Presbyterian Church Entertainment.
Wedding Announcements.
PASADENA, Dec. 14.—The entertainment given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church at Williams's hall last evening, in connection with their annual fair, was a decided success. The audience was large and the various booths were well patronized, as indeed from their attractive appearance they deserved to be.

The programme for the evening consisted of a series of tableaux of a most unique and original order. The ladies, with a commendable eye for business, arranged each of the scenes, which were a decided success from an artistic standpoint to represent some particular line of business, to which were attached the name of some prominent dealer in that specialty.

The first, a chocolate girl, was represented by Miss Merwin, and makes a very pretty picture.
Waiting for Our New Shoes, represented by six charming little girls seated on top of a fence with their bare feet hanging down, was one of the happiest bits of the evening. The little misses in this scene were: Agnes Claypool, Adeline Wright, Gladys Gardner, Lucille Webster and Margery Bolt.

The old familiar rhyme of Jack and Jill was well pictured by Ruth Gardner and Ver Fitcher.
Little Lucille Webster made a very pretty picture, while the familiar advertisement of a well-known tooth powder was cleverly interpreted by Miss Dickinson.

The frontispiece of Vogue, presented by Mrs. Claypool standing in the center of an immense "V," the whole forming a charming picture.
The next, a Christmas bell of flowers, held by little Miss Talcott, was much admired.

Mrs. Bange and Mr. Wright contributed much to the merriment of the occasion by a suggestive tableau, and Charles Coleman faithfully represented the picture of a chair boy. One of the best mirth provokers of the evening was that of Mr. Thomas Coleman, a well known member of the Star staff, having a well known hair restorer applied to his brilliantly bald head by his little daughter, Sarah. A scene in a china store was well rendered by Miss Karachan, Miss Hall, Miss Young and Miss Gardner. The closing tableau, by Miss Wilde and little Miss Holmes was followed by a general social time and a generous patronage of the various booths.

The ladies in charge of the programme, Mrs. Christy and Mrs. Wetherby, are deserving of much praise for its admirable arrangement.
The fair closed this afternoon, netting the church something over $300, a remarkable showing.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT.
The many friends of Mr. Ray Hutchins, of the firm of Hutchins Bros., will be interested to learn of his coming marriage with Miss Crowley of Los Angeles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Crowley, on the 27th inst., at the home of the bride's parents. The marriage will be a private affair, only a few intimate friends of the contracting parties being invited. The ceremony will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Conger of this city, while N. S. Leithard of the Star will act as best man.

G. A. R. ELECTION.
The annual election of officers was held at a meeting of John A. Godfrey Post last evening, resulting as follows: C. C. Brown, commander; E. M. Elson, senior vice; J. D. Gaylord, junior vice; W. G. Cowan, chaplain; A. L. Patrie, officer of the day; T. S. Green, surgeon; F. D. Stevens, quartermaster; J. A. Allen, officer of the guard; John McDonald, G. F. Downing, L. J. Crowell, trustees.
Department Commander Seymour of San Bernardino was present and made a short but pleasing address. The address of having a flag raising on the 23d and a camp fire in the evening was dispensed, and arrangements will be made if possible for the events on that day. This post is one of the most prosperous in its division, being out of debt, with a well equipped and elegantly furnished new hall.

NOTES.
The public concert at the tabernacle last evening by a colored company was well attended, and proved very entertaining.

The series of meetings which have been conducted at the Baptist church by Rev. Cairns during the past two weeks came to an end last evening. The rooms of the old part of the Hotel Green are rapidly filling. The dining room will be opened for the first time on Saturday next, but the whole building will not be ready for some time yet.

Capt. A. W. Barrett, Col. J. C. Newton and H. W. Heinrich have been appointed as judges for the field events of the tournament of roes, which selection will give general satisfaction.
The marriage of A. T. Hagler and Miss Martha Murray took place in Los Angeles yesterday. Mr. Hagler is one of our well known contractors, and has many friends here who will be pleased to learn of the happy event.

