

JONATHAN CLUB IN NEW HOME

QUARTERS OPENED WITH A RECEPTION

Handsome Apartments in the Huntington Building Thronged With Members and Their Friends

Good fellowship, good cheer, a brilliant throng, despite the elements, and music and hospitality marked the reception given by the members of the Jonathan club last evening in their new home in the Huntington building. To stroll through the spacious rooms, which occupy the eighth and ninth stories of the big building, is to retire with the conviction that the members of the club are not only to be envied, but that they will be most luxuriously quartered in magnificent apartments.

Handsome Quarters
From the large office opens the reception room and from there the ball room. This room is artistically designed and decorated, the tinting and blending of the colors having been chosen by a local artist and the fresco work being the result of many months' labor. The ball room has a seating capacity of 1500.

A reading room furnished in the latest style, admirably equipped with inviting chairs and a large open fireplace, appeals to the comfort loving member, while a Turkish room, fitted with hangings and divans, looks equally inviting.

A polished marble curb surrounds the court, around which are built the parlors and other assembly rooms. Above this court is an immense mosaic dome of glass, thirty feet in diameter.

Billiard Rooms and Cuisine
The cuisine is perfectly appointed and the club is prepared to serve meals daily to 200 guests. Added to the other attractions are fifty sleeping apartments, each furnished in an individual style, with costly hangings, and a billiard room with six tables.

Flowers of many kinds bloom on the roof garden, which, under the direction of scenic landscape gardeners, has been admirably achieved. Palms and vines outline this pretty garden, which is supplied with seats and arbors from which to enjoy the magnificent vista the site affords. Catalina and the various beaches are plainly visible and the view magnificent.

Receiving Party
Among the members who ministered to the comfort and pleasure of the guests last evening were: Gen. M. H. Sherman, M. P. Snyder, W. P. Jeffries, F. J. Thomas, W. M. Garland, M. H. Flint, Oscar C. Mueller, T. E. Gibbon, Willis H. Boothe, Oscar Lawler, Herbert L. Cornish, Dr. H. G. Cates, George F. Patton, George J. Kuhrtz, E. S. Cobb, A. D. Schindler, R. W. Burnham.

Members of the entertainment committee included J. P. Fitzgerald, R. D. Bronson, John G. Mott, F. H. Benke, L. J. Spruance, M. C. Adler, W. E. Dunn, H. E. Huntington and George E. Pillsbury.

The invitation committee consisted of Byron Erkenbrecher, J. W. A. Off, J. H. Martin, George H. Stewart and Dr. E. A. Bryant.

LANDLADY MAY CHARGE BOARDER WITH ARSON

Declares Prisoner Got Drunk and Set Fire to Clothes Closet

If an irate landlady, who says she has borne his abuse long enough, carries out her promise to prosecute, "Jim" Morris, a big laborer who now lies in the drunks cell at the city jail, will be forced to stand trial for assault with a deadly weapon and also for arson.

The landlady of the Somerset lodging house, 214 East Fifth street, Miss Kearney, will be the prosecuting witness in each case if she makes good her assertions to the city detectives.

According to the story told by Miss Kearney yesterday, Morris has been anything but a welcome guest at the Somerset since last January.

Miss Kearney alleges that on one occasion Morris came home drunk and after terrifying the inmates of the Somerset went into his room and built a fire in the clothes closet. When Miss Kearney came in to try and stop him Morris, she says, secured a knife and chased her out of the room. The fire was put out and Morris was charged with being drunk, spending a short term in jail.

Miss Kearney decided that the best thing to do was to have Morris arrested and tried for arson, but by the time she had made up her mind to this course Morris had left the city.

Yesterday Morris came in from Poisons, where he has been stopping, and became drunk. He went to the Somerset, and as soon as she saw him Miss Kearney called for the police. Detectives Davis and Roberts were detailed on the case and arrested Morris. Pending the swearing to a complaint by Miss Kearney, charging him with arson, he will be held on suspicion.

Trial Postponed
But one civil service commissioner appeared for the trial last night of A. B. Conrad, chief deputy in the city assessor's office, charged by Oscar Nunnaley, former chief deputy, with pernicious activity in politics, so the trial was postponed until Friday night.

NEGRO ROBBED AND BEATEN

Says Assailants Struck Him on Head With Revolver

After having paid for his dinner, L. C. LeNan, a native of the West India Islands, was assaulted and robbed in an eating house on San Pedro street, between First and Second streets, shortly after noon yesterday.

LeNan appeared at police headquarters at 2 o'clock yesterday, with his face badly cut and beaten and several gashes in his head. He was accompanied by a friend, who claimed to have been a witness of the hold-up. According to LeNan, he left his work in the brick yards of the Los Angeles Brick company and started down town to buy his dinner. He was refused at several white restaurants and was finally piloted by a negro to Mrs. Martin's eating room.

While eating his dinner, LeNan says, he was insulted by several negro loafers about the place, and when he paid his bill and started to leave the restaurant, one negro seized and held him while another searched him and took away $30 in gold which belonged to the brick company and represented a part of the collections made by LeNan during the past week. After robbing the man, it is claimed the robbers beat him over the head with a revolver.

MRS. EDWARDS GRANTED FRESH CONTINUATION

Board of Pardons Will Act After the Greason Case Has Been Disposed Of

By Associated Press.
HARRISBURG, Pa., March 15.—The Pennsylvania supreme court having decided yesterday to send the case of Samuel Greason, colored, under sentence of death in Reading for the murder of John Edwards in 1901, back to the Berks county court, the board of pardons today granted a continuation in his case and also in that of Mrs. Kate Edwards, white, who is condemned to death for the same crime.

Nothing has been done looking toward a new trial for the condemned woman, and after the Greason case is disposed of by the Berks county court her application for a commutation of sentence will be acted upon by the board of pardons. That tribunal has twice refused to commute her sentence of death.

Both Greason and Mrs. Edwards have listened to the reading of the death warrant ten times, and both have been under the eyes of the death watch for two years.

RAIDED DISORDERLY HOUSE PLEA FOR BRITISH INVALIDS

Police Officers Break Up Imitation Crib District

A determined effort on the part of the police department to clear North Main street of disorderly houses resulted yesterday in the arraignment of seven women, inmates of the Santa Clara rooming house, on charges of violating city ordinances.

The arrests were made Monday night by Officers Walsh, McNamara and Redmond. For some time past complaints have been made of the boisterous conduct of the inmates of the house, and when the raid was made the women were in a state of hilarity.

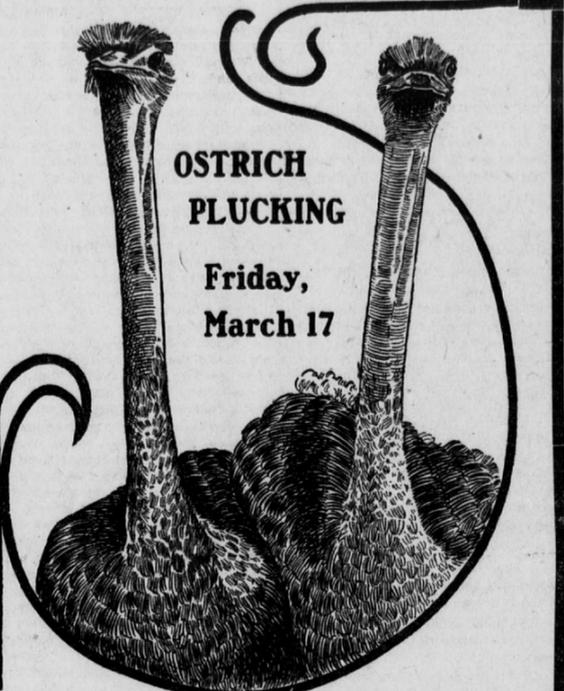

When the trial of the women was held yesterday afternoon, officers testified that all the defendants were formerly residents of the crib district and had simply turned the upper story of the house into a crib house. The women were fined $40 each, with a warning that if they ever appeared in police court again they would be committed to jail.

England's Vice Consul Would Endow Bed in Local Hospital

British Vice-Consul C. White Mortimer has sent out a plea for $5000 with which to found a bed in the Good Samaritan hospital for persons of British birth who are sick and in want. Mr. Mortimer says that many pitiful cases are brought to his attention where English people come to Southern California seeking health, many of them too late, and because of lack of resources die miserable deaths. He believes that in many instances lives could be saved if the proper care and attention could be given.

The British vice-consul proposes that the title to the bed be vested in himself and in his successors in office, and that any one subscribing $500 or more toward the purchase money will be given the right of nomination to the bed for thirty days of each year.

Unless a woman is capable of earning at least $1 a day she has no business marrying a man to reform him.

What an Investment Of Only 2c Will Do

It will bring you our proof and prospectus of the most fabulous profit, in an industrial enterprise, that is open for a limited number of investors. If you act quickly you can get in on this. Write—or call—today.

In our booklet we prove to you that an investment in the White Sands Co. of $20 cash—your contract to pay $60 in $5 monthly installments, in two years' time will be worth $1250.

This White Sands Co. is taking up under the mining act the entire deposit known as the White Sands Hills in Otero County, New Mexico, and your investment in the company is to cover the cost of an entry or claim which, taken in your name, becomes a part of this company's possessions.

By our plan we eliminate the big promoters' interests so that investors get their pro rata interest in the whole proposition.

From exhaustive research and experiment we have proven the high value of these sands in making various building materials and have a small plant on the ground which has made up material that has undergone actual test in building.

It is your folly and negligence if you do not take advantage of the best paying opportunity offered in the West.
