

You Don't Get Results From advertising because you do not use THE HERALD columns. It is a Winner

THE HERALD

If you have any wants for you can get it supplied in THE HERALD Cheap A Sure Winner

VOL. XLV. NO. 59 LOS ANGELES, MONDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 9, 1895.—EIGHT PAGES. PRICE FIVE CENTS

WILL THE GUARD SHIPS GO?

Oriental Diplomacy Evades Compliance With Demands

THE CONCERT OF EUROPE

Seems Less Harmonious Than Has Been Claimed

The Late Massacres Declared to Be the Deliberate Act of the Revengful Sultan of Turkey

Associated Press Special Wire.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 7, via Sofia, Bulgaria, Dec. 8.—Copyright, 1895, by the Associated Press.—The situation here on the question of extra guardships of the powers remains unchanged and continues to offer a tribute to the powers of delay and evasion of Oriental diplomacy as practiced by the Turkish government. Statements are constantly reiterated of the continued accord of the powers on the subject and their unyielding determination to insist upon a compliance with their demands. Less is heard of the rumors which were of frequent occurrence in the early period after the demand had been presented that the sultan had at length decided to grant the necessary firmans to permit the passage of the Dardanelles, or even that he had actually issued them. Neither is there such explicit announcement any more of the period which is to elapse before a movement of the powers to commence to enforce the demands made upon the sultan. Since the return of H. M. Dryad to Salonica by no word has been heard of any actual order or movement to advance upon the Dardanelles. Opinion continues divided as to whether the delay in taking any action to enforce the demands is due to the fear of causing anational outbreak against the Christians by the Mussulman subjects of the sultan or to a dread of a crash ensuing between the powers themselves. The reception today by the sultan of M. Nieldorf, the Russian ambassador, in private audience, awakens the unanimous speculation as to the true relations of Russia to the situation and the extent of her agreement with the views of the powers.

ISRAEL NEEDS NO DEFENDER

On the Hospitable Soil of the American Republic

Ahlwardt Will Fall, Says Harburger, As Other Bigots Have Failed to Array Religion Against Religion

No Outbreak Feared

DEMING, N. M., Dec. 8.—News from the scene of the murders in Arizona, committed by renegade Apaches from the San Carlos reservation, is to the effect that the troops from Fort Bayard and Grant are on the trail, and that it leads to the line of Old Mexico and into the Sierra Madre mountains, the stronghold of the renegades for years. By treaty, soldiers can cross the international boundary to pursue a criminal, and the trail is so rough and mountainous that it is very improbable that they will ever get within a hundred miles of the murderers. In all his wanderings, the renegade first crime being committed last Monday on Eagle creek, when three brothers named Hinton and a man named Smith were killed and mutilated. On Tuesday a farmer named Merrill and his 10-year-old niece were slain in the road six miles east of Ash Springs. The Indians were traced and the body was fearfully mutilated. The scene was on the borders of the reservation and many miles distant from telegraphic communication, so that complete particulars are not obtainable. There were six Indians in the party, two mounted and four on foot, but it would be an easy matter to get the entire party. A party of miners from Duncan, Ariz., left in advance of the soldiers, having been well mounted, and at last accounts were following the Indians.

More Troops Ordered Out

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 7.—A special to the Republic from Silver City, N. M., says: Orders were received at Fort Bayard today ordering out all remaining cavalry at that post to make forced marches across into Arizona to assist in the capture of the band of renegade Indians that committed nine murders near San Carlos reservation last week. The troops left at once.

The Orders were accompanied by a report that the chief of the band, who left Duncan, Ariz., immediately after the discovery of the murders, had run into the Indians near Clifton, Ariz., and that a fight had followed in which one or more of the posse had been killed. The order for moving the troops was for the purpose of closing in on the band before the Mexican line could be reached. The posse was under the leadership of the Parks brothers, skilled frontiersmen and Indian fighters.

