

late hour tonight they had not been served.

Sheriff Martin, who spent last night at his Wilkesbarre home under a strong guard, came to Hazelton this morning with the Ninth regiment of the Third brigade. His presence in town was not known until late in the day. Then it was found that he was still under the guardianship of the soldiers and he could not be reached. This afternoon Constables Alry and Gallagher made an effort to arrest A. Hess, who led one company of deputies last night, but he had sought shelter within the military lines kept by the Ninth regiment, and they refused to permit the constables to pass the guard. The warrants charge murder, assault and battery and threatening to kill.

A third event of no less importance was the offer made by Superintendent Lawall of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre collieries to grant an increase of 10 per cent over the Lehigh basis to the men of the company, about 2000 in number. A big meeting was held at McAdoo in order to consider this offer, and after much discussion and speechmaking it was decided to accept the proposition. But little confidence follows this decision, as it is taken for granted that as soon as the men return to work pressure from the men still out will be brought to bear to restore them to the strikers' ranks, and it is admitted that there will be no resistance. This was only one of the mass meetings held today. Another at Hazelton adopted resolutions expressing sympathy for "our murdered brothers who were shot down at Latimer."

The third meeting was the most generally attended. It began at Hazel Park about 5 o'clock this afternoon and adjourned to an open place at one end of the city, where it was in progress tonight.

The purpose of this meeting was also to extend sympathy and to decide upon a course of action in consequence of last night's catastrophe. Throughout the day the city has been given up to excitement, which, by its suppressed character, has been more ominous than the coming of the state troops, which began at an early hour this morning, served to cow the strikers and their sympathizers, and no further demonstration was made than the gathering at street corners of knots of men and women in muttered but intense discussion of the shooting.

Tonight there are fully 2500 soldiers camping in town. Gen. Gobine, commander of the Third brigade, arrived early in the morning and established headquarters in the office of the division superintendent of the Lehigh Coal company, from which point he assigned the commands to points on the outskirts of the city. The Twenty-ninth was sent to Hazel Park, the Twenty-eighth to Drifton and another from Latimer; the Twelfth was sent to Donegal Hill, on the opposite side of the town, holding Janesville road; the Second battalion of the Eighth regiment was placed at Audenreid, and was later joined by the Fourth; the Thirteenth went to Hazelton and took up a position overlooking the mines toward which the strikers were marching when the shooting occurred. The governor's troop remained at brigade headquarters and Battery B was distributed among the different commands. Besides its usual equipment, the battery has two breech-loading pieces and two Gatling guns.

The town itself looks as if it were in a state of siege tonight, as the booted and spurred warriors are to be seen at every turn. The presence of the troops has sufficed to maintain order thus far, but it is not repressing public opinion. This almost unanimously condemns in the most severe terms the action of the deputies last night. "Official murder" is the phrase on almost every tongue, and for substantiation of the charge attention is directed to the fact that the deputies carried Winchester, each man having twelve rounds of ammunition, each a revolver and a box of cartridges, while the marching strikers were defenseless, having no arms save the long knives which they were carrying, and which were used by the strikers to defend themselves. The fact remains that many of the victims were shot through the back.

The first volley from the deputies, unexpected as it was, created such indescribable consternation that the men stampeded and fled, and it is not a question that while they were fleeing, the long flight the deputies poured volley after volley into the terror-stricken crowd. Many prominent citizens of the town have drawn up informal protest, not only against the action of the sheriff and his deputies, but against the calling out of the militia, which they declare was unnecessary.

In spite of this, however, the uneasy feeling increases. The strikers have made up their minds, as several of them said today, to remain in perfect quietness till Monday. At 11 a. m. on that day the bodies of the unfortunate men who fell under the leaden storm will be laid away. Services will be held in the Polish Catholic church, with requiem high mass. Then the corpses will be interred in the Polish cemetery. They will be laid in a circular plot and the congregation to which they belonged will, it is announced, erect a monument.

