FORECAST FUTURE EVENTS
Dr. Tyndall, Psychologist, Gives Views on Subject

The question of prediction, or forecasting future events, is one that has been very generally discussed among those who have given much thought to psychic research, and indisputable examples of prophecy seem to be inconsistent with the accepted idea that man makes his own destiny.

Olivet Meeting
Rev. Mr. Tillman Hobson spoke at the Olivet Congregational church last evening, taking his text from II Corinthians 5:10. He said:

"We must all gather at the judgment seat of God to give an account of the deeds done in the body. There is one thing in the world which men do not doubt and that is death."

"There was once a 10-year-old boy who asked his father of whom the picture hanging on the wall was, to which the father answered that it was a likeness of his grandfather and grandmother. The child asked why they did not come to see them, and on receiving the reply that they had gone away, asked if they did not love them. The father said: 'They have gone away, are dead and were dead long before you were born. Don't bother me with any more questions: I haven't time.' Twenty years later that man lay dying, when the boy of the yester years asked him if he were any more ready for death than he had been twenty years ago, when he had not had time to even talk of it. He said: 'Don't talk about it now; it is too late.'"

Many Conversions
The Boyle Heights Methodist church was taxed to its utmost seating capacity at the union services last evening.

MISS EDITH LEMMERT

ROLE IS LEARNED ON SHORT NOTICE

VISITING ACTRESS WILL PLAY IN HOME CITY

Belasco Management Secures Services of Miss Lemmert for Their Production of Prisoner of Zenda

Miss Edith Lemmert, the well known Los Angeles actress, who is visiting at the home of her father, P. M. Lemmert, 2324 Menlo avenue, came to the aid of the management of the Belasco theater stock company at a late hour Friday night and consented to play the role of Antoinette in "The Prisoner of Zenda."

Saw Play Only Twice
Miss Lemmert had only witnessed two performances of "The Prisoner of Zenda." This was when she was playing in Boston with Kirk La. Shelle's production of "Arizona," in which she had the important role of Estrella.

The management of the Belasco theater is confident that the production of "The Prisoner of Zenda" that will be given at the popular Main street playhouse tonight will be one of the most elaborate presentations of the stage version of the Anthony Hope story that has ever been seen in this city.

We want everyone in this vicinity to feel at home here. It is your store; it belongs to the public, and we intend that it shall be conducted in a manner consistent from every point with the public's wishes and comfort.

Nearly every family in Los Angeles think firstly of this store when needing such goods as are sold here, because in past

For a decisive judgment on any question of style in women's costumes, suits, coats and waists, Coulter's is the final tribunal. This supremely authoritative position has been fully earned. It is the outcome of long years of successful assemblage of the world's best creations in all these lines, and of unceasing efforts to better every past season's record.

One of the new suits is of blue and white mixed imported mohair, long fitted coat and pleated skirt; price $48.50. Another is of green Panama; short coat, trimmed with silk braid, made with fancy vest front, new pleated skirt; price $35.00.

A very handsome black silk suit of fine Swiss taffeta—is in coat style (tailor effect), surplice front, applique trimmed, shirred full sleeves; skirt is made with the new tucked yoke, panel front and full gathered flounce. The price of this suit is $37.50.

Suit of chameleon silk, full blouse shirred jacket, yoke effect, lace and braid trimming; fancy skirt with shirred yoke; price $75.00. Another is of apple green taffeta silk, fancy waist in coat effect over white vest front; pleated and tucked skirt; price $88.50.

New Silks--Exclusive Styles Laces--Exquisite Novelties

The loom wit of the 20th Century is admirably reflected in this matchless showing of new silks—including every authoritative style.

Crepe de Chines in all the new colorings—the leather shades taking the lead; 24 inches wide; $1.00 and $1.50.

Hand-Spun Indian Silks

The very newest of the rough silks for shirt waist suits and coats—similar to the heavy pongees of the past season; brown, medium green and natural; 27 inches wide; $1.75 a yard.