AN ORIENTAL RAILROAD

Concession Granted to a Company of American

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Dec. 8.—A concession from the Chinese government to build a line of railway from tidewater to Peking has been obtained by a syndicate of American capitalists. The road will be about 200 miles long and will pass a valuable coal mining district. The operations and construction of the line will ostensibly be under the direct patronage of the Chinese government, but American capital and engineers are the principal factors in the scheme.

Among the men of prominence said to be in the deal are Senator Gailwin S. Briggs of Ohio; Whitelaw Reid, editor of the New York Tribune; ex-Secretary of State John W. Foster and others.

The Missing Steamer

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Dec. 8.—Search for the disabled steamer Stratheneva will be prosecuted by the Oriental steamer Tacoma which sailed westward from Victoria today. In a few days two or three trigs will be sent out a couple of hundred miles to await her appearance.

Attempted Double Suicide

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—A sensational attempt at a double suicide was made on Saturday at the Grand hotel by Charles Galloway of Maidenhead and his sister-in-law, between whom a liaison has existed. Both of the victims have serious revolver wounds and it is believed are not likely to recover. They appear to be well connected.

SHERIFF AND POSSE RETURN

From a Fruitless Chase Over Valley and Mountain

SHOTS WERE EXCHANGED

But the Murderous Apaches Made Good Their Escape

No Serious Apache Outbreak is Feared, as the Marauders are Renegades Long Old the Reservation

Associated Press Special Wire.

SOLOMONVILLE, Ariz., Dec. 8.—Sheriff's Wright's posse, which followed the Indian murderers of Merrill and daughter, returned this evening. They left here Wednesday morning and took the trail of the Indians near Ash Springs, which went south. At 2 o'clock, near the base of the Whitlock mountains, the posse came in sight of the Indians but had been discovered first by the Indians from an elevated position. The Indians quit camp, leaving one horse, a pair of moccasins, a blanket and a bear grass saddle. The posse came within five hundred yards of the Indians. They were going up the side of the mountain and had the advantage of being among rocks and juniper brush. The Indians were fired on and returned the fire, but escaped over the summit into the rough rocky country by a trail hard to follow. At the Indian camp a horse belonging to the posse had been killed and some ribs taken from the side and left on the rocks. The horse belonged to one of the posse. Wednesday night the posse rode ten miles for fresh horses and took the trail again at daylight (Sunday morning), following it south over the rough foothills into the valley south of Whitlock. The trail was plain and was followed by a gallop until dark, when it had turned north toward Solomonville. Sheriff Wright rode ten miles Thursday night for fresh horses and Friday morning the posse was back again and the posse went back to the mountains where the Indians had been seen Wednesday. The trail was followed on Friday. Sheriff Wright increased his posse and made a thorough search of the mountains, but failed to find the trail. The posse was increased and they doubtless belong to a band of renegades that has been off the reservation for several years. The posse arrived here yesterday and a telegram to Sheriff Wright says that if when the murder was discovered as had been notified at once, his posse could have overtaken the Indians and their capture would have been the result. The report brought here last night that Indians were seen on the Sheldon road created much excitement, a telegram being sent to the commander at Fort Grant. Investigation showed some sheep herders were the cause of the report.

CUT, CRUSHED AND SCALDED

A Fatal Wreck on the New York and New Haven

No Adequate Explanation of the Cause of the Accident Can Be Given, But Five Men Are Dead or Badly Injured

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—Three men were killed and two more injured in a railroad wreck today on the New York & New Haven railroad in Harlem. The killed are Thomas Fitzgerald, engineer; Frederick Marjes, brakeman; Thomas C. McNally, brakeman; Thomas Bannon, conductor; cut and scalded.

Thomas McKoon, freeman; cut and scalded.

