SISTERS' DEVOTION APPARENT IN WILLS

EACH LEAVES PROPERTY TO THE OTHER

DIE ALMOST SIMULTANEOUSLY

Mrs. S. C. Burleigh Leaves Property to Relative, and Would Have Received Bequest Herself Had She Lived

The devotion of two sisters who throughout their lives were in constant communication with each other although living at the extreme opposite points of the United States was brought to light yesterday in the filing of the order for administration in the will of the late Mrs. S. C. Burleigh. Mrs. Burleigh was born in Massachusetts but in her early youth came to live in California while her sister remained in the east. At intervals the sisters crossed the continent on visits but these were so costly and troublesome that they were gradually abolished and daily letters written by the sisters formed the method of communication.

Both suffered grief at nearly the same time in the death of their husbands and Mrs. Burleigh, being childless, decided to give every thing she had to her sister at her death.

Through years of hard work, Mrs. Burleigh amassed about $600 and feeling that her life was nearing a close she made her will, deeding all her property to her sister. At the same time the sister, Mrs. Wentrovill of 237 Emerson street, Melrose, Massachusetts, was making a will providing for the care of Mrs. Burleigh. Shortly after the wills had been drawn Mrs. Wentrovill died, on September 16. Mrs. Burleigh was ill at the time and the news of her sister's death reached Los Angeles on October 1, only a few hours after the death of Mrs. Burleigh.

Mrs. Burleigh's property will be turned over to the two daughters of Mrs. Wentrovill.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best and Most Popular

"Mothers buy it for croupy children, railroad men buy it for severe coughs and elderly people buy it for la grippe," say Moore Bros., Eldon, Iowa. "We sell more Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than any other kind. It seems to have taken the lead over several other good brands." There is no question but this medicine is the best that can be procured for coughs and colds, whether it be a child or an adult that is afflicted. It always cures and cures quickly. Sold by all leading druggists.
