

SANTA ANA.

Particulars About Fred Simmons' Disappearance—News Notes. SANTA ANA, Dec. 9.—The mystery that has enshrouded the disappearance of Fred Simmons, the little red-headed English stenographer and type-writer of the Newport Wharf and Land company of this city, has at last been solved. It doesn't appear that he was the Sunday school boy he was thought to have been, after all. It is very true that his accounts with the office was all right and that he paid $25 on an overdraft that he had made on the company for $50 a short time ago, to pay a doctor bill contracted during the illness of his wife, on the day before he was mysteriously disappeared, but it was not until yesterday that it was found out that he had forged a check on the company for $854.00.

On the morning he skipped out he went into the First National bank carrying with him the little money box that he had been in the habit of taking with him when he called for money for the Newport Wharf and Land company or the Santa Ana and Newport Railroad company, and presented a check made payable and signed by E. M. Smiley, secretary, for $854.00. He stated that the pay roll for the railroad company had just been completed and that he wanted that amount of money; at the same time he gave the cashier the exact denomination and number of coins he wanted, in order, as he stated, that there might be no trouble in making change. As Simmons had often presented checks from the company and made similar requests, Assistant Cashier Frank Chilton did not hesitate to hand out the coin.

Strange to say, nothing further was thought of the payment of the money to Simmons by the bank until about noon yesterday. E. M. Smiley, secretary and treasurer of the company, called at the bank and asked that the company's bank book be balanced. A number of paid checks were thrown out to Mr. Smiley and he glanced over them. As he did so his eyes fell on a signature that at once struck him as a rank stranger to him. The check was drawn on the bank book of the Santa Fe railroad company, all of which are numbered. On turning through the bank book the stub corresponding to the check was found, he having turned ahead several numbers and had detached the check.

Simmons had been accustomed to handling checks for the company and getting them cashed at the First National bank. That being the case Mr. Chilton did not think it at all extraordinary, and dismissed the matter for his mind.

As Simmons took periodical sprees, but little attention was given to his absence from the company's office for several days. An effort is being made to capture the slick Simmons, but as he has about eight days' start it is hardly thought he will be overtaken soon. The bank officials have offered the following description of Simmons and have offered $100 for his capture:

WANTED FOR ROBBERY. One hundred dollars reward will be paid for the arrest and detention of Fred Simmons, a young man about 24 years old, about five feet six inches high and weighs about 125 pounds; rather spare, built slight, stoppage in his speech when in earnest or excited. Red or Auburn hair, smooth shaved, with very small reddish mustache; complexion fair, slightly freckled in face, on hands and wrists; step quick and active, neat and boyish looking, an inveterate tobacco chewer and an expert stenographer, a native of London, England, but has very slight brogue. When he left here December 2d he wore a dark suit with light colored overcoat and Derby hat. Likely to be found in sporting or drinking places. If arrested, telegraph the undersigned and the above reward will be paid when the prisoner is delivered to the sheriff of Orange county at place of detention.

President First National Bank, Santa Ana, Cal. BADLY KICKED. About noon today George Shaw was sitting on the seat of Goldmeyer's delivery wagon, when the horse attached to it commenced kicking viciously. The first pass he made Shaw was struck on the hip and knocked out of the wagon, and before he struck the ground he was kicked several times. George is rather badly hurt, and has to walk on a crutch.

CAUGHT QUICK. This morning an officer from Ocean-side came to Santa Ana and informed Marshal Nichol that a burglary had been committed in that seaside resort; that a house had been broken into and some bathing suits and other things taken. The description of the parties who were suspected was given Nichols, and this afternoon as he was walking down First street he espied a gentleman who filled the description to a dot. He ran him into Judge Humphrey's office, stripped him, and found both suits on him. He was locked up, and in a short time Night Watchman Cogburn ran in the other man. The light-fingered gentlemen will be taken to Ocean-side tonight.