All of the killed and injured were residents of this city. The accident occurred between One Hundred and Thirty-second and One Hundred and Thirtieth streets. The engine was used as a switch engine and was bound east to Van Ness street, where it was struck by a passenger train. The engine and the bodies were crushed and scalded, death evidently having been instantaneous. Fitzgerald's head protruded through the window of the engine cab, and he was sitting on his seat at his duty when the accident happened.

BRADLEY'S INAUGURATION

To Be Celebrated as Becomes a Record-Breaking Event

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 8.—Arrangements for the inauguration of Governor-elect Bradley at Frankfort on Tuesday are rapidly nearing completion. It is the first opportunity the Republicans of this state have had for the management of such an affair and the indications are that they intend to do the occasion full justice. The inauguration of a Republican governor in Kentucky is a record-breaking event to start with and the preparations are sufficiently elaborate to be in keeping with the importance of the occasion. The parade will of course be the feature of the day. General D. W. Mitchell, who is the Republican candidate and in the procession will be organizations from Newport, Covington, Cincinnati, Louisville and other cities including the famous Louisville legion. The parade will be headed by Governor-elect Bradley and will be greeted by one of the largest crowds ever gathered at the state capital.

Sentenced to Hang

OMAHA, Dec. 8.—George Morgan, who one month ago tonight raped and killed 10-year-old Ida Gaskill, was today found guilty of murder and sentenced to hang. The jury went out last night and returned a verdict this afternoon. Under the new law the jury decided when the degree of the murder is in the first, whether the prisoner hangs or goes to the penitentiary for life. Morgan denied the offense, but said he was drunk when he is alleged to have done the killing.

Let Him Come at Once

Dr. Hayward, however, did not relish the idea of the meeting between the two brothers in his presence, and asked the deputy to show Adry up the jail stairs. He remained a few minutes longer, then bade his brother farewell for the time being. On his way out he met Adry in the doorway and shook hands. The doctor passed out of doors, while Adry ascended the stairs to the jail, where he stood calmly waiting for him. They addressed each other in a friendly manner, after which Harry requested the deputies to withdraw a distance to allow him to speak to his brother confidentially. The speakers did as requested, and from a distance keenly watched the two men. The latter at once engaged in an interested conversation. What passed was not heard by any person until Harry raised his voice to say: "Now I have done my part. I have

BLACKBURN'S CAMPAIGN

Kentucky Expects to Have An Interesting Senatorial Fight

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 8.—Now that the legislature is made a tie politically by the Democrats re-electing A. J. Carroll at Louisville yesterday, the aspirants for the senatorship to succeed Senator Blackburn are here with their managers, and a very hotly contested fight is on. Governor-elect Bradley will arrive tomorrow morning. After his inauguration on Tuesday it is stated he will be an important factor in the senatorial contest that is pending, and it is generally conceded that the governor-elect favors the Republican ticket. He managed the recent successful campaign in the state for the Republicans.

A Joint Celebration

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—Today was the occasion of the joint celebration of the feast of the Immaculate Conception and the solemnization of the feast of St. Francis Xavier, the patron saint of St. Francis Xavier church in this city. Cardinal Gibbons celebrated the high pontifical mass in honor of the occasion. The church was profusely decorated with flowers.

Charged With a Hold-Up

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 8.—John Vantine, alias "Botch" Vantine, an ex-convict, has been arrested on a charge of garroting and robbing a countryman on an alley. The police, however, refuse to tell the man's name or say how much money he lost.

This Makes Hotman Mad

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 8.—A young woman named Carrie Fellows Daily attempted to commit suicide tonight at the Pacific hotel by taking iodine. A physician was called in time to save her life. The woman had had a quarrel with John Daily, her husband.

Came Off Lucky

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 8.—Richard Fisk, a fireman, while working on top of an electric light pole today, received such a severe shock from a live wire that he was hurled to the ground. He suffered a broken arm and broken leg.

