

SAN BERNARDINO WELCOMES GUESTS CLUB WOMEN GATHER FOR CONVENTION ALL SOUTH IS REPRESENTED

Mrs. J. D. Gibbs of Los Angeles Presides Over Sessions, Which Are Attended by Large Crowds

Special to The Herald. SAN BERNARDINO, May 2.—Twice in the history of the Women's Parliament of Southern California it has been the guest of the women of San Bernardino.

The twenty-ninth semi-annual session that opened in the First Methodist church, Tuesday morning, promises to be both as pleasant and profitable as the one held some years ago.

Delegates on all trains were met by a committee of ladies and escorted to the church, most of the larger towns in Southern California being represented.

The Auditorium is lavishly decorated with roses of every hue and everything is being done by the women of San Bernardino to make their guests feel at home.

Mrs. Gibbs Presides Despite threatening weather and chill air, that sent an occasional snowflake flying, there was a large audience assembled when the president, Mrs. J. D. Gibbs, called the morning session to order.

A profitable hour was spent listening to the reports of delegates from clubs in the various towns. Usually this is not a very entertaining feature of the meeting as there is a similarity, not to say monotony, in the work of the average literary club, but this year exceptional interest was given from the fact that most of the larger towns are erecting clubhouses, some just completing them and others preparing plans to build.

Pomona is the proud possessor of a club home for women upon which the finishing touches are being made and the members are intending to celebrate the event by unfurling Old Glory from a staff, on the one hundred and twenty-eighth anniversary of the adoption of the American flag.

After a vocal solo, Gounod's "Sing, Smile, Slumber," by Miss Spring of Colton, the session adjourned. Afternoon Session A vocal solo, by Miss Spring, finely executed was the first number on the program of the afternoon.

Mrs. D. G. Stevens, the founder and first president of the organization gave a most practical and helpful paper entitled, "How to Get the Most Out of the Parliament." Mrs. Stevens is noted for her executive ability and knowledge of parliamentary law and it would naturally follow that the points most emphasized would be promptness in officers and members in being in their seats when the president's gavel falls.

After a piano solo, "Recollections of Home," by Mrs. W. T. Quirk, Miss Clara E. Whitcomb of the Redlands Contemporary club read a paper on the "Etiquette of Assemblies." Mrs. Whitcomb treated the subject from the standpoint of the local club and courteous treatment of members to each other.

Adulteration of food was the subject of a paper by Mrs. O. Shepard Barum of Los Angeles, followed by a demonstration of food adulteration by Mrs. May A. English of the State Normal school, Los Angeles.

An orchestra selection from Tannhauser opened the evening session, followed by a select reading by Mrs. W. D. Turner, president of the Pasadena Shakespeare club.

It is not often that men journey so far to speak before a body of women, for the pure love of the cause, as did Charles Cassat Davis, in presenting the subject of "Municipal Art." A spirited discussion of the subject followed, participated in by Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles of Los Angeles, president of the state federation of women's clubs; Mayor J. J. Sues of Redlands, Hon. H. M. Barton of San Bernardino, Mrs. Florence Collins Porter of South Pasadena, Judge J. F. Oster of San Bernardino.

WORKMEN ARE IN BITTEREST MOOD

TROOPS PATROL THE STREETS OF WARSAW

REPRISALS ARE ANTICIPATED

Factory Workers Walk Out but the Public Is Too Exhausted to Wish for Renewal of General Strike

By Associated Press.

WARSAW, May 2.—The May day death toll totaled sixty-two, including ten persons who died in the hospitals during the night. Probably 200 were wounded.

Crowds gathered at the Tenth district police station this morning, where thirty victims, men and women, and three children, were awaiting identification.

Some minor disturbances occurred today in different sections of the city, but no casualties have yet been reported.

All day long infantry and cavalry patrolled the streets, which were crowded with people who did not spare their criticism of what was generally termed unnecessary slaughter. The popular irritation could not be concealed. The soldiers evidently were nervous, and open outbreaks resulting in a repetition of yesterday's terrible scenes were only averted by the evident desire of the authorities to prevent a clash, coupled with the fear inspired by the soldiers' bullets. The population is most bitter against the military, and the government officials expect many attempts at revenge upon the officers commanding the troops, all of whom are known.

The Polish press is silent on the subject of yesterday's happenings. The official Russian paper prints a short and entirely inaccurate report. The governor general of Warsaw is said to be greatly upset by the turn of affairs.

Will Celebrate Anniversary

The nationalists have arranged the usual demands for tomorrow, the 14th anniversary of the proclamation of the Polish constitution, and disturbances are highly probable. The workmen are in an ugly and uncertain mood. The workmen in all the factories struck today, and great efforts are being made to bring about a general strike, but this is not likely to be successful. The people have not yet recovered from the exhaustion and losses resulting from the last strike.