The meeting at Latimer today was held not far from the scene of last night's conflict. They decided to take no action until Monday when a committee consisting of four Poles, four Italians, and four Hungarians will visit the operators and notify them of their intention to remain out with the other strikers until every demand is granted.

The hospital was a heart-rending place today. Here all day long groups of sunken-eyed, hollow cheeked women, many bearing children in their arms, hung about the steps and eagerly watched the doors. Some sat in stony silence, as if unaware as yet of what had happened, while others were bowed and bent beneath uncontrollable storms of grief.

THE GOVERNOR PROCLAIMS HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 11.—On account of the horrible slaughter yesterday afternoon at Latimer, in the coal region, the governor tonight issued the following proclamation:

"Whereas it has been represented to me by the proper authorities of Luzerne county that riotous demonstrations exist in various sections thereof, whereby the lives and property and the peace and safety of the people are threatened, and which the civil authorities are unable to suppress; and

"Whereas the constitution and by-laws of the commonwealth require the governor, whenever it may become necessary, to employ the military of the state to suppress domestic violence and preserve the peace;

"Now, therefore, I, Daniel H. Hastings, governor of the commonwealth, do hereby admonish all good citizens and all persons within the eye and under the jurisdiction of the commonwealth against aiding or abetting any such unlawful proceedings, and I do hereby notify them that the lives and property of all citizens of the commonwealth will be protected; that the laws will be enforced; that the humblest citizen will be protected in his right to earn livelihood and in the enjoyment of his home and family and the safety of life and property will be guaranteed on all occasions, at whatever cost, and I do hereby command all persons engaged in riotous demonstrations and unlawful conduct threatening the peace and dignity of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to disperse forthwith to their respective places of abode, warning them that persistence in violence and unlawful assemblage will compel such use of the military arm of the commonwealth as may be necessary to enforce obedience to the laws and the maintenance of good order.

"Citizens under my hand and the great seal of the state at Harrisburg, this 11th day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, and of the commonwealth the one hundred and twenty-second.

"By the governor, DANIEL H. HASTINGS, J. E. BARNETT, Acting Secretary of the Commonwealth."

GOMPERS' VIEWS WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, after bitterly denouncing the killing of the men near Hazelton as a brutal murder, said: "The men were marching on the public highway. They had as much right to march to Latimer or any other place on the highway as the sheriff or governor of Pennsylvania, or the president of the United States."

"The mine operators, in the madness of their supposed power, and in their effort to enslave labor, have used judges and courts to give color of law to the most flagrant violation of the constitutional rights of the people. Sheriffs and deputies, taking their cues from their superiors, have carried out this policy, and killed men exercising their rights under the constitution and law."

"In his published explanation Sheriff Martin makes an effort to secure the favor of our native Americans by repeatedly emphasizing his statement that the mine operators were foreigners. It may be true that these men are not native Americans, but they were the men brought by the greed and cunning of the mine operators and so long as they submitted to be starved, no word as to their foreign birth was heard. But now this cry of 'foreigner' is like a cloud of dust raised to obscure the crime."

"The miners will win their humane and heroic struggle; they deserve to win; their conduct has challenged the admiration of their friends and sympathizers."

MANEUVERS A FAILURE BUT THE EMPEROR CARRIED HIS POINT

Newspapers Renew the Agitation in Favor of a Tariff War With the United States

Associated Press Special Wire. BERLIN, Sept. 11.—This week's ever-boiling pot of German politics contained political developments for which the army maneuvers are an excuse, although everything was done at Hamburg, at King Humbert's request, to safeguard French susceptibilities. But Emperor William's reconsecration of the drei kaiserbund was triumphantly begun, and at the same time the king of Italy's wishes were gratified. Queen Margaret of Italy was handsomely flattered, the enthusiasm of the crowds was complete and as a delicatessen after the great display of military strength, the emperor rallied his guests to Wiesbaden, where they witnessed the first performance of "Salve," composed for the occasion by the court dramatist, Joseph Lauff, under the ubiquitous direction of the monarch himself.

