

SEVERAL GOOD THINGS SCORE KINGTHORPE AND DOCTOR C HEAVILY PLAYED

Jim Bozeman Wins the Steeplechase and Easily Disposes of the Favorite, Sceptre—Padua in Front

BY FOREST LOWRY.

Several good things were primed and turned loose yesterday at Ascot, Kingthorpe, winner of the second race, was played heavily and scored a lucky victory. Manera, the favorite refused to break and burnt up a ton of the public's money. Sincado, which ran third, was probably best, but had to be satisfied with third money as the result of a poor beginning. Chalk Hedrick with Kingthorpe beat the barrier and the pair raced out in front at a break-neck speed. Sincado, six lengths away from the leaders on the far turn, came through with a much belated rush, but was not there with enough to get up to the pair in front. Swinging into the stretch Kingthorpe faltered a bit, swerved and almost knocked Sincado to his knees. The former came on again and got up in plenty of time to beat Chalk Hedrick for the money. Sincado finished gamely and made the boy on Hedrick hustle a bit to get the place honors. Kingthorpe opened at 6 to 1 and at post time the best price was 4 to 1.

Jim Bozeman Wins

A free handicap steeplechase for four-year-olds and upwards was the real attraction yesterday at Ascot. The event was down on the program first and a field of seven left the paddock. Can Nell declined the issue early in the day. On the way to the post Jockey Waterbury, who had the mount on Jack Habert, attempted to meet the starter by way of the water jump, and in schooling Jack over the hedge met with a mishap which resulted in a spill for both rider and horse. The animal sprained his shoulder and was unable to face the starter. The boy was set down for "the balance of the season, while the horse was led away on three legs.

L. A. Bonsack's Sceptre, which has shown up remarkably as a fence taker, in plain every-day hurdle races, was made favorite in this event, and was looked upon by the wise Johnnies as the real candy. He was backed as though it were all over and went to the post first choice in the betting. The weight and his unfamiliarity with the infield told on him, and after being prominent for part of the distance faded away to nothing and finished a bad fourth.

The winner of this affair, which was a burlesque, turned up in Jim Bozeman, who was as good as 9 to 2 at post time. Decimo, at 3 to 1, was second, and May Holladay third. Casador fell at the third jump.

Emperor of India Scores

Emperor of India, always favorite, and closing at 13 to 10, won the mile and seventy yard event, third on the card, from Waswift and Arabo, the only other starters. In the first betting Hans Wagner, who was ordered scratched because of his lameness, was backed from 5 to 1 to 4 to 1. His owner, J. E. Cushing, saw that his horse was being played, and when he noticed that Hans was inclined to limp he went to the judges and asked them to excuse the gelding.

Arabo and Waswift shot to the front at the release of barrier and cut out a killing pace. The pair ran stride for stride for seven furlongs and incidentally raced one another's eyes out, and when the pinch came neither was there to stall off Emperor of India, who lay in close behind the pace-makers all the way. When Miller made his move he found the Emperor ready and willing, and he had enough in reserve to leave the pair ten lengths behind at the end.

One More for Wee Girl

Connie Stuenkel's Wee Girl, for whom he paid $250 and who has won her only two starts for him, had no trouble in disposing of the nine 2-year-olds which went to the post in the fourth race. Wee Girl, around 7 to 5, and well played, never left the result in doubt after the rise of the barrier. Sand Storm, away flying, was soon raced into submission by the Stuenkel trick, and after taking the lead she left her field trailing far behind. Sand Storm, played from 8 to 1 to 4 to 1, flattered her backers for a brief spell, but could not hang on when Wee Girl came up. Walsh's keen urging just did keep her up long enough to stall off the fast coming Expressing.

Easy for Padua

"Kansas" Price's Padua, receding in the betting from 8 to 5 to 5 to 2, won the fifth race on the card, which was for 3-year-olds and upward. Seven faced the barrier and they were asked to go over a mile of ground. Dod Anderson got most of the play and went to the post a heavily played favorite at 3 to 2. Dissipation was backed down from 10 to 1 to 7 to 1, while Patsy Brown came in for considerable support at 16 to 1. Jimmie McLaughlin's Del Coronado, played across the boards at 15 to 5 and 5 to 2, netted a nice sum for his followers by finishing second to Padua. Dod Anderson, the favorite, was third. Murphy's mare went out in front with Padua and the pair set a gruelling pace. Anderson succumbed first and was ready to lie down when Del Coronado came and snatched the place from her.

