Mr. Erwin has 2000 stereopticons from which to make selections for his lectures.

MARRIED 13 DAYS NOW DIVORCED

WIFE SAYS HUSBAND TOOK ALL HER EARNINGS

MRS. BOCOCK TELLS TROUBLE

Relates to the Court That She Thought She Had Wedded a Young Virginia Lawyer, but Was Badly Deceived

Thirteen days after the marriage, according to Mrs. Bocock, her young husband absconded with her hard earned savings, and yesterday she pleaded with Judge Smith in the superior court to free her from the matrimonial compact existing between herself and John F. Bocock, whose present residence is sought after but still remains an unknown quantity.

When Mrs. Bocock married she thought she had won the love of John Baltimore Flood, a young Virginia lawyer, but since the desertion she has discovered that in reality she wedded John F. Bocock.

The plaintiff told the court that she had known her husband for fifteen years prior to the marriage in December, 1901, and at that time he was a prominent practitioner at the bar of Virginia.

The plaintiff, it appears, possessed about $1200 in ready cash, and it required but thirteen days for her husband to annex this amount to his person.

Bocock or Flood was employed for some time by a street railway company in Los Angeles.

A police official corroborated Mrs. Bocock's story and the divorce was granted.

DECIDES AGAINST SLUGGING

Court Holds Boxing Matches Are Contrary to Matrimonial Rules

When Lydia Coleman, a negress, did not feel so inclined she refused to cook for her husband's boarders, whereupon, it was charged, he threatened to put her to sleep forever, and yesterday she asked Judge Gibbs in the superior court to free her from the matrimonial bonds existing between herself and John W. Coleman.

According to the description furnished to the court, it appears that Coleman measures six feet and three inches, and his avoirdupois is estimated in the neighborhood of about 225 pounds.

Coleman is a constituent part of the local Republican organization, and on several occasions he has served in the capacity of doorkeeper in the county conventions of his party.

From the story told to the court by the plaintiff it appears that the married life of the couple has been one long and interesting slugging match, in which the masculine side of the alliance finally won out.

Judge Gibbs held that slugging was contrary to the customary matrimonial rules and the divorce went to the plaintiff on a foul.

HIS $25,000 DREAM IS RUDELY INTERRUPTED

Race Horse Owner's Suit for Malicious Prosecution Meets With Sudden Postponement

P. J. Gorman's $25,000 dream was rudely interrupted yesterday by Judge Conroy in the superior court and before he can acquire that goodly sum from J. R. Costen on the score of malicious prosecution it will be necessary for him to file a new complaint.

Gorman is the horseman who was ruled off the turf during the recent racing season, but his troubles came to a climax about two weeks ago when he was arrested on a criminal charge arising from his participation in the execution of a chattel mortgage.

His arrest was the result of an alleged violation of the terms of a mortgage, the instrument having been executed by Gorman and Isaac Bauer to J. R. Costen.

It was claimed that Gorman disposed of two animals, known as Fairlight and Trovator, which were included among those which made up his stable at Ascot park.

Justice Pierce discharged Gorman at the close of his preliminary examination, it having been shown that the horses were sold with the consent and knowledge of the parties concerned.

In discharging the defendant the court took occasion to reprimand the prosecuting witness and a few minutes later Gorman's attorney filed suit against Costen for $25,000.

On motion of Costen's attorney Justice Pierce's denunciation was expunged from the complaint, and the document was otherwise mutilated at the request of Costen's attorney.

FALLING HAIR STOPPED

Baldness Cured by Destroying the Parasitic Germ That Causes It

Baldness follows falling hair; falling hair follows dandruff, and dandruff is the result of a germ digging its way into the scalp to the root of the hair where it saps the vitality of the hair. To destroy that germ is to prevent as well as cure dandruff, falling hair, and, lastly, baldness. There is only one preparation known to date, Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new, scientific discovery. Wherever it has been tried it has proven wonderfully successful. It can't be otherwise, because it utterly destroys the dandruff germ. "You destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Very Bad Cough Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

For three months Mr. Gail Woodworth of Stevens Point, Wis., was troubled with a very bad cough. He doctored continually, but got no permanent relief until he used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which effected a cure. A great many others have had a like experience. Most cough medicines are merely palliative—that is, they give only temporary relief—while Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures the disease that causes the coughing and effects a permanent cure. No one can afford to neglect a cough, for a persistent cough is the first symptom of consumption, the most fatal of all diseases. This remedy is for sale by all leading druggists.

GUARD CHILDREN FROM STRANGER

PUPILS OF CAMBRIA STREET SCHOOL PURSUED

MOTHERS MUCH ALARMED

Police Aid is Asked by the Principal, Who Reports that the Children are in Much Danger

Children of Cambria Street school have been badly frightened by a strange man who has been following and annoying some of the little girls of the lower grades, and the affair has created a stir in the neighborhood which resulted in a request for aid from the police department.

On Thursday one of the children came running to the principal and told him that there was "a man out there who was talking to some of the girls and would not go away."

The child seemed to be excited and Principal Emery went to investigate. He found a group of other children in a similar state of excitement, but failed to learn much by questioning the man.

"I asked him," said Mr. Emery, "if he wanted to see any particular child and he answered that they were all his children. I judged from his actions that he must be a little bit wrong in his head. He went away and we telephoned for a policeman, but when he arrived no trace could be found of the man."

The mothers were much disturbed by the occurrence and some of them expressed the opinion that there was more at the bottom of it than had been made known. None of the younger children was allowed to go to school alone yesterday and parents personally escorted the little ones.

SAYS "SMUGGLED LACE" IS OF INFERIOR QUALITY

Merchants and Manufacturers Send Out Warning Against Peddlers

The board of directors of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association took action yesterday at their meeting warning the public generally against patronizing certain peddlers who are visiting the residence portions of the city offering for sale so-called imported linen and alleged handmade lace that they represent has been smuggled over the line from Mexico. The linen is pronounced by the board to be only mercerized cotton and the lace the ordinary article.

The board appropriated $50 to the state fund to assist in sustaining the anti-trading stamp law passed by the last legislature. The stamp dealers have determined to make a test case and all associations in the state that fought for the enactment of the law are united in the effort to have the law sustained.

The following were admitted as members of the association: The Los Angeles Wine company, the Mathie Brewing company, A. Fosgate, the Commercial Printing company and A. Foix.