What was begun at Hamburg amid the panoplies of war, the emperor will complete in Hungary, where he arrives tomorrow, and where added force can be given to declarations by the presence of more of the soldiers who would eventually have to carry them out.

The Hamburg maneuvers, however, are unanimously declared to have been a failure by the military spectators. There were almost incessant rains and a number of cloudburges over the maneuvers. The Prussians outdid the Bavarians in marching, but the Bavarians excelled their opponents in dashing attacks.

The army bicyclists, in spite of the bad weather and terrible roads, proved beyond question their splendid availability for campaign purposes.

Another reason for the admitted failure of the army maneuvers was the strong anti-Prussian feeling pervading the whole Bavarian army, which found expression on numerous occasions.

The unpopularity of the emperor in Bavaria was strikingly manifested at Nuremberg. While passing through the streets in company with the prince regent of Bavaria was insulted several times by persons in the crowd. One person shouted: "We want no Prussians in Bavaria."

The epidemic of accidents on the German railroads is prompting sharp criticism of the government control of the roads.

The conservative and agrarian newspapers have resumed their agitation in favor of a tariff war with the United States. The National Zeitung says the German exporting industry is accepting the Dingley tariff with equanimity, adding, "especially as it seems that the betterment of the condition of the American farmer will enable us to sell to America as much as ever." Continuing, Zeitung says: "Just now the main point for German industry is to be able to compete on even terms with European countries, and there would be an end of that if Count von Kanitz and such friends had their way."

The Vossische Zeitung, in a satirical article, reviews a number of the emperor's recent speeches, pointing out that his majesty has made in them a score of historical and grammatical errors, and advising the court marshal, in giving them to the press, to revise them more carefully.

Lumber Going Up TACOMA, Sept. 11.—At today's meeting of the manufacturers' lumbermen of Western Washington, it was decided that inasmuch as the dealers in yellow pine have advanced prices in the eastern markets, the schedule of prices to be put in accordance. Common lumber is therefore advanced $1 per thousand; ship lugs, $1; flooring, $2; stock boards, $3; clear finishing $4; stepping, $5; ceiling, $5; latb, $5 cents.

Two Measley Runs Are All the South-erners Made—National League Games—Racing Results

Associated Press Special Wire. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—At Central Park this afternoon the Will & Finck baseball team defeated the Los Angeles nine by a score of 10 to 2. The Will & Fincks made eight runs in the first inning and batted field out of the box. Van Horn then pitched two innings for Los Angeles, and was in turn substituted by Francks.

LEAGUE GAMES PITTSBURGH, Sept. 11.—Pittsburg and Louisville fought for the game today as though they were after the pennant, and gave a fine exhibition. Attendance 2100. Score: Pittsburg 6, hits 11, errors 4; Louisville 5, hits 7, errors 2.

Washington—The loss of the first game was largely due to disastrous errors made by the Senators. In the second game Dwyer was hit freely and to good purpose. Attendance 3000. Score: First game—Washington 10, base hits 21, errors 6; Cincinnati 19, base hits 21, errors 3.

Second game—Washington 8, base hits 13, errors 1; Cincinnati 4, base hits 11, errors 4.

Baltimore—The best of the Champions could do was to tie today's game with the Colts. It was a pitcher's battle, and the home team had the game won in the eighth, but threw away its chance by the weakest kind of batting. Umpire McDonald called the game on account of the darkness at the end of the ninth. Attendance, 3500. Score: Baltimore 3, hits 8, errors 3; Chicago 3, hits 7, error 1.

New York—The Giants played like schoolboys today, and the Brooklyn won the game out. The New York and Brooklyn clubs will play tomorrow at Weehawken for the benefit of the family of the late William Norr, the sporting writer at Atlantic. Attendance, 4000. Score: New York 4, hits 11, errors 9; Brooklyn 9, hits 13, errors 3.

