PASADENA NEWS NOTES

Railroad Movements Interesting the Public

A NEW CREMATORY BUILDING

The Widow of Father Throop Passes Away

A Workman's Bad Fall—A Celestial Battle. Los Angeles Couple Married.

PASADENA, June 12.—The movements of the various transportation companies are absorbing a large share of public attention and every move in the game is noted with great interest by the citizens of Pasadena, who can look quietly on with the satisfaction of knowing that in any event the efforts of the competing lines to outdo one another cannot fail to add very materially to Pasadena's prosperity. One of the most important aids in Pasadena's growth and development is the facility of communication with Los Angeles, and now that so much greater facilities are being provided, her growth will be all the more rapid in consequence. Shortly after noon today the Southern Pacific completed tracklaying on its line into this city, and with the laying of the switches at the depot grounds tomorrow, the road will be all ready for the first train, which leaves Colorado street on Saturday morning with a big excursion of Throop students and their friends, bound for Santa Monica.

Meanwhile neither the Santa Fe nor the electric railway people have gone to sleep. The former corporation applied to the board of trustees of South Pasadena last night for a franchise for a new route through that town, which will shorten the line and cut down the bad curves there, enabling the trains to make much better time on that part of the road. It is said that the company has purchased all the property along the proposed straight line so that the right of way is secured, and the council will very likely grant the asked franchise, so that the improvement will doubtless be carried out at once. The straight cut will be from Mission street, south of the Raymond hill, to the straight piece of track near Lincoln Park, cutting across corners in an air line, and thus avoiding the two bad curves in the present course of the road through the town.

The electric railway people don't intend to be caught napping, either, even though they did appear for a time to have things all their own way. They recognize that they have to give the highest bid for the street railway franchise on Main and Macy streets, in Los Angeles, thence to the city limits, he did a wise thing for the company in cutting the price. It remains to be seen whether the advantage thus gained will prove an effective setback to the promoters of the new electric road. It is given out, however, that the present company will itself construct a new line to Los Angeles via the new route laid out by Mr. de Laguna and his associates. The bid to the Los Angeles franchise were: Manager Clark, $1200; Herman de Laguna, $100; E. A. Small, $75. Mr. de Laguna, in conversation with The Herald representative, did not appear at all discouraged at the outlook for his enterprise, even though the old company had bid a lower price, and there may yet be competition in the electric transport on as well as in the steam roads.

A Crematory to Be Built

PASADENA, June 12.—The construction of a crematory has been begun in Mountain View cemetery by the firm of Reynolds & Van Nuys, and soon Pasadena will be supplied with one of the best crematories in the state, as it is of the very latest and most improved design and complete in every respect. This method of disposing of the dead seems to be growing in favor, and justly so, for there are many considerations that make it far more desirable, not the least of which is a proper regard for the health of the living.

The building is to be constructed of brick and iron, 20x32 feet in size, and made somewhat after the style of a little chapel as to exterior finish. The plans show that the building is to contain two apartments, the front room being about fourteen feet square, and back of this the rear room. The rear room is to be between solid walls of brick one foot thick, lined with fire brick, and will be closed with double iron doors of great thickness in front. It will be heated or cremated to a very high temperature by means of iron coils about the interior of the retort, the fire passing through the coils but not into the retort. Either oil or coal will be used for fuel. It is calculated that complete cremation will take place in about two hours.

Death of Mrs. Amos G. Throop

PASADENA, June 12.—News was received today that Mrs. Amos G. Throop, widow of the late "Father" Throop, was very seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Vaughn, in Chicago. Later a telegram came saying she had breathed her last at 11 o'clock this morning. This is removed by the hand of death a noble woman, who, with her late husband, was greatly endeared to the hearts of the people of Pasadena. "Father" Throop often said that his success in life was in great measure due to his wife—a statement which is true of a larger number of men than are willing to acknowledge it. But "Father" Throop was honest. Mrs. Vaughn will leave Chicago tomorrow in charge of the remains, which will be buried beside those of "Father" Throop in Mountain View cemetery.

Rev. Dr. Conger will conduct the service, which will be held at the Universalist church. The time will be announced later.

