

NEW QUARTERS OF THE TAMMANY CLUB ARE OPENED TO A THROG OF VISITORS

TAMMANY TIGER WAKES HIS BOW NEW ORGANIZATION FINALLY LAUNCHED

Quarters at 230 1/2 South Spring Street Are Thronged With Visitors on the Night of Opening

Tammany hall, at 230 1/2 South Spring street, consisting in floor space of five rooms outlining a tiger, made its initial leap into public favor last evening and captured over 200 citizens of Los Angeles.

Nearly twice the number of men allowed by the rules of the new organization to become active members are seeking to possess the pink receipt slips which entitles them to stand in this class.

Comradeship and good feeling made the lavish accompaniments arranged for the opening doubly brilliant. The men who crowded the rooms of the club last evening plainly felt themselves brothers in a good cause and ready to fight for the improvement of civic affairs.

There was no speaking and there was much speaking. No formal program was prepared and no set speeches were indulged in with the idea of outlining the destiny of nations.

The Tammany club stands for the Democratic organization. Its object is to build up the party, to induce the best men in the Democratic ranks to take an active interest in the caucus, the primaries and in the convention, to the end that first-class tickets may be presented to the people for their suffrage.

The club not only stands for a better and a stronger organization, but its purpose is to advocate the principles of pure Jeffersonian Democracy.

The active membership is limited to 150 persons and the object is to secure these members from the ranks; from men who believe in Democracy and will labor for the success of its principles and its candidates.

The name "Tammany" has been selected because it stands for a vigorous and constant advocacy of close Democratic organization and steadfast Democratic principles.

The officers of the new club are as follows: President, George M. Cake; vice president, Harry J. Brown; secretary and treasurer, Arthur C. Harper.

The active members will not be allowed to receive any patronage from any officers of the city or candidates for such office.