Glasscock is giving a reduction of 20 cents on each dollar sold today. Now New Year's is at hand, and the goods, cards, booklets, books, dolls, and purses and we have the largest line of pocketbooks in the city, and you pay but 80 cents for each dollar's worth. Today only.

Crope and French tissue papers, Christmas cards and calendars. Langsieder, 214 W. Second st.

POMONA.

Railway Nabobs View the Country—Local Notes.
POMONA, Dec. 15.—The committee interested are taking every possible step to have the mass meeting on Monday evening generally attended by representative citizens from every quarter of the town and valley.

The special car of some of the head officials of the Southern Pacific company is side-tracked at the depot, and Mr. Stubbs and party are out for a ride over the country. This perhaps means more railroad officials of such rank don't have much time to drive over the country unless there is solid business at the bottom of it. So much the better for Pomona, if she not only gets the electric system, but also from Monrovia by the way of Pomona, or from Pomona over to Chino, Riverside, etc., back into the main line east of us. Anything for lively times and actual development.

There has been quite an ordering down of advertising signs by the city marshal within the past day or two, as it was claimed they were contrary to the municipal laws of Pomona. Advertise your holiday goods, gentlemen, in the Herald.

The crowd at the Unitarian bazar and turkey dinner yesterday was simply immense.
From indications, Pomona is to have another shoe house.

Mrs. Barnett, wife of the Southern Pacific, will be away a couple of weeks during the holidays.

Mr. Leach of the Pomona hotel, who has been sick so many weeks, is at last convalescing.

Len Claiborne has erased his name from the sick list and is once more himself.

Mrs. Finch, corner of Thomas and Third streets, is convalescing after several days' illness.

T. J. Roof well, a former resident of Pomona, is reported as having died at the home of his parents in Kewanee, Ill., on the 2d inst.

The sales of the bazar yesterday afternoon had run up to about $115, for fancy articles, etc., suitable for Christmas presents.

The Social Hour club have decided that their next dance will be at the Hotel Palomar on New Year's night, as there will be so many different kinds of amusements during Christmas week.

Our friend and townsman, Mr. J. Savage, tells us today that a letter had been received from Miss Ilo, daughter of Mr. Alice Symmes, now at Washington, D. C., stating that she had finally so far recovered from her long siege of typhoid fever as to recognize her and the physician, and that hopes were now entertained that she would be restored to her natural health by, perhaps, the latter part of January next.

SANTA ANA.

Local News Matters and Personal Mention of Interest.
SANTA ANA, Dec. 15.—D. Heller is again confined to his room by illness.

F. A. Jones, traveling agent for the Santa Fe road, was in our city today.

M. J. Bundy and W. W. Anderson went to Riverside this morning to attend the orange growers' association meeting.

It has been reported several times, but without authority, that C. P. Deyoe had sold his ranch up at Placentia. His ranch was finally sold this morning to Mr. Wm. W. Smith, and Mr. Deyoe gave possession today. He is now living at 414 Second street, Santa Ana.

Prof. M. Manly has just returned from a visit in Ohio and was shaking hands with old friends on our streets yesterday.

Miss Edith Hogle, who has for the past year or two been in the store of Beauty Bros., has just returned from a three-months visit with relatives and friends in Ohio and Indiana. She will take her old position in the store.

The grand jury is expected to make its report tomorrow. "Wonder who is scared?"

A. J. Towner is quite sick at his home with grip.

Mrs. Cloe M. Warner has bought of Mr. McCarthy of Los Angeles 20 acres between Fullerton and Anaheim for $1800.

Died, December 15th, Fern Hawkins, aged 2 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hawkins. Funeral at Christian church, Saturday, at 2 p.m.

Sedwick Post, G. A. R., has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: T. J. Alexander, post commander; I. N. Everett, senior vice-commander; J. R. Kelley, junior vice-commander; Dr. W. P. Ferguson, surgeon; R. G. Thompson, chaplain; Charles Schmitz, officer of the day; C. Cleaver, quartermaster; C. H. Lee, officer of the guard; S. W. Smith, C. L. Mansur and L. Bell, trustees; F. D. Sheffer, H. Fairbanks, Geo. Hubbard, O. J. Buck, delegates; and J. Lane, W. W. Buell, C. Olaver, L. W. Everett, Alternates to the grand encampment to be held at Oakland in March.

