

The wedding of Miss Catherine Sophia Swaine, only daughter of Colonel and Mrs. F. T. Swaine, and Sherman Wallace Wigton at Los Nietos, the fine old ranch home of the Swaines, took place Tuesday evening. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Henderson Judd and the wedding music was furnished by the Swaine orchestra. The bride was given away by her father, wearing a trailing gown of rich cream-white satin. The waist was garnished with rare point lace and fastened with a yoke of chiffon, in which was fastened a diamond star. The long tulle was caught with orange blossoms, and the bouquet was of long-stemmed white roses and maidenhair. The maid of honor Miss Claire Sanborn, was gowned in white organdy over pale green silk, and carried a cluster of pink roses and maidenhair. Charles S. Swaine, brother of the bride, assisted as best man. The rooms were artistically decorated with flowers, vines and flags, and the drawing room, where the ceremony took place, was in white and green. The large walnut grove about the residence was gayly illuminated with strings of Chinese lanterns, and beneath the trees were arranged supper tables for those who dared to brave the cool night air. Other tables were set in the house, and the supper was served by Christopher. The gifts, which were very numerous and beautiful, were not displayed. After a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins will go to Arizona for a brief stay. Their plans for the future are as yet indefinite. The bride is going away in a handsome tailor-made affair of blue and white mixed cloth of silk and wool, finished with a vest of white Liberty chiffon. Her hat was of golden brown straw, finished with leaves and chiffon.