Reports conflict regarding the beginning of yesterday's encounter in Jerusalem street. According to the most generally accepted version the authorities had forbidden workmen marching in procession to carry red flags, but the workmen decided to ignore the order. When the procession reached Jerusalem street the police ordered the workmen to stop, but they refused to do so, and a police officer thereupon fired a revolver, giving a signal for the infantry to fire. It appears that in other cases the demonstrators were the aggressors, but that in this instance the soldiers fired first.

Strikes Rapidly Spreading

The people are deeply exasperated over the sanguinary results of yesterday's encounters. The strikes inaugurated on a large scale here, at Lodz and other cities are rapidly spreading, and 75,000 persons are out on strike in Lodz. Cossacks are patrolling the streets of Warsaw by companies, on account of the danger to smaller detachments.

A great crowd which gathered today in front of the police station to which the corpses of those killed on Monday had been taken and demanded the bodies of their dead, was dispersed by Cossacks.

According to an official statement, the dead, not including those of the wounded, who died in hospitals, numbered thirty-one. The majority of the dead were working people.

AUTHORITIES COMPLACENT

Consider Uprisings in Poland Less Serious Than Was Expected

By Associated Press.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 2.—Bad as was the rioting at Warsaw, Lodz, Kalisz and other places in Poland yesterday and venous as was the hostility everywhere displayed against the police and the Russian authorities, the uprising was far less formidable and the results less bloody than anticipated. The authorities had given due warning of their intention to permit no demonstrations and the troops quelled disturbances ruthlessly.

All reports, however, indicate that the demonstrators were comparatively few in number, and that the vast bulk of the population, fearing trouble, remained indoors. Where trouble occurred the crowds were armed with bombs and revolvers. In Warsaw a red flag procession was dispersed by two volleys. Cossacks and Uhlans then charged and cut down the people in the streets, drove them into courtyards and beat them with sabers and whips in the cruel fashion peculiar to these wild horsemen of the steppes. About a hundred persons were killed or seriously wounded, according to the reports, women and even children sharing the fate of the men.

Attack the Police

At Lodz workmen attacked the police with bombs and were charged by dragoons and Uhlans, who cut off the bomb throwers, drove them into a house, surrounded it and then fired upon those inside, killing three persons and wounding many.

According to the reports which have reached St. Petersburg from Kalisz the workmen there for a time had the upper hand of the police and gendarmes, disarming and stoning them until rescued by a squadron of cavalry.

During service in a church here yesterday, the congregation began singing patriotic songs, whereupon soldiers and police entered the building and attacked the people, wounding many of them. A free fight ensued during which weapons were wrested from the police, shots were exchanged and stones were thrown. A dragoon, a woman and man were killed inside the church. A squadron of cavalry was summoned and dispersed the crowds. The church was closed for re-consecration.

Emperor's Grant of Freedom of Religion Well Received

By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, May 2.—From all parts of the empire come reports of the extreme satisfaction caused by the emperor's grant of freedom of religion, especially as it is regarded as being the first practical evidence that the reforms referred to in the imperial manifesto of December 25 will be carried out.

Expert calculations show that the present debts by the recent imperial decree amount to about $45,000,000.

and their allies were firmly bound together in the fight for supremacy against the teamsters.

The Team Owners' association, which employs none but union teamsters, flatly refused this afternoon to make deliveries to any of the firms now involved in the strike when ordered to do so by the employers' association. When the employers received this ultimatum they notified the team owners that unless they recognized the request that no discrimination be made in deliveries an effort would be made to have all existing contracts between the Team Owners and the business houses and the railroads cancelled. The railroad men, contrary to the hopes of the members of the Employers' association, did not exert the influence on the Team Owners that was expected. They took practically the same stand, declaring that the fight was something into which the railroads did not purpose to enter; that they had contracts with the Team Owners; that these contracts were at present being fulfilled to their entire satisfaction, and they could see no reason why the railroads should be dragged into the struggle.

The Commission Team Owners and the Lake Transportation Owners' association have also taken a similar stand to that of the Chicago Team Owners' association.

One Thousand More Policemen One thousand more will be added to the police force tomorrow and will be put on strike duty as rapidly as they are needed. Nine hundred of them will be placed on State street alone.

Federal Judge C. C. Kohlsaat, at the request of attorneys representing seven express companies, today issued a temporary injunction restraining all persons from interfering with the wagons of the petitioners or the men employed upon them.

The fighting today in the streets was even more fierce and savage than that of yesterday. The strikers and their sympathizers attacked the non-union men at every opportunity, assailing them with bricks, stones, clubs, knives and any offensive weapon upon which they could lay their hands. The fighting occurred in the heart of the business section of the city, men being shot down within 200 feet of the retail store of Marshall Fields & Company and clubbed nearly to death at the corner of the Auditorium hotel, in plain view of hundreds of ladies, who were compelled to run from the mob to save their own lives. In many instances men walking along the streets who had no active connection whatever with the strike were assaulted by hoodlums, who beat them first and then later accused them of being strikebreakers.