Mr. L. F. Eastin, a prominent Ventura man, has made a prospecting tour through the southern counties, and of all the places he found on his trip nothing there as well as Santa Ana.

There is general rejoicing in our city over the report that the best sugar factory is a sure go, and the building will be commenced about the 1st of February.

Sheriff Lacy is still in pursuit of the escaped prisoner, Dudley Duthaler. Delbert Reader, formerly an old resident of Santa Ana, but who for many years has resided in the upper part of the state, has returned to Santa Ana with his family.

With yesterday's issue the Orange News completed its fifth year of publication. The News promises to work hard as ever for the interest of Orange county in general and the town of Orange in particular.
Ransom Reed and family have removed to Ventura county.
Chas. Yost left this afternoon for a trip to San Bernardino. He will be gone for several days. The north bound Santa Fe was about 30 minutes late this evening.
Geo. Peters returned from a hunting trip south of Capistrano yesterday.

Mrs. May Kelly, who has been visiting relatives in Santa Ana, left this evening for San Diego. Mrs. Kelly was formerly Miss May Rudesill.
T. J. Harlin and Wm. Yost returned last evening from the San Marcus ranch.

Mrs. Sheldon of San Bernardino is in the city today looking after her property interests in this locality. She returned home today.

A prominent hotel keeper in this city said today that he would take the contract for feeding the tramps that are in the custody of the sheriff for 15 cents a meal.

ORANGE.
Dr. W. B. Wood last week sold his nice little home place on Chapman street to a gentleman from Maine named Tubbs.

Mr. Alf. Leach left on Sunday for Los Angeles, where he has secured a situation with Messrs. Cass & Smurr, Spring street.

Among the shipments from Orange depot of the Santa Fe this week, were 1 carload raisins, 1 carload oranges, smaller shipments of oranges and a large quantity of green peas.

Bright and early this morning a fine son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Will Thomas of Palmyra avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Walter, who have been living at Santa Ana since their marriage at Orange a few months ago, leave this week for Meteno, Riverside county.

Mr. Ben Davis is now carrying his right hand in a sling, on account of injuries received last week while repairing a pump. The injuries were quite painful, but as no bones were broken he will probably soon be able to resume work.

A. C. Elliott of Orange has entered extensively into the growing of winter vegetables for the eastern and home markets. He has 15 acres of peas in different stages of growth, and for the next three months will be in a position to make almost daily shipments of green peas. His crop is doing remarkably well. He has made arrangements to supply the Coronado and several other first class hotels on the coast, and weekly shipments will be made to Chicago and other eastern points by the refrigerator car service lately inaugurated by the Santa Fe company. We hope Mr. Elliott will meet with the success his enterprise and industry deserve.

COVINA.

Two Homes Burned—Personal and News Gossip.
COVINA, Dec. 15.—The viewers of the Covina and Pomona roads are at work.

Mr. L. E. Baker, a brother of Mrs. F. A. Smith, died at her home Wednesday morning.

Mr. Worrol's small child died Monday with the croup. Another of his children is very sick.

Mrs. A. Platt of Covina was married in Santa Ana last week to a Mr. Larkin of Los Angeles.

A fine rain laid the dust and did much good to growing crops on Wednesday night.

E. P. Warner, being the lowest bidder, was awarded the office of secretary of the Covina Water company.

C. E. Bemis, L. D. Robinson and L. Worrel are the proud possessors of new baby girls.

Clarence Allison has moved into his new house, J. Amou occupying the one just vacated until his own is completed.

The Episcopal church, which has just been newly painted and finished inside, was consecrated on Thursday, Bishop Nichols officiating.

The Covina Water company have four teams and about a dozen men at work on their new reservoir. It will probably be completed in about three months.