NOTES. Fourteen instruments were filed for record in the county recorder's office to-day, and the balance miscellaneous instruments. About 6 o'clock John Dawson's team ran away with a butcher wagon attached. The started from the west end of Fourth street and ran east, and in front of Haller's store the wagon collided with Mrs. Srack's buggy, but did no damage. In front of Martin's store they crashed into a spring wagon of Mr. Kuychel's and broke it into kindling wood, throwing the driver, Joe Dawson, out and hurting him quite severely.

Last night at the opera house Leonard Grover put on the stage The Private Secretary, and if ever audience got their fill of laughter it was last night. All of the members of the troupe are artists and the parts were well played. There was a good audience, and everybody seemed to be well pleased. They play The Wolves of New York tonight, and nearly all the seats are taken.

SANTA MONICA. Local News and Social Events at the Seaside. SANTA MONICA, Dec. 9.—As the Christmas holidays draw nigh, the many interesting entertainments and the usual holiday bustle and activity increase. All the stores have their tempting displays on exhibition, and the usual church socials and bazaars are becoming plentiful.

The number of tourists who came down for the day, and of them for the season, was much larger than last week, and gives promise of a still further increase this week. All the hotels and boarding houses report a number of such accessions on their list, and the winter season has at last about commenced, with the rainbow promise of brilliancy and success.

SOCIAL EVENTS. The past week has been a memorable one here from a social point of view, every phase of social life having its special feature to satisfy the cravings of Madam Society's whims. In the wedding line there have been four cereimonies, and eight hearts have presumably been made happy. There have been musical balls, parties and the various kind of entertainment of high and low degree to please all hearts and to bring about good will.

The coming week gives promise of being still more lively and gayety of the winter season has fairly well set in. Among those of interest to take place this week the bazaar of the ladies of St. Augustine, which commences on Tuesday, continuing throughout the week, will undoubtedly lead and be the chief attraction.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. M. H. Kimball gave a very delightful afternoon tea and duplicate whist party at her charming residence on Second street, in honor of Mrs. Doris Jones and daughter, Mrs. Simpson of New York, who is visiting the city by the sea. The rooms of the mansion were exquisitely decorated with floral gems from the adjoining gardens in which Mrs. Kimball takes just pride and the social side of life beside the sea was superbly exemplified on the happy occasion. Among those present were Mrs. S. B. Wolfkill, Mrs. Dr. A. F. Elliott, Mrs. J. K. Clark, Miss A. H. Clark of Minneapolis, Miss Reiche, Mrs. G. W. P. Smith, Mrs. Butler and Mrs. D. H. Jones, of the Soldiers' home, Mrs. Roy Jones and Mrs. Dr. Chaffey.

The Epworth league of the M. E. church gave a charming musicale at the residence of Mrs. K. B. Gurberson on Second street on Friday evening, when a select party enjoyed the music and recitations of the evening. Mr. Tyler very acceptably filling the position of master of ceremonies. The impromptu programme was a good one, well rendered, the playing of charming Miss Rose Lowman on the piano, the violin solo of Mr. Prince, and the recitations of Mrs. Davis, late of New York, who has cast her lot with us, were all worthy of special mention. Mrs. Davis' recitations being exceptionally good and showing a wide range of power and appreciation of the art she imparts to others. Mrs. Davis is forming a class here in elocution and success undoubtedly awaits her.

Many Times the Price of the Treatment.

So Said Mr. J. M. Lawrence, Who Lives at 595 Sand Street, and Who Had Been Troubled With Both Catarrh of the Head and Stomach for Almost Five Years—Read His Statement Below.

"For about five years I have been troubled with both catarrh of the head and stomach. In that time I used most all the best medical medicines with very little benefit. I had violent pains through my head and neck; very dizzy at times, buzzing and roaring in the nostrils most always stepped up; mucous dropped into my throat, causing soreness and a very severe cough. My stomach was all out of order, had sharp shooting pains through it, and often a bloating, which was very disagreeable. Sleep was restless; many mornings would feel tired and all worn out. At present I feel as relieved of all these annoying symptoms. I eat well, sleep is refreshing, and feel well in every way. The relief I have with my head is worth many times the price of this statement can call or address me at any time. Yours sincerely, 'J. M. LAWRENCE'."
