Union Assurance Society's Peal Did Not Go

A VERDICT FOR SAM FOY

COOK COLCORD COULD NOT BE CONVICTED OF THEFT

Civil Jurors Empaneled—The Fawkes Case Dismissed—Why Was Gooch Charged With Insanity?

The suit of S. C. Foy against the Union Assurance society of England was tried before Judge Allen and a jury yesterday in the superior court. A verdict was returned in favor of the plaintiff for $602. interest and costs.

In May, 1896, Mr. Foy insured certain premises belonging to himself and situated on the west side of South Main street, numbered 255 and 257, respectively, with this insurance company. On the 15th of December following the premises were damaged by fire to the extent of $284. A frame building in the rear was burned up, the loss being $350, and on the premises numbered 259 and 261 the loss was $68.

The plaintiff asked the company to pay him these amounts, but it refused to make good his losses on the ground that the policy was made payable to the Los Angeles Savings bank, which held a mortgage upon the premises, and for the further reason that the fire was the result of the use of gasoline on the premises, which was a violation specially mentioned in the policy.

Mr. Foy proved that the Los Angeles Savings bank had waived its rights under the policy in his favor. The jury was out only just long enough to prepare the verdict.

COLCORD ACQUITTED

Evidence to Prove Larceny of the Person Was Too Slim

J. A. Colcord, a cook by trade, was yesterday acquitted in Department one of the superior court of the crime of grand larceny, under instructions of Judge Smith. A little taller, Frank Negel by name, who had a jar, lost a $10 piece at the San Fernando hotel on December 14th while eating a bowl of soup which Colcord had brought him out on the porch.

There was evidence to show that Colcord was the only party who had been near Negel at the time he lost his gold eagle and that he had no money just previous to this event, while immediately afterward he displayed about that amount in change and led to account for its possession. But there was no testimony to prove positively that Colcord had taken it from Negel's person, and under the circumstances the charge of grand larceny would not lie.

These Are the Jurors

The following new term trial jurors of Department six were yesterday excused for cause: Messrs. W. B. Byram, P. W. Chase, Nathan Cole, jr., Theo. Coleman, F. M. Douglass, John Gries, Gideon

B. Hale, J. D. Hooker, N. S. Leithead, Charles E. Latham, J. W. Montgomery, Willis Morrison, S. H. McClung, A. Nichols, R. Hale, H. G. Otis, D. Sigel and Carl Wynn.

The following parties were then ordered regularly empaneled to serve during the term: Messrs. H. H. Benedict, E. F. Badger, C. E. Blake, G. H. Bixby, G. C. Boehme, John Blosser, W. E. Cooley, T. G. Dague, Robert Devine, W. C. Furrey, J. D. Gaylord, H. C. Hotelling, Harry Henrikson, J. G. Kenyon, F. D. Keith, A. Kell, O. P. Lockhart, T. A. Lewis, S. M. Munson, C. L. Mason, A. Musser, Henry Ober, H. Olson, Ed Padgham, G. E. Roper, L. Shields, O. H. Sprong, S. M. Sevier, F. H. White, T. R. Warren, A. B. Whitney and G. W. Williamson.

New Suits

Charles M. Stimson yesterday sued John Lamori et al. to obtain the foreclosure of a mortgage for $150.

J. F. Kitchen sued Public Administrator Kelsey for $306.45. Mr. Kitchen claims that in July, 1897, he entered into a contract for labor with McKenzie, since deceased, at the daily rate of $2.50.

Frank M. Kelsey assumed charge of decedent's estate he refused to recognize the contract or the indebtedness.

Alex Fraser sued Elwin Harvey et al. to foreclose a mortgage for $400, less $171 paid, on account of purchase of a lot in the Pioneer Building Lot association on February 13, 1892.

