

place at the same time. A large number of the graduates of the school were present. Professor Bragdon of this city has been for many years the president of the institution, although of late years his winters have been spent in this city with his family.

The eleventh wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Sparks was celebrated at their home at 497 South El Molino avenue Tuesday evening in a very pleasant but informal manner. About forty-five guests were present and the evening was merrily passed with various games and music. The decorations for the affair were of unusual beauty, the color scheme being pink and green, with many Japanese lanterns. The hostess was the recipient of a number of pretty and appropriate gifts, and was assisted in entertaining her guests by Mrs. V. F. Lockett, Mrs. E. Hoglan and Mrs. Fred Pierce.

Marshall Darrach of New York city is to appear in recitals of Shakespeare's plays in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium three successive Tuesday evenings in February, beginning at 8:15. "Twelfth Night" will be the subject for February 7, "Julius Caesar" on the 14th, and the "Comedy of Errors" on the 21st. Mr. Darrach appeared here two years ago, and was given a most kindly reception, his recitals being well attended.

Several members of the Scudery club of Des Moines, Iowa, had a very pleasant reunion this week, being entertained by Mrs. Kerr of North Marengo avenue in honor of her mother, Mrs. Bacon, who is the oldest and yet perhaps the youngest member in the club, being 90, yet actively interested in all the affairs of the club. Mrs. L. F. Andrews, for twenty-five years its president, was also a guest of honor. Mrs. Bacon recited in a remarkably clear, steady voice several selected poems and bright, original verses. A dainty four-course luncheon was served, at which the profusion of fragrant violets was most astonishing to the eyes of the recently arrived Iowans.

Main Masters has gone to Texas to recover from a serious attack of pneumonia, and Miss Della Masters is up in the mountains getting over an attack of the grip.

Hallett West, George Lincoln Pettit, George G. Green and Robert Brooks spent last Sunday and Monday at Mount Wilson, and greatly enjoyed the trip.

Mrs. William Kimball, a former Pasadena, who has spent much of the past few years in Palo Alto, is at present a guest of her aunt, Mrs. Albert Hatch, at the Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Ross of Colorado were among the distinguished guests at Hotel Green this week.

Elaborate Reception
Miss Etta Schumacher gave a reception to the Iota Sigma Chi club of W. B. Shaw's Sunday school Bible class of Christ church parish in her elegant home, 2816 Halldale avenue, on Thursday evening, February 2.

The members of the club helped make the evening delightfully enjoyable by rendering the following literary and musical program: Piano solo, selection, "Il Trovatore," Clarence Thompson; reading, "Ask Mamma," Raymond Sparling; mandolin solo, W. C. Koebig; song, "Love's Sorrow" (Shelley), Vernon Mason; song, "Song of a Heart" (Tunnison), Charles D. Lewys; mandolin and guitar, "Zenda Waltzes," Walter and Perry Stamps and Alphonse Traversy; song, "Heidelberg" ("Prince of Pilsen"), J. T. Rodgers, chorus, Lewys, Lobdell and Eisen; reading, "His Financial Career," Mrs. L. C. Wright; vocal quartet, "Story of a Tack," Messrs. Lewys, Rodgers, Eisen and Lobdell. Mrs. C. M. Newman played the piano accompaniments for the singers during the evening and later gave a rendition of "The Palms." Miss Horgan and Miss Yarnell gave humorous readings.

The following members of the club were present: Charles D. Lewys, Percy D. Eisen, Vernon D. Mason, H. K. Pierce, Walter Stamps, Perry Stamps, C. W. Koebig, A. Traversy, L. W. Burdette, R. W. Sparling, C. L. Wright, C. B. Lacey, W. H. Harrison, Clarence Thompson, J. Karl Lobdell and W. B. Shaw; Meses. Newman and Stamps; Misses Eva Heart, Jackson, Yarnell, York, Horgan, Greene, McLaughlin, Stamps, and the family of Mrs. Schumacher and daughters, Misses Etta, Anna and Marie.

Ninth Anniversary
Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Eichner celebrated the ninth anniversary of their wedding at their home, 323 North Hill street, Monday evening. Progressive whist was the game for the evening. Miss Dorothy Hulter carried off the first woman's prize, and Mr. Carpenter the first man's. An elaborate supper was served at 11 o'clock. The dining room was decorated in violets and ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Eichner received many beautiful presents. Mrs. Eichner was gowned in cream embroidered mull. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter, Mr. Campfield, Mr. and Mrs. Hausteiner, Mr. and Mrs. Thede, Mr. and Mrs. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Graves, Miss Curtis, Miss Dorothy Hulter, Miss Bessie Kettle, Miss Salma Kettle.