Boston—The Boston overwhelmed the Phillies today, batting Orth at will. To the visitors Klopchans was an enigma. The two home runs by Duffy and the one by Lowe brought men in ahead of them in each case, while the other hits were fruitful in building up the score. Attendance, 4000. Score: Boston 11, hits 12, errors 2; Philadelphia 0, hits 7, errors 2.

FITZ WON'T FIGHT Until Corbett Makes a Name—Light-Weights Matched

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—In an interview at Newark, N. J., today Bob Fitzsimmons, the pugilist, in reply to the offer of the Northern Territory of New Orleans of a purse of $20,000 for a fight between himself and Jim Corbett, said:

"I will not fight Corbett again until he makes a reputation. Let him fight some one else. He quit like a yellow cur on the 17th of last March; besides, I have retired."

Corbett, who is now in Wheeling, Va., stated that he would accept the offer of the club if Fitzsimmons would agree to fight him.

LAVIGNE-WALCOTT SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Articles of agreement have just been signed by George Lavigne and Joe Walcott for the most important glove contest on this Coast since the meeting of Corbett and Fitzsimmons at Carson. "Kid" Lavigne has been pronounced the greatest lightweight pugilist the world has ever known, and Walcott, who is naturally a welter weight, has many times given evidence of his cleverness in the ring. The exercise of great tact and diplomacy was required to bring the men together, as they differed materially in their views on the vital question of weight. Tom O'Rourke, acting for Walcott, finally conceded a point to the Lavigne party, and agreed that his man should weigh 133 pound at 6 p. m. on the day of the contest.

The affair will be handled by Young Mitchell, manager of the Occidental Club, and will take place in November in the Mechanics' Pavilion. Men fight for 75 per cent of the gate receipts. Of this, the winner takes 80 per cent.

A MICHIGAN MEDFORD, Mass., Sept. 11.—In spite of the ill-edged condition of the horses and track no new records were established in the Star Pointer-Joe Patchen race at Myrtle park today. Pointer won in straight heats, the first heat in 2:02, and 2:04 1/2 respectively, the fastest quarter being the last one in the first heat, which was at a two minute clip.

Pointer drew the pole. McClary drove Star Pointer and Geets drove Patchen. In the first heat, 500 feet from the finish, Pointer had his nose in front of Patchen and the latter could not overtake him and Pointer shot out the wire a winner by a neck.

In the second heat the word was given with Patchen a neck ahead of Pointer, who got the pole this heat. Pointer led at the quarter turn by half length. This lead was gradually closed and nearly a length at the half, but at the three-quarters pole Patchen was on even terms with the pacing king. From that point the latter steadied and forced ahead, and nearly a neck more than kept his forelegs abreast of Pointer's wheels. In this position they finished. The result gave Pointer the two heats necessary to secure the $4000 purse.

YELLOW FEVER CASES GRADUALLY GROW SMALLER IN NUMBER

State and Federal Officers Working Together—Detention Camp Established at Fontainebleau

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—A telegram was received from Surgeon Murray, who is in charge of the marine hospital service in the yellow fever district, saying he had established a detention camp at Fontainebleau, formerly Bellefontaine. Dr. Murray adds:

"I earnestly recommend that immunes, properly certified, be passed through camp after disinfecting clothing, also that non-immunes be discharged on the eighth day after admission, provided five days have elapsed after disinfection of clothing—ten days is eleventh day."

The following, dated at 2 o'clock this morning, was also received from Murray, surgeon at Ocean Springs: "Six new cases of sickness reported by three physicians. There is difficulty in procuring prompt and definite data. Gulters reports that Scranton will have about 100 people in camp."

The officials at the region-general office continue to feel greatly encouraged over the situation at Ocean Springs and the progress that has been made in preparing to grapple with the disease. They congratulate themselves upon the fact that there are fewer cases, both of dengue and yellow fever, than at the beginning, because the officials of the states are co-working in perfect harmony with the government.