A Policeman Murdered

In An Attempt to Recover Stolen Property From a Pawn Broker

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Dec. 8.—William H. Franz, a policeman, was shot and mortally wounded here at noon today at the hands of the family of L. Leibowitz, a pawnbroker. The shooting occurred in the latter's shop, and the fatal bullets were fired by the pawnbroker's 12-year-old son, Abe. Policeman Franz went to the pawnshop to recover a stolen watch. Franz found the watch and asked permission to take it to police headquarters for identification. This permission was refused, whereupon Franz attempted to go to headquarters. A scuffle ensued, during which Leibowitz got the policeman on the floor. The boy then grabbed a revolver from behind the counter and fired five shots, three of which took effect in the policeman's body, one in the neck and one in the right side. Both the bullet went clean through the body. A third pierced Franz's left arm. Constable McCaffery ran in from the street and arrested Leibowitz, and other officers took the boy and woman into custody. Franz's death is momentarily expected.

The Pilots Rescued

LONDON, Dec. 8.—The sixteen pilots of pilot boat 5, which was damaged by the British steamer Cambroman off the Mersey yesterday, who took to a small punt for fear the pilot boat was sinking, have been rescued.

CUT, CRUSHED AND SCALDED

A Fatal Wreck on the New York and New Haven

No Adequate Explanation of the Cause of the Accident Can Be Given, But Five Men Are Dead or Badly Injured

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—Three men were killed and two more injured in a railroad wreck today on the New York & New Haven railroad in Harlem. The killed are Thomas Fitzgerald, engineer; Frederick Marjes, brakeman; Thomas C. McNally, brakeman; Thomas Bannon, conductor; cut and scalded.

Thomas McKoon, freeman; cut and scalded.

All of the killed and injured were residents of this city. The accident occurred between One Hundred and Thirty-second and One Hundred and Thirtieth streets. The engine was used as a switch engine and was bound east to Van Ness street, where it was struck by a passenger train. The engine and the bodies were crushed and scalded, death evidently having been instantaneous. Fitzgerald's head protruded through the window of the engine cab, and he was sitting on his seat at his duty when the accident happened.

BRADLEY'S INAUGURATION

To Be Celebrated as Becomes a Record-Breaking Event

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 8.—Arrangements for the inauguration of Governor-elect Bradley at Frankfort on Tuesday are rapidly nearing completion. It is the first opportunity the Republicans of this state have had for the management of such an affair and the indications are that they intend to do the occasion full justice. The inauguration of a Republican governor in Kentucky is a record-breaking event to start with and the preparations are sufficiently elaborate to be in keeping with the importance of the occasion. The parade will of course be the feature of the day. General D. W. Mitchell, who is the Republican candidate and in the procession will be organizations from Newport, Covington, Cincinnati, Louisville and other cities including the famous Louisville legion. The parade will be headed by Governor-elect Bradley and will be greeted by one of the largest crowds ever gathered at the state capital.

Sentenced to Hang

OMAHA, Dec. 8.—George Morgan, who one month ago tonight raped and killed 10-year-old Ida Gaskill, was today found guilty of murder and sentenced to hang. The jury went out last night and returned a verdict this afternoon. Under the new law the jury decided when the degree of the murder is in the first, whether the prisoner hangs or goes to the penitentiary for life. Morgan denied the offense, but said he was drunk when he is alleged to have done the killing.

Let Him Come at Once

Dr. Hayward, however, did not relish the idea of the meeting between the two brothers in his presence, and asked the deputy to show Adry up the jail stairs. He remained a few minutes longer, then bade his brother farewell for the time being. On his way out he met Adry in the doorway and shook hands. The doctor passed out of doors, while Adry ascended the stairs to the jail, where he stood calmly waiting for him. They addressed each other in a friendly manner, after which Harry requested the deputies to withdraw a distance to allow him to speak to his brother confidentially. The speakers did as requested, and from a distance keenly watched the two men. The latter at once engaged in an interested conversation. What passed was not heard by any person until Harry raised his voice to say: "Now I have done my part. I have

