Phantoms That Worried the Republican League

END OF THE BIG POW-WOW

Vote of the Western States Was the Bogy Man

Embarrassing Fight on the Silver Question Nearly but Unsuccessfully Avoided.

Associated Press Special Wire.

CLEVELAND, June 21.—The eighth annual convention of the Republican club closed today. All week there were apprehensions of an embarrassing fight on the silver question, but nothing was disposed of in all the proceedings so quickly or so quietly as that matter. The committee on resolutions had settled the question last night by deciding to report that the league had no constitutional right to adopt resolutions and its report to that effect was approved. Constitutional limitations are sometimes in the way, but in this case the constitution was considered convenient by both factions. The gold standard men were not satisfied, but they could not see any way to do anything better than to adopt the Patton substitute as given in these dispatches last night. The silver men are elated. They say that if silver were not adopted nothing else would be and that indicates that the Republicans conceded they cannot get along without the western states. Although it could not have been done without a hard fight on the floor of the convention, the western delegates expected to have an anti-silver resolution adopted over their protests. They claim to have received more advantage than they expected at a national Republican convention. It is well known that telegrams were received yesterday and today from presidential aspirants leading Republicans in all parts of the country suggesting that any action on silver would be dangerous, and these advices no doubt did much toward the success of the silver men. The local papers tried today to interview delegates on the report of the committee on resolutions. The anti-silver men expressed satisfaction, and the anti-silver men as a rule would not express any opinion. Senator Thurston of Nebraska, a leader against silver, said: "The report was entirely consistent with the league organization but I should have preferred a disclaimer of any authority or power to pass resolutions to commit the party, followed by such resolutions as would express the views of these assembled delegates on political issues. I am in favor of improving the financial plank of the last Republican platform."

While most of the delegates were steaming over the lake this afternoon there was a joint meeting of the officers of the state leagues with the committee on league work in the evening. The committee, Judge John L. Webster, the Nebraska vice-president, presided in the absence of General McAlpin, and the states were in favor of improving the financial plank of the last Republican platform. The report was entirely consistent with the league organization but I should have preferred a disclaimer of any authority or power to pass resolutions to commit the party, followed by such resolutions as would express the views of these assembled delegates on political issues. I am in favor of improving the financial plank of the last Republican platform."

Mr. Green, president of the New York league, said the convention had resolved itself into a minority. He insisted on the meeting hearing the case of the Pennsylvania opposed New York. Although it was known that General McAlpin wanted Dowling made secretary and New York cast her vote for the Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania voted solidly for Byrnes of Colorado when the tide was tending strongly toward Dowling. The effort to divert the attention from the tariff as the tariff as an issue continued today. The speeches in the convention as well as at the banquet last night, and elsewhere were all on the tariff. The Pennsylvania and other local clubs went to the depot tonight to meet Governor McKinley the low band of Allison headed the procession, every man making an effort to make the week of silver agitation end in a big boom for the tariff as the issue of the Republicans.

THAT COMMITTEE REPORT

Several Anti-Silver Men Not Inclined to Be Bound by It

CLEVELAND, June 21.—The assembling of the Republican league convention for the third day's session was delayed till almost noon by the meetings of officers of the state league, the executive board, the committee on league work and other organizations engaged in routine business. Meantime, while the band was entertaining the waiting crowd at Music hall, leading anti-silver men were in conference in the Patton substitute for the usual set of resolutions. Many anti-silver leaders were not inclined to be bound by the compact the committee entered into in order to extricate itself. None were, however, able to suggest any plan that would prevent a fight on the floor of the convention. The anti-silver members of the committee insisted that they had made the best possible choice of two evils, and urged the delegates to stand by the Patton substitute rather than but about a worse result than its adoption.

JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE

The Slayer of "Dr." Plouf Acquitted of Murder

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—The trial of J. D. McLaughley for the murder of Dr. Plouf closed today. McLaughley, who had been employed by Dr. Plouf, a specialist, met his ex-employer on Market street, and in a fight that ensued shot Plouf. McLaughley claimed that Plouf attacked him and that he shot in self-defense. The taking of testimony closed this evening and the case was given to the jury. The jury after three ballots acquitted McLaughley and the slayer of Dr. Plouf was released from custody. Two ballots three of the jurors voted to find a verdict of manslaughter, but the arguments of the nine other jurors made them vote for acquittal.

