Administration

PASADENA, March 27.—W. W. Freeman, chief of the Pasadena police department since May 1, 1901, tendered his resignation this afternoon at the meeting of the board of city commissioners. It was accepted and Capt. Walter C. Austin named as acting chief until May 1, 1905, when the present administration vacates office. In explanation of his resignation, Mr. Freeman said that he could not do justice to his position if his hands were tied by the recent construction given the law by the city attorney in regard to expenses incurred in the department in following up cases.

There is considerable discussion as to whom should name the members of the new water board. It looks at present as if Mayor Vedder would not appoint the board, as he has but five weeks more of official life, the new administration coming into power the first Monday of May.

Tonight Dr. Rowland said there was some concussion of the brain and a severe scalp wound, but that the boy was resting comfortably.

Mr. Thomas George, a merchant at Mt. Elgin, Ontario, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada, and I sell as much of it as I do of all other lines. I have on my shelves sold under guarantee, I have not had one returned. A state banquet, for which 250 covers were laid, was given afterward at the Adajda palace, followed by the concert. Tonight the city was illuminated and bands were playing in the streets.

MRS. REED'S CHARITY BEQUESTS CONTESTED

Heirs Seek to Have the Will of Los Angeles Philanthropist Probated in California

By Associated Press.
PORTLAND, Ore., March 27.—The contest of the Amanda Reed will commences in the county court here, before Judge Webster, tomorrow morning. The estate is valued at about a million dollars.

Mrs. Reed was formerly a resident of Portland, but died in Los Angeles. Her will, which left large sums to charity, and especially to the Reed Institute of Science, to be hereafter founded, was admitted to probate in this county.

The heirs have brought suit to have the will probated in California, as the laws of that state prohibit the bequeathing to charity of more than one-third of the property any person owns at death. The executors of the will wish to have it admitted to probate here in solemn form, and Judge Webster has set tomorrow for the heirs to show cause why this should not be done.

CARNEGIE IN A 'NEW BUSINESS'

COLLEGES HIS SPECIALTY NOW, HE SAYS

Delivers an Address to the Stevens Institute Alumni, in Which He Criticizes the Larger Institutions

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, March 27.—Andrew Carnegie was the guest of honor at the annual dinner of the alumni of Stevens Institute at the Hotel Astoria tonight. President Alexander C. Humphreys of Stevens Institute announced that Mr. Carnegie, in addition to the $290,000 which he has already given to the institute, would give $50,000 more, to which he himself would add $50,000 when the alumni raised another $100,000.

Mr. Carnegie said in part: "I want to tell you gentlemen, that your career is much higher than a speculative one. Stock gambling is not a business; it is a mere parasite on business.

"If I had a son I should prefer to have him enter upon a professional career such as you choose rather than any other. I have been looking largely into small colleges of late and I have entered into the college business, as I not long ago entered into the library business.

"I did a riproaring business at the library stand, but I could look ahead and see the demand for libraries slacken. My secretary says that the demand is down to one library a day. I think a young man who goes to a small college receives a better education than at a larger one. I like to see men not excelling in football or things pertaining to the foot, but excelling in head expansion. Sport is too generally taking the place of knowledge at the big colleges.

"Since I have gone into the new business there has been a great boom. Within the past few days I have received more than 100 applications for the material I am sending to small colleges. Business, gentlemen, is promising."

After the departure of this battalion the total strength of the marine battalion left on the Isthmus will not exceed 100. FEARED BURGLARS AND BEGAN A FUSILLADE

Thinking that burglars were about to enter his house Dieterich Bruns, a Teuton who is not very familiar with the customs as they prevail in Los Angeles, began "shooting up" the neighborhood at 135 Hewitt street about 10 o'clock last night and for a time it appeared to those living in that vicinity that a miniature Russian-Japanese war had broken out.

Brun had already retired when he fancied he heard a noise of someone entering his abode and without further thought he threw open a front window and began to shoot. A passer-by was the first thing the irate German spied and at him he took two shots. The stranger quickly got behind the friendly shelter of a near-by building and remained there while Bruns emptied his revolver at a passing street car conductor.

Both the men at whom Bruns aimed were unhurt, but were badly scared. They reported to the policeman on the beat that an attempt had been made by a crazy man to assassinate them, but when the officer investigated he found Bruns badly frightened, fearing burglars. No arrest was made.

FIREMAN HELD FOR ARSON

Said to Have Started Fires for Sake of Fighting Them

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, March 27.—After a long investigation into a series of incendiary fires the police of Bayonne, N. J., have arrested James McInerny, 22 years old, of Bayonne, N. J. McInerny has a record of 100 per cent for attendance at alarms and frequently when his fellow members reached the engine house in response to an alarm they found him with the horses hitched and ready.

For more than six months fires in the vicinity of McInerny's district have been numerous and he is charged by the police with having caused fifteen of them, none entailing much loss, however, owing to the quickness of the department in reaching the scene.
