Mrs. Steigler Arrested in Santa Rosa

TELEGRAMS STOP HER THERE

Worked Some Local Merchants Most Beautifully

SECURED CONSIDERABLE PLUNDER

But Was Discovered and Fled From the City

De Groot, Fixen and Coulter Were Among the Victims

The Woman Did a Professional Charmer Act and Caught Gullible Clerks—How She Operated and What She Did

A Detective After Her

SANTA ROSA, June 1.—Mrs. Della Steigler, formerly of Los Angeles, was arrested here this afternoon on a warrant from that city charging her with obtaining money under false pretenses.

She is a very handsome young woman and claims to be innocent of any wrongdoing. A few weeks ago she came here and complained that her husband was wanted in Los Angeles by the police. Officers wired there and found he was not wanted but that she was. She says she has no relatives here but has friends in San Francisco.

The above dispatch dated June 1st, was withheld from immediate publication, that certain plans of the local police might have a few more hours for development. The husband accomplice has been located and his arrest is imminent; Detective Frank H. Steele is en route to Santa Rosa to bring back the fair swindler to the scene of her crimes.

The amounts involved do not make her crimes of great magnitude but circumstances give the case some importance. Her husband was a locomotive engineer for the Santa Fe company and it is said he went to Mr. De Groot some time ago and expressed a desire to negotiate a modest loan for collateral; she named a piano that she represented she had bought from Kehler & Chase in San Francisco and brought down here with her. She was accommodated with $25 on one occasion and $50 on another. Since her flight numberless petty swindles to her discredit have been reported. She "did" Coulter's store out of $17; Fixen & Co. were also "done." She bought a machine from an agency on installments, paid $8 and sold it for $12, and to cap it all, Mr. Groot discovered that the piano said to have been brought down from San Francisco, was secured from the local Kehler & Chase agency on time and on it she was realizing very well when her fears caused her flight.

She is a very prepossessing young woman and by a crafty exercise of her charms she succeeded in hypnotizing clerks of the various establishments mentioned into succumbing before her very "raw" meshes. But while her work was rather "raw" for the sharp counter-jumpers to be beguiled by, she proceeded throughout in a manner that satisfied the police that she is either an old hand at the business or an amateur rarely well instructed by a Egin. The husband is in Oakland.

WELCOME SHOWERS

DENVER, June 2.—The second heavy rain in a week fell throughout Colorado tonight and is continuing today. It is steady downpour and means many hundreds of thousands of dollars to the agricultural interests. At Akron, which is in the heart of the drought stricken district of last summer, the ground is soaked to a depth of two feet. Prospects never were so good for a large yield of small grain as they are at this time. Farmers are working between showers planting grain, and the acreage will be large. Similar reports come from all the farming districts.

INVOICE OF WAR MATERIAL

Arrived on an English Vessel and Was Landed

Guns and Ammunition Enough for 5000 Nicaraguan Soldiers—It Was a Close Call for the War Material

Associated Press Special Wire.
MANAGUA, Nicaragua, May 18, via New York, June 2.—If the British had occupied Corinto a little longer than they did they would have been able to capture a British steamer, the Debay, which arrived there two days ago, loaded with a full supply of modern, improved field artillery, rifles and ammunition for about 5000 officers and soldiers of the Nicaraguan army, and Admiral Stephenson would thus have been able to collect the 15,000 pounds claimed by Great Britain as indemnity from Nicaragua without any difficulty. The British warship sailed away on May 15th and this most valuable cargo arrived at Corinto on May 16th under the British flag, to the great delight of the Nicaraguan authorities who feared that the supply of war material would fall into the hands of the British. It is considered more likely that Admiral Stephenson would have seized and detained the Debay until the indemnity was paid. The British are greatly rejoicing here at its escape, for it would have made an admirable substitute for the port and customs duties of Corinto which the British had so long prevented from collecting by the fact that the Nicaraguan government declared the port closed shortly after it was occupied by the British. Nobody here doubts that had the British admiral captured this supply of war material and satisfied Great Britain's claim against Nicaragua by its sale to the British, the present government of Nicaragua as to have caused its overthrow on a revolution.