"Nothing in It"

H. B. Fawkes was arrested at Burbank on January 29th, on a complaint sworn to by his brother, J. W. Fawkes, jr., who accused him of petty larceny. The allegation was that the defendant had carted away on the 5th of the same month about $10 worth of the complainant's loose lumber. A jury had been impaneled yesterday in the township justice's court to try H. B. Fawkes, when Assessor District Attorney Williams moved to discharge the defendant as there was "nothing in the case."

Warning Will Foreclose

George L. Waring has taken the preliminary steps in the superior court to foreclose a mortgage for $1200, and $200 costs and interest, against Alexander Penny. The note was given on October 14th, 1895. On the 4th of October the defendant sold the mortgaged premises to Zach Montgomery, who agreed to assume and pay the mortgage, but failed to do so. He and several other persons who claim to have subordinate claims in the lots in the Park tract, thus mortgaged, are made party defendants to the suit.

Crazy and Dirty

A demented Chinaman, so filthy that it was impossible to touch him without being defiled, was found by the way side near Chapman's ranch, San Gabriel, by Constable M. T. Wright yesterday. The dirty heathen, who would not speak when questioned, was temporarily sent to the county hospital, where he is at least sure of a bath. He will be examined tomorrow by the lunacy commissioners if he remains mute and his symptoms become more pronounced.

Saved His Fare

L. A. Anderson, who was found guilty of battery at San Pedro, for punching a man good and hard, and was fined $200 or 100 days in the county jail yesterday, allowed himself to be brought to the Hotel Burr by Constable Schwartz. Once inside the institution he punged up the cash and thereby saved his railroad fare from San Pedro.

Gave Bonds Voluntarily

Elie Allemand, the young French baker, who was arrested on Friday on the complaint of his wife, whom he had threatened with death, appeared voluntarily before Justice Young yesterday, several days ahead of the time set for his examination, and gave a bond in $500, promising that he would keep the peace for six months. Allemand claims that his temper got the best of him when he saw his wife walking on the street with a man, and that it was merely in the heat of passion that he used the threatening language.

Sickness Broke Fatnoe

F. H. Patnoe, clerk and bookkeeper at University, has quit the struggle of trying to pay doctors' bills and small, crying debts with nothing. Therefore he yesterday applied to be declared an insolvent. Nearly all his debts were incurred on account of sickness in the household and amounted to $325. Except $100 worth of property exempt from execution, he is without assets.

Court Notes

The divorce suit of Maud G. Smith against her husband, F. C. Smith, in which cruelty is alleged, was partially tried yesterday by Judge Clark and continued for further testimony.

Mrs. Minnie Luck was granted a divorce from W. Luck by Judge Clark on statutory grounds. The parties are colored.

Dominguez Arrested

Manuel Dominguez, the Calabasas "valiente," badly battered but still in the ring, was booked yesterday at the county jail. Later he was removed to San Fernando to be arraigned on the charge of assault to murder before the justice of the peace of that place.

An Untrue Complaint

George Gooch, a young Rivera farmer, was examined before Judge Clark for insanity yesterday, on a complaint sworn to by his father, T. L. Gooch. It was alleged that the youth had the delusion that the people wanted to rob him and had asked for a gun to defend himself with. He was also given to wandering off. The medical commissioners who made the examination found that Gooch had no bad habits and was not insane. He was released.

On account of some unfortunate experience I had in the extraction of my teeth I became a great coward in this respect. Today Dr. Schiffman extracted one of my very refractory teeth without causing me one particle of pain.

Our New Process Of Flexible Dental Plates is as yet but little known by the public, and less understood by dentists in general. It has many advantages over the ordinary rubber plate, even gold plates, being lighter and thinner. This plate being flexible, only a trifle thicker than heavy writing paper, fits closer to the mouth, will last longer and is tougher than any other rubber. Once tried no other plate will be desirable. Brought to the notice of the public through Dr. Schiffman only. LADY ATTENDANT TO WAIT ON LADIES AND CHILDREN.
