

REIGN OF TERROR THREATENS CITY

THOUSANDS OF STRIKERS ARE MARCHING ON CAPITAL

Dynamite Factories and the Cronstadt Arsenal Sacked by Revolutionists officers to be seen alone on unpatrolled streets. Two officers were walking on the bank of Ekaterinskala canal yesterday when they were suddenly surrounded by workmen and had to run for their lives.

Cronstadt Arsenal Plundered

It is said workmen at Cronstadt attacked and plundered the arsenal there and are marching on St. Petersburg. It is alleged five sleigh drivers were killed by the strikers for refusing to join the strike.

Sailors at Kieff Mutiny

The Kieff correspondent of the Standard ascribes the recent destruction of the naval depots at Sevastopol to the revolutionary incendiarism, in which the sailors were badly victualled, over on shore in barracks, shared.

City in Terrible Panic

The tension which was somewhat relieved in the morning, continued to increase during the day. Conditions appeared to be ominous, when shortly after dark the workmen in two electric light plants walked out, refusing triple pay to remain and plunged half the city into utter darkness.

grand dukes are especially heavy, and over 20,000 troops are massed at Tsarskoe-Selo.

Factory Districts Deserted The factory and mill districts of the city were practically deserted today. The strikers had no plans for demonstrations and no special meeting points had been arranged.

Toward 5 o'clock, driving up the Nevsky Prospect, the Associated Press correspondent saw through the gathering gloom the blaze of camp fires in the palace square, with the dark forms of troops sitting around them.

The Nevsky Prospect itself was ablaze with light. Strikers and curiosity seekers promenaded the two miles of sidewalk between the Admiralty and the Nicholas station, and squadrons of hussars and cuirassiers rode up and down in endless procession.

Czar Seeks Safety in Flight

The imperial family has fled from Tsarskoe-Selo. After three days and a half of secrecy and frequent changes from palace to palace, the czar hurriedly left Tsarskoe-Selo Monday morning when news arrived that the strikers from Kelpino had chosen the palace there as the goal of their march.

Will Storm City's Market

A report has gained currency that the strikers intend to storm the market in Vassilostrof and seize the provisions there. At Kopolino, twelve miles up the river, a body of workmen, who had started for St. Petersburg to join the strikers, were stopped and fired upon by soldiers.

THIS IS THE VERSION OF SUNDAY'S AFFAIR GIVEN BY GOVERNMENT

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 23.—The story of the events immediately preceding and during yesterday's outbreak, as viewed by official eyes, is given in the Official Messenger as follows: "All attempts of the factory inspectors to pacify the workmen were fruitless, and every worker of the large factories joined the strike, which spread quickly and extended to nearly all the works in the city.

AUSTRIANS BELIEVE REVOLUTION HAS BEGUN IN RUSSIA

VIENNA, Jan. 23.—The occurrences of Sunday in St. Petersburg made the deepest impression here upon all classes and are practically the sole topic of discussion at the principal cafes and clubs. There being no Sunday afternoon papers here, the people did not learn the full story of the St. Petersburg riots until this morning.

square was concealed from the workmen. "Fanatical speeches which Father Gopon, forgetting his clerical dignity, addressed to the men and criminal agitation excited the men to such an extent that on January 23 large crowds proceeded to the center of the city.

At some points bloody collisions occurred between them and the troops in consequence of their refusal to obey the police regulations or owing to their direct attacks on the troops. The latter were obliged to fire in the Schlussetberg causeway, near the Narva Triumphal gate, in Troitki square, and in the fourth line on the Vassilostrof quarter in the Alexander Gardens, at the corner of Nevsky prospect and Gogol street, near the police bridge and at the Kazan cathedral.

The crowd took swords from the policemen and armed themselves therewith. They pillaged Schaff's small arm factory and carried off about 100 swords, a large number of which, however, the police recovered. The crowd destroyed telegraph wires and knocked down poles. The municipal building in the second district was attacked and demolished. In the evening five shops on the St. Petersburg side were plundered.

ANDREW D. WHITE SAYS WEAK MAN LIKE CZAR IS UTTERLY POWERLESS

ITHACA, N. Y., Jan. 23.—Andrew D. White, former ambassador to Russia, one of the best informed Americans on Russian affairs, today made the following statement in regard to the situation in St. Petersburg: "If the czar is a weak man, as the present emperor is, he can do very little. A weak man cannot know anything about the empire to speak of, because he is surrounded by grand dukes, women, etc., who tell him what they want him to believe and keep all the truth away from him, which they do not wish him to hear.

"The main difficulty in the whole case is that the emperor is supposed to do all the thinking for 410,000,000 people scattered over the largest territory possessed by any government in the world, with all sorts of different races, religions and ideas, and this no man can do, and least of all in a time like this.

