TO CLAIM BRIDE IN CALIFORNIA

DR. W. H. HALL OF BUTTE WILL WED MRS. MILLER

Marriage, Which Will Take Place in March, Is Interesting Society in Los Angeles, Where Bride to Be Is a Favorite

A handsome and charming young widow, who with her brother and sister has made this coast her home for the past two years is soon to enter the ranks of young matrons again, her engagement to Dr. W. H. Hall of Butte, Mont. having just been announced. The wedding will occur in March and the young couple will make their home in Butte.

Mrs. Miller is a sister of Mrs. W. T. McArthur of this city and of Beauchamp Smith. She is a daughter of the late S. Morgan Smith of York, Pa., and since her father's death has spent much of her time on the coast. Prior to her residence here much of the young woman's time was spent abroad, where with her sister, Mrs. McArthur, she traveled extensively.

Mrs. Miller is bright and talented and her chief diversion here is making long walking tours in the mountains and adjoining country. Dr. Hall is one of the leading surgeons of Butte, and he and his bride will make an extended trip before finally making their home in Butte.

morning, coming here as a delegate from the California club of San Francisco to the state federation, which convenes February 7. She will be entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Roades of 407 West Twenty-third street.

One of the brilliant events of the season was the musical given at the California club on Friday evening by the charming hostess, Mrs. Godfrey Holterhoff, Jr., in honor of Mrs. A. E. McDonald and the Misses Louise and Julia Caldwell of Chicago and Mrs. A. C. Denman.

The decorations for the occasion were simple, being of potted palms and ferns in the reception rooms. In the dining room pink and green were used effectively. The Misses Caldwell are charming young women who live in Chicago, but who, with their father, have spent the past few winters on the coast. This year they are at Redlands, where they will remain until the early summer. At that time Miss Louise Caldwell, who is the possessor of a voice of magnificent range and quality, will return to her studies. Her voice is a soprano of rare quality, which, combined with a pleasing personality and abundance of good looks, will eventually win for her a place of note among the prima donne of the world. A brilliant future has been forecast for her by her unprejudiced friends, and, with the operatic stage in view she is working zealously with the best masters.

Mrs. Holterhoff was assisted by Mrs. Jaro Von Schmidt, Mrs. Hugh McNeill, Mrs. Harry L. Bixby, Mrs. W. W. Lovett, Mrs. Albert Carlos Jones and Miss Waddilove.

During the evening vocal solos were given by Mrs. A. F. McDonald and Mrs. Albert Carlos Jones, Miss Louise Caldwell, all of whom were accompanied by Miss Blanche Rogers.

Mrs. Denman is one of the charming young matrons of Redlands who is well-known here and who divides her time between beaches in the proximity of Los Angeles and Redlands.

Miss Workman is lovingly known among her associates, as the "light and guide" of the settlement work, for which reason the candelabrum was selected as a fitting gift.
