CITRUS FRUIT MARKET STRONG

F. P. FAY DISCUSSES CONDITIONS NOW PREVAILING

Says Open Routing Makes Possible Chicago Deliveries in Half the Time Required in Former Years

In a discussion of the conditions of the citrus fruit industry F. P. Fay, president of the Citrus Fruit union, said yesterday that the markets continue unusually strong all over the country, with the exception of the middle states, where the sales have been affected by storms and cold weather.

"We shall have a continued good market," he said, "unless there should be too heavy shipments. The citrus fruit crop will be within 10 or 15 per cent of the large total of last year and the oranges are of better quality. There is a small amount of it being exported to Australia and England."

"Are you satisfied with the transportation facilities you are receiving under the open routing?" he was asked. "We are more than satisfied," he replied. "The open routing has cut the time in half and our fruit is getting to the Chicago market in from six and a half to seven days. This is from five to seven days better than was possible in previous years."

"Do you have any faith in the report of one of the local fruit journals that rebate money was on hand for the shippers who wanted it, and the smaller roads were using this method to gain the trade which the initial roads' routing gave them?"

"No, sir," he replied, "I neither believe there are any rebates now being given nor do I think that such will be the case during the season. There is no such disposition on the part of the railroads."

Interviews with freight agents of the big lines who would be on the watch for such business methods of their smaller rivals bears out Mr. Fay's statement that there is little fear of the rebate evil putting in its appearance.

PRISONER IS RELEASED TO CARE FOR CRIPPLED PARENT

Negress Unable to Pay Fine Allowed to Go by Kindly Disposed Justice

The kindly spirit of Justice Austin toward the unfortunate was shown yesterday afternoon in the case of Mrs. Jennie Whitesides, a negress, charged with battery.

Mrs. Whitesides went to the police station Wednesday morning and made an attack upon Officer Glenn, sinking her teeth in his arm and scratching him. She was arrested on a charge of battery and taken before Justice Austin for trial.

The testimony was against the woman and three officers testified to the assault. She was fined $15 and thanked the court for its lenient sentence. Mrs. Messer, the aged mother of the defendant, appeared in court and offered $10 to pay her daughter's fine.

"Are you the only support of your crippled mother?" asked Justice Austin. "Yes," replied the woman, "and I am going to jail in order that she may keep her money. But if I am allowed to go free I will bring the remaining five dollars of my fine next Wednesday."

Justice Austin assented and the woman was permitted to go, upon the payment of $10 and a promise to bring the remainder.

ROGERS IS HELD ON CHARGE OF MURDER

Many Italians Testify in Examination of Charge—Witness Insists He Saw No Blow Struck

Francesco Rogers, charged with the murder of Jack Cresello, the Italian peanut vender who was stabbed to death several weeks ago, was examined in Justice Chambers' court yesterday afternoon and entered a plea through his attorney of not guilty.

Nearly the entire membership of the local Italian colony was present in court during the trial and many witnesses were called. John Francesca, who was in the room at the time of the stabbing and upon whose testimony Rogers was charged with murder, was the chief witness for the prosecution, and repeated his story of the stabbing. He still contended that he had seen no blow struck and that Cresello was wrestling with Rogers, while Rogers held an open knife in his hand when the stabbing was said to have occurred.

The clothing worn by Cresello at the time of his death was used as evidence.

At the close of the testimony, Justice Chambers committed Rogers to the county jail on a charge of murder, to be held to the superior court.

In Time of Peace. In the first months of the Russia-Japan war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation and the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shingled their roofs in dry weather." The virtue of preparation had made history and given to us our greatest men. The individual as well as the nation should be prepared for any emergency. Are you prepared to successfully combat the first cold you take? A cold can be cured much more quickly when treated as soon as it has become settled in the system. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds and it should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by all leading druggists.

MUST RIDE ON INCLINE, NOT IN AN ELEVATOR

Contest Between Residents of Court Street Hill Ended by Board of Public Works

The long-drawn battle between Court street hill residents as to whether they would ride on an incline railway or an elevator came to an end yesterday when the board of public works denied to D. F. Donegan the right to put in an elevator.

Some months ago a franchise was granted the McCarthy company to construct an incline railway up the hill. Later Mr. Donegan wanted another part of the street for an elevator, intending to serve the public at a small fee and also to connect with a new hotel that he intends to erect.

This application aroused opposition from the owners of the incline railway franchise. They claimed that the sale of the franchise gave an implied promise that no dangerous rivalry should be fostered by the council.

The residents on the hill took the same view of the matter and lengthy protests against the elevator, signed numerously, were presented to the council. For months the matter has been held before the board of public works. Mr. Donegan said that the protests did not represent public sentiment on the hill, and offering to bring in as long a list of prospective patrons who desired an elevator. He failed to do so, and Friday the board killed his enterprise.

PARK WORKMEN WILL NOT LOSE THEIR JOBS

Shake-up Will Not Occur Until February, According to Present Indications

The shake-up in the laboring force in the city parks will not occur until February 1. Laborers do not come under civil service regulation and it has been confidently expected that the new administration would order a clean sweep of the older men and appoint those of the proper political faith.

At a meeting of the park commission yesterday afternoon it was announced that the old men would be retained during the month.

What will happen at the end was implied.

The park commission will ask for an ordinance providing a much larger force. The present ordinance authorizes but sixty laborers. Superintendent Morley said a force of ninety-one would be sufficient during the greater part of the year. Mayor McAleer advised that the ordinance provide for 115 men and that the park commission use its discretion as to what share of these to keep at work. It is probable this recommendation will be made formally and a new ordinance presented to the council for passage before the end of the month.