"The simple fact is that the evils of the old system have now become absolutely intolerable. And when you add to it the sending of immense numbers of the best young men in the country to an utterly useless and wicked war, and the pressure of taxation which grinds the people to the dust, you have a situation which none but the very strongest rulers in all human history can cope with.

HOME MADE AUTO NOW SERVES AS ICE CUTTER

Man Who Built Machine Enters New Business and Adopts Carriage. LEWISTOWN, Pa., Jan. 23.—The automobile has been put to practical use by E. E. Spangler, of this town, who has so equipped his machine that it does duty as an ice saw. Spangler is a mechanical genius and when he came to the conclusion two years ago that he needed an auto in his business he promptly built one capable of running fifteen miles an hour. This winter Spangler entered the ice business and as he needed an ice sawing machine he determined to devote his home-made auto to this purpose.

FIGHT EXPECTED ON YOSEMITE BILL

MEASURE COMES UP IN STATE SENATE TODAY

Curtin Will Make Leading Argument Against Plan to Recede the Valley to the United States Government

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 23.—An unusually spirited debate is expected in the upper house of the legislature tomorrow morning when the bill providing for the recession of the Yosemite valley to the United States comes up for passage on file. The leading argument against the bill will be made by Senator Curtin, who declared tonight that there are enough votes to defeat the measure in the senate.

Another lively scene over patronage is promised in the senate tomorrow morning. The leaders in the movement for economy have discovered that the last list of attaches was passed without the necessary three-fifths vote. They have appealed to the state controller, who declares that the additional employes will not be paid unless it can be shown that they were appointed in a regular manner.

MAY IDENTIFY PRISONER

San Francisco Police Think They Know Pasadena Suspect. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 23.—Detective Dinan, who, with Detective Ed Wren, was detailed to solve the Gundefinger diamond robbery mystery in this city, and who succeeded in bringing the crime home to Andrew Yates, a hillyboy, believes that Gaston, alias Gates, alias James Doyle, alias R. Crandal, who was taken into custody in Los Angeles as a suspect in the diamond robbery in Pasadena, and Yates may be one and the same man.

FAMILY LIVES ON FARM THAT IS BEWITCHED

Once a Year All the Persons Are Seized With a Strange Illness. MIDLAND, Mich., Jan. 23.—Witchcraft—if the experience of the family of Burnbach of Ingersoll township can be charged to that mysterious source—figures even in the twentieth century. In the fall of the year, commencing generally in August, the members of the family are seized with all the symptoms of acute arsenic or strychnine poisoning. There are no symptoms of fever. The first symptoms are retching and vomiting, which is kept up in some instances for days at a time. The victim becomes so weak and exhausted that he takes to his bed.

TELEPHONES ARE KEPT BUSY

"Hello, Central," Shouted 5,070,554, 553 Times in One Year. WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 23.—"Hello, Central!" was shouted 5,070,554,553 times by telephone users in the United States during one year, according to statistics prepared by the census bureau. There was a telephone for every thirty-four persons during the year 1902, and an average of 2190 messages for every telephone, or sixty-five messages for every man, woman and child of a population of 78,576,436 persons. There were 2,315,297 telephones in operation and of these 10,316 were public exchanges and 80,870 public or semi-public stations or telephones used by the general public. The various systems reported 2,178,366 subscribers and 2,224,066 private telephones.

CURE FOR MARITAL TROUBLES

Felix Adler Advises Temporary Separation as Substitute for Divorce. NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Felix Adler, in his lecture to the Ethical Culture society, said that he was opposed to divorce for any cause. He then recommended temporary separation as a possible cure for marital troubles. "What I urge," he said, "as the most extreme punishment for intolerable conditions is separation. Separation is sometimes very good for persons who love one another very dearly. Some persons get a certain mental vertigo when they live long with one another. Give them a little respite, and the chances are that they will meet again with an invigorated affection. Separation to my mind would fill every requirement—there should be no divorce."

NOT DEEMED WORTH DENIAL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Secretary Morton's position in regard to the story printed in the west that he is still receiving salary from the Santa Fe railroad, although serving in President Roosevelt's cabinet, is that such a story, unsupported by any proof of any nature and without the authority of any person, does not require a public denial. The president agrees with him. In private conversation Mr. Morton has characterized the story as an outrageous falsehood. It is so characterized by his friends, who know all the circumstances of his coming into the cabinet. The story has no believers in Washington.

EDEY DIAMONDS ARE RECOVERED

MAY IDENTIFY PRISONER

When D. M. LeNard, manager of Hotel Maryland, announced in the dining-room during dinner last evening that the Edey diamonds had been recovered and the entire credit for their return should be given to Chief Freeman and Capt. Austin, the guests arose and gave three cheers for the two blushing police officers who had been induced to accompany Mr. LeNard to the hotel.