The Value of Charcoal

Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

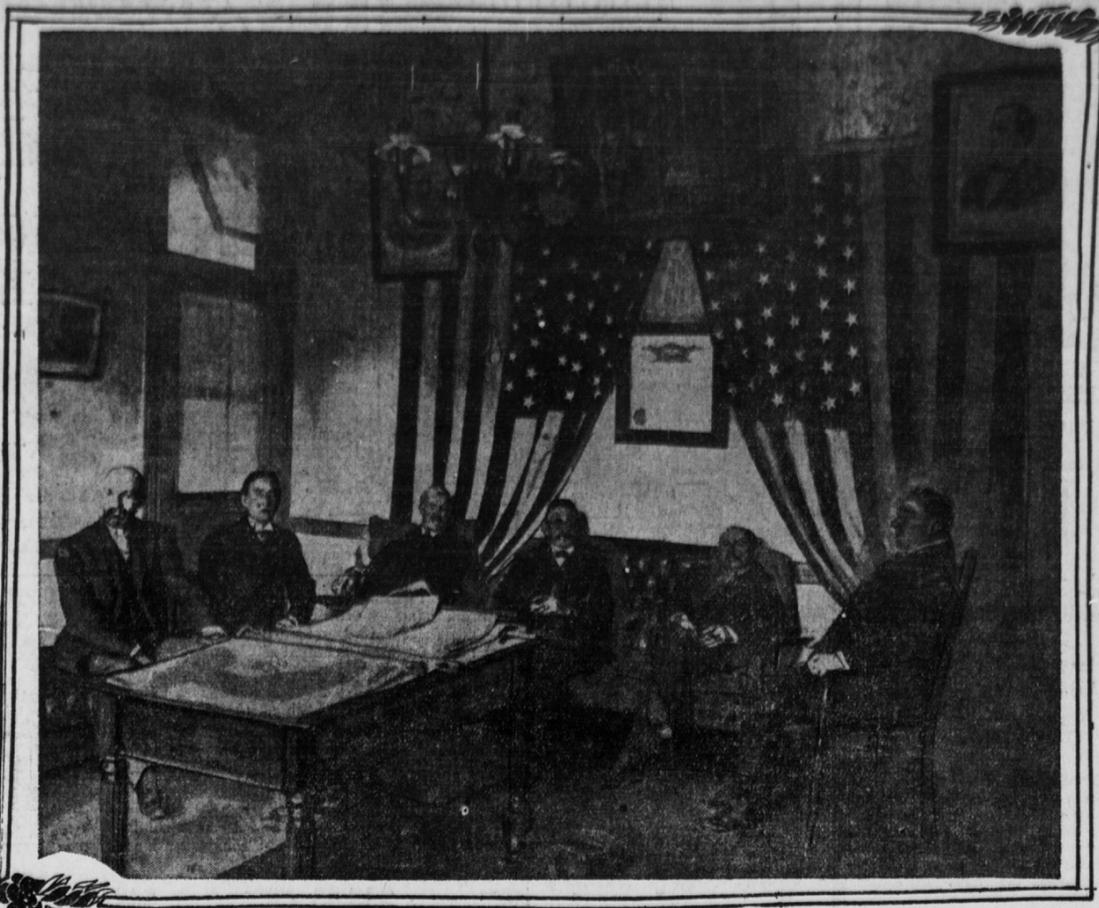

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking, or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectively clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further, acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

CONGRESS ACCEPTS INGALLS STATUE

SENATE POSTPONES ACTION ON FORTIFICATIONS

Sends Notification to House of Reading to Proceed With Swayne Impeachment Trial—No Interest in Statehood Bill

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—After a day devoted to listening to eulogies upon the late Senator John J. Ingalls of Kansas and to the consideration of the bill making appropriations for fortifications, the senate just before adjournment today received from the house notification that that body had named managers to conduct the impeachment proceedings against Charles Swayne, United States district for the northern district of Florida.

The senate immediately adopted a resolution saying that it was prepared to proceed with the matter.

The Ingalls eulogies were delivered in connection with the official presentation by the state of Kansas of the statue of the late senator for statutory hall. The principal address was made by Mr. Long of Kansas.

The fortifications bill was read and pending the consideration of an amendment to strike out the provision for insular fortifications the senate adjourned.

A resolution authorizing the committee on interstate commerce to sit during sessions of the senate in order to permit the taking of testimony on the railroad rate question was passed.

Mr. Dietrich of Nebraska presented but did not read an article written by himself in support of his bill giving local self-government to Alaska.

The senate entered upon the ceremonies incident to the acceptance of the statue of the late John James Ingalls, for eighteen years a member of the United States senate from Kansas.

At the conclusion of the eulogies Mr. Long's resolution accepting the status was adopted and the fortifications bill taken up.

Fortifications Held Up Mr. Teller moved to strike out the provisions of the fortifications for the insular possessions and he and Mr. Gorman criticised the clause because they said it committed the country to a large expense without adequate information.

The clerk of the house arrived with a notification of the appointment of the house managers to conduct the impeachment trial of Judge Swayne. On motion of Mr. Platt of Connecticut, an order was agreed to directing that the house be notified that the senate was ready to receive the house managers.

Mr. Teller gave notice that when the impeachment proceedings were once begun he would insist upon the continued consideration of that matter and would resist any effort to dispose of it with the statehood bill.

Speaking of that bill, he said there was no longer any interest in it and declared that as a rule when it was under consideration not to exceed half a dozen senators on either side of the chamber remained to listen to its discussion.

SENDS SWAYNE CASE TO SENATE

Speaker Cannon Appoints Seven Members to Present Matter By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The house today passed the Indian appropriation bill and then spent several hours paying tribute to the late John J. Ingalls of Kansas. The appropriation was amended only in minor details, $50,000 being added for Indian education.

The exercises attendant on the acceptance of the Ingalls' statue were participated in by many members who spoke feelingly of the Kansas senator. Speaker Cannon announced the appointment of the seven members of this part of the house to present to the senate the Swayne impeachment case, as follows:

Representative Palmer of Pennsylvania, Powers of Massachusetts, Olmstead of Pennsylvania, Perkins of New York, Clayton of Alabama, De Armond of Missouri and Smith of Kentucky. The first four members are Republicans and the remainder are Democrats. All but Messrs. Olmstead and Perkins are members of the judiciary committee. A resolution was agreed to directing the clerk of the house to present to the senate the articles of impeachment.