Enjoyable Affair
Many enjoyable social affairs are being given by the students of the Los Angeles College of Fine Arts, U. S. C., at the picturesque college building overlooking the Arroyo Seco, Garvanza. Several of the students gave an ice cream spread last Monday in honor of the birthday of Miss Rose Pitcher, the gold medal student of the college for 1904. The main classroom was artistically decorated for the occasion in the college colors, green and white. The table was ornamented with pretty trailing vines and geraniums. Miss Myrtle C. Godfrey acted as toastmistress, several students making clever responses

SOCIETY HAS WELCOME FOR FAIR SAN FRANCISCO GIRL

MISS FLORENCE SCATENA, A SAN FRANCISCO BELLE WHO HAS BEEN VISITING HERE

NORTHERN BELLE FETED IN SOUTH

MISS FLORENCE SCATENA IS MUCH ADMIRER

WILL VISIT LOS ANGELES AGAIN ON THE OCCASION OF HER BROTHER'S MARRIAGE TO MISS DENKER

Miss Florence Scatena, a northern belle, whose home is in San Francisco, has just completed a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Secondo Guasti, in whose company she left recently for her home. Miss Scatena is one of the pretty young women who has gained fame, not only for her brilliant brunette coloring but her gracious manner and accomplishments. While in Los Angeles the young woman was joined by her brother, Dr. Arthur Gianini, also of San Francisco, whose engagement to Miss Denker of this city was announced in the autumn. The talented young doctor and his sister were widely feted and their next visit will be made on the occasion of the marriage of Dr. Gianini and Miss Denker, at which event Miss Scatena will be a bridesmaid.

to the toasts. The spread closed with the students wishing the young woman many happy returns of the day and success in her artistic career, each holding aloft a lighted candle. The following participated: Mesdames Dando, Langworthy and Bell, Misses Edna Marion Blumve, Florence Winter, Alma May Cook, Myrtle C. Godfrey, Marguerite Pratt, Rose Pitcher, Laura Tupman, Mammie Lee, Ava Wells and Clarence Tritt.

Whist Club
Miss Cassa Bell of 2707 La Salle avenue delightfully entertained the members of the West Adams Pointsettia Whist club Thursday evening, February 2. The house was decorated with the club colors, red and green. Whist was played. The young men then found their partners by means of small cards and partook of light refreshments, which were served in the dining room on a long table, with a beautiful bouquet of poinsettias as a centerpiece.

After the refreshments were served Miss Althea Salyer and Fred Stewart gave a vocal duet which was much enjoyed. Miss Hazel Ralphs and Miss C. Bell also gave a piano duet. Miss Althea Salyer and W. Ralphs were awarded first prizes, while the consolation fell to L. Harris. Those present: Misses Hazel Ralphs, Lula Bonsack, Effie Ripley, F. Nichols, C. Doll, Mildred Bonsack, Althea Salyer and Lala Nichols, Messrs. Fred Stewart, Frank Salyer, L. Harris, Jesse Sturgeon, Ray Harris, Walter Ralphs, Edward Nichols and George C. Bell. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss L. Nichols, 2821 La Salle avenue.

Trolley Whist Club
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zucker of 1614 South Grand avenue entertained Trolley Whist club members at their last meeting, being assisted by Miss Grace Fuller and Miss Anna Zucker. There were present Mr. and Mrs. Donn A. Judd, Dr. and Mrs. T. M. Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reed, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Routahn, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Brock, Mrs. M. J. Smith and Mrs. C. H. Hurd. Scores for the games were kept on cards ornamented with "Buster Brown" sketches, the brush work of Miss Zucker, and souvenir spoons were awarded as prizes. These were won by Mr. and Mrs. Reed. Late in the evening refreshments were served in the dining room, where in a pretty floral decoration red was the predominating color.

Harmony Whist Club
Mrs. Marian Welsh of 748 Garland avenue will entertain members of the Harmony Whist club at their next meeting, announced to take place Wednesday afternoon, February 15. At their meeting Wednesday they were guests of Mrs. U. T. Cloefelter of 723 Rampart street, who, in keeping with the approaching Valentine season, had decorated her home with a charming arrangement of red geraniums, poinsettias and red-shaded lights. A silver tea strainer, awarded as first prize for the games, was won by Mrs. Frank Boag, while the second, a gold bonbon spoon, fell to Mrs. W. A. Harris. Guests of the club for the afternoon were Mrs. Edward Quimby, Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mrs. Garfield, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Walter Smith and Miss Smith.

Pointsettia Whist Club
Mrs. Lee Thurber entertained the members of the Pointsettia Whist club at her home on Temple street Thursday afternoon. Mrs. E. M. Morrison and Mrs. G. S. Jones received the highest score and were awarded the first prizes. (Continued on Page Seven)