BLACKBURN'S CAMPAIGN

Kentucky Expects to Have An Interesting Senatorial Fight

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 8.—Now that the legislature is made a tie politically by the Democrats re-electing A. J. Carroll at Louisville yesterday, the aspirants for the senatorship to succeed Senator Blackburn are here with their managers, and a very hotly contested fight is on. Governor-elect Bradley will arrive tomorrow morning. After his inauguration on Tuesday it is stated he will be an important factor in the senatorial contest that is pending, and it is generally conceded that the governor-elect favors the Republican ticket. He managed the recent successful campaign in the state for the Republicans.

A Joint Celebration

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—Today was the occasion of the joint celebration of the feast of the Immaculate Conception and the solemnization of the feast of St. Francis Xavier, the patron saint of St. Francis Xavier church in this city. Cardinal Gibbons celebrated the high pontifical mass in honor of the occasion. The church was profusely decorated with flowers.

Charged With a Hold-Up

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 8.—John Vantine, alias "Botch" Vantine, an ex-convict, has been arrested on a charge of garroting and robbing a countryman on an alley. The police, however, refuse to tell the man's name or say how much money he lost.

This Makes Hotman Mad

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 8.—A young woman named Carrie Fellows Daily attempted to commit suicide tonight at the Pacific hotel by taking iodine. A physician was called in time to save her life. The woman had had a quarrel with John Daily, her husband.

Came Off Lucky

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 8.—Richard Fisk, a fireman, while working on top of an electric light pole today, received such a severe shock from a live wire that he was hurled to the ground. He suffered a broken arm and broken leg.

George Augustus Sala

Founder and Editor of Temple Bar Magazine

A JOURNALIST AND AUTHOR

Reaches the End of a Long and Useful Life

A Famous War Correspondent and the Author of Many Books Which Have Given Pleasure to Millions

Associated Press Special Wire.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—George Sala, the distinguished journalist, is dead.

George Augustus Henry Sala, journalist and author, was born in London in 1828. In the early part of his career he became a contributor of articles to newspapers and magazines. He founded and was the first editor of the Temple Bar Magazine.

He visited the United States in 1863 as a special correspondent for the Daily Telegraph, and in the latter part of the following year published the result of his observations under the title of America in the Midst of War.

He was war correspondent for the same paper in France in 1870, witnessing the fall of the empire in Paris on September 4th. He afterwards went to Rome to report the entry of the Italian army into that city, and in January, 1875, he visited Spain on the occasion of the entry of Alfonso XII. He visited Russia in December, 1876, as special correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, and subsequently traversed the empire to observe the mobilization of the Russian army then in process.

Some of his best known works are How I Famed Mrs. Cruise, published in 1866; Journey to the North, a Residence in Russia, in 1869; Looked for Life and Mack Your Game, Narrative of the Rhine, in 1869; Breakfast in Bed and Strange Adventures of the Italian Army, in 1869; After Breakfast or Pictures, Done With a Quill, in 1861; From Waterloo to the Peninsula, in 1860; Notes and Sketches of the First Expedition to Rome, in 1860; Rome and Venice, in 1860; Paris Here! Here! Here! America Revisited, in 1862.

Mr. Sala started a weekly paper in May, 1862, called the Saturday Review, but has since continued the publication of it.

THE OUTCAST CASE

Judge Dundy Objects to Interference With the Courts

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 8.—Tomorrow the federal grand jury will begin investigating the way in which the jury on Saturday acquitted Richard Outcasts of complicity in robbing the Capital National Bank. Judge Dundy said that such a case before the court had taken it up, endeavoring in that manner to influence the jury. He said that he had received threatening letters from different persons advising him as to his duty, and these things were to be investigated.