MURDERED BY SAVAGES

Steamer From New Hebrides Brings Story of Killing of Trader's Wife By Associated Press. VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 21.—Further news was brought by the steamer Miowera of the severe hurricanes in the New Hebrides causing heavy damage.

Many trading vessels were lost in the group and buildings and dwellings destroyed. A Roman Catholic school building at Villa, which was 175 feet long, was lifted bodily by the wind and carried several yards from its foundations.

The Presbyterian mission station was badly damaged.

Natives of the New Hebrides attacked a trading station on Atchon island, close to Malekula in December, wrecked the station and murdered Mrs. Germain, the trader's wife. Germain was visiting an outlying station. The raiders returned to the mainland.

Under the conditions now ruling in the New Hebrides they will not be punished until after a joint conference of the British and French patrolling warships can be held, which may mean a delay of at least six months.

Superior Court Renders Decision in Will Contest Case By Associated Press. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.—The superior court handed down a decision today in favor of George Monnier, jr., contestant in the George Monnier will contest. The jury found that the young man was the legally adopted son of George Monnier and Mrs. Monnier.

WON'T LET SMITH SHED HIS NAME

PATRIOTIC MEMBER OF FAMILY OPPOSES REQUEST

"Jack" Smith Engages Counsel to Prevent T. C. Smith From Changing to T. S. Cuyler

Special to The Herald. NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Smiths everywhere have been called upon to rally and prevent the loss to the family of T. Cuyler Smith, a wealthy cotton broker of 61 East Seventy-second street, who has asked the courts to change his name to Telamon Smith Cuyler.

One patriotic Smith has engaged counsel to prevent the change, and has called upon every lawyer of the Smith name, beginning with Hoke Smith, to take up the case and avert the escape of the New Yorker from the family fold.

Mr. Smith gives an original reason for his desire for a change. He is the last surviving member of his own particular branch of the Smith family, and has decided to go over to the Cuylers out of respect to his relative, Dr. Theodore L. Cuyler, the Brooklyn minister.

Mr. Smith has lived in this city for several years, coming here from Georgia, where he was a neighbor of Hoke Smith, though not a relative. Another neighbor was Jasper N. Smith ("Jack" Smith), a rugged son of the soil, who is one of the unique characters of Atlanta. He is the owner and designer of a remarkably quaint office building in that city known as the "House That Jack Built." It is the latter who has employed counsel, Frank A. Arnold, to prevent the change of name desired by T. Cuyler Smith.

"I do not know him at all," declares "Jack" Smith, referring to the lengthy petition in which T. Cuyler Smith asks for the change of name, "but I did know his father. I am determined to oppose this thing to the end, and while I have employed my own personal counsel, I think that other Smiths ought to volunteer and help in this case. There are Hoke Smith, Alex Smith, Victor Smith, John Clay Smith, Peter Francisco Smith and many other

T. Cuyler Smith said: "I don't care what people think about it or say about it. That man who has started the action to prevent the change of name must be crazy. I shall pay no attention to him. I had the petition fled through my counsel, Madison Bell, and it is in his hands. I do not know whether it has been acted upon or not."

FINDS DEER IN COW BARN

Made Itself at Home and Refused to Leave Its Stall TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 21.—Charles Du Bois, a farmer of Clayton, N. J., went into his barn Saturday morning to milk his cows. He was surprised to find a young deer occupying one of the stalls. The animal had come in from the field with the cows the previous night and was contentedly munching hay.

When Du Bois went near the deer it stroked his arm with its nose. He gave it a drink and some straw to lie on and then opened the door to see if it would leave; but it declined to do so. The deer will continue under the care of Mr. Du Bois until the severe weather is over.