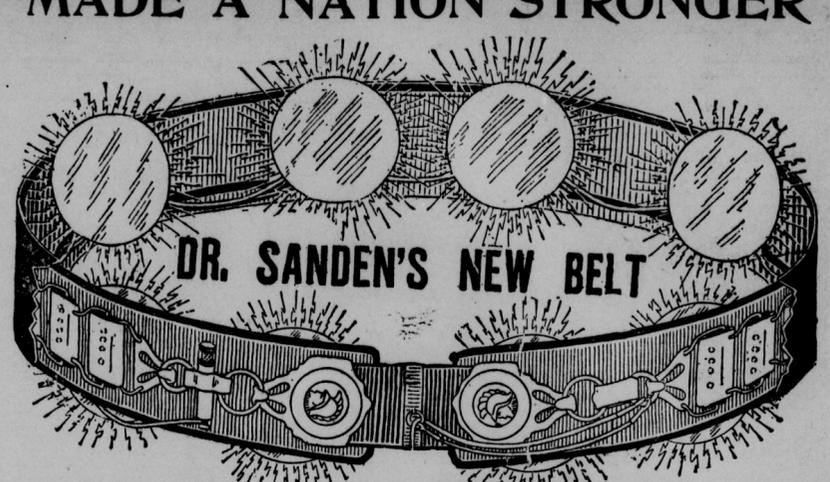

MOBILE MUST AID NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 11.—The board of health tonight adopted resolutions saying:

"Since the board has been credibly informed that there have been cases of fever in Mobile that should be investigated, and since the Mobile board of health has declined to acquiesce in our request to ascertain further the data of the status at Mobile by sending a representative there, and for sufficient reasons this board declares from and after this date a rigid quarantine against the city of Mobile till further notice.

There has been considerable resentment here because Mobile was the first city to quarantine against New Orleans, refusing to receive newspapers or letter mail.

The surgeon general sent orders today to Dr. Wasdin at Ocean Springs to commence an investigation of the yellow fever on San Ellis method. He is the eminent South American who seems to have discovered the germ of yellow fever. A full bacteriologic outfit has been shipped to Dr. Wasdin for the purpose of this scientific inquiry.

"MADE A NATION STRONGER"

Special Attachments for Men or Ladies

It has been shown that the vitality in the human body is based upon Electricity. Disease comes when the vital force is exhausted. Strength of manhood and womanhood therefore depends upon the electrical energy in the nerves. Build up your weakened vitality with this famous life-giver, Dr. Sanden's Electric Belt, which gives sparks of electrical life to the weak nerves.

Here Are Three More Cures:

"I have worn your Belt several months and find it all you claim for it. I suffered with a lame back for four years and it has entirely disappeared. I can heartily recommend your Belt to any one, for it has done so much for me." MISS NELLIE L. WRENN, Hawthorne, Nev.

"When I bought your Belt the 8th of February last, I was greatly troubled with indigestion, nervousness, and piles, and in fact was most generally run down, and was most unable to do anything, but after wearing your Belt two weeks was able to attend to business again, and am now able to do a good day's work on my ranch." MR. R. C. YALOWINE, Long Beach, Cal.

"I am very sorry that I could not get the time sooner to make a statement of the progress I have made since last May. I can't find words enough to express my feelings of gratitude. After so many years of indescribable suffering and spending so much money on doctors and medicine, I am afraid I am rejoicing too soon, but hope not. You see, I wore your Belt from the first night to the present night, at night only, and after the first week I felt a radical change taking place in my system, and got confidence in its working, but never thought of getting well so soon. On the 14th of this month I got up in the morning and to my delight and surprise I did not have any pain in my back, nor have I had any since. Our Lord and my self only knew the suffering I endured, especially when I had to stoop down, cough or sneeze, and various other manners, which caused me terrible pain in my back. Now I feel no pain whatever, and your treatment has made a new man of me. I make this statement as a duty to my fellow men and shall advise every one I know who is a sufferer of Lost Manhood and its many forms of weakness, not to doctor as I have done, but to try your Belt and be convinced and cured. I am gratefully yours." MR. A. FRIESECKER, Prescott, Ariz.