RACING SHELLS AND OARS

Rowers in San Francisco Indulge in a Regatta

All of the Prominent Clubs of the Bay City Try for the Pennant—Crowds Witness the Race

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—The regatta given by the South End Rowing club today was witnessed by 5000 people at Long Bridge. The first event was the four-oared barge race for junior amateur crews, and seven crews started. The Olympic crew, although fouled at the start, won easily in 10:50, the distance being about a mile and three quarters.

The event for the place was between the St. Marys, Dolphins and Aemes, the college crew winning. During the race the Pioneers and the South Ends had a collision, which resulted in the latter's barge being broken. They came pulling in last on account of this mishap, being just beaten by the Aemes.

After the race the shells in a protest, charging the Olympic crew with fouling them. Several other clubs of fouls were made, and the judges will hold a meeting Wednesday night to listen to the evidence.

Charles Long, the South End sculler, who was within ten yards of the Ariels when they claim they were interfered with, says it was the Olympics who were fouled.

The winner gets the silver cup offered by the South End club.

The race over the same course for outrigger skiffs was won easily by Douglas of the Dolphins, with Vembros, jr., of the Ariels, being runner-up. Captain of the Ariels was third. Time was 2:15.

Four crews, representing Stockton, South Ends, Pioneers and Ariels started in the center barge race for the cup offered by John Mitchell.

Stockton's crew made a fine appearance, but seemed a trifle light. Besides, the men were not used to rowing in choppy water. By the time the race was started the wind had freshened up and the water was quite rough.

The South End made a runaway race of it, leading from start to finish. The Pioneers pressed them awhile, but had to be content with second place. Even the Ariels beat the Stocktons, who were a bad last. The time was 9:30.

All are well armed with Manner, Lee and Peabody rifles. With the Formosans, with plenty of ammunition. H. M. S. ACCIDENTS ON THE OCEAN

Two Fatalities Attend the Trip of an Atlantic Liner

A Disabled Steamship From Mediterranean Ports Reported Off the Atlantic Coast

NEW YORK, June 2.—The French liner La Bourgogne, Captain Le Bon, from Havre, Md., came into port this morning with all her flags at half mast on account of the death of Secretary Gresham. Her officers reported two accidents during the voyage. Shortly before the La Bourgogne sailed two saloon cabin passengers came on board. Their names do not appear on the ship's printed passenger list. Both were young men named Lawrence. On the morning of the 27th John Lawrence was promenading on the saloon deck. He leaned over the railing and his hat fell overboard. In attempting to regain it he lost his balance and fell overboard. A boat was lowered and proceeded in search of the man, but he was never seen. He probably got foot of the propeller and was killed. The accident cast a gloom over the saloon passengers during the remainder of the voyage. Mr. Lawrence's brother could not see anyone on his arrival at quarantine. His fellow passengers stated that he was greatly grieved over the death of his brother. Flushing, Long Island, is believed to be the home of the young men.

Pope had tried to pass a bogus dollar on a storekeeper on Boyle Heights, and the affair was reported to the police. When captured Pope claimed not to have known that the money was counterfeit. It was paid to him, so he says, at a restaurant on First street, though he failed to show the officer the place. Two more counterfeit dollars were found in his possession. The coins are well moulded, but are 120 grains light.

THE LONDON MARKETS

LONDON, June 2.—The issues of American railroad bonds during the past week have made no appreciable call upon the London market. There were a few Epson Downs, the cricket matches of the week; the Jewish holidays and the approach of the Whitnuntide holidays have caused a break in the market. The speculators are rushing to realize profits from a break in the Kaifer and American markets. The worst, however, appears to be over and the closing prices were lower on a report that the American producers decline to negotiate for a restriction of the output.