A Workman's Bad Fall

PASADENA, June 12.—William Dunn, who was working on the new residence of T. P. Luker, corner of Matengo and Walnut avenue, had a bad fall this morning, by which he was badly bruised and saken up, though it is not thought that his injuries will prove serious if no internal troubles develop. No bones were broken by the fall, though he fell upon his neck and shoulders, owing to catching his foot in the scaffolding as he attempted to jump to save himself when a board gave way underneath him. He fell about ten feet. He is now resting quietly at his home, 54 Walnut street.

Brevities

PASADENA, June 12.—Last night about 9 o'clock a Chinaman, Wong Fee by name, struck a fellow-celestial with the equally enthusiastic name of Charley Kim, over the head with a pistol, after which valiant deed the brave fellow suddenly disappeared in the darkness. There appears to be no other motive than robbery, though his courage evidently deserted him too soon to enable him to carry out his plans. He is considered by the other denizens of Chinatown as a bad man, and if he can be found will probably board at the city's expense for a season.

J. C. Russell, who was injured while mining near Newhall, as stated yesterday, was found by Dr. Green, who was telegraphed for, to be quite seriously injured internally, owing to a great strain in lifting a boulder. He was left in charge of a local physician there, when Dr. Green returned. Mr. Russell is quite well known here, having lived in Pasadena formerly.

William T. Souder and Mary S. Warrick, both of Los Angeles, were married last evening at the rooms of Mrs. S. D. Seufert on Colorado street, Rev. Clark Crawford officiating. Only the intimate friends of the bride and groom were present.

At the picnic yesterday at Verdugo Park some of the horses got away and some difficulty was experienced in capturing them. During the excitement Councilman Washburn lost a valuable watch chain, and his wife drove over the park today to attempt to find it.

The third degree was conferred by the Knights of Pythias upon three prominent business men last night.

The grading of Pasadena avenue, between Colorado and Walnut streets, and on Bellefontaine drive, from Fair Oaks to Orange grove avenue, has been completed. The result being a very noticeable improvement.

The condition of Mrs. James McLachlan, who has been seriously ill for some days, is not materially changed.

Susan B. Anthony lectures Friday night at the tabernacle.

EVENTS AT SANTA MONICA

The Southern Pacific to Build a Bicycle Track

The First Through Train From Pasadena Due on Saturday—Commerce at the Big Wharf

SANTA MONICA, June 12.—Justice Weller, in the recorder's court had his hands full this morning in the cases of the people vs. C. Smidt, people vs. Phillips and people vs. Ordling, all brought up for violation of the license ordinance. The cases were all postponed for one week at which time they will plead.

There is some talk of carrying the validity of the ordinance to the superior court by habeas corpus. The validity of the ordinance was brought up yesterday in the case of the people vs. M. O'Brien for selling liquor to a minor, when the defense demurred to the complaint. Judge Wells holding that the ordinance was valid.

The mammoth wharf is an exceedingly lively place these days. Yesterday the Bonita left 90 tons of freight. The Alcatraz is at the wharf unloading a cargo of ties and lumber. The Corona touched at the wharf on her northbound passage taking money passengers and a carload of mail. The San Mateo is due tonight.

Captain Dunfield has made arrangements to move into town from the wharf. The Southern Pacific has determined to expend money sufficient to make the ground where the ostrich farm was formerly situated, opposite the Southern Pacific main line, one of the best bicycle tracks on the coast. Work will undoubtedly commence in the near future.

Saturday the first through train on the Southern Pacific from Pasadena to Santa Monica, will arrive, when they will bring the scholars of the Throop institute on a picnic here. They will be taken to the wharf, then to the canyon and finally to the North Beach bath house for a dip in the ocean.

An old man, J. C. Sleight, 90 years of age, was killed this afternoon at Colton, while waiting on the track in front of a moving freight train and failed to get out of the way before it passed over him, killing him almost instantly.

ANAHEIM

The Southern Pacific After a Railway Franchise. ANAHEIM, June 12.—The Southern Pacific applied for a franchise to operate their tracks through Santa Ana street and south from the intersection of that thoroughfare with Olive street. The same will be here in all probability inside of thirty days. The road will be constructed north to Placenta, west to Long Beach, Garden Grove, Westminster and the sugar factory. All roads will center in Anaheim.