LAYING THE LAST STONE

Emperor William Completes the Baltic Canal

THOUSANDS OF SPECTATORS

A Truly Royal Welcome Accorded His Majesty

The President of the Reichstag Congratulates the Emperor and Germany on the Completion of the Work

Associated Press Special Wire.

HOLSTENAU, June 21.—After visiting the Russian cruiser Rurik, at 9:30 today, Emperor William laid the last stone of the Baltic and North Sea canal in the presence of many thousands of spectators. The weather was brilliant and the ceremony took place in the open air and not in the lighthouse adjoining the sluice, as at first contemplated. The scene of the ceremony was embellished by handsome designs in landscape gardening, and the lighthouse standing close to the spot showed the three bronze reliefs of Emperor William I, Frederick III and William II. Under the relief of Emperor William I is a black marble tablet on which is engraved in gilt lettering: "His majesty, Emperor William I, laid this corner stone of the Baltic canal on June 3, 1857, and accompanied his blows with the hammer by these words: 'In honor of United Germany, to her perfect welfare, in token of her might and power.'"

MCKINLEY ARRIVES

The Presidential Aspirant Given a Royal Welcome

CLEVELAND, June 21.—Governor McKinley arrived from Ottawa, Kan., at 6:30 this evening. He was met at the Union depot by the Tippecanoe club and the Foraker club, headed by the famous Iowa state band. He was driven directly to the Hollander, the headquarters of the anti-silver men, where he was held a reception from 8 to 9 o'clock. Many of the delegates to the convention called upon him and the stream of people passing the president's carriage held fully an hour. An effort was made to induce him to speak but he was tired after his long ride and declined. Later in the evening he was driven to the residence of M. A. Hanna, whose guest he will be while in the city.

The New Secretary

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 21.—Richard J. Dowling, the new secretary of the Republican National league, is a young man, but has been editor of the Minnesota Star-Farmer for a number of years. Two years ago he was first assistant clerk of the house of representatives. He was elected chief clerk by a unanimous vote of all three parties, but he has never accepted other official positions. Mr. Dowling is a successful editor and a much-sought-after public speaker.

PLENTY OF COIN FOR CHINA

American Capitalists Seeking to Make the Loan

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Officials of the Chinese legation say that American capitalists who are negotiating in China to secure a loan of 200,000,000 taels, which China is about to pay to Japan, are by no means urging a vague or futile suit, and that they stand quite as good a chance of securing the loan as any other money representatives. Some misapprehension has been created by a cable statement that China has closed her loan in Paris. It is explained by officials that this loan is a subordinate one of 1,000,000 taels to cover the surrender of Liao Tung peninsula. As Russia and France prevailed on Japan to make a surrender, thus yielding the permanent occupancy of Port Arthur, these two countries undertook to guarantee the loan of 200,000,000 taels, which reimburses Japan for this particular transaction. But the main indemnity of 200,000,000 taels carries no guaranty by Russia and France, and it is this main loan which is still open and to which the attention of American investors is attracted. There is much interest in the loan, and it is expected that it will be secured by the American parties. It is said that the first result would be the shipment of an unprecedented amount of silver. But as China's money is payable in gold, the ultimate result would be to bring back gold for the silver paid to Japan. It is pointed out also that the interest on the entire loan would not exceed $5,000,000 annually, so that the Chinese customs receipts of $25,000,000 would readily meet the interest charges and provide a sinking fund for the redemption of the bonds, which will probably run for twenty years.

THE MISSING GRAIN SPECULATOR

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—Eugene S. Bresse, the partner of L. W. McLaughlin, the great speculator who engineered the big "fall" wheat market, is missing. Bresse disappeared last Monday after withdrawing all the firm's funds from the bank and has not been seen since. As he had entire charge of the office, Bresse is wanted to explain the discrepancies in the accounts of the firm.

A NEW CABINET NEEDED

Crisis Impending in England's Ministry

UNIONISTS ARE JUBILANT

The Government Placed in an Awkward Position

Fight Among the Liberals Checked—An Attempt Will Be Made to Weather the Storm

Associated Press Special Wire.

