mr. Schranz, questioned Falling as to how the ticket came into his possession. Falling acknowledged that the ticket had formerly belonged to Schranz, but declared that he had won it from that gentleman during a poker sitting.

He was then told to leave the ticket at the store and return for the money.

Mr. Bolen testified yesterday that as soon as Falling left the store, he went over to the Hollenbeck, where Mr. Schranz was staying, and acquainted him with the above facts.

Mr. Schranz then searched his room, and found that it had been entered, and the ticket stolen.

Detective Bosqui was given the case and arrested Falling a few days later. Falling denied all knowledge of the matter and denied knowing Schranz or ever having attempted to sell the ticket.

He was searched by Bosqui at the police station and a past key found on him, which was afterwards found to fit the door of Schranz's room.

Falling swore that the key was that of the room of a young female acquaintance, but who the lady was did not develop.

The case was continued yesterday at the conclusion of the above evidence, until this morning, Judge Smith having taken certain of the defendant's objections under advisement.

The ticket robbery was the last of a similar series of thefts which have occurred at the Hollenbeck hotel, and it is believed that in the arrest of Falling the perpetrator of the numerous robberies has been secured.

In the prisoner's valise were found three more mileage tickets on eastern railroads, all of which are made out to different persons. The police believe that these were all stolen by Falling, who is declared to be a hotel worker of the highest order.

A GOLDEN SHOWER.

The Discoverer of the Big Horn Mine Leaves a Fortune to a Shoemaker.

Patrick Ryan of this town, a shoemaker, single, 50 years of age, has received notice of the death of his brother in Chicago. By his death he is the only heir.

It was early in 1840 that James Ryan, then a young man, left Milford in company with Richard Quinlan and with hundreds of others went to the golden gate to seek their fortune in the gold-fields of California.

They remained there for several years, but the mine they worked in, although rich in ore, was far from healthy and was particularly bad for the eyes, so much so that young Ryan's eyes were affected and he was forced to come east to have them attended to, for he was almost blind.

Young Ryan recovered his sight after a few years, but the east was rather tame for him, and again he went west. His second trip was to Colorado. The silver fever had just broken out, and Leadville was not known. Denver was a town of few houses when James Ryan arrived there with a companion. They were not long prospecting before they struck a mine that proved a great find. They sold it for $20,000. This was the first big money that Ryan ever made, although it was but a small amount as compared with what he afterward made in the mining world.

He remained but a short time in Denver, when, in company with his partner, they went to Utah, where they prospected for nearly a year, but were only successful in getting small finds. They were all about to bid Utah goodby when they struck traces of silver, the ore proving the finest they ever met with.

The seam was followed and proved better than they ever dreamed they would see. This was no other than the Big Horn silver mine that they sold for $1,000,000.

The money was equally divided between the partners. The money market always had a charm for Ryan, and he lost a great deal among the bulls and bears in Chicago. More than once he was tightly squeezed by old man Hutchinson, who was in his prime in those days.

But the hidden treasure beyond the Rockies had charms also for him that he could not overcome, and after losing what to many a man would be called a good sized fortune he returned to his old love of adventure and prospecting.

Again he proved successful and became the owner of several mines that brought him immense wealth.

Mr. Ryan does not know the exact amount of his brother's wealth, nor will he for a few days to come. Mr. Percy Shea of Denver is to have charge of settling up the estate.—Milford Cor. Boston Globe.