George Shipway's house burned Thursday morning. How it caught is a mystery, as no fire had been burning since the night before. It may be rebuilt.

Orange growers who have more faith in their own ability to get good prices are being left far behind by the association, which is getting from two to four times as much as individual growers.

T. A. Smith, our mail carrier, lost both mail bags Wednesday night while racing his horse. He found one a short distance from the postoffice, and the other was found by C. L. Green on his way home.

J. Amou's two-story house burned Saturday night with most of the contents. The neighbors turned out in full force and did much good in saving other property. The house was partly insured and will be replaced by an eight-room cottage.

THE RUSSO-FRANCO LOVE FEAST.
Mme. Adam is to be rewarded by Russian ladies for her recent efforts in organizing subscriptions for the presentation of gifts of jewelry to the favorites of the Muscovite officers and sailors who visited France.

It is announced that a committee of the fair and fashionable dames of the capital of the czar has been formed, with a view to purchasing a colossal "samovar" for the distinguished French lady who has so long advocated the sympathetic union of the two countries. The big tea brewing machine is to be tastefully engraved with the arms of Russia and France, as well as with the words "Cronstadt," "Toulon," "Paris Correspondent."

A Pin in Her Eye.
Mrs. Anna Swinerton of Chicago secured a verdict of $10,000 damages in the court of common pleas of New York city before Judge Giegrich and a jury last week against George Le Boutillier, dry goods merchant of Fourteenth street. Mrs. Swinerton went into the store on March 12, 1889, and was waiting for some change after having made some purchases. She had her little boy with her. She declared that some one of the cashboys in the store threw a pin which struck her in the eye, injuring it so that it was removed to save the other eye. She sued to recover $50,000 damages.

One Will and One Law.
A dispatch to the London Times from Berlin says The Germanian declares that the emperor, in his address to the Reichstag recently, said:
"I want Christian soldiers who say the Lord's Prayer. Soldiers are not to have a will of their own. You must have but one will, and that is my will, one law, and that is my law."

He Wanted a Sudden Death.

At a brilliant dinner party at the house of the secretary of state in 1876, the talk turned upon the sensation of death. "I do not know," said Mr. Fish, in the flush that involuntarily followed the introduction of such a serious subject, "why we should pray against sudden death; it seems to me a very desirable way of shutting off this mortal coil. I think the compilers of our book of Common Prayer must have intended violent death in their petition—at least that is the way I read it—and every Sunday at church, when that part of the litany is read, I make that distinction in my mind.

"It seems to me," he continued, looking abstractedly before him, with his thoughts evidently far away from the gay scene by which he was surrounded, "to die suddenly, without the painful struggles of disease, is what I would rather pray for." When one day one of the guests of that occasion picked up a morning paper and read in large type, "Suddenly, at his home at Garrison-on-the-Hudson, Hamilton Fish," the long forgotten conversation came vividly to mind.—New York Tribune.

NEWS ABOUT East Whittier.

What kind of a place does a man seek who wants to make a home? He looks out for several things:
For a live and growing town. Whittier will nearly double her population the present year.

For fine outlook—Soil and climate. Whittier has all these as near perfection as can be found anywhere.

For a good water supply. The East Whittier system is one of the finest in the world. Ample supply, cool, clear, soft.
For land and water at a reasonable price. The East Whittier Land and Water Company are selling A lands with water at $200 per acre in the finest lemon belt in Southern California.

We are no way back, half dead town, but a live and growing one that is getting to the front very rapidly. We have the state school, the Friends Academy, two graded schools, four churches, a Conservatory of Music, a Board of Trade, and all that goes to make a bustling, hustling, growing town.

Acres of lands in the vicinity of Whittier are unsurpassed for actual value. The East Whittier Land and Water Company in addition to its original subdivision, have for sale 350 acres of the celebrated Lettingwell ranch, the finest body of land near Whittier—for sale in 10-acre tracts at $200 per acre, with water on each lot. Don't buy before you see East Whittier.