The beet crop is ripening nicely and the crop is estimated at about 35000 tons.

A Lost Magnificent Heirloom

Is health. No gem in tiara or coronet is so precious. Per contra, a hereditary tendency to disease often proves a fatal legacy, since the most trifling causes may fertilize the latent germs of ill health and render the fruitage deadly. An inherent transmitted weakness of the physical constitution is more effectually opposed and counteracted by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, than by any other safeguard. Digestion and assimilation promoted, the biliary secretion, action of the kidneys and levels insured, and the system guaranteed of permanent health, and these are the consequences, among others of like importance, of a resort to the famous medicine also prevents and remedies malarious complaints, nervousness, chronic rheumatism, and neuralgia. Such warnings as loss of appetite and sleep, too, should not be disregarded. The Bitters will restore both without fail.

POMONA SALOON FIGHT

Antis and High License Ten Warring—Promising Peach Crop. POMONA, June 12.—As noted in a special dispatch to The Herald of this morning, the Pomona city council held another lively session last evening, the anti-saloons people making another one of their sudden moves to displace a city officer with one of their own number, a thing which they have done at regular intervals—and successfully, too, at times—ever since the result of the municipal election held in this city April 8th last, became known. Nor have they been alone in their earnest endeavor to see the will of the people done, for the high license people have been just as eager in their desire to see justice done their side, and content has followed content until it is hard matter to tell who is in and who is out.

City Marshal Lorber, whose removal from office the anti-saloons are endeavoring to effect, not being present at the time his official bond was demanded, had to be sent for and was acquainted with the facts, the matter being wholly a surprise to him, he was given until Tuesday evening next to show cause why he should not be removed from office for having failed to file his bond within the statutory time.

Dr. T. H. Smith and F. G. Haley were appointed to fill the vacancies upon the board of health. The city clerk was instructed to correspond with Los Angeles parties relative to the purchase, perhaps, of a street sweeper. If it were not for the unsightly ten-foot strip of ground occupied by the Orange Grove street railway, unpaired along the center line of Second street, the paved business thoroughfare would be "a thing of beauty and a joy forever."

The joy is that the city owns the street paved all at once, and its beauty will be in evidence whenever spring, gentle spring, comes to carpet the strip with the green and tender grass that is already in evidence at places.

One hundred and seventy-three carloads of oranges have been shipped from this place by the Pomona Fruit exchange alone.

The horse sprang back and fell upon the ground motionless and expired in a few minutes. The cause of its death is still unknown, but some think the neck was broken.

SANTA ANA, June 12.—The mysterious disappearance of Miss Nettie Gruber of East Los Angeles a few days ago caused the officers of this city to keep a sharp lookout for every clue that might show her hiding place in a canyon. The high school class day exercises at French's opera house this afternoon were well attended, the large auditorium being filled with parents and visitors. The exercises were opened by the amateur orchestra before the class appeared on the stage. The first thing heard by the class was their class yell (a class is no good without a yell). The program was gone through without a mistake, and to say the least it was interesting all the way through. And the orchestra added much to the afternoon's enjoyment by their sweet music. The class just graduating has a bright future before them, and will all make their mark in the world.

AZUSA

A Solution of the Water Famine Possible. Notes. AZUSA, June 12.—Tommy Rowan is here taking the levels of the street water pipes so as to determine why it is that this burg is suffering from a water famine, while all the irrigating ditches are running like rivers. The fall is ample, but the trouble is with the size of the pipes. The main street of the town is supplied by only a four-inch pipe, and the other streets are served with two-inch pipes. The result is the force is exhausted before a moiety of the houses to which it is supplied, and the water system is, indeed, a wretched and sorry affair, and if Mr. Rowan's mission is to improve it in the only way it can be improved, by much larger distributing pipes, and a service that is not a farce, then the people here will be thankful.

The Azusa hotel, which has been closed for some time, will soon be reopened by Mr. Bemis and afford inviting accommodations to the public. This valley is looking beautiful, and presents a magnificent picture of horticultural riches. Buttressed as it is by the majestic San Bernardino mountains, with Old Baldy standing conspicuous as the giant sentinel of the range, a grand and gorgeous scene is presented in which the lovers of nature can revel to their heart's content.