Tartan checks and plaids—the new blue and green combinations—in poplinette; half silk and half wool; $1.00 a yard.

Late colorings in the fancy shirt waist silks, including the popular plaids; $1.25 a yard.

Popinettes in solid colors—navy blue, myrtle green and two shades of brown; $1.00 a yard.

We announce the readiness of our new Spring stock of Laces, which easily surpasses the showing of any former season, not only in the wide variety, but the exclusiveness and absolute CORRECTNESS of the styles.

The new laces may be divided into two classes—heavy and light.

Among the latter "Point Gause" is most prominent—very closely resembling real lace, in rose point.

The heavy effects, however, seem to predominate, one style being an Irish crochet on Swiss foundation.

Raised effects are most popular—and the Bell pattern is everywhere.

The heavy effects are mostly on net—many of them being very elaborate, in applique and Irish point embroidery.

The buttonhole design in old English embroidery on net is particularly pretty.

The new laces come in white, oyster white, cream and ecru.

Many of the more exclusive styles are shown in match patterns—bands, insertions, edges, flounces and all-overs.

Children's Undermuslins

Annual February Sale

An event that has been a feature of this store for many years—as important, in its way, as our January sales of Undermuslins for women.

We know how, and DO provide perfect-fitting undergarments for girls, at less than others charge; an assertion that is fully substantiated by the unqualified preference of thousands of mothers.

Drawers of good muslin, hemstitched ruffle and cluster of tucks—or with lace trimmings; for children of 1 to 7 years; 25c—regularly sold at 35c and 40c. Larger sizes at 30c and 40c.

Cambric drawers, with gathered ruffle and three hemstitched tucks—for children of 1 to 5 years, 50c value at 35c. For 6 to 11 years, 40c; larger sizes, 50c.

Knickerbocker drawers of cambric, trimmed with embroidery beading and baby ribbon, ages 1 to 5 years, value 75c, at 60c. From 5 to 11 year sizes, 65c. Larger sizes, 70c.

Drawers of fine cambric, deep lawn ruffle, Mechlin lace beading and edging, baby ribbon—all sizes at 70c; worth $1.25.

Many other styles, including the finer qualities, at like reductions.

DOWNPOUR ADDS TO HEAVY LOSS

RAILROAD TRACKS WASHED OUT BY STORM

Street Car Companies Have Difficulty Keeping Lines Open and Many Suburbanites Spend Night in City

Hatfield's prophecy of eighteen inches of rainfall for Los Angeles and vicinity this season becomes more of a reality with every day that passes.

After a respite of fourteen hours from the wrath of Jupiter Pluvius Los Angeles ushered in another rainfall at 10 o'clock last night. Within half an hour the gutters were running full, street intersections in the business portion where the water ran down from the hill became small lakes and the opportunity for boating along Spring and Broadway was again present.

WASHOUTS IN ARIZONA

Telegraph Lines Down and Damage on Maricopa & Phoenix Road

By Associated Press PHOENIX, Feb. 5.—Western Union wires are down at the Gila river bridge of the Maricopa & Phoenix railroad, and though no definite reports have been received, it is rumored that a hundred feet of cribbing, made to repair the former break in the bridge, has been washed away.

The company hopes to transfer passengers tomorrow, but this is unlikely. The Phoenix & Eastern train service reaches as far as Florence only. The Santa Fe train due here early Saturday morning is to arrive some time this evening, but no train will depart until Monday morning.

CAN ONE SANDWICH BE CALLED A MEAL?

Police See That Saloons of City Observe the Sabbath Day

Does a bottle of beer and a sandwich constitute a dinner? Captain Auble is convinced that it does not, even if the sandwich is a hot one. Because Captain Auble and the police commissioners entertain similar views on the quantity of food which may consistently be called a dinner, many of the six-day saloons seventh-day restaurants went out of business yesterday.

The same close watch of a week ago was kept by the police on those places which are under suspicion, but no violations of the city ordinance could be detected. The number of those places to close up yesterday was in the ascendancy over that of a week ago.