STRANGER KILLED BY PRIVATE CAR POPPY

Nothing to Identify the Victim Found on His Person—Mutilated by Wheels

An unidentified man, roughly dressed, was run down and instantly killed by the private car Poppy near San Gabriel yesterday morning.

The car was crowded with sightseers at the time of the accident, and when the man was lifted from beneath the trucks the passengers became panic-stricken.

It is supposed the man was a tramp, as his clothing was soiled and ragged. A pipe, a sack of tobacco and a 5-cent piece were the extent of his possessions. The body was removed to Pierce Bros.' undertaking establishment, where an inquest will be held this morning.

No marks of identification were found upon the man's clothing and his head was so badly crushed that an identification would be almost impossible.

TO OFFER BOND AMENDMENT

Document Prepared Under City Attorney's Direction

A constitutional amendment relative to the payment of bonded indebtedness has been drafted by the city attorney and sent to the Los Angeles county delegation for submission to the legislature. It authorizes the naming in the bonds issued in California of some place or city outside the state at which payment can be made.

Under a ruling of the supreme court no city has a right to pay its debts outside its own limits and all of the bonds issued during recent years by Los Angeles as the place of payment. Those who have charge of floating municipal bonds believe that the standard of credit will be raised by obtaining the right to fix New York as the place for payment. Experience has been that most of the bonds have been purchased in the east. The place of payment has always caused some hesitancy with buyers because of the exchange. Bond buyers must of necessity send the bonds to Los Angeles for collection.

CRUDE OIL PRODUCTION

California Leads the Union in Point of Increased Output

That California has taken a front rank in the production of crude petroleum is shown by the report made by the California Petroleum Miners' association. The full report indicates that the total production places California ahead of any other state in the union, and far ahead of any country except Russia.

The districts and production is as follows: Fullerton, 876,000 barrels; Puente, 204,000; Whittier, 780,000; Los Angeles, 1,080,000; Newhall and Ventura, 540,000; Sumnerland, 80,000; Santa Maria, 750,000; Kern River, 17,500,000; Sunset and Midway, 376,000; McKittrick, 1,680,000; Coalinga, 4,544,160; Sargents, 42,700; Half Moon Bay, 1,000. Total, 28,423,800.

SAYS SHIPMENTS WILL BE DIVIDED

THINKS INITIAL LINES ARE TO ACT AS FORMERLY

One Prominent in Citrus Fruit World Believes Santa Fe and Southern Pacific Have an Understanding in Matter

"I firmly believe that the same understanding exists between the Santa Fe and the Southern Pacific railroads as to a division of business in citrus fruit shipments as that of previous years when the shippers were not given the advantage of the open routing." This was the remark made yesterday by one of the largest shippers of citrus fruits.

"I believe when the season is over and the figures are in for the number of cars that each road has handled the sums will just about balance, if not naturally, then it will be made to balance artificially. There is no question," he continued, "but that the division of traffic will take place between the two roads as formerly. I hardly think the managements of either road will deny this fact."

"Have you met with the difficulty of having to ship over the Southern Pacific instead of the Santa Fe or vice versa?" he was asked.

"No, there has been no difficulty thus far," he admitted. "It is estimated that the supply of refrigerator cars now on hand is sufficient to take all the fruit which will be ready to move eastward for the next thirty days."

"When the season is at its greatest height, however, I am expecting that if one of the initial lines is getting more than its share of the shipments we will be told that the road is out of cars and that we must either wait or go elsewhere."

"Our company has no complaint to make as to the service we are receiving; in fact, we have nothing but praise for the accommodations. Our fruit is going through in double quick time."

COLLEGE STUDENT HURT DURING AN INITIATION

Toy Balloon Explodes, Removing Eyebrows, Eyelashes and Hair From Victim

Dick Lockwood, a student, was badly burned in an accident which came near being serious during an exhibition by college men on Spring street yesterday. The Psi Omega fraternity members of the college of dental surgery of U. S. C. were conducting an initiation and the police gave them permission to carry on their high jinks on the streets.

The candidates, Lockwood, Tolhurst and Kelsey, were rigged out in a manner, the idea for which could only be worked out by a college man or woman. The millinery was the feature of their attire, however, it being truly wonderful in inception and construction.

The two first mentioned embryo dentists were the proud possessors of little red balloons, while young Kelsey complacently trotted down the street, alternately puffing a cigar and blowing up a "dying pig," whose death agonies could be heard for some distance.

Every initiate had a black chimney which some called a stogie about a foot long. These stogies were the real thing, and the boys gradually became less spry in their movements and a greenish tint took the place of the usual ruddy glow on their countenances.

Suddenly Lockwood grew sportive in an effort to show that he recognized a good cigar when it was given him, and danced in childish glee as he toyed with his pretty little balloon. The hydrogen balloon sailed too close to the stogie and an explosion rent the air. When the smoke had cleared away Lockwood emerged with eyebrows and lashes and considerable hair missing and his face severely burned.

The skin was burned from his eyelids, and had it not been for the instantaneous closing of his eyes, his eyesight might have been injured if not destroyed.

OBJECT TO CHANGING NAME

Buena Vista Street May Remain as at Present

Vigorous protest has arisen against the proposed changing of the name of Buena Vista street to Broadway. The case was before the board of public works yesterday afternoon, but was diplomatically laid over. The objections came from various sources. The Native Sons are opposed to losing the old Spanish nomenclature. The Landmarks club has the same objection.

Down on Broadway some business men are opposed to extending the name beyond the tunnel. Still others believe the street is logically a part of Pasadena avenue.

Similar attempts to change the name of the street have been made before and on each occasion enough opposition developed to stop the proceedings.