Omaha's Shortage

OMAHA, Dec. 8.—When the task of examining the books of ex-City Treasurer Bohn was begun, it was positively announced that as soon as the investigation was completed the bondsmen would step up and promptly make good every dollar that the city had lost through Bohn and his associates. Now it is said the city will not recover because the date of the shortage is in doubt. He was short $30,000, for which his assistant is now in jail awaiting trial, advising him as to his duty, and these things were to be investigated.

Deaths From Heart Disease

BUTTE, Mont., Dec. 8.—George Bretherton of Meeker, Colo., 70 years of age, dropped dead in the Methodist church this morning, supposedly from heart trouble.

GINGINATI, Dec. 8.—H. T. Miller, president of the Mount Auburn institute, died last night of heart disease. He established the institute thirty years ago and has always been at its head.

THE NEWS

BY TELEGRAPH.—Congressional forecast: actual work waits on the appointment of committees.—Sheriff Wright and posse return from a fruitless chase after marauding Apaches.—Lord Dunraven will arrive on Wednesday to back his charges that Defender was unfairly charged.—A fatal wreck on the New York and New Haven line.—George Augustus Sala, the famous journalist, dead.—Chicago's new telegraph office.—A New York rabbi pays his respects to Ahlwardt, the anti-Semitic agitator.—Harry Hayward bids his brother Adry good-by.—Progress of affairs in Turkey.—Meeting of the American Federation of Labor today.—Progress of the struggle to secure the convention.—Pasadena; Alpine club celebration; brevities.—Ventura; working for the G. A. O. occasion.—Anahim; water extension.—Santa Ana; fair association to reorganize.

ABOUT THE CITY.—Going to make a reduction; the county surveyor will reduce his deputies.—Case of Coroner Campbell; a general belief that the perjury prosecution will be a farce.—Some council business; matters that will come up for action today.—The town is growing; another relic will soon be a thing of the past.—The prospective shaking up; local militiamen are speculating upon the Sacramento manœuvre.—Funeral of Henry Scherer.—Mayne is keeping very quiet; under the advice of his attorney he now avoids reporters.—The planet Mars looms over Mr. Baumgardt.—The world of sports; matters of local interest.—Yesterday at the churches; extracts from many sermons.

WHERE YOU MAY GO TODAY

ORPHEUM.—At 8 p.m.; vaudeville.

BURBANK.—At 8 p.m.; The Ventriloquist.

$1,000

A Chance for Charity—Herald Facts Vs. Times Falsehoods

The Los Angeles Times of Saturday, in a contemptible editorial effort to discredit the good faith of The Herald in affording the Free Kindergarten Association of this city a Thanksgiving benefit, publishes the following:

"The Herald management, instead of permitting the proceeds of such increased charges, over and above the regular rates, to go wholly to the ladies of the Free Kindergarten, who conducted the publishing enterprise, which course would have been the just, proper and 'ideal' one for the Herald to pursue—proceeded to gather in 50 per cent of the moneys contributed by its advertisers for a public charity."

"The Herald squirms and seeks to throw responsibility upon the shoulders of the ladies which it should itself assume. It is not the ladies, but the Herald, that the Times 'calls to task roundly for getting higher advertising rates,' under cover of a charitable appeal to the public, than its usual rates—and then claiming half the proceeds from the lady managers of the charity—a proceeding which must have given The Herald at least double its usual rates for current advertising."

In the foregoing three lying and malicious statements are made: First, that the "Herald management" raised the rates for advertising space in the Thanksgiving edition; second, that The Herald claimed half the proceeds of the edition from the lady managers of the charity that benefited by the number, "a proceeding that must have given The Herald at least double its usual rates for current advertising"; third, that The Herald "proceeded to gather in 50 per cent of the moneys contributed by its advertisers for a public charity."