Minister Is Attacked

A notable instance of this kind was that of Rev. W. K. Wheeler, pastor of the Ninth Presbyterian church, who, while passing the corner of Desplains and Adams streets on his way to the Pennsylvania station, was attacked by three men who knocked him down and beat him unmercifully, until the timely arrival of the police saved him from critical injury. Mr. Wheeler managed to hold one of his assailants until the police could arrest him.

William Miles, a colored waiter, while at work in a lunch room at Adams and Sangamon streets, half a mile from any former scene of rioting during the strike, was accused of being a strike breaker, was pounced on the head with a billy, knocked down and trampled on. Miles was removed to the hospital, where his injuries were pronounced severe.

As far as known, but one man was killed during the day. The list of injured is much greater than that which it is possible to obtain. In many cases the non-union men swung their clubs with great effect, knocking men from their wagons headlong into the street; in other instances, when assailed by mobs, they fired point blank into the crowds and it is difficult to see how the members of the mob could escape many broken heads or how the bullets fired should have gone wild.

Victims of Strikers

The dead: CHARLES BEARD, struck on the forehead in the fight near the Auditorium hotel. He died of a fractured skull at Mercy hospital, where he had been taken.

The injured: Bruno Germain, New York city, head cut.

Charles Moody, beaten on the head with canes by strikers.

John Blum, non-union driver, struck in the side with a brick; one rib broken.

William Miles, negro waiter, head cut with billy and trampled on.

Police Sergeant Barron, thrown from patrol wagon while responding to riot call; leg badly wrenched.

Martin Garray, non-union man, head badly cut by bills in the hands of strikers.

W. N. Brown, non-union teamster, struck by bucket of cement thrown from the twelfth story of building at Adams and State streets; leg broken.

Policeman Edward Campion, struck on head with a brick; severely cut.

Rev. W. K. Wheeler, beaten by strikers; face and head cut.

Henry Shultz, shot in left side by non-union teamster; not serious.

Daniel Cohen, non-union man, struck on head with a club.

A. B. Smith, non-union man, face cut with a stone.

Frank Emerson, non-union man, right hand smashed by heavy stone.

James Smith, non-union man, struck in the back with a stone; injuries severe.

Albert McVain, shot in the back, not expected to live.

L. Dowell, shot in left hip.

J. Erickson, shot in right arm above elbow.

Louis Hisman, negro, struck on head with a brick.

William Davis, negro, non-union driver; head cut.

Policeman Guy Dittinger, knocked down with a revolver and half of his teeth kicked out. He was knocked down by a striker.

Leonard Webber, struck in the head by a flying bullet; slightly injured.

George Jordan, colored, non-union man, badly beaten by a mob at State street and Peck court.

Tony Renberg, union teamster, taken for non-union man, struck on head with stone and knocked insensible; serious.

Andrew Scott, colored non-union driver, head cut.

William Riggs, negro non-union driver, struck in head.

Frank Curry, leader of non-union men, struck in head by a stone while conducting wagons along Franklin street.

A. S. Utley, floor manager for Montgomery Ward & Co., attacked by slugs on Oakwood avenue.

Thugs Had Followed Him

Mr. Utley, who has been acting in the interests of Montgomery Ward & Co., since the beginning of the strike, was attacked by three men who he thinks have been following him for several days, while passing a vacant lot on Oakwood avenue between Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth streets. The men knocked him down and kicked him in a terrific manner about the head and face. He knocked one of them down with a billy and the others ran. Thinking he had killed his assailant, Utley went to call an ambulance, but when it arrived the man had either recovered and gone away or had been carried off by his companions.

Although it was announced last night that the teams of the express companies and of the Employers' association would be handled by men armed with rifles today nothing of the kind was attempted, save in the case of the fifteen drivers employed by the Scott Transfer company. Mayor Dunne and Chief of Police O'Neill made every effort to prevent the carrying of rifles and Superintendent Reid of the Teaming association informed them that he had not contemplated arming his men as stated. The Scott men carried rifles throughout the day and none of them was molested.

Coal Famine Threatened

The need of coal is rapidly developing into one of the most important factors of the teamsters' strike. With the exception of Marshall Field & company and one or two other houses the supply of fuel on hand in State street averaged from two to four days. Marshall Field & company have coal for two weeks or more.

It is admitted by the coal dealers, who are even more reticent than the department store managers, that the crisis in the fuel situation will come today or tomorrow.

The perilousness of the situation was emphasized by John C. Fetzer, receiver for the Union Traction company who said: "In several of our stations, unless we get coal in twenty-four hours we will have to close down. Of course we will try every possible scheme first."

Trouble Feared From Striking Brick-yard Employes in Poughkeepsie

By Associated Press. POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., May 2.—The 1200 striking brickyard employes, mostly foreigners, made another demonstration today, marching from Duchess Junction to Chelsea on the New York Central tracks armed with clubs and preventing all work from being resumed at thirteen yards in the district. The manufacturers held a meeting today and decided not to grant the demands of the attackers and called upon the sheriff to furnish deputies when an attempt should be made to resume work. Deputies were sent to the brick yard district today to arrest the leaders of the strike.

The strikers are in an ugly mood and trouble is feared.