LONDON, June 21.—The general belief expressed is that the defeat of the government means a crisis. The cabinet held a short session, and it is believed that the ministers will decide upon a dissolution at the earliest possible moment. The Conservative leader, Mr. Balfour, asked what course the government proposed to take, and the chancellor of the exchequer, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, announced that the government would proceed with a non-contentious bill, and the house proceeded to discuss the naval works bill. The Unionists are jubilant at such an unexpected victory. The opposition whips only issued a circular "whip," but there was an immense amount of private canvassing done to bring up their supporters. The greatest excitement prevailed in the lobby of the house of commons this evening and the members are eagerly discussing the expected dissolution. The house adjourned at 10:30 o'clock without any further incident. It is reported that Mr. Campbell-Bannerman, secretary of war, said to a friend in the lobby that this was his last night as a minister in the present cabinet. The ministers only counselled together, as Lord Rosebery, the premier, was at Epsom. A formal cabinet council will be held tomorrow. The light among the Liberals abated before the house rose, and the opinion was expressed that the government should ask for a vote of confidence, which would be certain to be given by the normal government majority. Thus the crisis would be averted.

QUACKENBUSH DON'T QUAKE

A Naval Officer Who Insists Upon His Rights

Claim That a Presidential Commutation Would be a Judgment of Dismissal from the Service

WASHINGTON, June 21.—John N. Quackenbush, whose name was dropped from the naval rolls, gained a point when Judge Bradley of the district supreme court issued a writ on Secretary Herbert to show cause why a permanent writ of mandamus should not be granted to compel him to restore Mr. Quackenbush to the navy with the rank of commander. The case is quite a celebrated one. Commander Quackenbush was sentenced by court martial to dismissal from the navy, but President Grant commuted the sentence to suspension for six years. Through a clerical error when W. S. Schley was promoted to the rank of commander, his commission read vice Quackenbush, dismissed. It was held, however, that the error was not so recognized until 1883 when Secretary Chandler ordered his name stricken from the naval rolls. The case is quite a celebrated one. THE NATION'S HOLIDAY

Kingman, Ariz., Will Whoop It Up in Grand Style

KINGMAN, Ariz., June 21.—Kingman is preparing for a Fourth of July celebration on a grand scale. The programme is not published yet, but the citizens intend to have a real, old-fashioned American Fourth of July celebration. Colonel F. Stanford of Los Angeles will be the orator of the day. The colonel is stopping at Kingman at present. He came here suffering from rheumatism and is now suffering with a neuralgia in the right shoulder and arm, but is following his profession as lawyer. He thinks he is improving in health and expects to greet his many friends in Los Angeles in the near future.

NOT THE FIRST ACCIDENT

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—One man was killed and three injured by an accident at the old city hall this morning. The structure is stone and nearly fifty years old. The city recently sold it for $100,000. Workmen have been tearing it down, so that little more than a shell is now left. The wall at the north-west corner of the building is being demolished by the flying debris. Three others were injured, N. Wilson and Jack Silvers seriously. The fourth man was slightly hurt.

IT WILL NEVER DOWN

The Manitoba School Question, Like the Ghost, Still Alive

WINNIPEG, Man., June 21.—The reply of the Manitoba government, adopted by the legislature, definitely refusing to obey the order of the governor general to restore Roman Catholic parochial schools, was mailed to Lord Aberdeen last night. Premier Greenway said he feared that the Roman Catholics of Quebec and Ontario would force the Dominion government to pass remedial legislation overriding the Manitoba school act. "It has been an unfortunate position," declared the premier, "but we shall resist it to the end. The Roman Catholic school, to the bitter end, Manitoba will never be coerced." It was suggested that to resist the higher authority would mean secession. This the premier says: "Those who talk of revolution talk nonsense. We shall find other constitutional means. If the Dominion government passes legislation disallowing our school act we can alter its phraseology somewhat as to make it a new act, but with the same effect, and then call a special session of the legislature and have it re-enacted. We can re-enact as fast as the Dominion government can disallow it. This idea of the premier is a contingency that the supporters of Roman Catholic schools have never thought of, and is likely to cause consternation among them."

TIED OF HIS JOB

The Duke of Cambridge's Retirement is Announced

LONDON, June 21.—The announcement that the Duke of Cambridge has finally decided to retire from the post of commander-in-chief of the British army will be welcome news to very many Britons. Certain English newspapers and certain sections of the political parties of Great Britain have been strongly urging his retirement for years past. Recent dispatches have foreshadowed the announcement in the house of commons today. It was recently stated, too, that the Duke of Cambridge would succeed Lord Wolseley at Dublin, as commander of the forces in Ireland, and that Lord Wolseley would take the newly created post of chief of staff and head-quarters in the event of the retirement of the Duke of Cambridge. A few days following this statement Dr. Tanner, a Liberal member, caused a commotion in the house by asking if the report was true that the Duke of Cambridge was retiring in order to make way for the Duke of Devonshire. This caused loud cries of "Order," but Dr. Tanner continued, saying: "Has the time at last come when a member of the royal family who has been drawing the people's money too long, is going to retire?" Considerable uproar followed and the house adjourned with Dr. Tanner gesturing wildly and trying to address the speaker.