Sea Sick Loses

Dr. C. with "Puddin'" McDaniels in the saddle, won the closing event on the card, which was for 3-year-olds and upwards. Eleven faced the barrier and the prices ranged all the way from 2 to 1 on Sea Sick to 30 to 1 on Harka. Nannon, Sportsman and Palmist, White Stone, with Walsh up, was figured to have a chance and was held at 7 to 1 in the chalks. The winner, Dr. C., at 5 to 1 opening and closing at 2 to 1, got away flying, and under keen urging easily held the others safe. Sportsman held on longer than usual and managed to last long enough to stall off Sea Sick. The latter got away poorly and was badly cut off at the three-eighths pole. The boy had to take the overland route, which practically cost the gray filly the race.

TRACK NOTES

Jockey Waterbury put Jack Habert over the water jump while the horses were on the way to the post. The horse fell and wrenched his shoulder, and the balance of the field was sent away without him. Jockey Waterbury fractured his shoulder and was sent to the emergency hospital.

Sceptre in the same race stopped to a walk, as the bandages he wore on his hind legs became untied and interfered with his running. This one prefers to go over the hurdles on the main track.

Kingthorpe, the "good thing," rewarded his backers and at one time looked beaten at the head of the stretch. Jockey Miller wisely took him back for a rush at the end, which won for him. He was backed from 8 to 3 1/2 to 1 at post time.

Manera, the favorite, had no chance at the start, as she refused to break. Tab Sincado. With an even break he would have made things interesting for the winner, as he closed up a world of ground.

Chalk Hedrick ran a cracking good race and will win soon. In his last start he was backed from 50 to 4 to 1 and ran out. Yesterday he went to the post practically unbacked at the juicy odds of 15 to 1.

L. W. Nute sold Girdlestone to James Curt for $1000.

J. K. Fraying exchanged Laureate to Finch & Co. for Lonweisa.

Golden Boy, who was in the hands of J. Weber, has been turned over to C. V. Tupper to be trained. Golden Boy was badly kicked at the post in his last start.

All bets were declared off in the third race and twenty minutes allowed for a new book. Hans Wagner was scratched, as the owner asked the judges to excuse him, as the horse was lame. It would be a good idea if other owners would follow this example, instead of sending their horses to the post in an unfit condition.

Sand Storm was the medium of a big plunge, but was not good enough. She beat the barrier and Walsh hustled her all the way, and just did manage to save the place from the "express train." Expressing, who would have won with an even break.

That what ran a clever race and acted a little green. Will bear watching.

There was a heavy play on Dod Anderson, but she was not good enough and appeared to be anchored by the heavy impost.

Watch Respiator when he runs in the class where he belongs, as he will win soon.

A rumor got around among the bettors that Waswift was being played by Joe Yeager in the pool rooms at Hot Springs, and a good many who played Emperor of India hedged their bets and put a flyer on Waswift.

H. McDaniels, who trains for H. M. Tichenor & Co., has decided not to send Dalva to Oakland to start in the Burns handicap, as the condition of the track will not be to Dalva's liking.

An exercise boy in the employ of J. K. Fraying, while galloping Daisy Bronck, was thrown heavily against the fence. Outside of a shaking up, he escaped from any other injuries.

Both Oxford and Dutful, now racing at the local track, are sons of Faraday. The old gray sire certainly marks his get so there is no mistaking them. He not only stamps them with his own color of gray, but they seem also to inherit the speed which was his. Both Oxford and Dutful have won races on the same day at Ascot park.

The attention of owners and trainers is called to the stakes of Delmar, Kinloch and St. Louis Fair association, all of which close today.

George Smith ("Pittsburg Phil") is reported as sufficiently recovered to sit up a part of each day. He is in a private sanitarium at Asheville, N. C., and has been critically ill. His physicians and friends, have been greatly encouraged by his recent improvement.

Up to the present time the new California Jockey club has distributed $186,000 in purses and stakes. The following owners have won $2000 or more:
