

CZAR WILLING TO GRANT REFORMS

HOLDS A CONFERENCE WITH TOLSTOI'S SON

Opinion Expressed by Letter That Disturbances Will Not Spread and That War Will End Satisfactorily

By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 11, 11:50 p. m.—I am not opposed to a Zemsky-Zabor; on the contrary I believe it is necessary.

In these words Emperor Nicholas, whose mind is law, personally declared himself in favor of a land congress, and expressed the conviction that the time had come to prepare to give the people a voice in government.

The emperor's words were spoken in the course of a conversation with Count Leo Donivitch Tolstol, son of the famous author, and fully confirm the Associated Press interview with Grand Duke Vladimir on January 31, in which the grand duke expressly declared that his august nephew was in favor of a Zemsky-Zabor. The semi-official denials subsequently sent out are now disproved by the sovereign's statement to Count Tolstol.

Tolstol's Son Interviewed

The Associated Press correspondent this evening saw Count Tolstol in a comfortable house facing the Tsauris Gardens. Speaking in excellent English, Count Tolstol said: "I suppose you have come to hear about my audience at Tsarskoe Selo. I cannot enter into details because I consider it unseemly to do so, but I am glad to state the broad lines of conversation with my sovereign. His majesty summoned me after receiving a memorial which I addressed to the throne exposing the present situation in the country, and humbly expressing the opinion that the interest of the nation shows urgent need of devising means for enabling the sovereign to hear the voice of the people and recommending the convocation of a Zemsky-Zabor. His majesty assured me that personally he was not opposed to its convocation but, on the contrary, believed it necessary. The whole question is now greatly simplified and resolves itself to when is the most opportune moment.

"I am not at liberty to relate the emperor's views on the subject, but you may announce to the American people that the delay will only be such as is strictly necessary for the introduction of an innovation of such magnitude.

Zemsky-Zabor is the Thing "The great thing is that the emperor is in favor of the Zemsky-Zabor. This dispels the legends obtaining currency abroad or at home that the sovereign mistrusts the people and is absolutely opposed to the idea of a representative national assembly. These legends have caused immense harm and have sown suspicion and discontent among the people, leading to unrest and agitation and aggravating labor movements; whereas, if the Russians only understood the situation, they would refrain from rendering the task of the reformer well-nigh impossible.

"None the less, I am optimistic, and believe he will succeed after all in bringing the war to a satisfactory conclusion. Then everything will assume its natural course, and reforms, including national representation, will be introduced on a sound basis."

DEMANDS OF STRIKERS

Lodz Manufacturers Consider Concessions Made Are Liberal

By Associated Press. LODZ, Feb. 11.—The fifteenth day of the strike finds the situation here apparently no clearer than the day on which the movement began. The condition of affairs briefly is: There are 100,000 strikers in Lodz and its vicinity and the strikers demand an eight-hour day with pay at the rate of 20 kopecks (10 cents) an hour, which is between three and four times the present rate of pay. These demands, which are considered extravagant, added to the fact that the liberal concessions granted by employers have not been accepted, are taken as proof that the strike is a political rather than a labor movement.

Manufacturers offer a ten-hour day, with an increase of wages of from 5 to 15 per cent, and also agree to reduce rents for workmen's dwellings. They issued an ultimatum this morning that unless the strikers accept their terms and return to work Monday the mills will be closed indefinitely.

Business at Lodz is at complete standstill. The street railway service has been suspended and shops open for few customers. The strikers mostly remain in their homes. Soldiers are everywhere in evidence. They are guarding all strategic points and are constantly patrolling the streets. A regiment of Cossacks and infantry are coming to Lodz Sunday.

No disturbances occurred here today and no trouble was reported at Sosnowice. The governor in an interview with the Associated Press said: "My official reports from Sosnowice show that thirty-three persons were killed."

DIES IN THE THEATER

By Associated Press. REDLANDS, Feb. 11.—Mrs. J. P. McElroy of Los Angeles, formerly of Philadelphia, died suddenly while filling an engagement as a vocalist in a local theater. She was found dead in her dressing room when the call came for her appearance on the stage.

Mrs. McElroy was well known, it is said, in the musical world in the east. She came to California only a short time ago.

Wreck Sold at Auction

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—The wreck of the steamer Glen Island, which was sunk in Hempstead harbor, Long Island sound, and the fire aboard the vessel that cost nine lives, has been sold at auction for $67,000 by the purchasers. If the sale is approved by the courts the proceeds, less expenses, will be divided among such persons as shall prove claims for damages against the vessel's owners.

CZAR'S CAPITAL EASIER

Many Workmen on Strike but Troops Preserve Order

By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 12.—St. Petersburg breathed easier today, the apprehensions of a general resumption of the strike having proved unjustified and the strikers having manifested no inclination to resort to measures such as those of January

22. Dispatches from all parts of the empire show a distinct improvement in the industrial situation, except in Poland and the Caucasus, and the great tidal wave of economic disturbance which swept over the entire land as a sequence to the historic upheaval in St. Petersburg in January is now believed to be on the ebb. Remnants of this general strike movement still exist in many quarters in Russia, and the industrial classes are so far from being contented that a recurrence of the wave cannot be omitted from future calculation.

The Danger Spots

In Poland and the Caucasus regions indeed the strike continues in full vigor, the week bringing bloody collisions between strikers and troops at Sosnowice and ending in a full resumption of the walk-out at Warsaw. But these sections at present have peculiar industrial conditions differing from the rest of the empire. Baku, Batoum, Tiflis and other cities of the Caucasus are chronic strike breeders, and the problem in Poland is complicated by the large mass of strikers and those made idle on account of the depression caused by the war.

The St. Petersburg strike is neither diminished nor increased. The industrial quarters southeast of the city in which are located the Putloff iron works and the St. Petersburg car works are largely idle, and the men of two establishments in the Viborg quarter and of one in Vassilostroff joined the strike, but employes in general finished the week without quitting, giving employers further time to agree as to concessions. Measures taken by the authorities to prevent proselyting in force by strikers were entirely effective and of effect of certain concessions by the Putloff iron works also had its effect on the temper of the workmen.

No Demonstration Planned

There will be no demonstration unless it is a spontaneous one, the strikers having no plans for such a demonstration as they had on the eve of the January 22 slaughter, and in the absence of plans for concerted action the force of police and military seems ample to preserve order. With Governor General Treppoff at the helm and the workmen convinced that the troops will obey orders, there is little prospect of general disorder.

The Narva quarter, for example, is everywhere strongly picketed, and a bugle signal will concentrate six companies at a given point in a few minutes. Like arrangements have been made in other manufacturing sections and an adequate force is on hand to preserve order in the center of the city.

The employers have not arrived at a decision as to concessions to the strikers, and many of them, tiring of the dilatoriness of the others, are already attempting to satisfy the men on their own account.

The occurrences of January 22 are being made the subject of an exhaustive extra legal inquiry by St. Petersburg attorneys, a commission of whom is examining witnesses and gathering evidence from physicians in order to establish the number of victims which, up to the present, is only approximately known. The commission also will endeavor to ascertain the causes of the trouble and fix the responsibility.

WAR SUCCESES LEND ADDED ZEST TO CORONATION FESTIVITIES

By Associated Press. TOKIO, Feb. 11, 2 p. m.—Today, the anniversary of the coronation of the first emperor of Japan, is being generally celebrated throughout the empire, the war successes giving additional zest to the celebration. Tokio and all the principal cities are decorated. The emperor received at lunch a party including the nobles, officers and diplomatic corps, numbering in all 600. The emperor toasted the powers represented at the luncheon, and Baron d'Anethan, ambassador from Belgium and dean of the diplomatic corps, responded on behalf of the foreign representatives. Count Katsura, premier of the empire, responded for the Japanese government.

Darky Has Chat in Original Gaelic With Mike the Doorman

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—Just before dawn this morning the door of the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street police station opened and let in a black man.

"Ah, there, ma lubly flower, what can we all do for you all?" said Sergeant Liebers.

"The top of the marnin' to ye," was the black man's reply. "I'm after losing me job the day, an' me feet's tired wid trampin', so I thought maybe ye'd let me sit forinist the fire for a

ONE STOLEN KISS COSTS HIM $500

Man Piffers a Smack in Cleveland and Sets a Prohibitive Price on Osculation

Special to The Herald. CLEVELAND, Feb. 11.—"One stolen kiss, $500!" That was the strange record on a slip of paper turned over to the city treasury by Police Clerk Schreiber. With the slip were five crisp $100 gold certificates. The money represented a fleeting moment's indiscretion on the part of one Henry Hoffman, who came here with $1075 to see the sights.

Hoffman piffered just one little kiss from the peachy cheek of a Cleveland girl and sent the market up to what is now regarded as prohibitive figures. The theft was committed a week ago. Hoffman had been taking views of Cleveland through the bottoms of varicolored glasses. Then he wandered out to see the beauties of the falling snow. Just at that moment he caught a glimpse of a pair of mischievous eyes peeping from behind a fluffy bon. Pink cheeks and 'witching lips lured the wayfarer on.

Hoffman caught the tempter in his arms and planted a kiss on one of her cheeks. Out of a doorway popped a policeman, awakened by the smack. He rudely seized Hoffman.

"Oh, please let him go," pleaded she of the outraged cheek. "He didn't mean it, and, besides, it was only—"

But the law would not relent. The girl would not make a complaint. But the policeman arrested Hoffman.

"Disturbing the peace" was the charge. Outdoor smacks come under the head of "disturbance" in Cleveland. Hoffman put up $500 cash bail. When the case came up for hearing yesterday he failed to appear, and so the money was forfeited to the city. The court said the presumption was that the defendant regarded the kiss as worth the money.

WOMEN KISS CANINE PETS AND ALL SOON BECOME ILL

Try to Win a Wager That They Can Do It Every Day for a Month, and Disasters Follow

Special to The Herald. ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 11.—Can a woman kiss a dog once a day for thirty days? As the result of a bet on this subject at Mountain lake one woman is seriously ill, five others are under a physician's care, three dogs are dead, and other canines are exhibiting strange symptoms.

It all came about from a wager made by John Angelhardt, a wealthy church member, to six women prominent in aid society work in the church. At a meeting of the Aid society Angelhardt was much amused at Miss Nettleson's custom of frequently kissing a favorite poodle on the mouth. His merriment provoked the other women, and all declared they were in the habit of kissing their dogs and thought it a nice custom.

Angelhardt then made the wager that the six could not kiss their dogs once a day for thirty days, the act to be performed immediately after breakfast. The women took the bet. If they succeeded Angelhardt was to pay them a second time for everything sold at the coming annual church fair. If they failed they were to make for him a duplicate of everything sold at the fair.

After the kissing had gone on ten days the Misses Keldler and Yeast became violently ill and the trouble started.

bit. Sure, I'm that tired the station house looks like a bit out o' paradise." "Well, who the devil are you, anyway?" cried the sergeant. "Vandeville!"

"Sure, I'm an Irish lad out of a job, as I was telling ye," answered the black man. "I was born in Cork, an' had luck to the day I left it."

"Mike! Mike!" called the sergeant to Shelly, the doorman, "come here and look at him. He says he's Irish."

Mike let drive an ear splitting sentence, the darty gave a grin of delight, and at once they were at it, "jabbering away in Gaelic like long lost brothers," the sergeant says. They let the visitor sit by the fire all night for the pure pleasure of the doorman in the conversation. The black Irishman said he had been born in Cork of pure negro parents, and had acquired the Gaelic and the brogue from his neighbors.

JUDGE PREFERS HELL

Has Had Enough, Thank You, of Pennsylvania Politics

Special to The Herald. MERCER, Pa., Feb. 11.—Judge "Sam" Miller, who has just finished twenty years on the bench, has always been noted for plain speech. In a letter to a local paper today he says:

"Every now and then some cuss uses your columns to mix me up in politics. I've had all the politics I want. Once United States District Attorney George Jenks, asked about moving to Washington, said if given a choice between Washington and hell he'd take hell, and so if I am given a choice between Pennsylvania politics and hell I'll make the same choice Jenks did.

"Of course, I want some reasonable assurance that I'd be reprieved at the end of three months."

WOMAN HATER KEEPS VOWS FOR SIXTY YEARS

Special to The Herald. WEBSTER CITY, Ia., Feb. 11.—Isaac Showers religiously kept a vow for sixty years that no woman should cross his threshold or enjoy a cent of his wealth. Now that he is dead, the carefully drawn will by which he hoped to perpetuate his vow has been broken and the bulk of his estate goes to the daughter of the woman who jilted him and made him a hater of all womankind.

Showers came west years ago from New York to make his fortune, leaving behind him a girl who had promised to wait for him. When he became wealthy, as wealth was counted in those days, he journeyed back to claim his bride, only to find that she had married his brother.

Without a word he returned to Iowa. When his father died, leaving a considerable estate, he refused to take any share of it because his brother was administrator.

In his own will he left his vast acre-

What Sulphur Does For the Human Body in Health and Disease

The mention of sulphur will recall to many of us the early days when our mothers and grandmothers gave us our daily dose of sulphur and molasses every spring and fall. It was the universal spring and fall blood purifier, tonic and cure-all, and mind you, this old-fashioned remedy was not without merit.

The idea was good, but the remedy was crude and unpalatable, and a large quantity had to be taken to get any effect.

Nowadays we get all the beneficial effects of sulphur in a palatable, concentrated form, so that a single grain is far more effective than a tablespoonful of the crude sulphur.

In recent years research and experiment have proven that the best sulphur for medicinal use is that obtained from Calcium (Calcium Sulphide) and sold in drug stores under the name of Stuart's Calcium Wafers. They are small chocolate coated pellets and contain the active medicinal principle of sulphur in a highly concentrated, effective form.

Few people are aware of the value of this form of sulphur in restoring and maintaining bodily vigor and health; sulphur acts directly on the liver and excretory organs, and purifies, and enriches the blood by the prompt elimination of waste material.

Our grandmothers knew this when they dosed us with sulphur and molasses every spring and fall, but the crudity and impurity of ordinary flowers of sulphur were often worse than the disease and cannot compare with the modern concentrated preparations of sulphur, of which Stuart's Calcium Wafers is undoubtedly the best and most widely used.

They are the natural antidote for liver and kidney troubles and cure constipation and purify the blood in a way that often surprises patient and physician alike.

Dr. R. M. Wilkins, while experimenting with sulphur remedies soon found that the sulphur from Calcium was superior to any other form. He says: "For liver, kidney and blood troubles, especially when resulting from constipation or malaria, I have been surprised at the results obtained from Stuart's Calcium Wafers. In patients suffering from boils and pimples and even deep seated carbuncles, I have repeatedly seen them dry up and disappear in four or five days, leaving the skin clear and smooth. Although Stuart's Calcium Wafers is a proprietary article and sold by druggists and for that reason tabooed by many physicians, yet I know of nothing so safe and reliable for constipation, liver and kidney troubles and especially in all forms of skin diseases as this remedy."

At any rate people who are tired of pills, cathartics and so-called blood purifiers will find in Stuart's Calcium Wafers a far safer, more palatable and effective preparation.