THE PRESSEMAN'S UNION

PHILADELPHIA, June 21.—The amalgamation of the International Pressmen's Society and the Typographical union has fallen through, principally because the former was opposed to such a step. This decision was reached at 3 o'clock today between three representatives from the Pressmen's union and three from the Brotherhood of Bookbinders. The representatives agreed upon a cooperative system, providing that whenever the typesetters want to inaugurate a strike they can call the bookbinders and pressmen out if the local unions consent. But the expense of the strike must be borne by the union inaugurating it. The same rule applied to the three unions. The representatives were elected at today's session of the pressmen's convention: President, Theodore F. Galloway, St. Louis; first vice-president, Jesse Johnson, Nashville; second vice-president, J. A. Reher, Minneapolis; third vice-president, J. A. Patton, Toronto; secretary-treasurer, James Nelson, Brooklyn.

ANOTHER WILL CONTEST

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—Mrs. Harriet Coleman Barrow has begun a contest of the will of her daughter, Mrs. Anna M. Hathaway, who left a $300,000 estate. Mrs. Barrow is 94 years old and her daughter bequeathed her $300,000. Nearly $50,000 was left to charity and to friends. The ground for contest is that Mrs. Hathaway was insane.

AN ASSESSOR'S STAND

OAKLAND, June 21.—Assessor Dalton today decided not to assess the Oakland water front property on the ground that it does not belong to the Southern Pacific company, but to the state. It is expected that the company will take legal proceedings to compel the assessor to assess the property.

Mrs. Peary's Brother Is to Be in Charge of the Vessel

Main Object of the Trip Is to Communicate With the Brave Explorer and Make Geological Research

Associated Press Special Wire.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The world will publish a statement made by Mrs. Josephine Peary, the wife of the explorer, that she and her husband, the Peary expedition, will leave Brooklyn, Saturday, June 22, carrying the members of the Greenland scientific expedition of 1895 to St. Johns, N.F. There they will board the steam barkentine Kite, Captain John Bartlett, and will sail for Greenland about July 1. The expedition will be under the direction of Emil Diefelsch of Washington, D. C., the brother of Mrs. Peary, and the party will be composed of Professor Rollin D. Salisbury of the Chicago university, Professor L. L. Lyche of the Kansas state university, Theodore Miller of Philadelphia and Dr. John E. Walsh of Washington. The expedition has two principal objects in view: First, to reach Anniversary Lodge, Bowdoin bay, in north Greenland, in order to communicate with Peary and his companion, Hugh J. Lee of Meriden, Conn., and his servant, Mathew Hepege. Second, to afford the scientists who accompany the expedition opportunity to study geological specimens and glaciers of the country, as well as the flora and fauna of the region to be visited.

DEATH ENDS A DEBAUCH

DENVER, June 21.—A special from Colorado Springs says: Byron H. McKelvey, aged 31 years, was found dead at Colorado City today, having committed suicide with morphine. He had been dissipating for some time and had a quarrel with his mother, his father is an alderman in the Second ward at Allegheny City, Pa., and a police judge.

A Rancler Narrowly Escapes Being Lynched

Victor Adams of Madera County Compels a Five-Year-Old Child to Remain Outdoors All Night

FRESNO, June 21.—Victor Adams, residing in the foothills of Madera county, near the San Joaquin river, had a narrow escape from lynching a few days ago. The news reached town today, as the district is scantily settled. Adams sent out his five-year-old stepdaughter to look after the sheep. The latter had strayed away and Adams, after beating his dog nearly to death with a club, drove the child out into the foothills at the point of a shotgun. He twice refused to receive her till she had found the sheep and after being out all night without food or shelter the little one was found by a searching party ten miles from home. His father is a well-to-do farmer. His father is a well-to-do farmer. His father is a well-to-do farmer.

Outfit for Counteracting Chinese Certificates Captured

BUTTE, Mont., June 21.—Government officials, aided by the city marshal and other officials, raided the Chinese quarters here tonight and found the complete outfit for turning out certificates of residence for Chinese. It is supposed that about four hundred of these bogus certificates have been issued and sold to Chinese in various parts of this country and in China at figures ranging from $50 to $500 each. This is the most important discovery of the kind ever made in the United States. Three Chinese have been arrested. The treasury department at Washington has been at work on it for months.