The Herald's replies to these fabrications are: First, that the Herald did not establish the advertising rates for the Thanksgiving number; whatever price was asked for space in that number was fixed by the ladies who represented the charity to be aided, and the advertisements that were obtained specially for that edition were procured in the main by the ladies interested; of these facts the Times is perfectly aware; second, The Herald did not at any time claim half the proceeds of the edition; third, The Herald has not "proceeded to gather in 50 per cent of the moneys contributed by its advertisers for a public charity," but, on the contrary, The Herald is prepared and has been since the amount was ascertained to pay to the ladies who gave so liberally of their time, services and enthusiasm, the net profits of the edition, deducting only from the gross proceeds the actual cost of the edition to the Herald Publishing Company.

The Herald is prepared to back its assertion that the Times' allegations as noted are false and that the replies thereto are truthful, with Herald money.

The Herald Publishing Company will today deposit in the First National Bank of Los Angeles, $1000 in gold coin of the United States, to be forfeited to the Free Kindergarten Association if it be shown by an investigation conducted by three bankers of this city—The Herald to select one, the Times another, and the two thus selected to choose the third—that The Herald has lied and the Times has told the truth. This proposition is, of course, contingent on the Times depositing in bank an equal amount of money, to be similarly forfeited if the investigation develops that the allegations of that paper are false and those of The Herald truthful.

The Times can avail itself of this method of proving the correctness or what it alleges until December 14, 1895. Let it "put up or shut up."

HAYWARD'S HORRID CURSES

Are His Farewell Words to His Brother Adry

The Minneapolis Murders Hopes to be a "Hunt" that He May Bother His Brother After Death

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Dec. 8.—"May the curse of God fall on you and yours, and allow me from the minute I drop from the scaffold to haunt you day and night until your death. Then I will welcome you on the brink of hell with a red hot iron."

These were the farewell words of Harry Hayward to his brother Adry this afternoon. He hurled them at the latter as he descended the stairs leading to the tier in which he had been confined and passed through the iron doorway leading to the outer office. It was their last meeting on earth, and such the murderer intended it to be. Adry was as calm as the prisoner was impassioned. He was unmoved by the anathemas, except to ward pity. His was the orderly affected, and it was his fervent "God bless you, Harry; good by, Harry," which elicited the remark above quoted.

The meeting between the brothers was arranged by the parents, who beseeched the condemned to see Adry once more before he died. He remained obstinate to their entreaties for a long time, but finally he consented and sent by messenger a note reading:

"Dear Adry: I want you to come once to the jail, I wish particularly to see you. I have no other object than the desire to ask your forgiveness for any wrong, either real or imaginary, which I may have done you. I want once more to see you on this earth. This is the wish and dying request of your brother "HARRY."

When Adry reached the jail he waited until the conclusion of the visit of Dr. Hayward, who was then with the doomed man. Deputy Allison, however, passed through the office to the jail corridor, and told Harry that Adry was in the outer office.

"Let him come at once," said Harry. Dr. Hayward, however, did not relish the idea of the meeting between the two brothers in his presence, and asked the deputy to show Adry up the jail stairs. He remained a few minutes longer, then bade his brother farewell for the time being. On his way out he met Adry in the doorway and shook hands. The doctor passed out of doors, while Adry ascended the stairs to the jail, where he stood calmly waiting for him. They addressed each other in a friendly manner, after which Harry requested the deputies to withdraw a distance to allow him to speak to his brother confidentially. The speakers did as requested, and from a distance keenly watched the two men. The latter at once engaged in an interested conversation. What passed was not heard by any person until Harry raised his voice to say: "Now I have done my part. I have

A Pretty Fair Deal

CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 8.—The banks here have exploded the sensation about Z. T. Lewis, the bond forger, getting over $200,000 from this city, leaving forged bonds as collateral. They find that Lewis got only $25,000 from Cincinnati, $900 from W. E. Hutton, a broker, and $20,000 from the German National bank, it is believed the banks at Dayton and elsewhere have joined in hiring Detective Crawford to pursue Lewis abroad.